WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Jan. 17, 1900
Sorry to state that Mrs. A. G. Cox has been quite sick again.

Mr. Hunsucker and Jim Green went to Greenville last night.

There is a good opening for a first class black-smith with the Hunsucker Carriage Co. Apply at once.

J. W. Harper of this place is agent for the best medicine that can be had for all kinds of stomach trouble. So those who have tried it say.

W. M. Carroll has several carpenters at work on a dwelling which he is building to rent. It will be occupied at first by J. R. Cooper.

The first car of guano of the season came in yesterday, and B. F. Manning is at his old work delivering it. Ask him if he don't love to handle it.

John Sutton moved in here Monday. He occupies the Mrs. Mary Braxton house, and has a position with Hunsucker Carriage Co.

Deputy Collector Corson was here Monday taking an inventory of Winterville Cigar Factory. It's a strict business, and must be right to a tee.

ONE THING AT A TIME.—In order to make the facts in the case plain as possible, will present but one thing at a time for your consideration. Cotton Planters will take the lead now for a few weeks. Orders are coming in every mail. Any reader who needs a new planter or repairs for an old one had better order at once.

A. G. COX MFG. CO.

At a meeting of the good citizens of Bethel we see it stated in THE REFLECTOR that a series of resolutions denunciatory to the action taken by the Board of Commissioners in granting license to certain persons to retail liquor in the suburbs of that town, after its citizens had by an election and in accordance with law, declared it was a nuisance and should not be tolerated. This meets with a hearty response from all whom we have heard speak of it. All are a unit in their praise of the position taken by Chairman R. L. Davis, and in denouncing the other two Commissioners for the course they have pursued. We further propose and feel it our duty to do all in our power to keep such men out of public office, inasmuch as they so abuse their power instead of using it for the benefit of the people. We regret exceedingly that these two Commissioners should have seen proper to impose such a burden upon the good citizens of our sister town. It is indeed a deplorable state of affairs when our people conform with the law and good order, to have their rights so abused.

Town Builders

If anyone has an idea that cotton factories do not build up a community, let him go into West Tarboro and see what a town has sprung up there.—Tarboro Southern.

And Greenville is so slow to realize that factories are the things that build towns.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY, 1900.

The outlook as that smallpox will bescattered all over the State. This week eight cases have been pronounced at Greensboro, two of them being among the operatives of a cotton mill and one a student in the colored A. & M. College. There are said to be over 100 cases in Guilford county. At Hamlet seven negroes who worked on the railroad were found in a shanty car with the disease. They are just the kind of cases to spread it to others. Every precaution should be taken against it.

Negro Suffrage a Failure.

In politics he stands where he stood in 1868. He has learned nothing; forgotten nothing. He is incapable of either learning or forgetting. In solid phalanx at every election, without regard to principles, platforms or candidates, the negroes march up to the polls and vote the straight Republican ticket, simply and solely because it is the Republican ticket and negroes have always voted it. They can not be moved by any arguments addressed to reason. They have no convictions upon any political subject. The Democratic and Republican parties might exchange positions on the Philippine question and the negroes would unite against Imperialism; they might exchange positions on the financial question and the negroes would at once cast his vote for free silver.—Thos. M. Huffham.

LOOKOUT FOR THEM.

MARTIN COUNTY, N. C., Jan. 17th. EDITOR REFLECTOR:

Lookout in your town for more frauds. There are two men going through the country claiming to be plating silverware, or brazing as they sometimes call it. They take block tin and melt it and dip the article in the melted metal and tin it over, calling it silver. It will hold about a month or two and then turn black. All articles they get that have been silver plated they dip into some kind of liquid that takes off every particle of the silver plating which they save and ship to New York to sell. They have been known to ship $25 worth at one time.

The men expect to reach your town today or tomorrow.

Yours truly,
 J. H. MARKS.

In all the many comments we have seen in northern newspapers upon the lynchings in the south last year, we have not seen one newspaper that had a solitary word of condemnation for the brutes that rape and kill. But they have much "goody goody talk" for the south and its barbarities in summarily making way with incarnated devils that commit the stupendous, awful crimes. The south is barbaric in killing brutes, who are "angels" in human form. Several lynchings have occurred already in the south, and no doubt many more will occur for the "villains" are still "pursuing" the helpless white women. It is gratifying to know that the north has been able score up but 109, lynchings in 1899 against 184, in 1895, 176 in 1889, 192 in 1891, 235 in 1892, 200 in 1893, and 166 in 1897. If this decline also marks a decline in rapes and murders the Messenger will rejoice.—Wilmington Messenger.

