WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, Oct. 7, '99

A. G. Cox is paying top market price for cotton seed all the time.

Dr. Cox will soon have his large and handsome dwelling here completed.

A. G. Cox will sell you any quantity of land, from a small town lot to a large farm.

Mrs. Abram Cox moved here this week into the Eugene Cox house which she bought some time ago. The old home place will be rented out.

Manning & Co. are going to have your cotton. If you will have 7 cents they will pay it just as long as possible.

Iron has advanced so that G. W. Parker instead of furnishing Iron posts and railing, is turning them out of nice fat lightwood.

Send in your orders for Cigars and Cheroots. They will have our very best attention, and you will be helping out a home enterprise.

WINTERVILLE CIG. CO.

Wheat is coming in on most every train now, to be converted into flour by A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. They are endeavoring to give satisfaction to all parties by taking pains, and giving the best turnout possible.

An attentive crowd listened to the sermon of Eld. Booth last night, on the subject "Choose you this day whom you will serve." His words were with power and some did choose Christ. Several showed that they were concerned.

As you pass by the door of B. F. Manning & Co's wareroom look in and see how you like those sets of furniture. The very nicest set will not cost you more than you have been paying for a common one. Who will get that one?

Sidewalk Ordinance.

Chief of Police James has posted notices calling attention to the sidewalk ordinance adopted by the Board of Aldermen at their September meeting. This ordinance requires property owners along Evans street, between Third and Fifth streets, to pave their sidewalks with brick, stone or cement. The posting of the ordinance is done at the direction of the Board that the property owners may understand it will be enforced.

THE YACHT RACE.

By Telegraph to Reflector.

New York, Oct. 7.—Columbia crossed starting line at 11:20:49, ten seconds ahead of Shamrock.

11:32—Shamrock blankets Columbia and passes her.

1:30 Shamrock turned stake boat, Columbia one minute behind her.

2:15. The Journal bulletin says that if Barr (Columbia Captain) follows present tactics he should win the race.

2:30—Bulletins differ according to angle at which observations are taken.

The Herald says Shamrock has the lead. The News says Columbia has lead. The World says Shamrock leads. Publishers Press bulletin says Columbia leads by 50 seconds.

Western Union bulletin says Columbia has advantage of the weather and is leading.

The above was the situation of the race when THE REFLECTOR forms closed. If any other news comes it will be put on the bulletin board.

Rev. J. T. Abernethy, a member of the N. C. Conference and pastor of the Methodist church at Enfield, died Thursday evening.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1899.

It seems to have been an old saying or old idea that the work of an editor is never appreciated, and that he is entitled to no particular credit for whatever effort he makes toward building up his community or awakening a spirit of enterprise among his people. There has just been a case where an editor's experience was so different from this that it is worthy of mention. The town of Henderson has perfected plans to establish a graded school, and the school will soon open. The credit of securing it was due mainly to the efforts of Thad Manning, editor of the Gold Leaf, for in season and out of season he put forth every energy and effort in behalf of the movement. As soon as the trustees of the school were chosen, realizing the benefit of what Mr. Manning had done, they adopted fitting resolutions of thanks and appreciation of his services. Henderson is to be congratulated upon securing the graded school.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 6, 1899.

That Mr. McKinley is getting afraid of the Philippine question, and of imperialism generally, was shown by the announcement, practically official, made this week, that the administration had no further Philippine policy than to whip the Filipinos into submission and then turn the whole matter over to the Congress. This is clearly a republican trick, intended to affect votes in the fall elections. Mr. McKinley has not changed his imperialistic ideas; he has only become convinced of the necessity of making the majority in Congress, which he thinks he can control, responsible for the adoption of a permanent imperial policy. Perhaps he will tell those who will listen to the stump speeches he intends making from the rear platform of the parlor car in which he is now traveling about how he intends to leave this important matter to the wisdom of Congress, and perhaps he will bamboozle somebody with such stories, but it is very doubtful. The average American isn't an easy chap to bamboozle.

Admiral Dewey is a diplomat as well as a fighting man. He determined as soon as he heard about it that he would not join Mr. McKinley's political show in its flying trip to the west, and when they began hinting rather strongly to him that Mr. McKinley would like to have him do so, he quickly put a stop to it by accepting the invitation of the governor of Massachusetts to go to Boston on the 12th inst. It was a shrewd play on Dewey's part, as it gives the administration a strong hint that he doesn't intend to allow himself to be used as a vote getter.

When Boss Hanna was in Washington this week everybody noticed what a change had come over him. He no longer talked of the election in Ohio as a walkover for the republicans, but admitted that they had the hardest kind of a fight on their hands, and that McLean was a hard man to beat. His talk convinced those who heard him that the reports of his fright which have been coming from Ohio ever since he got back from Europe were not exaggerated in the slightest degree. He says he always fights best when scared. If that is true, he is now in the condition to put up the fight of his life.

