NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, Nov. 18, '99
Moye & Kittrell are shipping a car load of lumber.

MAKES MILLINERY MOVE.—Miss Mary F. Hardy our popular milliner does this. Did you get yours of her?

Hundreds of people are signing the petition to keep B. H. Roberts, the polygamist, from taking his seat in congress.

While many white men are signing the petition to the Governor to commute Lorenzo Brown's sentence, we are inclined to leave this for the negroes to do.

"Money saved" By using Winterville Cigar Co.'s goods and having them sent by private conveyance, thus saving freight which you have to pay on other goods is, "money made."

AT THE WRONG PLACE.—Yesterday evening some white men were weighing. One of them had gained several pounds, and said it was because he had been so hearty. A darkey who had just been weighed said: "Well Boss I'se hearty nuff too, but I'se allus at de wrong place when I gits hearty." If you have been getting goods in our line at some other place than of us, perhaps you have been at the wrong place than of us, perhaps you have been at the wrong place.

A. G. COX MFG. CO.

During a conversation the other day between some gentlemen, the question arose as to the advisability of petitioning the Governor to commute the sentence of Lorenzo Brown. Some gentleman said he would be in favor of letting the colored people decide the question.

Uncle Gus Blount, an old time colored man standing near was asked his opinion. He promptly replied: "No Sir! No Sir! don't hang him, but take him out of jail and put thirty nine on his bare back and then compel him to work for some good white man until the law is satisfied. It costs one thousand dollars to raise a nigger but-headed and two thousand to raise him horned, so don't waste 'em, but put 'em to some good." Expect the old darkey is about right, but can't always get at the bottom of his dark sayings.

Express Company Robbed.

According to reliable information received here, the Southern Express Company on the Norfolk & Carolina was robbed by its messenger of $55,000 last Friday.

The express company have remained silent about the matter so far as giving out any information, but they have put detectives after the man, who left the train between Aulander and Ahoski. This is the last seen of him. It is presumed that he will hide in the shingle swamps of the Roanoke till he thinks the time is propitious to leave.

He will find it difficult to escape. The express companies spare no expense to run to earth any one that robs them. This may take days or years, but the quest goes on.

This man will never be safe no matter how long he lives.

At the express office here the idea of a robbery is discredited.

One of the employees said he asked about the matter of one of the messengers on the road and the reply he received was that the report was as big a lie as ever gossip manufactured.—Tarboro Southerner.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1899.

It is strange how rapidly our army chaplains age just as soon as they are ordered to the Philippines.

During the bombardment of Matanzas, Cuba by Sampson it was reported that the only casualty was a mule. If the mule's shoes could have been preserved they could have been melted into a loving cup for the "hero of Matanzas."

Close study of the proposed partition of the Samoan Islands shows that Germany has succeeded in getting just what she has been after for years. The productive islands of the group are given to Germany, while we are put off with a coal station in a barren and unproductive island. Evidently diplomacy has succeeded in obtaining for Germany, what we were at one time willing to go to war over rather than relinquish our claim to.

That McKinley, in his forthcoming message will propose legislation against the trusts is hinted at, but it will be difficult for him to impress the country with the sincerity of his attitude. There is a well grounded belief that the question of trusts and the existence of enormous campaign funds are interwoven. With the chairman of the Republican Campaign Committee defending the trusts, it is not hard to see what effect the McKinley tirade against trusts will have on Congress.

Although General Otis reports, as usual, that he has the situation in the Philippines "well in hand" it is to be noted, with regret, that one of the sharpest fights of the war has lately occurred, in which Major Logan, the son of General John A. Logan, and several other officers lost their lives. It will be noticed, also, that Otis has not yet located Aguinaldo definitely. In view of these facts, there is modification of the satisfaction with which the favorable reports from the seat of war are received. In fact, the majority of the leading War Department officials are skeptical about the early closing of hostilities.

The contest for Democratic leadership of the House of Representatives is growing warm. The leading candidates are DeArmond, of Missouri; Richardson, of Tennessee, and Bankhead, of Alabama. At present Richardson is unquestionably in the lead, and his friends predict with confidence that he will be chosen. Although the minority nomination for Speaker of the House is somewhat of an empty honor, yet it carries with it titular leadership upon the floor, and puts the man so honored in direct line for nomination for speaker, should his party afterwards get control. Richardson is justly regarded as one of the best parliamentarians in the House, and under his leadership the republicans will find difficult work in keeping matters all their own way.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 18, '99

The latest imperialistic dream includes a combination between this government, Great Britain, and Germany, for the purpose of domination the commerce and preserving the peace of the world. Some believe that this combination has already been partially made.

The Cruiser Charleston, wrecked off the coast of the island of Luzon, although one of the oldest ships of our new navy, was worth more than half a million dollars, and that sum may now be added to the large and rapidly growing amount that this country is paying for imperialism.

What readers of this paper have known for sometime that Boss Platt was scheming to get Gov. "Teddy" Roosevelt on the ticket with Mr. McKinley next year—is beginning to be fully understood by friends of other would-be running mates of Mr. McKinley. That Platt was working with the knowledge and consent of Roosevelt has been suspected from the first, and now it is practically certain. Roosevelt told a prominent New York republican the other day that if the party managers wished him to run for the Vice Presidency he would accept. Humph! of course he would accept, and be almighty glad of the opportunity, too.

