Sunday Schools.

The several Sunday schools of the town will have entertainments during the holidays.
The Methodist school will have a party in the opera house on Wednesday night, 27th.
The Baptist school will have their party in the opera house on New Year's night.
The Presbyterian school will have a Christmas tree on Tuesday night, 26th.
The Episcopal school will have a Christmas tree, the night not yet being decided upon.

They Deserve it.

Our merchants have had a good Christmas trade and THE REFLECTOR is rejoiced thereat. They have been enterprising, and have put forward their best efforts to please their customers, they have advertised liberally, and they have deserved the success with which they have met. And now we wish them every one a merry Christmas.

Attention Tobacco Growers.

Let us again call the attention of tobacco growers to the fact that a meeting will be held in Greenville on the first Monday in January (New Year's day) to choose delegates to a convention of tobacco growers to be held in Raleigh on January 17th. There should be a good attendance.

Harding-Long.

A very pretty marriage was celebrated in the parlors of G. F. College this morning at 10:30, the contracting parties being Miss Lillian Long, one of the faculty, and Mr. Wm. F. Harding, a brilliant young attorney from Greenville, N. C.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. N. M. Watson, in the presence of many friends and the faculty of the institution. The ladies of the faculty were attendants, while Miss Shelton, of Winston, was maid of honor, the groom's brother best man.

The marriage of the morning was preceded by a reception last night, largely attended at the college. At noon the bridal party left for Greenville, their future home, carrying with them the best wishes of numerous friends.—Greensboro Record, 21st.

Christmas Permit.

Mayor J. G. Moye asks THE REFLECTOR to state that the ordinance prohibiting the shooting of fireworks will be suspended on Christmas day, from 12 o'clock Sunday night to 12 o'clock Monday night. Any one convicted of exploding them at any other time will be punished to the extent of the law.

THE REFLECTOR boys are going to enjoy a box of Winterville cigars that they have just opened for Christmas. They know a good thing when they smoke it.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER, 23 1899

Christmas is the one time of year above all others when everybody tries to be happy. It is a time when all feel that the year with its duties is practically completed, and for the time being care and trial are forgotten, and all else is put aside for the enjoyment of the happy season.

Most surely the Senate will not pass the Mason resolution sympathizing with the Boers. There is a limit even to hypocrisy, and while we are doing in the Philippines what the Boers are preventing the British from doing in South Africa, it behooves the imperialists in the White House, the Cabinet and in Congress to at least maintain a semblance of consistency before the world.

The fact that an Assistant Secretary of the Interior, a man as close to McKinley as the Hon. Webster Davis is now on his way to the Transvaal, should not be lost sight of by the public. It is claimed he visits that country for his "health" but it strikes the ordinary observer that South Africa is a very unhealthy place for Anglo-Saxons just at present.

WINE OF CARDUI WOMEN WHO WORK. Str. Louis, Mo., Aug. 12. Though only 19 years old, I suffered from pains and female troubles two years. Last spring I got so bad I had to quit work. I had to support myself, and could not afford a high-priced doctor. I got one bottle of Wine of Cardui and that made me feel better. Have now used several bottles and am well. My mother used the Wine for Change of Life and was greatly relieved. MISS MARGARET WALSH. Many girls and women find it necessary to earn their own living in various kinds of employment. Their work is often so hard and confining that the health breaks down. Their delicate constitutions are unfitted for tiresome tasks. Weakness nearly always makes its appearance in the peculiarly delicate womanly organs. Constant standing on the feet, and coming and going at the beck of a superintendent or foreman, induces falling of the womb, leucorrhoea, headache and backache. The pay of women workers is often so notoriously small that when sickness comes they have no money to engage skillful physicians. To them Wine of Cardui is truly a blessing. It cures them of their ills at a small cost, and they can act as their own physicians. No doctor can do as much for "female troubles" as Wine of Cardui. DRUGGISTS sell Large Bottles for $1.00.

Success has Crowned my Efforts.

My sale has been the talk of the town for the last ten days.

Every one who has visited my store have found a great mark down in goods.

And now as the old year is softly fading away leaving many bright recollections of 1899 I now take the greatest pleasure in extending my most sincere thanks for past patronage and hope to be favored with same in future.

