NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Feb. 3, 1900

G. W. Parker has sold wire fence in Kinston and Greenville both the past week.

A car load of lime just received by A. G. Cox. He is using it on his farm in place of marl.

A. G. Cox wants 500 cords wood cut quick. Contractors or day hands should apply at once.

W. L. Hurst, who has been down in Bertie with his son visiting his sick daughter, returned last evening. He reports his daughter much better.

We are glad to see Cousin Will Cox, as he is called around here, back again. He has been at school in Tennessee and is just home on a vacation.

LOOK ON TOP—of every box of Cheroots you buy of Winterville Cigar Co., and you will see a nicely written letter. Read it.

George Tucker, of Greenville, the guano man, was in town Wednesday. Whenever the farmers see two guano men together, they think they are forming a trust.

Poetry's nice
And news is nice,
But what's the use to advertise
When it's not needed in any wise
So will not tell you anything new
As long as we've all that we can do.

A. G. Cox MFG Co.

Dixon & Hooks' stock of goods has swelled until it has bursted the partition out of their store, and they now have full swing. They also have the nicest market stall in town.

B. F. Manning gives every guano customer a blank from a book for the purpose, filled out to show the exact amount of each load hauled. He also keeps the amount on the stubs of the book. This is a good way, and should prevent all mistakes.

The exercises at the Academy last night had so many names such as: concert, managerie, show, &c., that we don't know what to call it. At any rate those present reported a big time. It seems that all the bachelors and old maids in town got married. Bud Joe was an important actor, and it is said that he talked quite fluently.

Seats For Heywood.

The young men who have engaged the famous Alba Heywood Company to appear here on next Thursday night, will open the reserved seat sale at Burch's book store on Monday morning for the guarantee ticket holders. These will have Monday and Tuesday in which to check off their seats, and on Wednesday morning the sale of seats will be open to the public.

A Smile in Each.

When an old man dotes on young girls he must be in his dotage.

Few women will admit that they have arrived at the years of discretion.

Advices from England state that depression hangs over the nation like a pall. Must be a sort of "Oom" Paul.

When a young man is courting a girl she expects him to spend some money, and yet she wants him to be rather close.

THE MASQUERADE.

Another Fantastic Success.

The masquerade ball in the opera house Friday night was a great success. Some of the costumes were the prettiest that have been shown on a similar occasion. Both the number of participants and spectators were large.

Those who were masked and the characters represented were as follows:

Miss Winnie Skinner, Winter.
Miss Ophelia Howell, Colonial Girl.

Misses Mary Bell White and Lillian Cherry, Two Summer Girls of 1900.

Miss Etta Nelson Heartt, of Durham, Queen of Spades.

Miss Mary Blow, Flower Girl.
Mrs. Will Ricks, Sea.
Miss Sophia Jarvis, Folly.
Mrs. Cobb, Muse.

Miss Doris Flanagan, Night.
Miss Maud Blow, Egyptian Princess.

Miss Emily Higgs, Night.
Miss Ada Wooten, Italian Girl.
Mrs. Whedbee, Maud Muller.
Mrs. Frank Whaley, Stars and Stripes.

Miss Blanche Flanagan, Liberty.
Miss Louise Latham, Night.
Miss Helen Perkins, Butterfly.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1900.

A missionary in Utah says that the Mormons derive a large part of their wealth from their plural wives. Each of these has to work and all her earnings go to the husband. Polygamy seems to have a distinct business flavor.

Now a Bible Trust has been formed, and the price of the Gospel has been raised about 20 per cent. This seems to have been done in anticipation of the country's need of Bibles for the use of the new peoples whom we have annexed.

Peanuts have been recommended by medical authorities as the best possible food for boys for a school luncheon. No doubt the boys will welcome this idea until they learn that the peanuts are thought to be good for them, and then they will quickly develop a distaste for the delightful goober. Human nature is as strong in boys as in other people.

President McKinley is either indulging in his old occupation of wobbling or he has yielded to the sugar and tobacco patriots and has abandoned the desire expressed in his message to restore prosperity to Porto Rico by establishing free trade with that island. He is reported by credible authority on both sides of the question.

The sub-committees which have been examining precedents to ascertain whether the term United States includes the annexed islands, have reported, by a strict party vote, that it does not. To reach this report, the majority had to override a score of Supreme Court opinions, but such things come easy to the Republicans nowadays.

