A BAD ACCIDENT.

Town Creek Bridge Collapses.

Special to Reflector.

Tarboro, N. C., Sept. 19.—Monday afternoon the bridge over Town Creek near Old Sparta, fell in with the wagons carrying the baggage belonging to the employes of the county road machine. Five horses were injured, one wagon was broken to pieces and a negro driver was stunned. There were two wagons on the bridge, and when the front wagon was just over the stream where the water is about 7 feet deep, a capsill broke and precipitated the wagon, team and driver into the water below. The team to the other wagon also fell in, but by some means broke loose from the vehicle which remained standing on the bridge.

One driver was rendered unconscious and would have drowned had not the others pulled him out. The leg of one horse was broken and all the others badly hurt. The tents, trunks, &c. of the employes went to the bottom of the creek and remained there until fished out today.

The county sustains a loss of about $700 by the accident. Steps have been taken to repair the bridge.

Dreyfus Pardoned.

Special to Reflector.

Paris, Sept. 19.—The Council of Ministers decided today to pardon Dreyfus, the pardon to be effective shortly. Dreyfus relinquished his appeal for reversal of judgment. He will probably be sent abroad to avoid a demonstration.

Stopped By Injunction.

Special to Reflector.

Tarboro, N. C., Sept. 19.—Judge Simonton has granted to the American Pipe Company a temporary injunction against the municipal authorities restraining them from further proceeding in the establishment of another water system here. The sinking of deep wells has been suspended, the injunction being in effect until the hearing takes place in Raleigh on Dec. 7th.

Gen. Joe Wheeler

Is now taking in the situation around Manila. Now let Uncle Sam relieve Otis and give the Old Buttermilk Ranger a half chance and you'll very soon hear the insurgents calling for the calf rope. The name Buttermilk Ranger was given to our cavalry during the '60s. An army to be victorious must have confidence in their leader. Take the record of General Jackson. Why the soldiers under him knew no such thing as defeat, and to just say that Jackson's in the rear was enough to throw consternation in the camp of the enemy. Confidence is just as important in the commercial world, and the mere mention of the name creates a panic in the mercantile arena. We cannot understand how we can always get in the rear of their prices, but this is easily explained. For we have a leader that knows every hog path that leads to the different manufacturing plants of this country, and keeps posted. In this way you see we only buy from first hands, thereby saving the middle man's profit. Our buyer will soon arrive in Greenville and then—

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1899.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington City, Sept. 18, '99.

The panic of the administration over the situation in Ohio, daily grows worse, and Mr. McKinley tells the Ohio Republicans who call on him that the state must be carried at all hazards. He sent a trusted personal messenger to New York to meet Boss Hanna when he arrived from Europe and tell him just how blue things look from the administration point of view; also to impress upon him the necessity of taking steps to see that plenty of money was provided for use in Ohio. It is probably the taking of those "steps" which caused Boss Hanna to stop in New York, instead of coming direct to Washington. The matter has been discussed in Cabinet meetings and two members, Postmaster General Smith and Secretary Wilson designated to take the stump. Mr. Wilson will speak mostly in the agricultural section, his powers of persuasion among farmers being supposed to be wonderful, while Mr. Smith will talk mostly to city and town audiences. The ordering of the Civilian Philippine Commissioners home was also influenced to a certain extent, by the Ohio scare. It is hoped to have the next fighting campaign under way, before election day, and the civilian Commissioners are gotten out of the way so that Otis can have no excuse for not pushing the fighting. So much for the Republican view of the Ohio campaign.

Ex-Senator Joe Blackburn, who has been resting a little in Washington, preparatory to returning to the stump, did not give the story that Col. Bryan would not speak in Kentucky, a chance to get fairly started, before he headed it off by saying: "Mr. Bryan wrote me that he would be glad to speak in Kentucky and would leave the details to me. There was no promise of any number of speeches, nor were any definite arrangements agreed upon. I have written him that we will be ready for him any time after the first of October, and by that time, from present indications, the bolting movement in Kentucky will have dwindled away into nothingness and Mr. Bryan will have a solid Democratic party in front of him."

The Naval officials responsible for assigning Admiral Schley to the command of the South Atlantic Squadron, the most undesirable flag-command in the Navy, evidently felt a little bit ashamed, as they took the trouble to give out statements about the intention of the Department to increase the number of vessels in the Squadron, the importance of the command in case of war with Central or South America, etc. The real object is probably to get Schley out of reach of inquisitive Congressional Committees.

Girls Nobody Likes.

The girl whose talk is all of herself, who takes no interest in anybody else and cares for nothing but the sound of her own voice.

The girl who says unkind things of her friends and relations in their absence, who is always telling tales and making mischief.

The girl who looks down upon her mother and snubs her brothers and sisters and grumbles generally about her home.

The girl who is rude and disagreeable to those whom she considers her inferiors and who never shows any consideration for one poorer than herself.

