WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, Dec. 2, '99

Christmas comes next.

Jesse Sugg was in town yesterday. The school gave a nice little entertainment last night.

Miss Mary Hardy returned from Ayden yesterday morning.

Lots of cotton is selling here now for 7½ cents.

H. M. Dixon is suffering very bad with a rising from a tooth.

Quite a large crowd attended Thanksgiving services Thursday. Pastor Bilbro made appropriate remarks on "Good and evils of our country."

Register of Deeds, T. R. Moore and Dr. David James, of Greenville, were down here Thursday. They caught some of our people at work, but under the circumstances Dr. James decided it was a good sign.

Holiday is over, And by the rules The M'fg. Co.'s hands Must go back to their tools. They don't mind work though, For it's generally understood That they're making an honest living, By making Honest Goods.

ONE THING CERTAIN.—G. W. Parker has some very strange notions, and you can't always tell what he's going to do, but one thing you may know, he's going to sell you wire fence if he can, and he'll sell you the second time too without a wonder.

What a wonder that Wednesday was such a pretty day when we hear of eight or ten weddings on that day. Most every one expected snow or some very bad weather. It must be a good sign and would like to say to the young married folks, that if you can't find homes elsewhere you can in Winterville. The short history of our town will also prove it to be about as lucky a place for the single ones to get married as can be found anywhere. Bud Joe is about the only exception. He seems to be afraid of the women folks yet.

While making some blackboard demonstrations in the room of the fourth grade of the Union school of Wilmington, Tuesday, Miss Leo B. Cameron, the teacher, dropped dead.

JOHNSON'S MILLS ITEMS.

JOHNSON'S MILLS, N. C. Dec. 1 MARRIED.

Mr. Elizah Pittman and Mrs. Lizzie Bland were happily married Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock at the home of the bride, Rev. J. R. Tingle officiating. The attendants were:

Mr. Gaskill with Miss Ella Bland, Zeb Bland with Miss Maggie Cox, Ben Skinner with Miss Nep Bland, F. F. Cox with Miss Mamie Dawson. The bridal party left immediately for the home of the groom in Beaufort county.

Turkey cooked in Greece and served in China should have a little Chile sauce.

You can excuse an old maid for wanting to go to the Philippines as a nurse when you consider how many engagements are reported from there

A Delightful Evening.

The members of the Helena Lodge, Daughters of Rebekah, held a banquet at their hall Friday evening, which was unanimously voted by those present one of the most enjoyable events of the season. Tableau scenes, enchanting music, and a table well laden with delicious viands to tempt the most fastidious taste, called forth a hearty and unanimous vote of thanks to the committee in charge of affairs.

K. of P. Officers.

At last regular meeting of Tar River Lodge No. 93 K. of P. the following officers were elected for the ensuing semi-annual term:

R. M. Moye—C. C.
O. E. Warren—V. C.
J. N. Hart—Prelate.
J. L. Fleming—M. of W.
Dr. W. H. Bagwell—M. at A.
T. M. Hooker—K. of R. & S.
Dr. R. L. Carr—M. of E.
H. W. Whedbee—M. of F.

Ladies, Get The Watch.

On Monday evening a filled gold watch will be presented to the handsomest lady; a gold-plated watch chain to the ugliest man; a beautiful ring to the handsomest girl, (under fifteen,) and a gold-filled scarf pin to the best looking boy at Col. Grover's War Entertainment at the Opera House. Now on exhibition at the Burch printing office.

A Smile in Each.

When a washerwoman dies she's a sort of dead wringer.

Even an athletic can be wound around a woman's finger.

Empty compliments are poor satisfaction to a starving man.

The latest thing out is the fellow who goes home at 4 o'clock in the morning.

A STOCK IN TOUCH WITH NATURE'S REQUIREMENTS.

Suits and Overcoats.

Our stock was never so large and attractive as at the present time; innumerable additions having been in the last few days made thereto, and the prices are certainly not the least tempting feature. We are showing and selling suits that cannot be duplicated at the figures asked, that combine fascinating style with thoroughly dependable service. Every one is perfect in fit—substantial linings—careful finish—choice material. They are cut in the best approved mode and there is enough of them to give you the assurance of the neatest possible fit. If you aim to be dressy, neat and in style, do not pass us by.

STYLISH - ✦ - STYLISH.

No need to make any mistake in this line. If this store was not entitled to that designation, we would not be doing the business we do. You are not supposed to be "up" on every late fashion, but we are. We are impelled by business honesty and principle to sell you the latest and most stylish goods. This is our duty as progressive merchants, and we aim to meet the same on all occasions.

Our stock is in style—new style—this season's style. When you buy here be assured of one certain fact—You are procuring the latest, you are wearing what was made to wear just at this time, and therefore the most fashionable to be had.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1899.

Before Aguinaldo rebelled against us and while he was fighting Spain he was a patriot in the eyes of the Administration. Now he is a brigand.

After wobbling on the currency question for years, it is at last announced that McKinley has sufficiently stiffened his dorsal vertebrae to urge that some step be taken toward enacting a gold standard.

Mr. Baily, of Texas has declared that Mr. Bankhead is his choice for minority leader of the House of Representatives. Mr. Baily has been there himself and ought to know the kind of man needed to tackle the rampant majority.

