More Arrests.

Frankfort, Ky. Mar. 14—Fourteen warrants have been issued for thirty of the most prominent Republicans in Kentucky, and also for four Brown Democratic leaders, charging them with being accessories to the murder of Goebel. Only twelve of these warrants have been given to the detectives and but four of them have been served. Realizing that an attempt to arrest several of the most prominent Republican would result in a bloody riot and civil war, the Goebel managers have held them up and only four more will be served. The plan is to have the April grand jury of Franklin county return indictments and then the arrests will follow. Taylor and Senator Deboe are on the list of those whom the grand jury will be asked to indict.

Mayor's Court.

Mayor J. G. Moye held a session of his court this morning, the following cases being disposed of: James A. Sutton, drunk and disorderly, plead guilty, fined one penny and cost—$1.96. Kate Silverthorn, drunk and disorderly, plead guilty, fined one penny and cost, $2.21. Minnie Randolph, drunk and disorderly, plead guilty, fined one penny and cost, $2.21.

New Bern Fair.

We have received from Secretary George Green the premium list of the next New Bern fair which will be held in April. The premiums are the most liberal yet offered, and the coming fair promises to surpass all previous ones.

The Senatorial Primary.

If the State convention will adopt a resolution providing for senatorial primaries to be held in every county in the State, with proper safeguards to prevent manipulation or fraud; and shall furthermore provide that the Democratic members of the Legislature shall be pledged to abide by the decision of the primary election; the question will be solved.

The senatorial primary is not in the interest of any candidate. It is as fair for one as for another. But it is the interest of the people, and is the only way in which the people can take part in the selection of a man who is to represent them in the United States Senate.—Charlotte News.

Sure Foundation

Every great movement in the constitutional life of any people has a sure foundation. A people's fundamental law changes slowly. In the dawn of constitutional liberty in America the cry of the "divine right of kings" was drowned in the surging cry that the people must have voice in the councils of State.

In these closing hours of a century the descendants of the men who declare against the rule of enlightened kings, dare to provide against the rule of the benighted slave. In the light of its unwise bestowal and in the fuller light of the base uses to which it has been put we of North Carolina declare that the ballot in the hand of the ignorant black man is a menace to our civilization.—F. D. Winston.

Monuments to Advertising.

It will be observed that the preponderance of a season's trade is enjoyed by those merchants who advertise. They solicit custom in a manner which cannot be resisted, and are, therefore, enabled to place on sale goods that cannot be excelled in tempting qualities. Every successful merchantile establishment is a monument to advertisement as well as to fair dealing.—Philadelphia Record.

Fell 32 Feet.

Mr. J. D. Rosick, a son-in-law of Deputy Sheriff Johnson fell from a railroad bridge near Lincolnton, yesterday afternoon, and received serious injuries. The distance he fell was 32 feet. Dr. Costner, of Lincolnton, is attending him. The last phone message Mr. Johnson had in regard to his condition was not encouraging. He was said to be worse. The extent of his injuries could not be learned.—Charlotte News.

Henry Elwell & Co., 310 Washington St., New York, who are very heavy receivers of southern berries and vegetables from the South and a very reliable firm advise us that the damage to Florida Cabbage and Lettuce was very heavy during the last cold snap. South Carolina Cabbage they say was not effected as much, but North Carolina has been very much retarded by the cold, rainy weather.

THURSDAY, MARCH 15, 1900.

The Senate Republican caucus Tuesday night was unable to reach a conclusion on the Porto Rican bill, and will have to hold another caucus,

Tuesday the gold standard bill passed the House by a vote of 160 to 120. Eleven Democrats went with the Republicans and voted for the bill. None of the bolters were from the South, New York, Pennsylvania, Indiana and Massachusetts furnished all of them.

And John Bull informs your Uncle Samuel that none of his mediation is wanted to bring about a settlement of the war between England and South Africa. President Kruger and President Steyn requested the United States government to offer its services to England to mediate peace. The offer was made but England declined it.

The wisest politicians of all parties put New York in the doubtful column this year. In 1896 it gave 260,000 majority for McKinley, and yet today the highest majority claimed by the Republicans is 60,000. In 1897 it gave the Democratic majority of 50,000 and in 1898 Roosevelt was elected by only 18,000. The gold Democrats have nearly all returned to the party, and the German and anti-imperialistic and anti-trust vote ought to make it safe for Bryan. It is a doubtful State as it has been in nearly every election since the Republic was founded.—Raleigh News and observer.