News from the Philippines shows that the Filipinos are by no means idle while this government is preparing to crush them. They have been attacking our troops at several points this week with great vigor, with the same old results. We keep on licking them, but they won't stay licked. Gen. Otis also wasted cable tolls to inform the War Department that there was nothing in his latest negotiations with the Filipinos. Nobody outside of the War Department supposed for a moment that there was.

Either Mr. McKinley must suppose that John Sherman has no friends left in Ohio or his enmity towards the old man has made him reckless of the consequences of putting a new indignity upon him. Sherman was in Washington, but no provision was made for him to participate in the ceremonies attending the welcome to Dewey, and he was not invited to the State dinner given at the White House in honor of Dewey. Three other members of Mr. McKinley's cabinet—Gary, Bliss and Alger—participated in the ceremonies and attended the dinner. This shabby treatment of Mr. Sherman has been unfavorably commented upon, even by warm supporters of Mr. McKinley. It looks like trying to kick a man when he is down.

That the people seldom err in their judgment of men and things has been once more demonstrated, in Washington during Dewey week. Second only to the ovations given Dewey himself have been those given to Rear Admiral Schley every time he has shown himself where there was a crowd. The Navy Department clique may do what they please they cannot change the verdict of the people, that the principal honors of the War with Spain belong to Dewey and Schley.

The question of arbitration always strikes those whose interests would be passed upon differently from what it does a rank outsider. In other words, most men will always agree that the other folks ought to arbitrate their disputes. Even ministers of the gospel share that bit of human nature. That is why there was quite a hubbub and a chorus of no's from the English ministers present when Rev. C. Cort, of Maryland, offered a resolution at one of the sessions of the Pan-Presbyterian Alliance, now sitting in Washington, declaring against war between England and the Transvaal Republic and that the dispute should be arbitrated. Every minister who spoke against the resolution declared himself in favor of arbitration on general principles, but he had some special reason for opposing it in this case. Among the delegates are ministers from both the countries named, and to a man they believe war to be unavoidable.

The Author of "In His Steps."

The author of "In His Steps," the famous religious book, of which over three million copies have now been sold, has been induced to answer, in an article which he has sent to The Ladies' Home Journal, the question which unconsciously comes to the mind after reading his book: "Is this plan practicable in our present daily life?" Mr. Sheldon does not evade the question, but answers it in a direct and vigorous manner, and tells exactly what he believes would be the effect of his plan upon modern business methods and present-day social life.

MUSIC IN EVERYTHING.

Pretty Surprises Met With In a Geneva Music Box Factory.

The chief industry of Geneva is the manufacture of musical boxes. Thousands of men, women and children are employed in the factories, one of which was visited by a traveler who gives some interesting particulars about his visit.

An attendant invited him to take a seat. He did so, and strains of delightful music came from the chair. He hung his hat on a rack and put his stick in the stand. Music came from both rack and stand. He wrote his name in the visitors' register, and on dipping his pen into the ink music burst forth from the inkstand.

The manager of the factory explained the process of making musical boxes, a business which requires patience and nicety.

The different parts are made by men who are experts in those parts and who do nothing else year in and year out.

The music is marked on the cylinder by a man who has served several years of apprenticeship. Another man inserts in the marked places pegs which have been filed to a uniform length. The comb, or set of teeth, which strikes the pegs and makes the sound is arranged by a man who does nothing else. The cylinder is then revolved to see that every peg produces a proper tone.

The most delicate work of all is the revising of each peg. It is done by a workman who has a good ear for music. He sees that every peg is in its proper place and is bent at the correct angle.

When the instrument is in its case, an expert examines it to see that the time is perfect.—St. Louis Republic.

Always be very often present in the element used for wall papers, and as every one knows, if one covers one's walls with a paper containing deadly poison one's health must suffer. It is important, therefore, to select wall papers which do not contain arsenic, and the method of testing them is simple in the extreme. Take a piece of the paper and light it, and if arsenic be present you will notice an odor like that of garlic. Do not inhale the smoke. Another way of testing the paper is to pour over it a little diluted hydrochloric acid. If the arsenic in the pattern becomes blue in this treatment it is because they contain arsenic.—Home Notes.

Be Comfortable.

Give your attention to being comfortable. Nothing will aid you so much as simplicity. Don't try to follow all the fads invented by fools. In the first place, get a comfortable place to live. Get a good cellar. Get a good cistern. Fix your water pipes so they won't freeze. Fix yourself so that you can be warm in winter and reasonably cool in summer. Have things "handy" around the house. Give up your membership in literary and card clubs and devote your attention to your own affairs. If you can't find enough to keep you busy, it is a sign you don't look very closely.—Acheson Globe.

What a great saving to the farmers it would be if hogs could follow the old adage of "laugh and grow fat."

Beat The Races.

Col. Benjamin Franklin Metzger, of Norfolk, succeeded in raising more wind than the yachts had and came over the line with full sails Friday evening. Today he has been displaying his log book to our cigar and tobacco dealers and entering orders for another sail, or sale, as you please. The "Colonel" says he is going to send THE REFLECTOR one cigar and a chromo when we get that hotel built in Greenville.