The girl who is so vain of her personal appearance that she thinks everybody is looking at her and cannot talk to a man five minutes without fishing for a compliment.—Richmond Leader.

Having been so long unaccustomed to war, the American people have not yet thoroughly acquired the art of properly addressing letters to soldiers in the field. Hence it is that many missives sent to our men in the Philippines go astray, and some do not reach the intended recipients at all. To remedy this shortcoming the Postmaster General has directed the postmasters throughout the United States to call the attention of the public to the matter. One of the most essential points to be remembered when addressing letters to soldiers or to sailors is that the name of the vessel or of the regiment and company to which the addresses may belong should be plainly designated.—Philadelphia Record.

The Postoffice department at Washington has ruled that the writer has a right to regain the possession of a letter providing he can prove to the satisfaction of the postmaster and the office from which the letter was sent that he was the writer of it. Even if the letter has arrived at its destination and before it has been delivered to the person to whom it was addressed, it may be recalled by telegram through the mailing office. The reason assigned is that the United States is only the agent of the writer while the letter is in transit. The decision is important to business men and to private individuals.

A remarkable charge has been made against the public school teachers of Washington by the Board of Directors of the Business Men's Association, says a dispatch to The New York Times. As in most cities, the teachers are enabled to get stationery and similar articles at wholesale rates. It is charged that they have gone into the stationery business, purchasing these articles in large quantities and making customers of their pupils, to whom, of course, they sell at the regular retail figures. This evil is said to have reached such proportions as to injure the stationery trade in Washington.

An Interesting Experiment.

That the earth revolves on its axis can be proved by a simple experiment. Fill a medium sized bowl nearly full of water and place it upon the floor of a room that is not exposed to jarring from the street. Upon the surface of the water sprinkle a coating of lycopodium powder. Then take powdered charcoal and draw a straight black line two inches long upon the coating—the line should be north and south.

After this is done lay upon the floor a stick so that it will be exactly parallel with the charcoal line. Any stationary object in the room will answer as well, provided it is parallel with the line. If the bowl is left undisturbed for several hours, it will be seen that the black mark has turned toward the parallel object and has moved from east to west, in a direction opposite to the movement of the earth on its axis.

This proves that the earth in revolving has carried the water with it, but the powder on the surface has been left a little behind.

MURDERERS ARRAIGNED.

Trial Set in Two Cases.

On Monday afternoon Elijah Joyner was arraigned before Judge Hoke on the charge of murdering R. C. Turnage. The usual form of arraignment was gone through with and the case was set for trial on Friday, 22nd. A venire of seventy-five was ordered summoned. The court appointed Messrs. Fleming and Harding to conduct the defense.

This morning Cullen Moore, Hoyt Moore and W. H. Wilkins were arraigned on the charge of murdering Constable Elisha Bryan. The case was set for trial on Monday, 25th, and a venire of one hundred was ordered summoned.

The Man Who Succeeds.

The man who keeps up with the times, who thinks, reads, studies, adapts and uses good judgment, is the man who succeeds. The man who proceeds along the same line today as he did five years ago is a back-number, and will surely be distanced by his hustling, wide awake competitor.—Side Talks.

"We saw a young lady out riding on her wheel a few days ago with a Smith & Wesson pistol buckled on her handle bar," says The Centreville (Ala) Press. "That young lady was ready to protect herself, and if more would follow her example there would be fewer outrages committed. A woman with a gun is dangerous."

Times appear to be hard. Even the days are getting shorter.

It doesn't follow that a well-posted man should be stuck up.

It's only natural that there should be a little game at a stag party.

Happenings in North Carolina.

The Daily Southerner made its appearance at Tarboro Saturday. May it live and flourish as long as its parent, the old Southerner, that has made its weekly visits for nigh three-quarters of a century.

Greensboro Aldermen have placed a license tax of $3 a year on street boot blacks.

Men in Women's Places.

Since so many women are forging to the front in lines of employment hitherto regarded as the inherent rights and privileges of the rougher sex, it need not surprise any one if men seek revenge by undertaking the work of the hired girl, the chambermaid, the scullion, the cook, and even the seamstress. The first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermen. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

ALFRED FORBES.

THE STIRK FAMILY.

Proud Aristocrats in the Realms of the Arena.

The famous Stirk Family, one of the great features of The Wallace Shows does work that borders on the marvelous. In truth, some of their attainments are of such complex difficulties that it frequently passes with but little more notice from the public than their simpler displays solely because the audience can follow its intricate and perplexing paradox.

It not infrequently happens that when a particularly hazardous feat is accomplished the strongest and most pronounced applause will come from the entry wherein the other actors of the show may invariably be found ranged as spectators when "the Stirks are on."

This tribute to their genius from their fellow performers is as unusual as it is spontaneous, and testifies to their superiority more eloquently than any eulogy possibly good.

When an act can hold the attention of actors as that of the Stirks does, it may indeed be said to be truly great. At Greenville on Friday Sept. 29.
