RUNAWAY ACCIDENT.

Two Ladies Have a Narrow Escape.

Misses Emma and Maggie Fleming, who live near Great Swamp church, four miles from town, started to leave their home, Wednesday, to visit relatives. They drove by a tenant house on the plantation to leave some message, and in coming back to the main road the horse, instead of going the way the young ladies wished to go, turned and started back home. The animal became unmanageable and was soon running. They thought the horse would stop when the gate was reached, but instead of doing so he plunged right on over the fence, knocking most of it down, and dragging the buggy over after him, not stopping until he got to the stable. Miss Maggie was thrown out of the buggy and one wheel passed over her. She was considerably shocked and bruised but escaped serious injury. Her sister was not hurt, though badly frightened. It was a remarkable escape, and their friends are glad they were so fortunate.

Horse Broke Her Neck.

Tuesday as Mr. W. C. Dunn was driving to Palmyra with Detective Branch, of Suffolk, his horse suddenly turned in the road and dashed away. The buggy was overturned and both men hurled to the ground. Mr. Branch was knocked senseless and Mr. Dunn was badly bruised. The horse ran two or three hundred yards, struck a tree, demolished the buggy and broke her neck. Mr. Dunn was brought home on a buggy which Capt. White and Dr. Liverman were using while hunting, and Mr. Branch was carried to the station. Later when Mr. Dunn went back the horse had walked some distance from the tree, but was dead with her neck broken.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

FLAG RAISING.

Order of the Exercises.

The United States flag presented by Acme Council No. 16, Jr. O. U. A. M., to the public school of Greenville will be raised over the school building Friday afternoon. The members of the order will meet at their hall at 3 o'clock, and at 3:30 sharp, headed by the Osceola Band in new uniforms, the lodge will march to the public school building in South Greenville.

The exercises at the building will begin at 3:45, and be as follows:

Music by Osceola Band.
Introductory remarks by A. D. Johnston, Master of Ceremonies.
Delivering flag and Bible by Prof. W. H. Ragsdale.
Acceptance of flag by Miss Besie Harding.

Acceptance of Bible by Rev. N. M. Watson.

Music by Osceola Band.
Raising flag.
The procession will again form and the lodge march back to their hall.

The teachers of the public school extend a cordial invitation to all other schools in Greenville to be present. Everybody is invited.

THURSDAY, JANUARY, 25, 1900.

If the people who are always petitioning Congress could see what becomes of their papers, they might relieve the government of a great deal of burdensome matter. It is safe to say that a petition is never read except by the one member who presents it. Still, they must be kept and there are now several large vaults filled with the accumulations.—Durham Sun.

The theory of the Constitution is now and always has been that the man who refuses to support his county paper, no matter whether he agrees with the editor or not cannot be depended upon to aid in the growth and development of his town and his community. The man who takes any paper at all should take his home paper; if he makes this small investment he will soon betray a desire to widen his point of view, and will patronize, in addition, some newspaper that has a wider field of operation.—Atlanta Constitution.

Judge Moore, who has been holding court at Durham, has rendered a decision that is of special interest to saw mill men. State Treasurer Worth decided that all saw-mill men in the State must pay a tax as lumber dealers under a section of the revenue act levying tax on people who deal in lumber. To test the legality of Treasurer Worth's decision, J. H. Barbee, a saw mill man of Patterson township refused to pay the tax, and the case was carried into the courts. Judge Moore held that Mr. Barbee was not liable for this tax, and in rendering the decision said that a lumber dealer under the law, was one who bought and sold lumber and not saw-mill men, who are manufacturers.

Western Carolina Will be True.

The white men of Western Carolina have heretofore rallied to the support of their Eastern brethren in their efforts to free themselves from the burdens imposed by the ignorant negro vote, manipulated by designing Republican politicians and once more the appeal for help comes from our Eastern brethren in a struggle which will be decisive, and once more the great Anglo-Saxon Democracy of Western North Carolina will respond to that appeal, and when the smoke of battle has lifted it will be found that the united efforts of the great bulk of the white race has achieved a victory that will make for the permanent welfare of all races and all classes—except the politicians who have fattened upon the franchise of the ignorant and prejudiced negro voters.—Winston Sentinel.

