INDIGNATION MEETING.

BETHEL, N. C., 13, 1900.

EDITOR EASTERN REFLECTOR:

Please publish the following resolutions in the next issue of your paper. Very truly,

W. J. WHITEHURST, Sec.

At a mass meeting held in the town of Bethel, Pitt county, N. C., on January 5, 1900, the following resolutions were presented and adopted:

Whereas, We the citizens of Bethel, county of Pitt, state of North Carolina, believe the sale of intoxicating liquors either by licensed saloon or otherwise, is detrimental to the morals and endangers the property and happiness of our people;

Whereas, There have been two murders in our town in the past year from its influence;

Whereas, We have expressed our desires along this line by electing our present board of town commissioners who have removed bar-rooms from our midst;

Whereas, The County Commissioners disregarded a petition bearing the names of a majority of the white voters of our township, previously presented;

Whereas, By a majority vote they have granted license for a shop on the suburbs of our town under the existing circumstances;

Whereas, Mr. R. L. Davis, one of the Board of County Commissioners, did by his vote endeavor to prevent granting license for said bar-room;

Whereas, The business and morals of our town had been improved since the removal of bar-rooms; Be it resolved:

1. That we condemn the other two members of the Board for the reflection they have cast on our town commissioners and citizens.

2. That we will not be responsible for any crime or murder which may be committed because of said shop.

3. That we condemn them for favoring negro supremacy.

4. That we will never again support them as commissioners in the county of Pitt or any other office in our state.

5. That we call upon all morality loving people to beware of such officers.

6. That we commend Mr. Davis in the position which he took in the matter.

7. That we condemn them for endangering our business interests and peace.

8. That we have these resolutions published.

Something Good Coming.

Arrangements have been made for the appearance here of Alba Heywood, the prince of comedians, and his excellent company on Thursday, February 8th. Mr. Heywood has in the past ten years appeared in the principal towns and cities of the United States and established a reputation of which he is justly proud. He has returned many times to the same places, always meeting with unqualified success. Everywhere he is greeted with large and delighted audiences.

This opportunity of Greenville having a really first-class performance is due to the efforts of a few young men of the town, who have made the guarantee and personally assumed the responsibility necessary to secure the coming of the Alba Heywood Company. The young men have made a partial canvas and already a large number of tickets have been engaged. They should have the encouragement of the public in this.

One of the best calendars of the season is the "Cardui Weather Chart and Calendar for 1900," published by the Chattanooga Medicine Company, the manufacturers of McElree's Wine of Cardui and Thedford's Black-Draught. The REFLECTOR office has just received one from the publishers, which consists of twelve sheets of paper, 13x20 inches in size, all fastened together with a gilt tin strip and a brass loop hanger. Each sheet contains the calendar for one month in large figures that can be read across any room. Under the figures patent weather signals indicating Prof. DeVoe's Weather Forecasts for every day in the year appear. The moon's changes and legal holidays are also shown. We understand a few copies of it can be secured by sending 10 one-cent postage stamps to the Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

J. C. HORNER.

Storekeepers in several Western cities—notably Denver and Kansas City—have been greatly annoyed of late by the activity of a clever feminine shoplifter who plies her vocation with the aid of a false arm. She wears a long cape the front of which hanging open, discloses to the unsuspecting salesperson two hands clasped; but the left hand is of wax. Under cover of the folds of the garment the real left hand seizes upon small articles displayed on the store counters.

Premature Announcement.

Winston, N. C., Jan. 11.—Mr. R. B. Glenn is greatly annoyed over the announcement in the papers that he is a candidate for United States Senator. The representative of the Atlanta Journal did talk with him while in Washington, but Mr. Glenn did not know his statement would be published. Mr. Glenn says he considers it too early for him or any one else to declare himself a candidate for senator, but that every good Democrat should devote his time and attention to the ratification of the constitutional amendment, as he considers this of more importance than the question of the successor to Senator Pritchard. There is one error in the Atlanta Journal's interview with Mr. Glenn which he wishes corrected. He is made to say: "We are tired of being ruled by the ignorant vote." What he said was: "We are tired of being cursed by the ignorant, vicious negro vote."

Above all, advertising must be continuous. The great secret of success in business lies not in advertising when everybody wants to buy, but in inducing the public to purchase when they are less willing. The tactless business man quits advertising at the close of an unusually brisk business period, such as the Christmas holidays; but the experienced merchant does not interrupt the continuity of his address to the public, knowing that with the close of the active purchasing season the attraction of customers becomes more difficult. He advertises then with as much vigor as during the holiday rush, and he gets the patronage the lack of which the non-advertiser mourns. The merchant who achieves success advertises extensively, continuously and with discrimination.—Philadelphia Record.

Are You a White Man?

There seems to be some misunderstanding among some people as to what effect the constitutional amendment will have on men who cannot read. This misunderstanding is the fruit of the misrepresentations of those office-seekers whose salvation in this world depends upon the defeat of the amendment. There is no reason that any one should not see into every feature of the proposition. It says in words as plain as the English language can make it, that no man who is white shall be deprived of his vote; that no man who voted before 1867 shall be deprived of his vote; and that no man who is a descendant of people who voted prior to 1867 shall be deprived of his vote. All this class of people can register and vote under the provisions of this great constitutional amendment no matter whether they ever saw or heard tell of a single letter in any book. And to further protect and forever make sure the rights of these white people to vote, this amendment says that these white are descendants of white men, when once registered, shall never stop voting until the good Lord shall call them to that country where voting is not necessary and where demagogues are not found.—Dunn Union.

County Home Has a Narrow Escape.

Superintendent J. W. Smith tells us there came near being a fire at the County Home about sunset Saturday evening. Sparks fell on the roof of the oldest building at the Home and set it on fire. Fortunately it was discovered and put out before any damage of consequence was done.

Notice.

This is to notify all of my white friends who believe Lorenzo Brown's sentence should be commuted, that I have this day entered into an agreement with a lawyer to go to Raleigh to see the Governor in regard to commuting said Lorenzo Brown, and that if he (the lawyer) should not get the commutation then he would refund the money. Now all I want is $20 which I hope you my kind friends will contribute.

The News From Billville.

We write the copy for this week's issue from our bed, where we have suffered an attack from the grip and three doctors.

Our New Year resolution is framed on the wall before us. We are sure to keep it, if our illness continues; as we can't swallow anything.

We return thanks to the kind friends who have remembered us during our indisposition with such delicacies as baked 'possum, stewed rabbit and corned beef.

The preacher assured us yesterday that if we should cross the river this trip we would have "a warm welcome" on the other side. But somehow or other that kind of news is not very comforting to us.

Our office apartments are like an iceberg in this freezing weather but they are holding a protracted revival meeting next door to us, and so much is said about hellfire and brimstone what we're kept hot enough to pull through all right.—Atlanta Constitution.

“He jests at scars that never felt a wound.” and he scoffs at love-sickness that never felt its grip.

Mammon has a mortgage on half the people in this world and the other half don’t object to a little money—occasionally.

In the satchel of many a soul the dirty clothes of habit are piled mountain high on the clean, pure linen of a professed religion.

Debt is a dragon to be dreaded by every human being, for it is a device of the devil to produce deceit, dishonesty and commercial death.

Some people are so mean that ten thousand such souls could play hide-and-seek for a hundred years on a copper cent without finding each other.
