NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, Nov. 22, '99

Mr. Thos. Bullock, of Bethel, was in town Monday.

R. H. Hunsucker, of Kinston, was over again yesterday.

A wedding here and one near by on the 29th. Guess who?

Mr. Dock Clark seems to take well as a tobacco drummer. He keeps busy all the time.

G. W. Parker will be glad to send price list to any one or answer any inquiries that may be made concerning wire fence.

W. O. Barnhill and wife, of Greenville, also Mr. M. Wollard, wife and little boy of Whichard's were the guests of Mc. G. Bryan Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Edwards have our deepest sympathy in the loss of their little girl, Velmerree. She was next to the little baby that died two weeks ago, and was the pet of the family.

B. F. Manning & Co. come as near being top in quality and bottom in price as any general merchandise dealers you will find. If you haven't been patronizing them, you only have to give them a trial.

COMING AND GOING.

Orders are coming and goods going all the time. We are now shipping about twenty thousand, just ordered out, and the prospect is bright to be overrun with orders instead of goods.

A Day of Reckoning Will Surely Come.

Dr. J. D. Hufham, greatly respected and beloved by the people of North Carolina, has still more endeared himself to all right thinking people because of his open statements in regard to the cruel management of the unfortunate inmates of the State's prison. While we rejoice at Dr. Hufham's stand, we are sorry that the editor of the great Baptist paper, The Biblical Recorder, has seen proper to rather vindicate the cruel treatment accorded convicts by one Lewis Summerell, a penitentiary supervisor. His insinuation at the News an Observer and the secular press of the State is discourteous to say the least of it, and certainly uncalled for in a great religious paper. We are with Dr. Hufham and Josephus Daniels in this matter and unhesitatingly condemn the cruelties proven to have been inflicted upon the helpless convicts, and with Dr. Hufham we thank the News and Observer and the Morning Post for making these things public. One thing is very evident, that the public would never have known any of these things had not those two good Raleigh dailies given the evidence to the public, for it is reasonable to suppose that the Board of Directors and Superintendent would have covered up everything, since they have passed over this revolting evidence and declared the management "tolerable." A day of reckoning will surely come.—Warren Record.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER, 22, 1899

As the time draws near for the holding of the convention of tobacco growers, in Raleigh on Dec. 6th, we again publish the call of President J. Bryan Grimes for the purpose of impressing the importance of the meeting upon the minds of the farmers. Pitt county, and every other tobacco growing county, ought to be well represented at the convention. The price of tobacco concerns all, and there is reason to believe the price is controlled arbitrarily, therefore the matter should be investigated and proper steps taken to protect the planters. Let the convention be largely attended by representative men.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 20, '99
Representative Richardson, of Tenn., is the first one of the four candidates for the Democratic nomination for Speaker of the House, which carries with it the Democratic floor leadership during the Fifty-sixth Congress, to reach Washington and open headquarters. Richardson says he has received more pledges of support than any one of the other three candidates—Bankhead of Alabama, DeArmond, of Missouri, and Sulzer, of New York—and expresses confidence in his success, but the friends of the other candidates also express confidence of the success of their man in this good-natured contest for the democratic leadership in the House. Mr. Bailey, of Texas, has not yet reached Washington, but he stated during the last session that he would not again be a candidate, but would support Mr. Bankhead for the honor. Some are predicting that there will be a deadlock in the caucus and that the friends of all the candidates will compromise by nominating Mr. Bailey again.

If there were any doubt about Representative Henderson having been the administration's choice for Speaker, it would have been dissipated by what has occurred since his arrival in Washington. Almost before he had removed the dust of travel from his clothes, he called at the White House to know whether Mr. McKinley had any orders to give as to the Committee assignments, aside from the packing of the Committee on Banking and Currency in favor of the single gold standard bill, which was ordered last summer. Mr. Henderson is going to be a McKinley Speaker, and this House, instead of registering the will of Czar

Reed as the last one did, will register the will of Mr. McKinley.

In order to get control of the Senate Finance Committee of which a majority have for years been silver men, even since the Committee was controlled by the republicans the gold worshippers are going to reorganize the Senate Committee, giving the republicans nine members in those consisting of thirteen and seven in those consisting of eleven. Even then the gold men will only have a majority of one in the Finance Committee, as Jones, of Nevada, classed as a silver republican and Wolcott, of Colorado, who calls himself a republican bimetallic, can be counted upon to act with the silver men on the question of reporting a bill to enact the single gold standard. The four democratic members of this Committee are Vest, of Mo., Jones of Arkansas, Daniels, of Va., and Chilton, of Texas, all staunch silver men. Unless Mr. McKinley gets frightened by those republicans, who although willing to vote for a gold standard bill if compelled to do so, believe it will be bad policy to pass one on the eve of a Presidential campaign, such a bill is likely to be jammed through at this session of Congress. It will depend largely upon the attitude taken by Mr. McKinley in his message to Congress.

Although the election is over, Ohio republicans are still getting fat slices of pie from the official counter. One of the last to be fed was Mr. H. W. Hart, a young lawyer of Alliance, who has been appointed U. S. Consul, at Dusseldorf, Germany, considered a very desirable post, to fill a vacancy caused by death.