The House Rivers and Harbors committee has decided not to report a bill at this session of Congress. The Republican majority of the committee knows perfectly well that millions will be lost by the failure to provide funds to keep improvements already begun from going to ruin, and that hundreds of localities will suffer from the cutting off of needed appropriations. But that is nothing to them so long as they can keep down expenditures until after the election. Then they will have a time.

The re-election of Senator Morgan of Alabama, to the Senate is now practically assured. The Senator made his fight on the championship of the expansion policy defeating Gov. Johnson, who opposed that idea. His victory, however, is not to be taken as a proof that Alabama Democrats are by any means united on expansion. Senator Morgan, in spite of his unbounded personal popularity and the pride that Alabama has taken in him for so long, came very near defeat. His victory was a personal one in every sense of the word.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 2, 1900.

The administration programme is receiving some severe jolts in Congress, and its path is getting rockier every day. This week several republican Senators went to see Mr. McKinley and requested him to withdraw the reciprocity treaties now before the Senate, in order to save them from formal rejection, which would not only humiliate Mr. McKinley but would advertise the difference of opinion between him and members of his party in Congress. He has also been told that the only chance the free trade section of the Porto Rico bill has to become a law is by the help of democratic votes, many democrats having expressed themselves in favor of it on general principles, although it is not likely that any concerted action in its favor will be taken by the democrats. The republicans of the House Ways and Means Committee have reported a substitute for the administration bill for free trade with Porto Rico, which provides for a duty of 25 per cent. of the present tariff on Porto Rican products. These things show that the much talked about republican harmony is a fake.

Senator Bacon's speech against the imperialistic policy of the administration in the Philippines was full of conservative but unanswerable arguments against imperialism, which he declared meant a standing army of 400,000 men and an annual expense of $100,000,000. He told the imperialists that "the thirst for empire is like the desire for human blood." The following extract gives a good idea of the general tenor of the speech: "The conditions which now exist, and which will undoubtedly exist hereafter if we permanently retain the Philippines, makes it impossible that they can ever become a state; and to hold them as a subject colony makes necessary a revolution in our system of government which should not be aided by anyone who is loyal to the principles upon which that system is founded. It is a revolution which, while it denies liberty to other people, endangers the liberty of our own people." In answer to questions from Senator Spooner as to what this Congress could do, Mr. Bacon said it could make the same declaration regarding the Philippines that the last Congress did with reference to Cuba. Senator Bacon was followed by Senator Teller, who was the author of the Cuban resolution adopted by the last Congress, and he took occasion to express his most sincere regret that he had not included in that revolution the people of all the Spanish possessions acquired by the United States, as well as the Cubans. This was help from an unexpected quarter, as Mr. Teller had been counted as a supporter, albeit a lukewarm one, of the retention of the Philippines.

Kentucky democrats in Congress are even more indignant at the action of Gov. Taylor in adjourning the legislature and ordering it to meet Feb. 6, at London, and declaring martial law in Frankfort, than they were at the dastardly attempted assassination of Goebel. They regard it all as a part of the political game that Taylor is playing. Senator-elect Blackburn came very near to voicing the sentiment of every Kentucky democrat in Congress when he said of the whole business: "The reorganization of the Militia of the State by Bradley during the latter part of his administration, placing the military affairs of the State upon substantially a republican partisan basis; the importation of armed ruffians from the mountains into Frankfort within the last few days; their indefensible conduct there, coupled with threats of resort to violence, all pointed to the present situation."

The Modern Mother And Her Son.

"A man learns his politics and opinions from his father and other men, but his religion from his mother," writes an American mother in the February Ladies' Home Journal. "No vicious manhood can quite kill the faith which sprang up in his soul when he knelt, a little child, at her knee every night, or was hushed to sleep on her breast while she sang that sweet story of old, when Jesus was here among men." In earlier times in this country a mother had little work outside of her house and children. She watched her boy day and night to keep him near to God and out of the devil's clutches. It was she who told him of the Babe and the Cross out of the old Book which lay on the table beside her bed. He saw her turn to it when she was happy, when she was wretched, when she was old and dying. So it came that there was nothing so near to God in that man's eyes as his mother, her Bible and her Saviour. But that woman is long ago dead and buried. The modern mother talks of her as of some coarse animal whose ignoble life was starved out in a cage. Her own feet are set in a large room. Her horizon takes in the world. She manages political causes, civic affairs, countless domestic and foreign missions. Art, literature, society and helpless humanity claim her. She rises every morning knowing that a botched old world is waiting for her to set it right."