THE AMENDMENT.

The following is the amendment to article 6 of the State constitution, adopted by the General Assembly of 1899, and to be submitted to the voters for ratification next August:

Section 1. That article VI of the constitution of North Carolina be, and the same is hereby abrogated, and in lieu thereof shall be substituted the following article of said constitution:

ARTICLE VI.

SUFFRAGE AND ELIGIBILITY TO OFFICE—QUALIFICATIONS OF AN ELECTOR.

Section 1. Every male person born in the United States, and every male person who has been naturalized, twenty-one years of age, and possessing the qualifications set out in this article, shall be entitled to vote at any election by the people in the State, except as herein otherwise provided.

Sec. 2. He shall have resided in the State of North Carolina for two years, in the county six months, and in the precinct, ward or other election district in which he offers to vote, four months next preceding the election; Provided, That removal from one precinct, ward or other election district to another in the same county, shall not operate to deprive any person of the right to vote in the precinct, ward or other election district from which he has removed, until four months after such removal. No person who has been convicted, or who has confessed his guilt in open court upon indictment of any crime the punishment of which is, or may hereafter be, imprisonment in the State prison, shall be permitted to vote, unless the said person shall be first restored to citizenship in the manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 3. Every person offering to vote shall be at the time a legally registered voter as herein prescribed and in the manner hereinafter provided by law, and the General Assembly of North Carolina shall enact general registration laws to carry into effect the provisions of this article.

Sec. 4. Every person presenting himself for registration shall be able to read and write any section of the constitution in the English language; and, before he shall be entitled to vote, have paid on or before the first day of March of the year in which he proposes to vote, his poll tax as prescribed by law, for the previous year. Poll taxes shall be a lien only on assessed property, and no process shall issue to enforce the collection of the same except against assessed property.

Sec. 5. No male person who was, on January 1, 1867, or at any time prior thereto, entitled to vote under the laws of any State, in the United States wherein he then resided, and no lineal descendant of any such person, shall be denied the right to register and vote at any election in this State by person of his failure to possess the educational qualifications prescribed in section 4 of this article: Provided, he shall have registered in accordance with the terms of this section prior to December 1, 1908. The General Assembly shall provide for a permanent record of all persons who register under this section on or before November 1, 1908, and all such persons shall be entitled to register and vote at all elections by the people in this State, unless disqualified under section 2 of this article: Provided, such persons shall have paid their poll tax as required by law.

Sec. 6. All elections by the people shall be by ballot, and all elections by the General Assembly shall be viva voce.

Sec. 7. Every voter in North Carolina, except as in this article disqualified, shall be eligible to office, but before entering upon the duties of the office he shall take and subscribe the following oath: "I, _____, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and maintain the constitution and laws of the United States, and the constitution and laws of North Carolina not inconsistent therewith, and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of my office as _____ So help me, God."

Sec. 8. The following classes of persons shall be disqualified for office: First, all persons who shall deny the being of Almighty God. Second, all persons who shall have been convicted or confessed their guilt on indictment pending, and whether sentenced or not, under judgment suspended, of any treason or felony, or any other crime for which the punishment may be imprisonment in the penitentiary, since becoming citizens of the United States, or corruption and malpractice in office, unless such person shall be restored to the rights of citizenship in a manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 9. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

There is no medium by which so many people can be reached for so little money as through the daily newspapers.—Printer's Ink.

NO "PROPERTY" ESCAPES.

Some Queer Things to Be Seen In a Chinese Theater.

Over the audience rests a settled, immovable stillness, unbroken even by a sigh. No expression referable to sorrow, sympathy, joy or tears lightens the blank, dead wall of the faces. The Chinaman is impregnable. Only once do his eyes change, and that is while the property man is on the stage, and he is never off it.

