WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Jan. 3, 1900.

Josh Manning has a position as clerk with B. F. Manning & Co.

Joseph Fornes, from Greenville, is now living in the house, formerly occupied by H. T. Smith.

R. H. Hunsucker is back from Carthage, where he has been spending Christmas with relatives.

Fred Smith, the carriage man, is here carrying a full line of carriage builder's material.

Arden Nobles, of Vanceboro, has just moved in town. He has rented a farm from A. G. Cox.

That long looked for car of salt, which B. F. Manning & Co's. customers have been waiting for so long, arrived yesterday.

L. N. Edwards will move tomorrow. He is going back to his farm this year. We regret to lose him and wish him a prosperous year.

Lewis Kittrell has taken charge of his new house here at last, having moved in this week. His house is a nice one and with some work he will have the best house in town.

We beg to inform all those who noticed our mistake in Winterville items some time ago, saying that the nineteenth century would be out in a few days, that the twentieth century will not be here until Jan. 1st, 1901.

Last Tuesday morning Billie Tripp's horse became frightened at the train and jumped through the glass front of one of A. G. Cox & Bro's brick stores, smashing the entire front, sash and all, except one large pane. The horse was blind and was left standing untied. He ran into a walling here some time ago, breaking a plank and hurting himself right badly. It looks like his owner would learn to be careful some time.

Keep it Rolling.

Did you see the boys roll up a ball in the snow? The longer they rolled the larger it grew. Advertising is just that way—the more you roll the ball the larger will be the return, but when you stop rolling the increase ceases and the ball begins to melt.

Locates Here.

Dr. C. C. Joyner has leased the office building on Third street that was occupied by the late Dr. F. W. Brown, and will locate here for the practice of medicine. Dr. Joyner is a Pitt county boy and one of our best young men. He is a graduate of the medical department of the State University and also of Jefferson Medical College of Philadelphia, in each of which he received high distinction. Since graduating he has practiced a year at Elm City, but like the true son of Pitt county that he is, he has such love for the place of his nativity that he comes back to cast his lot with his home people and labor with them for the advancement of his section. We wish him success.

The dressmaker is never what she seems.

Complimentary Musicals.

On the first at January Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Hooker gave a musical at their residence on Dickinson avenue in honor of their guest, Miss Marietta Swan, of Belleville, New York. After several songs magnificently rendered by Mrs. Hooker, Mrs. Grimes and Miss Swan and duets by Miss Clara Forbes on piano and C. S. Forbes with mandolin. The party was escorted to the dining room, where such a supper as only Mrs. Hooker and Mrs. Strause could prepare was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Grimes, Mrs. Henrietta Strause, Miss Clara Bruce Forbes, Miss Mary Alice Moye, Miss Marietta Swan, Miss Ada Wooten. Messrs. R. L. Davis, C. M. Jones, C. S. Forbes, H. W. Holcombe, N. H. Whitfield and Dr. R. L. Carr.

Jr. O. U. A. M. Officers.

At the last meeting of Acme Council No. 16. Jr. O. U. A. M. the following officers were elected for the ensuing term:

J. B. White, Councillor.
J. B. Jarvis, Vice Councillor.
D. J. Whichard, A. R. Secretary.
H. C. Hooker, Conductor.
J. L. Horne, Warden.
J. W. Bryan, Inside Sentinel.
E. A. Moye, Jr., Outside Sentinel.

W. H. Ragsdale, Chaplain.
The Council has recently had a considerable increase in members.

The Minstrels.

The band and minstrel boys returned Tuesday afternoon from their trip to Washington where they gave a performance Monday night. The boys had a cold ride through the country but they gave our neighbor town a warm show.

What Will the Year Bring?

"With hope millions stand on the closing day of the year with faces toward the future," writes Mrs. Hamilton Mott in the January Ladies' Home Journal. "What will the new year bring me? each one asks himself. No one knows. And how well it is that we do not. It requires sober thought to realize that what we are and what we do are along the lines of a wise creation. It is often very easy for us to feel that we might do better things for the better if the power and opportunity were but ours. But the most astute cleverness of man is a poor affair when compared with the simplest wisdom of God. And one thing that can make this new year before us happier is to have that one feeling, that one thought, that one faith always with us: That whatever is, is right and for the best. Frequently we cannot comprehend at the time why this should be so, why this should happen, and why some particular trial should come to us while some great joy comes at the same time to another; why we should have so little and others so much, and why certain things should enter into our lives except what is for our good. And so we say we shall cheerfully understand it."

It has come to be a settled business principle in advertising and success goes hand in hand. The time has passed when a man could establish a business and, little by little, build it up to profitable proportions without the aid of advertising. Competition is too fierce for that.

REUNITED AFTER 54 YEARS

Strange Fortunes of Twin Colored Brother and Sister— Sold in 1845.

Suffolk, Va., Dec. 28.—After living as strangers for fifty-four years, Boston Bryant, sixty-six years old, will be reunited to his twin-sister before the year 1899 is closed.