There is no guessing the possibilities of the ocean steamship. This generation has witnessed the transition from the old time sailboat to the ocean greyhound. The Kaiser Wilhelm de Grosse, the fastest passenger vessel afloat, is constantly cutting down its record and its last trip recorded was at the rate of twenty-two and three-quarters knots an hour. Yet this is nothing as compared with the speed of the new British turbine torpedo boat, Viper, which on her trial trip made thirty-five and a half knots. This is the speed of the average fast railroad train, and it suggests that greater time in ocean navigation will yet be attained. What has been accomplished is wonderful, and what the future holds defies imagination.—Charlotte Observer.

Don't Miss the Fun.

Prof. T. C. Mathews, of Pennsylvania, will give a high class entertainment in the opera house, Thursday night, for the benefit of the Osceola Band.

A SINGLE STANDARD only is possible, whether as a test of excellence in journalism, or for the measurement of quantities, time or values; and THE PHILADELPHIA RECORD after a career of over twenty years of uninterrupted growth is justified in claiming that the standard first established by its founders is the one true test of A PERFECT NEWSPAPER.

To publish all the news promptly and succinctly and in the most readable form, without elision or partisan bias; to discuss its significance with frankness, to keep an open eye for public abuses, to give besides a complete record of current thought, fancies and discoveries in all departments of human activity in its daily editions of from 10 to 14 pages, and to provide the whole for its patrons at the nominal price of one cent, that was from the outset; and will continue to be the aim of "The Record."

THE PIONEER

one-cent morning newspaper in the United States, "The Record" still leads where others follow.

Witness its unrivaled average daily circulation, exceeding 185,000 copies, and an average exceeding 145,000 copies for its Sunday editions of its plan of publication in every important city of the country testify to the truth of the assertion that in the quantity and quality of its contents, and in the price at which it is sold "The Record" has established the standard by which excellence in journalism must be measured.

THE DAILY EDITION of "The Record" will be sent by mail to any address for $3.00 per year or 25 cents per month.

THE SUNDAY EDITION

at 2c. per copy or $1.00 per year, together with the Daily, will give its readers the best and freshest information of all that is going on in the world every day in the year, including holidays, will be sent for $4.00 a year or 35 cents per month. Address

WINE OF CARDUI

Woman's Crowning Virtue.

BELTON, Mo., July 27.

For years I suffered terrible pains every month and my doctor told me I could not be cured except by an operation. I felt I could not submit to that and was so despondent I had given up all hopes of a cure. My husband insisted on my trying Wine of Cardui and at last thank God I did try it. Last month I did not have a pain, and did all my work, which I had not done in seven years.

MRS. MINNIE LITTLE.

WINE OF CARDUI

Modesty is the crowning virtue of American women. It is the trait that all mankind admires. A modest woman is the most pleasing of all created things. Because of this becoming virtue thousands of women prefer to suffer untold miseries rather than confide their troubles to a physician, and to even think of submitting to an examination is revolting. They can't get their own consent to an operation. Wine of Cardui permits sensitive women to retain their modesty. With it they can cure "female troubles" in the quiet of their own rooms. If special treatment is required they can write to the Advisory Department of the Chattanooga Medicine Co., and their letters will be promptly answered by women trained in the cure of womanly weaknesses and irregularities. There should be no hesitation. Delayed treatment means a chronic condition. The longer postponed the harder to cure.

THE BOOK CLUB,

Splendidly Entertained by Mrs. Grimes.

The End of the Century (Fin de Siecle) Book Club met at the residence of Mrs. W. H. Grimes Tuesday afternoon. In the absence of the President, Mrs. Cotten, Mrs. Grimes, the Vice President, called the meeting to order.

Four new members, Mesdames W. and F. Harding, Mrs. Quinlerly and Mrs. Dr. Moye were received.

After the usual routine of business was dispatched, the subject of Colonial Literature was resumed. At the previous meeting Mrs. Grimes read a very interesting paper on Colonial Governors. Mrs. Bowen read a paper on Governor Winthrope, with some amusing incidents of his private life. Mrs. R. W. King read an interesting paper on Bacon's Rebellion. Mrs. L. C. Arthur furnished a brief sketch on Early American Writers.

On Tuesday afternoon, the program began with the reading of a paper on Colonial Civilization by Mrs. Ficklen, containing many interesting facts concerning the dress and manners of our Puritan Mothers. Mrs. Little gave an account of Colonial Colleges and Universities. Mrs. Jordan read with much expression an extract from the courtship of Miles Standish. Concluding the program Mrs. Harry Skinner, chairman of the Literary Committee, read an original paper on Historical Fiction of the Colonies; which won universal expressions of praise from the club for its careful arrangement and rare beauty of diction.

After this Mrs. Grimes delighted her guests with several exquisite vocal selections. The evening closed with a dainty collation, served in her beautiful dining room, after which the Club adjourned to meet with Mrs. E. B. Ficklen on January the thirtieth.

GRIFTON ITEMS.

GRIFTON, N. C., Jan. 17, 1900. Joel Patrick, Heber Gaskins and S. Blount went to New Bern Monday on steamer May Bell.