The Chinese property man sees his duty to the management and puts it into practical effect. No "property" shall escape him. He gathers all things by the way. When the Chinese Romeo slays Tybalt, the property man steps on to the stage, gathers up Tybalt's sword, cap and cloak and things and walks off with them. He would enter Macbeth's banquet hall while that weak kneed monarch was exercising Banquo's ghost, gather up the goblets and plates in one arm and Macbeth's chair with the other and carry them away. He would pluck the roses from Elaine's breast; he would take the dagger from Juliet's dead hand; he would interrupt Hamlet's soliloquy in the churchyard with a request for Yorick's skull, and he would interpose in the murder of Desdemona to remove the pillows from her bed.—Saqul Smith in Leslie's Weekly.

WINE OF CARDUI

THE LINK THAT BINDS.

JACKSON, TENN., Nov. 23.

I was subject to miscarriage for three years, and suffered constantly with backache. I wrote to you for advice, and after using three bottles of Wine of Cardui, according to your directions, I am strong and well, and the mother of a fine girl baby.

Mrs. E. N. JOWERS.

There is no use talking—a baby in the house is the link that binds husband and wife together. Nothing is sadder than fruitless wedlock. The prattling and cooing of the little ones offset a thousand times the occasional worries and trials of life. When a wife is barren, there is a derangement somewhere in the genital organs, caused by one or more of those common disorders known as "female troubles". Wine of Cardui is the remedy. It puts the organs of generation in a strong and healthy condition, fitting the wife for the sacred duty of reproducing her kind. During the period of gestation the entire system of the expectant mother is built up to withstand the ordeal of labor, and when the little one makes its advent it is lusty and strong, well-fitted to grow to maturity in perfect health. The mother, too, passes through the trial with little pain and no dread. Wine of Cardui is truly a wonderful medicine for women.

Large Bottles for $1.00 at Druggists.

Straw being burned off the field just south of town, Wednesday evening, caused some people to think there was a fire and they wanted to send in an alarm.

Every day the question is asked THE REFLECTOR, how is the cotton factory movement coming on? We would be very glad to reply that ground had been broken and a house started.

The Greenville Pythians will have a special train to Rocky Mount on the evening of the 30th to attend the district meeting at that place. The special train will return after the meeting that night.

Short Business Sermons.

To advertise continuously is to advertise well. As it is desirable to do business every day, so it is necessary to use the public prints daily. The merchant who asks is the one who receives. In these three sentences may be found the sermons which the aspiring business man needs to guide him to his goal.—Philadelphia Record.

Home First.

The Telegram has repeatedly said that good government in North Carolina means more to the people of the State than all things else political. That is one reason for favoring the holding of State elections at a different time from national elections. The success of the amendment question and the State ticket to be voted for in August, means infinitely more than who is to be President, or whether a single gold or silver, or a double monetary standard, shall prevail.—Greensboro Telegram.

A Young Man's Parents Cowhide Him in a Barroom.

There was an unusual and withal exciting occurrence in a "Paddy's Hollow" barroom early last night. It seems that the 19 year old son of a certain well-to-do mechanic of this city has become very unmanageable and spends much of his time in that disreputable locality.

His parents determined upon the most harsh measures as a possible remedy for his waywardness and early last night both the father and mother "raided" "Paddy's Hollow" in quest of their son. The father carried a three foot cowhide.

When they entered the barroom in question and discovered their son in the midst of a crowd of rowdy companies, the father laid hold upon the boy and held him while the mother applied the cowhide with right good will and telling effect, which was forcibly evidenced by the wild yells and pleas for mercy on the part of the unruly boy. The mother did not cease from applying the cowhide until she had worn it down to a short and unwieldy stump. The boy positively refused to accompany his parents home and Policeman Steed, who was on duty on that beat, was called to their assistance with a view to carrying him by force.