Boston is the venerable colored sexton of the Suffolk Christian Church, of whose pastor, Dr. W. W. Staley, he is the special friend and protege. Boston and Dr. Staley are both Tarheels by birth.

The life drama enacted by Boston and his twin-sister, Eliza Bryant, was made possible by slave-day customs. Way back in the early forties they were a happy pair of pickaninnies on a big North Carolina plantation. Their owner loved his slaves. He was also fond of wine and fast living. He was finally forced to sell one of his holdings every year to maintain his style of living.

It so came about that the twins were separated by sale about the year 1845, when they were twelve years old. They grew to manhood and womanhood without knowing each other's whereabouts.

Some days ago Eliza, whose last name is Gatling now heard that Boston was in Suffolk. She wrote a letter of inquiry, and now Boston expects to meet his sister at her home in Coxville, N. C., by Friday morning.

Boston is a typical ante-bellum negro, vigorous and active despite his age, and effusively polite to "white folks."

Dr. Staley asked his congregation for a special collection for the faithful old sexton. The response was liberal enough to pay his railroad fare and for several substantial presents besides.

Just in Time.

"Hello! Is that Mr. Highmus' residence?"
"Yes."
"Is that you, Fanny?"
"Yes."
"Are you alone?"
"Yes."
"So am I. Everybody else at the office has gone. I want to talk to you a little. Dr."
"Oh! Don't you know the girl at the central office is listening?"
"Darling, I was going to say, may come on before I get around this evening. It's a nice day, isn't it? Well, goodbye." —Chicago Tribune

A SINGLE STANDARD only is possible, whether as a test of excellence in journalism, or for the measurement of quantities, time or values; and

THE PHILADELPHIA RECORD after a career of over twenty years of uninterrupted growth is justified in claiming that the standard first established by its founders is the one true test of

A PERFECT NEWSPAPER.

To publish all the news promptly and succinctly and in the most readable form, without elision or partisan bias; to discuss its significance with frankness, to keep an open eye for public abuses, to give besides a complete record of current thought, fancies and discoveries in all departments of human activity in its daily editions of from 10 to 14 pages, and to provide the whole for its patrons at the nominal price of one cent, that was from the outset, and will continue to be the aim of "The Record."

THE PIONEER one-cent morning newspaper in the United States, "The Record" still leads where others follow.

Witness its unrivaled average daily circulation, exceeding 185,000 copies, and an average exceeding 145,000 copies for its Sunday editions of its plan of publication in every important city of the country testify to the truth of the assertion that in the quantity and quality of its contents, and in the price at which it is sold "The Record" has established the standard by which excellence in journalism must be measured.

THE DAILY EDITION of "The Record" will be sent by mail to any address for $3.00 per year or 25 cents per month.

THE SUNDAY EDITION at 2c. per copy or $1.00 per year, together with the Daily, will give its readers the best and freshest information of all that is going on in the world every day in the year, including holidays, will be sent for $4.00 a year or 35 cents per month.

Address THE RECORD PUB. CO., Record Building, Philadelphia, Pa.

Mysterious Disappearance.

The mysterious disappearance of Mr. Eugene G. Perry from his home at Six Forks, Wake county, is causing some comment. He left home two weeks ago, stating his intention of going to Durham. He came as far as Raleigh, and nothing is known of his whereabouts. Mr. Perry has a large farm, a wife and several children, and it is said there is no reason for his strange absence.—Raleigh Post.

Gilbert in Winston.

Winston, N. C., Jan. 1.—W. H. Gilbert, Winston's ex-hardware merchant who was arrested in California, arrived here this afternoon to await trial in the Federal Court at Greensboro. He declined to discuss his case except to say it was persecution. He believes he will be acquitted.

Minstrels Friday Night.

The people were so well pleased with the performance of the Osceola Minstrels last Friday night, that they have requested the boys to give another, and they will do so next Friday night, 5th. It will not be a repetition of the former one, but at the next performance there will be almost an entire change of programme, with new jokes, new songs, and new specialties. Professional minstrel troupes give no better performances than the home boys give, and by attending you not only get the worth of your money in fun, but also help the band get uniforms. Remember the date, Friday night.

THE DISPLAY OF

Handsomely Decorated Hand Painted China

NOW ON EXHIBITION AT OUR STORE AND WHICH WE INTEND TO GIVE AWAY.

We guarantee that our prices on goods will remain the same.

This ware is rapidly taking the place of White Granite or Iron Stone China. It has that soft, white, velvet, finish; is of the finest quality, and without doubt the best in the world. The shapes are the very latest patterns and have been designed to meet the tastes of the most fastidious.

It is only by our guaranteeing to use a large quantity of this ware that we have been able to get it at a price that puts it within the reach of all.

Our assortment consists of Cups and Saucers, Pie Plates, Breakfast Plates, Dinner Plates, Platters, Covered Dishes, Cream Pitchers, Sugar Bowls, Tea Pots, and everything else which goes to make up a FINE SET OF DISHES.

We earnestly invite you to call and inspect it, when we will cheerfully give you full information.

Very respectfully,

PULLEY & BOWEN.