Former Senator Call of Florida declares that his defeat was brought about by the money of the Standard Oil Company. Trusts in Florida, he says, are flourishing finely. Why not name Mark Hanna as a committee of one to become acquainted with this latest form of Republican monopoly fostering.

Our royally inclined President has become so sensitive relative to his doings that any criticism on the part of a poor government clerk brings down the Administration wrath to the point of dismissal. Noble E. Dawson, a clerk in the War Department, has been removed for criticising the President. Evidently free speech is restricted not only in Russia and in China, but in the United States as well.

The trusts are an issue that the Republicans do not care to have brought prominently to the front in next year's campaign. To show the extent to which these monopolies created to enrich the stockholders at the expense of the people at large, have been nourished under that great humbug, the protective tariff, should be the aim of every Democratic editor and speaker in next year's struggle. Mark Hanna to the contrary notwithstanding, there are trusts and very big ones at that.

The Charlotte Observer has adopted a new method of printing photographs—stands them on their heads.

Sixty traveling men met in Charlotte Wednesday night and organized an association to be known as the "Traveling Men's Union of America." The prime object of the association is to bring about concerted action to secure from the railroads a 5,000 mile interchangeable mileage book and an excess baggage allowance of 250 pounds.

With Cuba on the eve of revolution and the war in the Philippines still in progress, it would seem as though the benevolent intentions of the Republicans were misconstrued by our prospective foster children. That the interference to drive Spain from the western hemisphere was right, no thinking man doubts, and had the President possessed sufficient courage and candor to state his intentions relative to the islands, there would have been no trouble either in Cuba or in the Philippines, but the vacillating policy of a weak man brought untold bloodshed in the Orient and probable trouble in Cuba, since the former low mutterings of discontent in the Pearl of the Antilles, have now assumed proportions that penetrate even to the jelly fish incumbent of the White House. Cuba and the Philippines must be free or there will be year's of discord.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 1, 99.

"Speaker Henderson promises to be just as much of an autocrat as Thomas B. Reed, if one can judge from present indications. If anything, he is more dictatorial than the man from Maine ever dreamed of being." That is not a democratic opinion, but one uttered by a prominent republican member of the House, whose name cannot be used, because he spoke in confidence to a personal friend. It indicates, however, that things are not turning out in accordance with the numerous prophecies of reform that were to be inaugurated when Mr. Henderson became Speaker.

Much regret is felt in Washington over the announcement that the health of Hon. W. L. Wilson who was the last democratic chairman of the House committee on Ways and Means, and Postmaster General during the last Cleveland administration, was in a precarious condition. Mr. Wilson, who has since his retirement from public life been President of the Washington and Lee University, at Lexington Va., has been ordered to Arizona, for the winter, by his physician.

It is but just that we should say that Admiral Dewey has done two things which have lowered him very much in our estimation. The acceptance of the house tendered him in Washington is one of the things. No well-bred and self-respecting man in the land can think as much of him for the doing of it. If he had declined the offer save as a gift for a home for unfortunate mariners and those dependent upon them in their poverty he would have added to rather than diminished his lustre. He is no pauper who has the income of a salary of over thirteen thousand dollars a year. The other thing that worked a downfall in the thermometer of those to whom this Republic is a precious legacy as a protector of civil and religious liberty, is his marrying a Roman Catholic woman. Mormonism and Roman Catholicism are logically contrary and contradictory to the life of our government.—Rev. P. R. Law, in Lambertson Robesonian.

This thing of preventing Roberts from breaking into Congress with a plurality of wives has made most people lose sight of the fact that the Hon. Matt Quay is trying to break into the same place with a plurality of indictments, says the Baltimore Sun.

Snow Hill Railroad.

We had the pleasure of a conversation with Mr. Chas. Abernethy this week, who is here attending court. Mr. Abernethy is the attorney for the A. & N. C. railroad, and while we cannot at this time state anything officially, we gather from what Mr. Abernethy said that it was the intention of the president and directors to begin work soon constructing the long talked of expected branch road to Snow Hill. We also hear that there is a standard gauge being built out from Tarboro heading towards Snow Hill, a force of from 150 to 200 being hard at work, and the grading is finished up to twelve miles from Tarboro.—Greene County Standard.

The advertisement for a wife which recently appeared in this paper, has brought a deluge of offers from all parts of Cumberland and from all sorts of females and many of the replies are unique. A number of the fair applicants have presented themselves in person but none yet have been to his liking. Here is a sample taken at random from a batch of answers:

Mr. G. L. Smith,
Dear Sir:—I notice in a recent date of the "Observer" you advertise for a wife. I would state I am in search for a husband. I am 19 years old and have been married twice and am the mother of two very interesting children and am worth $3,500 in money. I am willing to marry again the man of your description, provided his life is well insured. I hope your advertisement is no joke and I will soon get a favorable reply. Hoping to hear from you at an early date. Address X, P. O., Fayetteville.—Fayetteville Observer.

For the fiscal year ending December first the number issued was 358, for whites 169, for colored 189. This is the largest number ever issued in the county for one year.

The Reason.

The reason why the newspapers are the best mediums for reaching the people and securing business is that they come into closer touch with the public than any other kind of publications. They greet the reader's eye 365 day in a year. It is the persistency, if we may so call it, of the newspaper that gives it value. Every day it is new and must be read, and every day the advertiser is making a direct appeal to the reader for his patronage. It is the constant dropping of water that wears away the hardest stone.—Fourth Estate.