The statement that Boss Hanna had told Mr. McKinley that he would not remain at the head of the republican national committee is believed to be nothing more than a ruse to head off the fight against Hanna, by prominent republicans. Hanna may retire, but if he does, it will be because he knows it is a choice of going apparently of his own will and getting kicked out.

False Economy

Ask the merchant who does not use the columns of the daily press why he does not advertise, and nine times out of ten he will tell you that he can't afford to do so; that his business does not pay expenses. Foolish man! He doesn't reason backward from effect to cause. It is here that the paradox comes in. The reason he can't afford to advertise is because he doesn't advertise. Let him try the experiment! Unless an experience shall fail he will get his money back fourfold, gospel measure. It is false economy to attempt to save money by neglecting the surest way to bring it in.—Philadelphia Record.

Japanese theatres have their boxes so arranged that the ladies can change their dresses, as it is not considered stylish for a lady to appear an entire evening in one dress and with the same ornaments

The Hickory Democrat says, "when we remember that the Republican party of North Carolina contains four negro voters for every white voter in their ranks, it is easy to decide just how sincere their leaders are in declaring that they oppose the constitutional amendment because they fear it will disfranchise white men."

Beauty is Blood Deep.

"Good and Bad Eels."
"So you think that little eels are sweet and that big eels are rank and strong, do you?" said a fish dealer. "Well, you're off—it isn't the size of the eel that governs his taste. It is his habitation and way of life. But most people think as you do, and throw away the big eel and cook the little one, and then, if the little fellow is strong, they think it is because he wasn't little enough. Nothing could be further from the truth."
"The eel that inhabits a stream with a hard, clean, sandy bottom is sweet and edible, be he as big as your leg or tiny as your finger, for this eel finds food scarce, and he must exercise and keep sober and hustle—else he will starve—and this active career makes him healthy and wholesome. But the eel that lives in the mud, where provisions are plentiful, is unfit for the table, for his life is sluggish, his habits and organs are bad and his flesh, when cooked, tastes and smells of the muddy element. That is why the Schuylkill eel is worse than carrion for table purposes, while the eel of the upper Delaware makes a dainty dish."—Philadelphia Record.

More Miles Than You Can Count.
Statements as to the distance of the pole star from the earth which have appeared in some of the newspapers lately have been ridiculously inadequate. One of the estimates made is 255,000,000 miles. Now, if one will remember that the sun is 93,000,000 miles away and that its light comes to us in eight minutes, he will see that if the foregoing estimate of the distance of the pole star were right its beams could reach us in about 15 days. It would be only about 2,700 times as far off as the sun.
Light travels 6,000,000,000,000 miles in a year, and even the most modest guesses as to the parallax of Polaris make it 35 light years. Pritchard's estimate in 1887 was 90 light years, but he has since modified his figures. Hence, if one will write 210 and add 12 ciphers thereto he will have the number of miles which the most conservative authorities believe intervene between the earth and the pole star.—New York Tribune.

Call for Convention of Tobacco Growers.

To the tobacco planters of North Carolina:

By the authority of the North Carolina Tobacco Growers' Association formed in Raleigh, October 19th, 1899, I call a convention of the tobacco planters of North Carolina to assemble in Raleigh December 6th, 1899.

Planters in every tobacco-growing county are requested to form county associations and send delegates, as many as they wish, to this convention. In counties where there is no local organization individual growers are urged to attend, so that if possible all the tobacco-growing sections of the State will be represented.

Planters from Virginia and South Carolina are asked to join us.

Representatives of the tobacco journals, manufacturers and warehousemen of the State are invited to be present and furnish such data and information as they may have, which will aid us in ascertaining the true cause of the present depression in the prices of leaf tobacco.

The continually diminishing prices have been keenly felt by every planter, and it is hoped that in this convention some practical plan may be evolved by which producers with judicious, conservative and persistent concert of action may better their condition.

If the prevailing low prices are due to over production we should face the situation and endeavor to remedy it. If it is found that the price is fixed by arbitrary methods we should vigorously protest and determine to make that protest effectual.

Every intelligent farmer should recognize the advantages to be secured by intelligent organization and determined co-operation.

J. BRYAN GRIMES,
President North Carolina Tobacco Growers' Association.
Grimesland, N. C., Nov. 6, '99.

Thoughts for Meditation.

The grace of the Spirit comes only from heaven and lights up the whole bodily presence.—Spurgeon.

Let us be of good cheer, remembering that the misfortunes hardest to bear are those which never come.—Lowell.

Make but a few explanations. The character that cannot defend itself is not worth vindicating.—F. W. Robertson.

When a man has been guilty of any vice or folly, the best atonement he can make for it is to warn others not to fall into the like.—Addison.

They slumber sweetly whom faith rocks to sleep. No pillow so soft as a promise; no coverlid so sure as an assured interest in Christ.—Spurgeon.

The meanest, most contemptible kind of praise is that which first speaks well of a man and then qualifies it with a "but."—Henry Ward Beecher.