More depends upon the carrying of the constitutional amendment than the mere political interests that attach to it. The industrial development of the State will be greatly affected by it. It was remarked recently here by one who looks to industrial affairs for the future that certain investments which he contemplates now will depend upon the carrying of the amendment. While he is from the North, he says that the political affairs here will affect and really control him in the matter of his investments. He has had some experience with the colored people and he sees no hope of improvement or of profits from investments if they are to control or have any large share in the political affairs of the State.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

Hatching Devilment.

A few days ago we published a brief extract from the speech of Assistant U. S. District Attorney Blackburn, at Newton, in which he condoned the assassination of Gov. Goebel, of Kentucky, and virtually told the people who listened to him that it wouldn't be anything surprising or very wrong if some of the leading Democrats in this State were assassinated if the proposed constitutional amendment be adopted. A few days ago the Washington correspondent of the Atlanta Journal sent that paper the following:

Republican State Chairman A. E. Holton, of North Carolina, is in the city to discuss with the administration officials the proposed franchise amendment in that State.

This is the liveliest local State issue in the United States today, and party leaders on both sides are taking a keen interest in the fight. Chairman Holton will talk the matter over with Senator Hanna and President McKinley today, and will intimate, it is said, that federal troops will be necessary when the vote is taken. He will also urge prominent Republicans to go to North Carolina and take in the campaign.

The chairman is charging fraud, intimidation, desperation, lawlessness and many other things against the Democrats in general and Chairman Simmons in particular, and declares that riot and bloodshed will inevitably result, as the negroes are determined to fight for and demand their rights.

This is practically a confession of defeat in advance. Before every election in North Carolina we find the Republican machine runners scudding off to Washington to pull the national committee for money and to tell what a hard fight they have before them, so that they may not be suspected of failing to hustle after the news comes in that they have been whalloped. That's why Holton has been chinning Hanna—to pull him for some money and chinning the president to tell him what an up-hill job the Republicans have before them.

But wasn't he doing a sneaking, cowardly thing when he made these charges against the Democrats, and predicted bloodshed, because the negroes are determined to fight for and demand their rights, when the fact is that these white plotters and conspirators, and most of them federal office holders, are secretly organizing the negroes and inciting them to violence knowing as they do that it will be their foolish dupes who will suffer most, while they, the real instigators and the guilty inciters, will keep in the safe ground, notwithstanding their anti-election bluster? That is the way it always has been when there has been election troubles between the races.

But Mr. Holton is pursuing the right course to stir up the indignation of the white men of North Carolina and bring out a vote that will overwhelm him and his fellow conspirators and his black cohorts. Wilmington Messenger.

In Seoul, Korea, a bell is rung at sunset, and when the golden orb has sunk beneath the horizon, every man must be safely housed. If a man should be found in the street after that time he is liable to the punishment of a flogging; but, oddly enough, women are allowed to go about as usual.

When a society belle goes on the stage there are always a lot of fellows to clapper.

The State Superintendent of Public Instruction has sent the following to the county superintendents;

You will please inform the teachers of your county, through the county newspaper or otherwise that the next annual examination for life certificates will be held at the court house on the second Thursday in July. These questions will be forwarded in due time to you, as they are now in the hands of the State Printer. You will see under section 75 of school law, that each applicant must pay in advance to you the county superintendent of schools, the sum of $5, which must be reported to the county board of school directors and paid into the general school fund of the county.

A negro with a well developed case of smallpox, was taken up right on the principal street of Charlotte, Tuesday. The man wore gloves to hide the disease on his hands.

A citizen of Greensboro brought suit to test the constitutionality of the act establishing a dispensary in that city. The Supreme Court has decided that the act was constitutional.

A hundred operatives of the Charlotte Clothing Manufacturing Co. went out on a strike Tuesday. The strikers claimed that the secretary of the company used bad language in the presence of the female operatives, and men and women alike resented it. The matter was adjusted.

There is a great exodus of people from Yadkin and Wilkes counties, especially Yadkin, to the West. Most of the emigrants are going to Indiana.
