WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, Sept. 30, '99
Rev. J. N. Booth, of Greenville, will be here Monday to aid in the meeting.

Mr. Hurst is suffering very much from an inflamed hand caused from a bruise.

G. W. Parker is in the fence business to stay. Give him your orders, they will have the very best attention.

Miss Bessie Garris returned home Wednesday night. Miss Henrietta Wesson, of this place, went with her.

The merchants of the place have agreed to close up at night in order to attend the meeting here next week. All are invited to come.

Our agent, Mr. Green, who has been at Williamston for several days, is back again. We are glad to see him, and believe that we have as clever an agent as can be found.

Today is the last day you have to get ready for school. Be in next Monday morning so as to start with your class. You will find it so much easier than to have to drop in later.

Bargains that convince. People like to trade at the store where they can get bargains. B. F. Manning & Co. carry a large stock of dry goods and groceries, and can always give you a bargain in something. Bring them your cotton.

The mail train loaded so heavily yesterday morning that it did not even stop here. You may be sure there was a badly disappointed crowd left behind, but the freight took them all when it came along. Glad to say that not many white people of this place went to the circus.

Our patrons furnish the need, we satisfy it. You need new wheels, either for wagon or cart, and we need wheels, too, to run our business with. We mean the kind of wheels that you get for your cotton and tobacco. Are sure you have the wheels we need, and we have those you need. If you will supply our need, we will supply yours on very reasonable terms.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 29, '99

Unless Mr. McKinley exhibits a little more backbone than usual, his party managers are going to compel him to drag Admiral Dewey along with him on the stumping tour upon which he is to start next week. They are now trying to get him to promise to ask Dewey to accompany him, knowing that Dewey would have to regard such a request as an order he must obey, regardless of his own wishes. Mr. McKinley has not yet agreed to become a party to this attempt to use the country's admiration for Admiral Dewey as a Republican vote maker, but there is danger that he will do so, notwithstanding all the administration talk for months past about Dewey being allowed to dispose of his time in any way he pleased when he got back home.

The administration is very glad of the Dewey excitement, which is now at white heat. It serves to distract public attention from the humiliating fact that the Philippines, who have no navy, succeeded in sinking a United States gunboat and killing or capturing the entire crew, within 25 miles of the city of Manila.

If the Cubans all feel as strongly concerning the action of Gen. Ludlow, in pushing aside the civil authorities in Havana and putting an end to a labor strike by arbitrary military authority, as Gen. Carlos Garcia, who is now in Washington does, there is danger ahead. When the news of Ludlow's action reached Washington, Gen. Garcia sent Ludlow a telegram saying: "I beg to remind you that you are not in Russia," and speaking of that action he said: "Of all the blunders and arbitrary acts committed by the military authorities in Cuba this act of Gen. Ludlow, approved by Governor General Brooke, is the most vicious. Gen. Ludlow has been most unwise in taking military charge of affairs in Havana without being asked for help by the civil authorities. There was absolutely no need for such a display of brutal authority. The strike was as peaceable as any people's gathering can be. Gen. Ludlow has taken a wrong view of the objects of government in Cuba. He ought not to have meddled in the strike. The civil authorities ought to have prevented his action, taking in advance the necessary precautions to settle the differences between the employers and the laborers. The charging on helpless laundry women, reported in the newspaper dispatches, shows that brutal force has been unnecessarily used in Havana. I protest against such outrages and denounce them as a violation of the rights my people are entitled to under the guidance of the American government. Gen. Ludlow's ukase, in which he threatened to plunge into the Cabanas fortress a thousand or more men, is the most abusive ostentation of power that I have ever heard, including those issued by Weyler. I hope that the administration will take this matter up immediately, so as to prevent serious complications that may arise from the inability of Gens. Brooke and Ludlow to cope with the situation in Havana."

The Census Bureau is to be the same old political machine the Republicans have invariably made it, and those who control the appointments don't care how much it will cost the people. An indication of this has just been given by the choice of a tabulating machine to be used. The committee decided to use the same machines that were used ten years ago, although a new machine was offered which would do the work much faster. The decision is said to have been made because the new machines, if adopted, would have largely reduced the number of clerks required, which Republican Congressmen protested against.

According to the talk of citizens of Michigan, who have been in Washington recently, the passing of Pingree is more pleasing than otherwise. One of them, Mr. M. I. Duke, of Grand Rapids, said: "Hon. Hazen Pingree's retirement from politics marks the finale of a stupendous demagogue. He has accomplished very little in his spectacular career, save to spend the public funds recklessly and increase the taxes of the people. A great many who looked upon him as a modern Moses now see that he was the commonest sort of politician. His administration has been a costly one for the tax-payers of Michigan, and now that the voters see him revealed in his true light they are thankful that his official career is ended."

Mr. George Klutz, a well-to-do distiller and a good farmer, from below Salisbury, was in town yesterday, laboring under the delusion that he was the richest man in the world. He gave a barber one hundred dollars to shave him, threw money right and left in the streets, and sent telegram after telegram to Pierpont Morgan, George Vanderbilt and other financiers in New York telling them to buy up all the railroads in the country for him. Some wag in New York telegraphed a reply to him that the Southern Railroad had been purchased for $20,000,000, and that now he was sole owner, which he firmly believes. Klutz cashed some six hundred dollars worth of the Southern's pay checks and afterwards lost them. An effort will be made to have him placed in the state hospital at Morganton.—Salisbury special to Raleigh Post.

