The Conference.

The Free Will Baptists held a harmonious session with the church at May's Chapel from Thursday through Sunday. Rev. B. H. Hearne, after preaching the introductory sermon, was elected Moderator. The entertainment was all that could be desired. The congregations were large and well behaved. The next Conference is to be held at Hull's Road in Greene county.

Meteoric Showers.

Sometime this week is the time predicted for the meteoric shower. You can set up nights and look for it if you want to. We tried setting up and watching for meteors for two nights in succession, some eighteen or twenty years ago, and somebody else may have the fun this time. However, you can wake us up if you see any meteors.

Broke It Down.

Last week J. B. Cherry & Co. had a small fence built across the vacant space between their store and the store of White & Fleming, so that people would not drive across the brick pavement to get in the back lot. Saturday night a horse that was in the back lot run away and coming out between the stores crashed through the fence and broke part of it down. The horse came near running in the store of H. M. Hardee on the opposite side of the street.

Sale of Town Lots.

The time is coming near for the Commissioner's sale of town lots in that portion of the town known as Skinnerville. It is an opportunity to get some desirable property, and those wanting a lot upon which to build should attend the sale. It takes place on the 20th.

Cancelled Engagment.

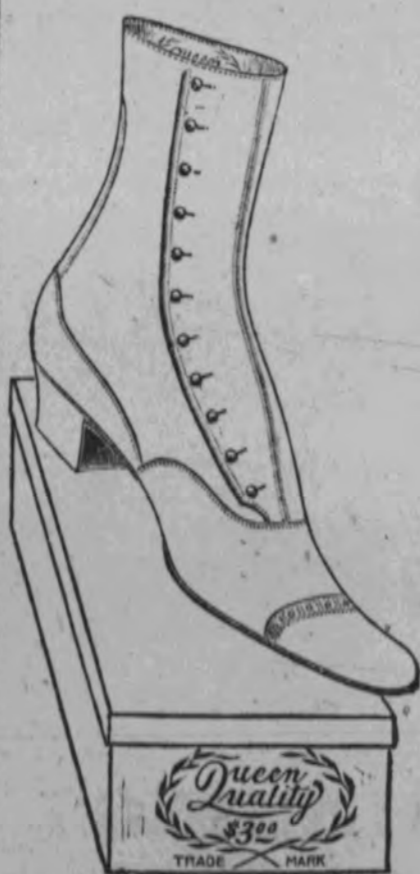

While the advance man of "The Old Farmer Hopkins Company" was billing the town Saturday for the appearance here Tuesday night, he received a telegram from Louisville that his company had closed because of the burning of their car. The Raleigh Post says the members of the company left there Saturday for New York, and all engagements had been cancelled.

Mr. Micawber's Great Faith in Himself.

Advertising has become the merchant's greatest help toward achieving success. The complacent tradesman who relies solely upon his individual merits to build up a thriving business may be commended for the faith that is in him; but such faith is without a solid foundation. It is much like that which was characteristic of the optimistic Mr. Micawber, who, being bald, was of the opinion that he had been providentially deprived of his hair in order that he might without discomfort wear the wig of a Lord High Chancellor. A merchant may be ever so worthy but in these hustling times he must in addition do something in order to get the public interested in his establishment. Good newspaper advertising answers the purpose.—Philadelphia Record.

The Companion's New Calendar

The Youth's Companion Calendar for 1900 is unique in form and beautiful in design. The oval centerpiece, in high colors and enclosed in a border of flowers, represents "A Dream of Summer" and is supported on either side by an admirably executed figure piece in delicate tints. The whole is delightful in sentiment and in general effect. Larger than any of The Companion's previous Calendars, it is equally acceptable as a work of art. As an ornament to the home it will take a preeminent place.

The Calendar is published exclusively by The Companion. It cannot be obtained elsewhere. It will be given to all new subscribers for 1900, who will also receive in addition to the fifty-two issues of the new volume, all the issues for the remaining weeks of 1899, free from the time of subscription. Illustrated Announcement Number containing a full prospectus of the volume for 1900, will be sent free to any address.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION, 203 Columbus Ave., Boston, Mass.

There is this difference between the Republican and Democratic parties of North Carolina—the Republican party desires to disfranchise the poor white men of the State, while the Democratic party is steadfast in its determination that our politics shall know the negro no more. Can a white man, who is proud that he is a white man, hesitate as to which party he will support?—Mt. Olive Advertiser.