WINE OF CARDUI

HEALTHY OLD AGE.

LARUE, BENTON CO. ARK., Aug. 4.
I am 49 years old and have been suffering with Change of Life. I had flooding spells so bad that none thought I could live. My husband got me Wine of Cardui and it saved my life. I am like another person since taking it.

MRS. E. B. TOWNSEND.

Wine of Cardui

It is the devout wish of nearly all people to live to a ripe old age. None of us want to die young. This universal desire can be realized if care be taken of the health in early and middle life. A little precaution then will add many years to our existence. Death can be kept away a long time. Happy, healthy old age will be the lot of the woman who promptly corrects the ailments which afflict her sex. In youth, Wine of Cardui will take the female child safely over the dividing line between girlhood and womanhood. As a wife she needs it to help her through the trials of pregnancy and childbirth with as little discomfort as possible. At the Change of Life it will help her over the dangerous place that appears in her pathway between 40 and 50. Then will come many years of truly blissful existence. She will grow old slowly and gracefully. To the last she will preserve that charm and beauty which are always characteristic of perfectly healthy grandmothers. It is for women alone to decide whether they will be healthy or sick. The remedy for their sickness is close at hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Thad R. Manning, of Henderson, celebrated the silk and linen anniversary of their marriage on the 1st. Mr. Manning is editor of the Gold Leaf, and his newspaper friends ever the State hope he and his excellent wife may live to celebrate their golden wedding.

Song Service.

Mr. H. A. Wolfsohn, of Atlanta, who has a broad reputation as a Gospel singer, will sing in the Baptist church here tomorrow, morning and night. At night he will conduct a half hour's song service preceding the sermon. Many of our people heard Mr. Wolfsohn when he was here at the Baptist State Convention in December, 1898, and they will be glad of another opportunity to hear him.

NORTH CAROLINA. In the Superior Court, Pitt County. Before the Clerk

Ola Forbes against Henry Jenkins and Nellie Jenkins, his wife.

The defendants, Henry Jenkins and Nellie Jenkins will take notice that a Special Proceeding, entitled as above, has been commenced in the Superior Court of Pitt County, before the Clerk, for the sale of real estate for partition; and the said defendants will further take notice that they are required to appear at the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court for the County of Pitt, on the 10th day of March 1900, and answer or demur to the petition and complaint filed in said proceeding, or the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in said petition and complaint.

This Jan. 27, 1900. D. C. Moore, JARVIS & BLOW, Clerk Superior Court, Att'ys. for Plaintiff.

It is possible for a man to become so swell that he eventually goes broke.

Some men when they have their pictures taken look as though they were figuring out how much coal they could have bought with the same money.

The Progressive Farmer, the organ of the Farmers' Alliance, and which has been strongly identified with the populist movement in North Carolina, attacks the Populist State committee for its action in condemning the franchise amendment to the constitution. Nine of the committee assumed the right to act not only for the entire committee, but for the convention as well. The Progressive Farmer, in a very plain way, says the nine should have waited for the convention to act.

A remarkable action at law has been commenced in Kansas, where Mrs. Catherine Smith is suing the city of Columbus for $15,000 damages on the ground that through the neglect of the proper authorities to enforce the Prohibition law her husband had become a habitual drunkard. The case has aroused much interest among the legal fraternity in the West.

A church in Levenworth, Kan., has obtained a Circuit Court judgment against the Chicago & Great Western Railway Company for having disturbed the Sunday services of its congregation by continually shifting freight cars near the house of worship.

NOTICE.

This is to state that the firm of Drs. O'Hagan & Laughinghouse has not been dissolved. The only change made is, that for the better convenience of our patrons we have established a down town office.

Dr. O'Hagan will occupy the old stand. Dr. Laughinghouse will occupy the new office situated on Fourth street, just behind Frank Wilson's clothing store in the Perkins block of buildings where the old post office used to be.
