Rev. L. O. Wyche Dead.

A telegram from Morehead City to the Raleigh News and Observer says that Rev. L. O. Wyche, a Methodist preacher on Core Sound circuit, fell dead on Tuesday. Apoplexy was the cause of death.

A few years ago Rev. Mr. Wyche had charge of churches in Pitt county, and he was held in high esteem here. He lost his wife while residing near Greenville.

Five hundred negroes from the surrounding country gathered at Athens, Ga., last Sunday, for the purpose of migrating to the Mississippi Valley. They thought they were to get free transportation, and the police had great difficulty to keep them off the train. The authorities are at a loss what to do with the negroes.

A Potent Factor.

To insure the permanent success of any commercial enterprise the continuing help of every contributory power must be enlisted. No form of assistance is too modest and none too great for the purpose. The most potent of all factors in the achievement of success, however, is advertising. The man who puts faith in newspaper publicity is never made the victim of his own credulity.—Philadelphia Record.

The two negroes who a few months ago killed Mr. Robert Hester, near Rocky Mount, where hanged at Nashville Thursday. It was the first hanging in Nash county for fifty years.

Baxter Shemwell, who some years ago was tried for the murder of Dr. Payne, at Lexington, and acquitted, is coming for more notoriety. A dispatch from Asheville says he was arrested there on the charge of obtaining $4,000 under false pretense from a bank in Knoxville.

The papers report that there are between 150 and 200 cases of small-pox in Reidsville. Two deaths have occurred.

A. L. McCaskill has been named as postmaster at Fayetteville.

The Salisbury Sun learns that the grand jury of Stanly Superior court went to inspect the county home last week—according to the custom in such cases made and provided—and while they were inspecting a building it fell down on them and one of the jurors narrowly escaped being killed.

FRIDAY, MARCH 16 1900.

Wadesboro has been selected by a party of the principal professors as the best place for taking observations of the total eclipse of the sun, which will take place on the 28th of May. It is said that the eclipse will be visible for a longer period in North Carolina than it will elsewhere.

The Raleigh News and Observer has just invested upon its forty-eighth volume. For five and a half years it has been under its present management, and they have made it a paper of which Raleigh and the State ought to feel proud. The steps of improvements and progress have been continual, and the paper grows better all the while.

In Louisiana the other day a Court Judge was asked to determine, by tasting, the quality of certain jars of potted salmon and shrimp which a retail grocer declared he found unfit to pay for. The Judge decided in favor of the retailer without resort to the test suggested. The odor of the potted goods alone was convincing.

The last Democratic Legislature said there was a vast difference between poor white people and negroes. That legislature said that white people though poor ought to be allowed to vote, while the vicious negro ought not to enjoy this right. Yet we hear some fusion politicians says that a negro is as good as a poor white man.—Lexington Dispatch.

The Cramps of Philadelphia have just furnished a cruiser for Russia, the contract for which was secured after competitive bidding. They needed no subsidy to enable them to build this war vessel and no doubt made a fair profit from the job. Why should they ask the government for bounties for building merchant vessels? Yes why? Simply because they have got a stock jobbing set of officials that will give it to them.—Winston Journal.

The Age and the Skirt

Probably no other one of the flowers that bloom in the spring will equal the rainy daisies in number this year. Mme. Prof Seler, of Berlin, at a recent public discussion advocated the short Skirt because it made a woman look younger. This settles it. Dress makers can expect a tremendous run.

The dogs of war are still embarking for South Africa.

A Startling Swindle.

One of the most startling swindles ever practiced upon a citizen of our county has just been made public. It is the purchase of the Crinkley plantation by one Mrs. E. E. Knight of Yew Nork. The facts seem to be these: Mr. W. Crinkley advertised the plantation for sale in Northern papers last year. Mrs Knight answered the ad. Negotiations were entered into for the transfer of the valuable plantation and deeds and papers were given. Mr. Crinkley deeded the plantation to Mrs. Knight for a five year note of $20,000 secured by mortgage on real estate in the city of Washington, D. C. When Mrs. Knight was down here on a visit to the plantation she grew confidential and obtained a loan of $5,000 from Mr. Crinkley to carry out some scheme in the sale of zinc mines in Missouri. It has recently developed that Mrs. Knight is a notorious confidence woman and swindler and while negotiating and trading with Mr. Crinkley was out on bail awaiting a hearing by the higher court of a suit against her for swindling. She has since been put in 'durance vile,' and it has further developed that she hasn't a dollars worth of land either in Washington, or Missouri, and therefore, Mr Crinkley has been duped and is minus $5,000 in cool cash and a $20,000 plantation. Mrs. Knight's, alias Mrs. Peck's accomplice, a lawyer by the name of Metcalf, was arrested this week in Brooklyn, N. Y., and the lawyers have the case. We are sorry for Mr Crinkley and hope he will succeed in getting the title back on his lands even if he can not get his lost money.—Warrenton Record.

Varner for Commissioner of Labor and Printing.