Public School Funds.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 11.—The superintendent of public instruction asked the state treasurer whether the $100,000 appropriated to public schools by the legislature this year would be paid. The treasurer replies that he regrets to say the prospect is not good for early payment; that disbursements during the eleven months of the fiscal year up to October 31st, were $67,720 more than the receipts, and that unless the receipts are much greater and disbursements much smaller, he does not think the condition of the treasury will be such as to admit of the payment of the $100,000 before the end of next year.

The auditor was then asked if the state would meet its appropriations, and replied that, with proper care as to collections, he felt sure all could be made. There is a net balance in the treasury, according to the last statement, of $44,000.

Mr. Linney in his letter to Mr. Settle makes the point that "the largest percentage of white voters are in Mitchell and Wilkes counties, where the largest Republican majorities are given." He might have added that in Madison county, where the population is almost entirely white, the vote is almost entirely Republican; and he might have gone still further and said that there is more crime of a serious nature, and perhaps more illiteracy, in these three counties, than in any other three in the State of the same white population. Wherever in the South you find a large white county that is, year after year, largely Republican, you will find that there is something else the matter with it.—Charlotte Observer.

There are many things the people are prodigiously slow to learn. Among them the cost of bad roads, of crime, of low down political office-seekers and demagogues, and stolid ignorance and all it entails.

A Judge of the Old School.

A judge of the old school is said to have once summed up a very complicated case in the following terms:

"Gentlemen of the jury—You have all heard the evidence, you have also heard what the learned counsel have said. If you believe what the counsel for the plaintiff has told you, your verdict will be for the plaintiff; but if, on the other hand, you believe what the defendant's counsel has told you, then you will give a verdict for the defendant. But if you are like men, and don't believe what either of them has said, then I don't know what you will do."—Household Words.

WINE OF CARDUI
has demonstrated ten thousand times that it is almost infallible FOR WOMAN'S PECULIAR WEAKNESSES, irregularities and derangements. It has become the leading remedy for this class of troubles. It exerts a wonderfully healing, strengthening and soothing influence upon the menstrual organs. It cures "whites" and falling of the womb. It stops flooding and relieves suppressed and painful menstruation. For Change of Life it is the best medicine made. It is beneficial during pregnancy, and helps to bring children into homes barren for years. It invigorates, stimulates, strengthens the whole system. This great remedy is offered to all afflicted women. Why will any woman suffer another minute with certain relief within reach? Wine of Cardui only costs $1.00 per bottle at your drug store.
For advice, in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.
Rev. J. W. SMITH, Camden, S. C., says: My wife used Wine of Cardui at home for falling of the womb and it entirely cured her.

THE FURNITURE MEN

Stole a Side of Meat.

A colored man who was here on the day of the hanging stole about 50 pounds of meat from the store of Mr. J. S. Tunstall. A customer had purchased the piece of meat early in the day and left it in the store until he should be ready to leave town. The colored man also purchased a small piece of meat and left that at the store until he was ready to leave. The two pieces of meat were left near together, and the colored man, who was the first to go after his meat took both pieces. The loss was not discovered until the other party went to get his piece of meat. Suspicion at once fell on the colored man and Mr. Tunstall got a horse and pursued him overtaking him six miles from town. The colored man had both pieces of meat in a sack, but he was not able to explain "how dat big piece got in my sack."

TOBACCO GROWERS.

President Grimes Calls a Convention.

Mr. J. Bryan Grimes, of this county, President of the North Carolina Tobacco Association, has issued a call for a convention of tobacco planters to meet in Raleigh on Dec. 6th. Planters in every tobacco growing county are requested to form co-associations and send delegates, as many as they wish, to this convention. In counties where there is no local organization individual growers are urged to attend, so that if possible all the tobacco growing sections of the state will be represented. Planters from Virginia and South Carolina are also asked to attend the convention.

"The continually diminishing prices," says President Grimes, in his call, "have been keenly felt by every planter, and it is hoped that in this convention some practical plan may be evolved by which producers with judicious, conservative and persistent concert of action may better their conditions.

"If the prevailing low prices are due to over-production, we should face the situation and endeavor to remedy it. If it is found that the price is fixed by arbitrary methods, we should vigorously protest and determine to make that protest effectual. Every intelligent farmer should recognize the advantages to be secured by intelligent organization and determined co-operation."