According to what seems to be trustworthy information, the administration is secretly dickering with Aguinaldo. It is said that Gen. Otis, was instructed to open communication with Aguinaldo and submit certain propositions from this government to him, and that Otis replied that he had forwarded the dispatches to Gen. MacArthur, with instructions to get them to Aguinaldo, if he could find him. Not a word of information as to the nature of the propositions submitted to Aguinaldo, or rather which this government is trying to submit to him can be had in official circles, further than a statement that they relate to Spanish prisoners.

Why the preliminary report of the Philippine Commission, which was forced by Mr. McKinley for use in Ohio, did not throw any bouquets at Gen. Otis has been ascertained. Admiral Dewey put his foot down on the report containing a single sentence of praise for Otis. And that isn't all that has become known. Admiral Dewey, while declining to criticize Otis, told Mr. McKinley that if the American army had been commanded by the right sort of an officer there would have been no war with the Filipinos. That is said to have been the principal reason for curtailing the authority of Otis, by fixing it so that Gen. MacArthur, Lawton, and Wheaton, would be left free to fight the troops under them in their own way during the present campaign against Aguinaldo.

Clothed With Power.

He was a little uncouth, but was a great traveler. He had just returned from the wilds of central Africa, where he had bobbed with all the royalties of that savage region, and was being lionized in the swaggar drawing rooms of Belgravia.

"Do tell us about the queen of Boorabooloo," said the Duchess of Lomshire. "Is she clothed with great power?"

"Your grace would think so," he replied. "If you were to see her six nigger maids of honor facing her corsets."—Pick-Me-Up.

Sure He Was Irish.

"Why do you think this man who almost drove over you was Irish?"

"Because I threatened to lick him."

"Well?"

"Well, instead of driving on about his business, he got down from his wagon and wanted to fight."—Chicago Times-Herald.

Commercial Cupid.

"Did you enjoy your wedding trip, Mabel?"

"Oh, such fun! We sold all the presents we didn't want and bought a lot of lovely things which we wanted and didn't get."—Detroit Free Press.

SALE OF VALUABLE TOWN LOTS.

By virtue of the decree, made at September term 1899 of Pitt Superior Court, in the cause of J. T. Bruce against Harry Skinner executor and surviving partner and others.

The undersigned named therein, will expose to public sale before the Court House door in Greenville to the highest bidder for cash, on Monday the 20th of Nov. 1899, the following described property, that is to say the several lots and pieces of land belonging to the late firm of Latham & Skinner embraced in that plat known in the plan of the town of Greenville as West Greenville or Skinnerville.

One lot numbered 3 and fronting on Fourth and Elizabeth streets. This plat of land is divisible into 4 separate lots, it will be offered as a whole and quarter sections.

One lot or parcel of land lying between lots Nos 3 and 4 and the W & W railroad on the east and Fourth street on the north and Fifth street on the south including lot no 5 in said plat.

One lot fronting on Elizabeth and Ward streets and numbered 4 in the plan of that part of said town.

One lot fronting on 4th and Jarvis streets adjoining the lot of J S Congleton and known as lot No. 18 in the plan of that part of the town.

One lot fronting on Jarvis and Third streets and known as lot No 17.

One lot fronting on Jarvis and Fourth streets and known as lot No 21.

One lot fronting on Latham and Fourth streets immediately opposite J S Congleton's residence and known as lot No 20.

One lot fronting on Third street adjoining the land of Davis & Cobb and known as lot No 35.

One lot fronting on Jarvis and Third streets and known as lot No 34.

One lot fronting on Jarvis and Fourth streets and known as lot No 33.

One lot fronting on Fourth street and adjoining the lands of Cobb & Davis on west and known as lot No 32.

One lot fronting on Fourth street and adjoining the lands of Davis & Cobb on the west, known as lot No 31.

One lot fronting on Ward street adjoining the lands of Davis & Cobb on the west and known as lot No 28.

One lot fronting on Fourth and Jarvis streets and known as lot No 30.

One lot fronting on Ward and Jarvis streets and known as lot No 29.

One lot fronting on Ward and Jarvis streets and the old Tarboro road and known as lot No 25.

One lot fronting on Third and Latham streets and the old Tarboro road and known as lot No 24.

One parcel or lot of land fronting Third street on the North and lying between lot No 1 and the Branch.

One piece or parcel of land commencing on the south side of Third street opposite Jarvis street and running the same course and width of Jarvis street to Tar River adjoining J R Davenport on the east and Elliott Bros on the west, containing one and half acres.

One lot fronting on Third and Latham streets and known as lot No 23.

The above described lots constitutes the most desirable and practically the only residence lots on the market within the corporate limits of Greenville. There are no other building lots within the same distance from the Court House, churches, schools and main business street to be purchased.

We call attention to home seekers and investors to this sale. An opportunity for both. A plat of the lots showing their exact location and surroundings can be found at the office of Skinner & Whedbee and Jarvis & Blow. The terms of sale are cash but purchasers may one third in advance and the balance in three installments for deferred payments.

weapon. This was followed by a peace warrant and Perry had to give bond to keep the peace.

Hornets' Nest.

Today Mr. G. L. Moore brought left on exhibition. The nest was found and taken by Mr. Moore and one of his sons. The latter went up the tree and cut off the limb that held the nest, and while he was coming down with it the hornets attacked him. The first hornet that made a charge caused the young man to quicken his descent, and when reinforcements sailed into him he just turned loose everything and dropped out of the tree but was not hurt.

Seeking Commutation.

Rev. W. H. Furkins, of the colored Methodist church, is taking around a petition asking the Governor to commute the death sentence against Lorenzo Brown to life imprisonment, and says he has received many signatures to it. He also says that the report that the victim of the condemned man was dead is untrue, as the girl is well and hearty.