When they had succeeded in carrying him in this manner as far as Front street, the boy told them that if they would turn him loose and allow him, as he expressed it, to "walk along the streets as a white boy should," he would make no further resistance and go quietly home with them.

They released him and he walked quietly with them for a few paces and then suddenly dashed off down Front street in the opposite direction from home. The irate father and Policeman Steed followed in hot pursuit, but the boy outran them and made good his escape.—Wilmington Messenger.

These parents are to be commended. They gave the young man what he deserved. The only trouble is that they should not have waited until he was grown to begin to correct him.—Statesville Landmark.

It is quite natural that the man who views life from a club window should have a pained expression.

THE PRICE OF A SUIT

of clothes is not always the true expression of its worth. It is equally true that a good suit of clothes cannot be sold for less than a certain sum. If you pay less you get less, and when you get down to a certain point what you get is worth nothing and your money might as well have been thrown in the street. Suits made by the

are the best. Look at our new samples and let us make you a suit. Pressing, cleaning and altering done on short notice.

B. C. Pearce left this morning.

Thos. McGee left this morning.

Ed. H. Shelburn is at home sick.

J. C. Lamb, of Williamston, is in town.

W. J. Pope, of Lenoir, spent today here.

Alderman J. B. White left this morning for Richmond.

Mrs. D. G. Bond, of Edenton, who was visiting Mrs. A. M. Moore, left this morning.

H. C. Ormond and H. L. Carr, both of whom have been sick, are able to return to their store.

Rev. J. W. Cobb, of Lumber Bridge, traveling representative of the North Carolina Baptist, spent today here.

Mrs. Maggie Briley and Miss Nannie Coffield, of Martin county, who have been visiting Mrs. W. R. Smith, returned home today.

Build Houses.

The Scotland Neck Commonwealth tells of a meeting of business men in that town, Monday night, at which several of them agreed to build a number of houses to meet the needs of the population. Why cannot Greenville do something like that? There are not enough houses here for the people we already have, in some instances two or more families having to occupy the same house, and others would move here if they could get houses to live in. Make room for people and give them something to do is the way to build a town.

Married.

Rev. W. A. Ayers was married to Miss Lizzie Salisbury Wednesday at 3 P. M. by J. N. Booth at the home of Mr. R. H. Salisbury, the bride's father.

An old fashion wedding dinner was served at the bride's home in Hassel to quite a number. After the marriage the wedding party went through the country to Bethel at which place a reception was held in the Blount Hotel.

Rev. Mr. Ayers is pastor of the Baptist church at Bethel.

Tobacco Association.

There will be a meeting of the Pitt County Tobacco Growers Association in Greenville on Saturday, February, 10th, the second Saturday in the month. On the Saturday previous, 3rd, meetings will be held in the several townships to organize the township associations. Every township and the county should be thoroughly organized, for without this their efforts will amount to nothing.

At these township meetings on the 3rd delegates are also to be selected to attend a county meeting in Greenville on the 10th to take steps towards opposing the fertilizer trust.

Worthy Enterprise.

Mrs. M. A. Johnston, traveling agent of St. Luke's Home, at Raleigh, is here for a short while and will be glad to receive contributions to aid this worthy institution. It is a home for aged and destitute women and for incurables. It is an enterprise that commends itself to the generosity of the public.

NOTICE.

This is to state that the firm of Drs. O'Hagan & Laughinghouse has not been dissolved. The only change made is, that for the better convenience of our patrons we have established a down town office.

Dr. O'Hagan will occupy the old stand. Dr. Laughinghouse will occupy the new office situated on Fourth street, just behind Frank Wilson's clothing store in the Perkins block of buildings where the old post office used to be.

A MEAN LOOKING LETTER-HEAD

Has lost many a dollar for business men. If a man is judged by the coat he wears, he is also judged by the letter-head he uses. An artistic, nicely printed letter-head may be looked on as a good investment.
