WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, Oct. 28, '99

Mr. F. O. Cox being absent in attendance upon the Baptist Union now in session at LaGrange, the duty of writing up "Winterville Items" falls upon this scribe. 'Tis a mighty change, but brother, the heart is all right if the brain is lacking. So here goes.

The Academy is looming upward at a rapid speed. Young men and ladies enter every week. Young ladies, Goodness! What is a lone old Bach to do? Prescribe Coot, prescribe, you know.

One drummer for the Cox Mfg Co. sold this week over three hundred cart saddles, besides lots of other goods manufactured by his firm here.

Ben Manning, the genial hearted Ben, says if he cannot suit you all in goods and merchandise of every kind, he can present for your consideration three of the most conglomerated mass of clerks on earth: 1st Johnie Harper, the handsome, 2nd Nash Edwards, the beauty and 3rd but by no means least, Lil Jackson, the courteous and affable. If you call you must and shall be satisfied, even if he has to resort to a drink of the cool and life-giving mineral water (best in the State, proven by analysis) all of which can be found right here in beautiful Winterville.

The cigar factory is doing the finest business in its history. Thousands upon thousands have been sold and shipped during the past month. Good goods will tell. "The darkest hour," it is said, "is just before the dawn," Mr. W. M.

Carroll is a convert to this faith. Anyway the little watch in his pocket keeps ticking to the time he is selling goods over his counter and friend Billie, is Billie once more.

There is much competition among our market men. The result is we now have three as fine markets as can be found anywhere at the stores of Hurst & Co., J. R. Johnson and Hooks & Dixon.

It is unnecessary to specify all the good in Winterville. I could fill your paper every week for a year and then not finish. I will close by saying, we grow, are growing and intend to keep on growing.

"BUD JOE."

[You ask me to prescribe, but if rumors are correct I think my prescribing would be useless. I think all that is necessary for "Old Bach" to do, is to strike right out now and go to see the fair sex more and stop sitting around on the corners Sundays with others in your same fix, telling each other your troubles. You know the old adage "faint heart never won fair lady." Coot.]

Concert by Wire.

The telephone is certainly wonderful. Friday night through the kindness of Manager W. S. Atkins, of the Greenville exchange, and Superintendent S. K. Fountain, of the Rocky Mount exchange, we sat at home and enjoyed a concert in Rocky Mount, forty miles away. There was music on both piano and phonograph that came over the wires as distinctly as if it had been only in an adjoining room.

At Methodist Church

Every member of the Methodist church is specially requested to attend the eleven o'clock services tomorrow morning. Not a sermon on Missions, nor an extra collection, but something of importance to you personally. Come and see.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1899.

If the assessment of the postmasters of the county for the election of the Ohio ticket is a criterion, Mr. McKinley will probably be known next year as the "Collecting agent of Prosperity."

The Republican speakers talk as if it was their protective tariff that raises big crops and increases our exports of farm produce. The only crop that the Republican tariff raises is that of trusts.

McKinley's Thanksgiving proclamation is longer than any similar proclamation issued from the White House for many years. It has been suggested that its size would not have been so "expanded" if he had waited until after the Ohio election to promulgate it.

Senator Hanna now says that the formation of big industrial combines is a step forward in industrial development. The destruction of competition, the closing of small plants and the discharge of employs by the trusts is considered by Mr. Hanna a step forward. It is a step upon the necks of the consumer and the worker.

When Democrats protest against the forcible seizure of territory as a violation of the doctrines of the Declaration of Independence, they are told that Jefferson himself violated it. This statement is not correct. Louisiana was purchased as an act of necessity, and the law of self preservation justifies any measure. But we do not need the Philippines for our self preservation.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.
 WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 28, '99.

Imperialism is to bring many new things, and among the rest a new committee of the House, which can be depended upon to report just such Legislation concerning the imperial colonies as may be ordered by His Majesty, William I. Under ordinary circumstances all bills introduced in the House relating to new territory owned by the government would be referred to the committee on Territories. But the chairman of the committee on Territories in the last House, who cannot be denied the same position in the next House without a marked breach of courtesy, is under suspicion, so his committee is to be supplanted, so far as the new possessions are concerned, by a new one which can be depended upon. Whether the name of the new committee has been selected is not positively known, but the proper name for it will be the Committee on Imperialism, for such it will be popularly known. There is also some talk of establishing a similar committee in the Senate, where there has already been wrangling between the Committee on Territories, and that on Foreign Relations over the control of bills relating to the new possessions, but such a programme cannot be carried out in the Senate as easily as in the House. The republicans have a majority in the Senate, but there are a number of republican Senators who are opposed to imperialism and all its trimmings.

Senator Proctor has not given up the idea of holding Admiral Dewey in reserve as an anti-McKinley candidate for the Republican Presidential nomination because the McKinley crowd succeeded in alarming the Admiral about his health to the extent of causing him to abandon his intended trips to Atlanta and Philadelphia. On the contrary, he is more determined than ever, and the announcement that Admiral Dewey would make trips to the South and West in the early spring is understood to be due to Proctor's influence; and a friend of Proctor's said that the McKinley crowd had played right into Proctor's hand by keeping Dewey quiet this winter, as a boom started in the spring, if the conditions seem to warrant one, will be much more likely to be effective than one started at this time. Admiral Dewey is now a Washington real estate owner, the deed for the house purchased for him with the $50,000 donated for that purpose being now in his possession.