We do not like the modern college plan of placing brawn above brain—of placing the hero's crown upon the brow of the athlete rather than upon the brow of the scholar—of making football agility, rather than intellectual advancement, the test of superiority. We are not opposed to physical development, in the proper way, and we recognize the importance of a strong body for a strong mind, but we are totoally opposed to the modern method of college advertising which sends boys over the country, at risk of life and limb, to give an educational institution conspicuity by football brutality. It is time for public opinion to call a halt to this sort of thing.—Winston Sentinel.

A Washington man has received a letter from a republican friend in Ohio, from which the following is extracted: "You ought to see Hanna. He has the scare of his life on, and believes that McLean is going to win, unless he can get the disgruntled republicans back into the traces. He and his henchmen have dropped their bulldozing tactics towards republicans and are talking as sweet as pie to them. We are enjoying his scare, and will decide later whether we'll stay at home on election day."

Herman Wilson Dead.

Mrs. H. H. Wilson received a telegram from her husband at Greensboro, this morning saying that his brother, Mr. L. Herman Wilson, died at Greensboro at 7 A. M. today. He died of consumption, after an illness of several months, at the age of about 25 years. The body will be brought to Kinston tomorrow afternoon and at once interred in the cemetery.—Kinston Free Press.

This young man spent his boyhood days in Greenville and had a host of friends here who regret his death.

Queer Case Before a Magistrate.

A remarkable case was tried here yesterday morning before Squire Eckel. W. L. Hanner and F. M. Keith are contractors living in this county. Some days ago Hanner owed Keith $40, and gave him a check for this amount, payable to Keith, or order. Keith received the check after the banks were closed and asked Hiatt & Lamb, Greensboro merchants, to cash it. They did so; but found out shortly afterwards that the check had not been endorsed by Keith. Mr. Lamb then sought Keith, but was unable to find him. He happened, however, to meet Hanner, and thinking the matter might be simplified, he got Hanner to change the check from "or order" to "or bearer." But, strangely enough, so soon as Keith heard of this he had both Lamb and Hanner indicted for forgery. They were tried before Squire Eckel yesterday and bound over to court.—Greensboro Cor. Raleigh Post.

THIS PART A FRAUD.

And it Ought to be Stopped.

The Wallace circus is advertised as the cleanest and best show on the road, and that all its dealings are honest. As a clean show it is far above the average, and there is not a doubt about its being a good one, but it is not entitled to the claim of being honest in all its dealings. On the contrary there is one feature about it that is as big a swindle as was ever practiced on the public. That is their manner of selling tickets. Two ticket wagons were placed in front of the main entrance of the tent and when people went up they had to pay 60 cents for whole tickets and 30 cents for half tickets. Then around at another part of the tent was another ticket stand at which the prices were 50 and 25 cents respectively. But this latter place was out of sight of the mass of people in front of the tent and most of them bought tickets at the advanced price without knowing the fraud that was being practiced upon them.

When Mr. Wallace was approached about this matter he said he had sold these tickets to other parties and had nothing to do with their being sold at an advanced price. But it was noticeable that his door-keeper made people who went up without tickets pay the same price, 60 and 30 cents, as charged at the wagons. If his statement of having nothing to do with the sale of these tickets is true, then he was not dealing honestly with the public by putting his own ticket stand in an obscure place and allow the patrons of his show to be swindled out of the extra price.

This is the only complaint we have heard against the show itself—otherwise it is all right—and such a swindle should be stopped by the authorities of the towns in which the show exhibits.

ORIGINAL OBSERVATIONS.

Made by The Orange Va. Observer.

Every man who is seedy is not a farmer.

It's the good chestnut that doesn't catch a worm.

The photographer is the man who is an expert at "making faces."

The average titled foreigner who comes to this country is a rank deceiver.

Unkind words are the briars that choke the flowers in the garden of the heart.

If some people were to tell the truth they would be looked upon as great humorists.

Take love out of life and there would be no sunshine in the soul or happiness in the soul or happiness in the heart.

The supply of truth is getting so very small that it is now used mostly for veneering falsehood.

Every good thought molded in the mind and born of the brain is a flower filling the heart with fragrance.

It is said that liquor will strengthen the voice, but it is remarkably strange how it will weaken the legs.

My silver from Henegan Bates has arrived. This lot was specially selected as suitable for bridal presents. MRS. M. D. HIGGS.

Just before the close of the circus performance Friday afternoon, one of the teams going out of the ring collided with the ring master and hurt him.

While the circus train was making up to leave Friday night there was a row between some of the workmen and some fakirs. Two of the latter came out with bad cuts on their heads.

Sunday school exercises at the Presbyterian church begin promptly at 3 o'clock P. M. instead of 4 o'clock. Come and bring some one with you. Excellent music, good singing, interesting exercises.

I have just received another lot of beautiful silver, from Henegan Bates, suitable for bridal presents. Part of goods can be seen at store of J. B. Cherry & Co., and some at home of Mrs. F. G. James. MRS. J. B. CHERRY.

Cup For Dewey.

By Telegraph to Reflector.

New York, Sept 30.—Admiral Dewey was presented with a loving cup by the city this morning, in the presence of a great throng. The land parade started at eleven o'clock with 34,000 people in line. Sixteen States are represented by troops and Governors. In the line are also a brigade of United States troops, seven battalions of the naval brigade, with the Olympia's Jackies heading the procession.

The crowd cheered Dewey rapturously. The weather has been magnificent and the reception a perfect success. The number of visitors in the city is estimated at two millions.