With best wishes for a pleasant Christmas and a happy new year,

I remain Yours most truly,

DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Dec. 23, '99

Matt Slaughter, of Kinston, was over here Wednesday.

N. S. Fulford was in town taking orders yesterday.

Jessie Cannon, of near Ayden, was here last evening.

M. G. Bryan, cigar salesman, has returned home to spend Christmas.

Sam Hurst, who has been working at Newport News for several months, returned home last week.

Miss Maggie Rollins, of Whichard, is visiting her cousin, Miss Mollie Bryan, of this place.

R. H. Hunsucker took the train last night for Carthage where he will spend Christmas with relatives.

Several parties got off the train Thursday night to spend Christmas with Alfred Worthington, who lives near here.

The school here gave a very interesting entertainment at the Academy last night. It was highly commended by all.

The flags hanging around and the numerous toys in all the stores, which the people are eagerly purchasing, reminds us that Christmas is upon us again.

John R. Barnhill, from near Oakley, the scene of the late murder, was in town yesterday evening. His daughter is going to school here.

The A. G. Cox Manufacturing Company, in fact all the work in the place shut down last night for Christmas. They will open up again about Wednesday morning.

Mr. Harris, from Parmele, came in Thursday night. He has opened up a stock of groceries in Tucker Brothers store, which he has rented.

G. W. Parker has combed his hair nicely, put on a white collar, and is behind the counter helping B. F. Manning & Co. wait on their many customers. He is the wire fence man still, but you know wire fence must give way to Christmas for a few days.

Nothing nicer than silver for Xmas gifts at Wooten's Drug Store.

You will find the hearts for bracelets at Wooten's Drug Store.

Ebony hand mirror with silver name plate at Wooten's Drug Store.

The young ladies will give a bal poudre in the opera house Tuesday night.

Getting drunk is not a proper way to celebrate Christmas. Remember this.

The passenger train was three hours late again Friday night and came in just before 9 o'clock.

Pop crackers, cannon crackers, sky rockets, roman candles and other fire works at J. S. Norman's.

Fireworks can be used between 12 o'clock Sunday night and 12 o'clock Monday night—Christmas day.

There was an extra coach on the passenger train last night and this morning to accommodate the heavy Christmas travel.

From the length of our personal column today somebody may think everybody has left town, but there are a few of us left.

TO THE PUBLIC

Our Special Sale Closes To-day.

This sale has exceeded our most sanguine expectations

We appreciate the liberal patronage given to us, but are much more appreciative of the kind words spoken to us, in which confidence was expressed as to the integrity and honesty of the low prices. When we again announce a special sale we feel that it will command the confidence of the public.

Respectfully,

DON'T FAIL TO SEE

THE DISPLAY OF

Handsomely Decorated
Hand Painted China

NOW ON EXHIBITION AT OUR STORE AND WHICH WE TEND TO GIVE AWAY.

We guarantee that our prices on goods will remain the same.

This ware is rapidly taking the place of White Granite or Iron Stone China. It has that soft, white, velvet finish; is of the finest quality, and without doubt the best in the world. The shapes are the very latest patterns and have been designed to meet the tastes of the most fastidious.

It is only by our guaranteeing to use a large quantity of this ware that we have been able to get it at a price that puts it within the reach of all.

Our assortment consists of Cups and Saucers, Pie Plates, Breakfast Plates, Dinner Plates, Platters, Covered Dishes, Cream Pitchers, Sugar Bowls, Tea Pots, and everything else which goes to make up a FINE SET OF DISHES.

We earnestly invite you to call and inspect it, when we will cheerfully give you full information.

Very respectfully,

PULLEY & BOWEN.

THE DAILY REFLECTOR

No Paper Until Thursday.

Printers, like other folks, enjoy a few days rest and recreation when Christmas comes that they may mingle with friends and participate in the joys of the holidays. THE REFLECTOR boys have been faithful the past year and deserve a day or two's release from the daily routine and monotony at the case, therefore will have two days off besides Christmas day. This will make the next issue of THE DAILY REFLECTOR come on Thursday, 28th. The editor ought to have a little rest, too, but he can't take any, as he must use the days on which he don't have to be copy hunting in getting the books ready for closing up the year's business. So even on the days that the paper does not appear we will be at the office ready to wait on all who come. And THE REFLECTOR takes occasion here to wish every reader a merry Christmas, a wish in which each member of the force joins.