Neither the press nor the people of North Carolina will endorse the action of the directors of the penitentiary in not removing Summerell, the overseer or superintendent who has been proved to have treated the convicts so cruelly and brutally. All humane persons will endorse the five Democratic directors who voted for his removal. It seems like adding insult to injury for the directors to have passed a resolution declaring Summerell's cruelty was merely "a mistake!"

Those directors who voted to screen Summerell cannot screen themselves from the just criticism and censure of an indignant press and people. It is not surprising that humane people are shocked and indignant that such cruelty—even to convicted criminals—should be committed and then condoned.

And then these directors, after condemning Summerell's cruelty and refusing to remove him, still further disgraced themselves by removing Messrs. Bradshaw and McIver, who were the two best overseers the penitentiary had in its employ!—Pittsboro Record.

Did it ever occur to you that every dollar you send out of town is helping to enrich some other than your home merchants—the men who pay taxes, give to charity, support the churches, schools and other home institutions—and that by doing so you are helping to build up some other town and market at the expense of your own? Well, that is just what you are doing.—Henderson Gold Leaf.

A fish lays a million times more eggs than a hen, and doesn't cackle about it at that.

Some men seem to think the elements of success are embodied in a rabbit's foot and lots of patience.

When President McKinley insisted, under a threat of continuing the war, on Spain transferring to us her vanished title to the Philippines, common prudence would have demanded that he should have made the bargain C. O. D.

What Would Jesus Do ?

Rev. Charles M. Sheldon, writing in the November Ladies' Home Journal in further emphasis of the teachings of his famous book, "In His Steps," reiterates that "the teachings of Jesus will work in the market, the home, the school, the shop, the street, the life of man everywhere, but they cannot work in a selfish heart, and they are not capable of expression in a soul that has put any one on the throne except Him who is Lord of all. Why are men afraid to try Love in business? Why are they cowardly in the face of giving the greatest thing in the world its most supreme test? Come, let us take Jesus at His word. If we seek the Kingdom of God first we shall have all the physical things we need. What would Jesus do? There is no question as to His conduct in our places. There is no casuistry in the question when asked honestly every day. When the world is willing to ask it, and live according to the daily answers, it will begin to enjoy its millennium. Perhaps the Golden Age will be this coming century. Why not? It rests with the human race to prove that of all the mighty forces that rule the real life of men on the earth, none is so mighty, so practical, so permanent, so productive of happiness and power as the life of Jesus lived over again in the lives of those who believe in Him as the life abundant for a weary world."

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS

THE "NECESSARY" MAGAZINE

The best-informed men and women in the world use the AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS to keep well informed, and call it the "necessary" and "indispensable" magazine. In the busy rush of to-day ambitious men and women must know about the important questions of the month, and not only this, they want to know about them at the right time. When the whole country is puzzled over the gigantic combination of trusts, a well-informed article is printed in the AMERICAN MONTHLY, giving the facts, and its editor discusses the theory; when the Dreyfus affair is in everyone's mouth, the best story of Dreyfus and the great case comes out in this magazine.

Every month, in "The Progress of the World," Dr. Albert Shaw gives a comprehensive picture of the world's history during the previous thirty days. In the departments, the valuable articles and books that have been published during the past month are reviewed and quoted from, so that the readers of the AMERICAN MONTHLY can get the gist of them. In every issue nearly a hundred pictures are printed, including the portraits of the men and women who are making the history of the month.

To be thoroughly well informed helps any man or woman in his or her work. A subscription to the AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS represents an investment for the best kind of profit, as well as entertainment. One subscriber has just written: "Count me a life subscriber, and when you send me a number beyond the limit of my subscription and secure no renewal from me, consider it a notice of my death."

Price 25 cents per number, $2.50 a year.

A sample copy will be sent on receipt of ten cents in stamps.

THE FURNITURE MEN

Keep the Public interested.

In these busy and rushing times the merchant who does not keep his establishment before the public through the agency of advertising cannot reasonably expect to build up and sustain his trade. People generally have neither the time nor the inclination to burden their minds with his affairs. Instead, he must constantly remind them of the existence of his store and of the character and quality of its stock. Persistent and interesting newspaper advertising will accomplish that result, and the oftener he shall tell the public in that way about his business the more patronage he will get.—Philadelphia Record.

Some women are so avaricious that they will actually keep a secret. No, Maude, dear, the youngest soldiers are not always in the infantry.

Everything may come to the man who waits, but most of us are poor waiters.

ORIGINAL OBSERVATIONS.

Made by the Orange Va. Observer.

Many an epitaph is merely a grave joke.

The sweetest messages of love come by wireless telegraphy.

Most men prefer a punch in the saloon to a blow on the street.

It makes the devil giggle when he sees the hypocrite upon his knees.

It takes a level head and steady hands to play football successfully.

The names of the greatest heroes are never written on the scroll of the world's fame.

There is no sweetness in the kiss stolen from your girl yesterday—better return it today.

"If music be the food of love, play on." But suppose you haven't got the money to pay the fiddler?

The war is really being "carried into Africa," and General White is a conspicuous figure in the conflict.

Wonderful are the eyes of woman, for they dazzle you with their witchery, filling the heart with sunshine.

When a young man has a "girl on the brain," doesn't the young lady have a soft resting place? But then the girls dote on soft things.

Ours the Best.

The Fields & Hanson's band gave a concert on the street Thursday night. The Osceola Band, our home boys, gave a concert Friday. Those who heard both could readily recognize the superiority of the music of the home band. The boys are hard to beat.
