WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 16, 1899

Not satisfied with persecuting Dreyfus unmercifully and unjustly his enemies undertook to hinder his defense by shooting one of his counsel on Monday morning. But the scandalous trial is in progress on the other side of the ocean, and whatever may be said about it this far away will have no effect. But Americans feel an interest in the trial and think that Dreyfus should have his liberty.

The Chicago Tribune, having kept a record of crime for ten years declares that the saloon business of the United States is directly chargeable with a total of 53,436 murders during that time.

The superintendent of the Northampton convict farm has brought snif against the Raleigh News and Observer because that paper told of his cruelty to the convicts.

The Mayor of Atlanta has promised the city council to sober up and stay sober, or else resign at the next offense.

New Yorkers are trying to get up a Van Wyck boom for President. But Bryan is the man.

Justice to the Jew.

Rev. Madison C. Peters, pastor of the Bloomingdale church in New York, has just performed a good service for Israel and one that will be generally commended by the people of the country, in the publication of a book called "Justice to the Jew." The book is intended to show the part the Jews have taken in American history—and Dr. Peters proves that it is the part of the patriot—but the most interesting of the extracts which we have seen is that of the part played by men of Jewish race in fighting the battles of the republic, beginning with the Revolutionary war and coming down to the war with Spain. The list is a long one; and it bears out to the full contention of the author that in the only country which has ever received the Jew with willing and extended arms he has shown his gratitude in the most convincing manner by giving freely of his blood and treasure to make America free and great.

The participation of the Jew in the Philadelphia convention of 1765, which declared independence is dwelt upon, and the fact is brought out that in 1769 one of the first corps of volunteers was raised in Charleston, S. C., for the purpose of fighting Great Britain. This was composed almost exclusively of Jews, and it distinguished itself under General Moultrie, at Beaufort. A New York Jew, Haym Solomon, gave $600,000 for the use of the continental congress. Manuel Mordecai Noah, of South Carolina was on General Washington's staff, and gave $100,000 of his private fortune to the cause. Dr. Peters reviews the services of the Jews in the war of 1812 and in the war with Mexico, and coming down to the civil war, speaks of their services on the Northern side, and says:

It is computed that 7,884 Jews served in the war; 1,996 from New York, 1,004 from Ohio, 527 from Pennsylvania, among the rest.

The Observer is not writing from the book, but from newspaper reviews of it, and is unable to say if Dr. Peters has also given the Southern Jew credit for the part he took in defence of the South. Certainly if his book, "Justice to the Jew," is intended to be accurate and fair, he should have done so, for there were Jews who distinguished themselves in the South as well as in the North. No book that slights these patriot Jews of the South can do justice to the Jew in American history.

Dr. Peters proves that the Jew has been a patriot upon all occasions, and according to his estimate more than 4,000 Jews served against Spain, the unusual number being brought out by the infamous treatment formerly meted out to the Jews in that unhappy kingdom. There were seven Jews in the Rough Riders, one of them a lieutenant; ten in the Astor battery, and 100 in the First California. The record is an extensive and noble one, and proves that the Jew is both a patriot and a soldier.—Charlotte Observer.

Scandal Upon Scandal.

A great many people thought last year that the Democratic charges of peculation and extravagance against the fusion State administration were for political effect only, but they were true, yet not half the truth was told. The public remembers what outrageous scandals have developed in connection with the conduct of the penitentiary, and enough has been previously published with reference to the Agricultural Department to prepare the public in a measure for what was to be seen in yesterday's paper. This, let it be understood, is not a Democratic showing, but is from the mouths and books of the fusionists themselves. And what a showing! "The committee had discovered from the books that between June 15th last and June 15th of this year, the inspection of fertilizers cost $15,794, while during the previous twelve months it had cost only $5,344." The greater part of this sum was spent between the time the result of the last election was known and the time of retirement of the fusionists from office. As our Raleigh correspondent tersely put it, "they were pulling the Agricultural Department as a pig would a teat."

The worst individual case, however, is that of J. C. L. Harris. As president of the Board of Agriculture he received $4 per diem, and in addition to this, $2 per diem for expenses, although he lives at Raleigh. He received $150 for preparing the report of the board to the Legislature, though that should have been a part of his regular duties or those of the secretary, to be discharged without extra compensation. He received $250 annually as counsel fee, and $2,000 for one speech before the Supreme Court of the United States though Busbee & Busbee had prepared the brief, the cost of which went into their annual bill of $250 for fees, and Harris' only part in the transaction was the making of the speech.

These are, in brief, the principal facts developed in the investigation of Tuesday, by the mouth of ex-Secretary Ramsey, fusionist, and by the fusionist books, kept by him or some one else of the crowd. It is a disgraceful record, and yet The Raleigh News and Observer says that on Tuesday was taken "only a very small bite at the cherry." If the Democratic party had ever made any such record in any department of government, we should have considered that it had betrayed its trust to the people and was disgraced forever. It never did so; it never misappropriated a dollar of the people's money. But it was not good enough for them and they would have fusion. It is to be hoped that they have had enough of it.—Charlotte Observer.

WINE OF CARDUI

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

has demonstrated ten thousand times that it is almost infallible

FOR WOMAN'S PECULIAR WEAKNESSES,

irregularities and derangements. It has become the leading remedy for this class of troubles. It exerts a wonderfully healing, strengthening and soothing influence upon the menstrual organs. It cures "whites" and falling of the womb. It stops flooding and relieves suppressed and painful menstruation. For Change of Life it is the best medicine made. It is beneficial during pregnancy, and helps to bring children into homes barren for years. It invigorates, stimulates, strengthens the whole system. This great remedy is offered to all afflicted women. Why will any woman suffer another minute with certain relief within reach? Wine of Cardui only costs $1.00 per bottle at your drug store.

For advice, in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Rev. J. W. SMITH, Camden, S. C., says: "My wife used Wine of Cardui at home for falling of the womb and it entirely cured her."

We are having lots of sickness now.

An opera house is being built in town.

The cotton crop is badly damaged by the drought.

Mrs. Sidonia Weyher, of Kinston, is visiting Mrs. E. S. Laughinghouse.

An ice cream supper is to be given next Friday night by the Junior Guild at Mr. W. J. Laughinghouse's. Everybody cordially invited. Will cost nothing to get in.

Special Meeting.

Every member of the Baptist church, male and female, is requested to be present tomorrow night at the prayer meeting service. Instead of the regular prayer meeting a business meeting will be held in which every member of the church is vitally interested. When you read this request ask some one who will probably not see it to come. It is important for all the members to attend this meeting and it is earnestly requested that they do so.

Here's the Talk.

Ola Forbes is doing some plain talking in our advertising columns for the Planters Warehouse, and he states three facts that carry weight with them. Being sole owner he has no partner to divide with, he has no rents to pay, and he is going to put no drummers in the country. The money thus saved will enable him to handle your tobacco to better advantage and get you better prices for every load sold at the Planter's Warehouse.