Lexington N. C., March 15th 1900.

EDITOR REFLECTOR. This is one of the most critical years in the history of the Democratic party in this State. The constitutional amendment, decent State government and the future welfare of the State's best people all depend upon this year's election. This being true, it behooves us to put up the strongest ticket possible. We should name deserving, efficient, capable and honest men for various places on the State ticket, men who will bear their full part of the work necessary in the campaign like we are now entering upon.

Remembering that Davidson county has never had a man on the Democratic State ticket, the people of this section ask that Mr. Henry B. Varner, editor of The Davidson Dispatch, be nominated for Commissioner of Labor and Printing. In asking this we feel confident that we are working in the interest of one who is eminently qualified and well suited to fill the position with credit to himself and honor to his State, as he is a practical printer and successful newspaper and business man.

Mr. Varner represents the young Democracy of North Carolina, and is a worker. For a number of years he has been Chairman of the Executive Committee of his county, and in the last election won a great victory. He is a member of Ex. Com. of the National Editorial Association, and is serving his second term as Southern member of the Legislative Committee of the same Association.

By preservice, honorable dealing and unrelenting work Mr. Varner has won the admiration of all who know him. If the delegates to the State convention should see fit to give Mr. Varner favorable consideration, no mistake would be made.

Very Respectfully,
 EMERY E. RAPER.

The Republican Sat-stealing Machine.

The Republican majority in the House seems to be considering the contested election cases very much after the manner of the negro poll-holders in Reconstruction days. A voter was challenged, and the council for each side argued the case for an hour, each presenting the law and the facts as they appeared from his standpoint. The poll holders have been unable to follow the attorneys through the tortuous windings of the law. When the argument was concluded the ebony-hued chairman said: "Look here, white folks, we don't keer nuthing" bout the law, and dontkeer nuthing bout it. What we want to know is whether dis here man who wants to vote is a "Publiean or a Demmyerat."

The Congressman simply asks whether the applicant is a Republican, and if he stands pretty well he is seated.

On no other hypothesis can we possibly understand why Democrats who were elected by large majorities are unseated to make way for Republicans who could not carry a county in the district.

There is no ground whatever for a contest in the cases of Mr. Crawford and Mr. Bellamy. Both these gentlemen were honestly elected, and in the latter's case if the entire vote in every disputed county were cast out, he would still have a fine majority.

The people will reverse the Republican verdict at the polls.—Charlotte News.

Durham Beats It.

Yesterday we published the account of a young lady near Mt Airy who made a quilt containing 2,806 pieces. Information comes to the Sun that a Durham lady beats that by 6,014 pieces. Mrs. Chas. D. LeRoy, of this city, has made a quilt that contains 8,820 pieces. These pieces are cut in triangle shape, and the time required to make this quilt consume three months of successive work. Mt. Airy will have to try again, or else Durham stands at the head in quilt making.—Durham Sun.

A Mad Cat Bites.

On Wednesday night of last week Mr. Joe Hayes and his wife were bit by a mad cat in their home near Saratoga. The attack of the cat which suddenly became wild and vicious was unexpected. The enraged animal flew at Mr. and Mrs. Hayes and inflicted wounds which are most serious. The couple are now very sick and it is feared that serious complications may ensue.—Wilson news.

Came Out Worsted.

The editor has added one more to his list of troubles and came very near making THE REFLECTOR short another hand. Late Thursday evening while waiting for supper he went out in his garden and undertook to put up a scantling where one was needed in the grape arbor. Of course the scantling fell and he caught it full across the face, the result being a stunning blow and disfigured physiognomy.

Double Hanging.

Nashville, N. C., Mar 15.—John Taylor and Robert Fortune, both colored, were hanged heretoday for the murder of Mr. Robert Hester, near Rocky Mount. Taylor made a statement on the gallows, confessing that he and Fortune also killed Lawrence Jackson, colored, at Weldon, and robbed him on Dec. 18th. The drop fell at 1:10 P. M. Fortune was pronounced dead in 4½ minutes, while Taylor showed signs of life for 8 minutes. They both seemed calm and showed no fear of death. Six thousand people were here to witness the execution.

Crowding Twelve Millions.

This season the Greenville tobacco market has sold some over eleven millions pounds of tobacco. The season has yet a short while to run, so that by the close the aggregate will be very near to twelve millions. There is not a stronger market in the State than this, nor one that pays better average prices.

The Winston Sentinel is struck by the fact that while E. Spencer Blackburn denies having said in his speech at Newton that North Carolina Democrats may take warning by the fate of William Goebel, he fails to say what he did say. This is, indeed, rather a noticeable omission. A Newton gentleman, by the way, said to an Observer representative yesterday, that while few Democrats who heard Blackburn would be willing to say that he used the very words with which he is charged, the words that he did use carried exactly this impression to them, and one Democrat upon coming out of the court house remarked that if that was to be the game the Republicans would get enough of it. It seems to be "up to" Mr. Blackburn again, and another card is in order.—Charlotte Observer.