Miss Katie Kinsey and Miss Ethel Wooten were here Monday. Ulysus Holton and wife are visiting relatives and friends here and will start home Wednesday to Vandemere.

A. R. Holton and family spent the day Sunday with C. P. Gaskin.

A good many people went from here to Rose-Sharon church Sunday. Rev. Mr. Rone, Presiding Elder, preached an able sermon.

Dr. Laughinghouse came Saturday on the freight and held an inquest over the body of Joe Porter, who was burned to death Friday in the calaboose.

Rev. Mr. Griffith came Saturday and held services at St. John.

Plans are being made for the construction of the Grifton tobacco warehouse. Work will begin at an early date.

Robt. Cox, of Kinston, was a guest of L. B. Cox Sunday.

Mayor's Court.

Mayor Moye had three cases before his court this morning.

William Randolph was up for riotous and disorderly conduct and using profane language. He had inflicted serious injury upon Ben Kinion by biting off the end of the latter's thumb, and the Mayor required a justified bond of $100 for his appearance at the April term of Superior court. Failing to give the bond Randolph was committed to jail.

Ben Kinion was up on the charge of being riotous and disorderly and plead guilty. The court held that he was justifiable and suspended judgment.

James Joyner, Mary Joyner and Dorsey Barnhill, Jr., had engaged in a kind of family row and they all plead guilty to the charge. Judgment was suspended as to Mary Joyner and Barnhill. James Joyner was fined a penny and costs, amounting to $2.76.

Chewed His Thumb.

Tuesday night Ben Kinion was in Forbes' barroom, on Fifth street. Several colored people were in there drinking at the same time. For some reason Will Randolph raised a fuss with Kinion and they went together. Randolph caught Kinion's thumb in his teeth and chewed the end of it off. Kinion suffered severely from the bite. Chief of Police James appeared on the scene and had to use his club on Randolph to subdue him and get him to the lockup. What was done to Randolph for such viciousness is told in the proceedings of the Mayor's court.

Shot in the Eye.

Mr. E. B. Ficklen went out hunting with a party of friends Tuesday. While the crowd were separated and could not see each other Mr. R. M. Moye shot at a bird. Mr. Ficklen happened to be in range of the gun and one of the shot struck him in the corner of the left eye, hurting him right painfully. It is to be hoped the injury will not seriously affect his eye.

THE PRICE OF A SUIT

of clothes is not always the true expression of its worth. It is equally true that a good suit of clothes cannot be sold for less than a certain sum. If you pay less you get less, and when you get down to a certain point what you get is worth nothing and your money might as well have been thrown in the street. Suits made by the

OLD FOLKS QUADRILLE.

A Brilliant Social Event.

A number of the married people of the town, determined not to be outdone by the younger set, and to show how they used to enjoy themselves in years long ago, gave a dance in the opera house Tuesday night. There were twelve couples to engage in the old time quadrille, while the number of spectators present to witness "the old folks" enjoy themselves was legion. Bernard Greene called the figures and the way they balanced all, swing corners, right and left, first four cross over, and so on through the numerous pretty movements of the old square dance, was in marked contrast with the fashionable german in vogue among society circles at present.

The following were the couples who took part in the dance:

- W. B. Greene with Mrs. M. H. Quinerly.
- E. G. Flanagan with Mrs. S. M. Schultz.
- H. L. Coward with Mrs. J. L. Wooten.
- F. M. Hodges with Mrs. Henry Sheppard.
- S. M. Schultz with Mrs. J. J. Perkins.
- Henry Speppard with Mrs. F. M. Hodges.
- Dr. E. A. Moye with Mrs. Ed. H. Shelburn.
- M. H. Quinerly with Mrs. W. B. Greene.
- L. I. Moore with Mrs. G. B. King.
- J. L. Wooten with Miss Margurite Langley.
- G. B. King with Mrs. L. I. Moore.
- Will Hooker with Mrs. E. G. Flanagan.

Don't tell the others about it, but the spectators declared that Mrs. Henry Sheppard was the handsomest woman in the set, while Hebe Coward was the most graceful dancer. As an executor of the "pigeon wing" when it was gentlemen to the right Sam Schultz got there every time. Bernard Greene was just immense (not in size) at calling the figures, and if he happened to forget and mix them up it only went the merrier. The dance continued from 9 to 12 o'clock when the participants went to the home of Mrs. J. J. Perkins and partook of an elaborate supper.

In the race for happiness marriage always results in a tie.

NOTICE.

This is to state that the firm of Drs. O'Hagan & Laughinghouse has not been dissolved. The only change made is, that for the better convenience of our patrons we have established a down town office.

Dr. O'Hagan will occupy the old stand. Dr. Laughinghouse will occupy the new office situated on Fourth street, just behind Frank Wilson's clothing store in the Perkins block of buildings where the old post office used to be.
