ACME IN NAME.

And the Exercises Were Acme in Reality.

On Tuesday night in the opera house Acme Council No. 16, Jr. O. U. A. M., celebrated the first anniversary of the order in Greenville. The attendance was large and the exercises were of such a nature as to make a lasting impression for good upon our people.

The stage of the opera house was appropriately decorated for the occasion, the emblem and motto of the order being prominently displayed. The programme as published in a previous issue of THE REFLECTOR was carried out to the letter, and it afforded genuine pleasure to all who were present.

Mr. J. B. Jarvis was master of ceremonies and filled the position most acceptably. The members of the order, about forty in number, marched into the hall while the Osceola Band played the opening selection. The band also rendered several very charming selections at intervals in the programme. The other musical numbers were vocal solos by Mrs. Travis E. Hooker and Mrs. Jas. B. Cherry, with Miss Nina James accompanist. These were much enjoyed.

The opening prayer by Rev. I. A. Canfield, the address of welcome by Mr. A. D. Johnston, and the introduction of the speakers by Prof. L. L. Hargrave were couched in most beautiful expression.

The gem of the occasion was the address by Rev. Chas. A. G. Thomas, of Fayetteville. A newspaper synopsis of the address could not begin to do it justice, nor convey to one who did not hear it the real depth and beauty of sentiment it contains. It gave his hearers a clearer conception of the noble principles thought by the Jr. O. U. A. M. than they ever had before. He spoke of the sublimity of Masonry, the beauty of Odd Fellowship, the friendship of Pythianism, in all of whose ceremonies and teachings he was a participant, and added that this order went one step beyond all others in that it was patriotic. His explanation of the motto, "Virtue, Liberty, Patriotism," and the estimate of man was grand. In fact all through his address there was that eloquence, that magnetism, that beauty of thought which made his hearers eager to catch every word.

Hon. John H. Small, of Washington, also made an admirable address in presenting the flag and Bible to the public school. He dwelt especially upon the advocacy of the public schools by the order and the good being done in that particular. Prof. W. H. Ragsdale, County Superintendent of schools, in behalf of the public school accepted the flag and Bible in a very graceful and beautifully worded speech.

Every feature of the programme was excellent and full of interest.

After the exercises in the opera house the members of the order and many invited guests went to the Osmund House to partake of a supper. Turkey, ham, oysters, salad, crackers, pickles, cakes, coffee, etc., were served in great abundance and excellence.

The Jr. O. U. A. M. are to be congratulated upon this splendid entertainment they gave our people. The flag which was presented to the public school will be raised with appropriate ceremonies when the school is in session.

WINE OF CARDUI

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

has demonstrated ten thousand times that it is almost infallible

FOR WOMAN'S PECULIAR WEAKNESSES.

Irregularities and derangements. It has become the leading remedy for this class of troubles. It exerts a wonderfully healing, strengthening and soothing influence upon the menstrual organs. It cures "whites" and falling of the womb. It stops flooding and relieves suppressed and painful menstruation. For Change of Life it is the best medicine made. It is beneficial during pregnancy, and helps to bring children into homes barren for years. It invigorates, stimulates, strengthens the whole system. This great remedy is offered to all afflicted women. Why will any woman suffer another minute with certain relief within reach? THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW REVIEWS

THE "NECESSARY" MAGAZINE

The best-informed men and women in the world use the AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS to keep well informed, and call it the "necessary" and "indispensable" magazine. In the busy rush of to-day ambitious men and women must know about the important questions of the month, and not only this, they want to know about them at the right time. When the whole country is puzzled over the gigantic combination of trusts, a well-informed article is printed in the AMERICAN MONTHLY, giving the facts, and its editor discusses the theory; when the Dreyfus affair is in everyone's mouth, the best story of Dreyfus and the great case comes out in this magazine.

Every month, in "The Progress of the World," Dr. Albert Shaw gives a comprehensive picture of the world's history during the previous thirty days. In the departments, the valuable articles and books that have been published during the past month are reviewed and quoted from, so that the readers of the AMERICAN MONTHLY can get the gist of them. In every issue nearly a hundred pictures are printed, including the portraits of the men and women who are making the history of the month.

To be thoroughly well informed helps any man or woman in his or her work. A subscription to the AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS represents an investment for the best kind of profit, as well as entertainment. One subscriber has just written: "Count me a life subscriber, and when you send me a number beyond the limit of my subscription and secure no renewal from me, consider it a notice of my death."

Price 25 cents per number, $2.50 a year.
A sample copy will be sent on receipt of ten cents in stamps.

WINTERVILLE

DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, Nov. 8, '99

J. D. Cox came in again last night. He only stays home about one night out of seven.

We are glad to see Charlie Kirtrel getting around once more after his long confinement.

If you hear tell of G. W. Parker doing anything outside of his fence business, you may know that he is not sticking to his profession; for he is a wire fence man with all he can do.

R. H. Hunsucker came over yesterday evening from Kinston on his buggy. The carriage factory is rapidly getting in shape. Who wants a job?

One house and lot for sale cheap. The lot is as desirable a building lot as there is in the town. The owner has gone to New York and wants to dispose of it. Apply to F. O. Cox.

Smokers smoke the best they can get for the money. If we can't fill the bill we don't expect to stay in the ring. So help us to stay in or knock us out and be done with it. WINTERVILLE CIGAR CO.

A certain constable who does not live very far from here says that two years practice in his capacity will fit any man for a lawyer. Would advise him to make for that goal next if he is sure of one half the practice that he is getting now.

A surprise party found their way to David Hines' last night leaving many presents in the way of shoes, clothes, &c. for his bright children in order that they may attend Sunday school. Those bearing the gifts were more than repaid by seeing how glad it made them. We need more such was this.

IMPOSSIBILITIES.

A scale to weigh light heads and heavy hearts would be a great convenience, but it is impossible to procure such a machine. It is just as much impossible to tell what the goods made by the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. or any other company are without giving them a trial. They are yours to please.
