Blood Hounds

We have been informed by Guss Forbes that he has purchased two blood hounds to be kept here, for the purpose of tracking criminals. He received a telegram Friday announcing that the trainer and two dogs would be here Tuesday night. They will be given a trial and if proven satisfactory, Guss will keep them. We are glad to know this as it will probably be the means of catching the perpetrators of crime, who otherwise might escape.

25th ANNIVERSARY

Of Mr and Mrs J B Cherry Let us show you a picture. Do you see that flaxen-haired little girl yonder? The idol of a sweet lovely home—a home where fond loving parents "made melody with their hearts" a home where dwelt a gentle old fashioned grandmother, who had pillowed upon her breast and dedicated to God her 'first grandchild. She was the one in all the world to this child's heart; and to her she never grew old but was indeed her companion. I now recall vividly, as I sit by my fire musing, the night this aged pilgrim passed beyond the stars and entered into eternal rest. Her devotion to this aged one has so developed in her character that many darkened homes have been lighted by her presence and saddened hearts made happy by her ministrations. This lovely child; lived in the heerts of as devoted parents as I ever knew, and was encircled in the arms of their love. Her old black mammy (of the old South) who had served the family for three generations was never forgotten by this thoughtful little girl. Soon the golden days of childhood passed, and whispers came that marriage vows were soon to be spoken. Once again we were in the home, and saw her brow radiant with hope -life bloomed anew -the skies were bluer-the earth greener-flowers of love cast their sweetest fragrance around her path way-her twin soul was found.

Hark! what weak cry is that I hear? God has given them a pure soul upon which they can write as they will by God's help. A little heart will throb back love for love-an angel visitant, warm from the hand of God has come to share their heart and home. Joy and congratulations fond parents! As time with its ceaseless changes has rollen on-have they trampled in dust love's beauteous flowers? No indeed! they are lovers still. Love has been to them an inspiration. General Otis is said to think it is simply outrageous that the insurgents should begin fighting again just as he had them hopelessly scattered. The blamed cusses ought to stay whipped.

The Republican party in Texas has split. That ought to be good news for that party. The country didn't know that Texas Republi cans were numerous enough to be capable of spliting.

If it is possible that President Mc. Kinley may be vindicated by time, but it is not likely to be until after Col. Brvan has been elected to the White House and then it will be too late to do McKinley much good.

Honor continues to be heaped on General Buller for his heroism in relieving Ladysmith after Joubert had been forced by Roberts to raise the debate upon the old bill is to HAS PROVIDED FOR YOU the siege. Sampson continues to be continued indefinitely. Senator be honored by the Navy Department for-but no, we wont say any more.

The mountain has been in labor similar statement as to Indiana. and has brought forth a ridiculous mouse. The Republican Senators have argued and argued and finally decided to do nothing for the present in the hope that something will turn up to enable them to decide the Porto Rican question satisfactorily to every body. Was there ever a more ignominious case of playing politics? The country will know how regard such cowardice.

Kruger is not whipped yet. He probably simply desire to put himself right before the world and it is quite certain that he has done so. The brutal announcement of Lord Salisbury that England would be content with nothing less than the very existance of its victims, will nerve the Boers arms and raise them up a handred sympathizers where they had but one before Com Paul cectainly out maneuvres the British in every way-in war, in peace and in diplomacy.

All that The bonds could only be paid in was done was to forward a cablegram from the presidents of the slightest hope of international hood. Write plainly and only on South African republics to the English government, through the United States Embassy in London. There was no word of comment from this government, although Mr. McKinley knows that a right sort of a message from him would result in saving the existance of those republics. The message from the South African governments was not even dignified by being presented by the United States Ambassador to England, that official being off on a pleasure jaunt; it was presented by one of his secretaries. It was because of the bad showing that would have been made that Mr. McKinley took advantage of his right and refused to furnish the Senate with copies of all correspondence with Great Britain and the South African republics, which are asked for

I have been suffering from female weakness for four years, and have taken many medicines, but Wine of Cardul and B ack-Draught have done more for me than any-MRS. CAROLINE EVANS

It is a mistake to take any and every kind of medicine when you are sick. There is danger in it. Most of the so-called cures for "female weakness" do nothing more than deaden the pain temporarily, and when the effect wears away the patient is weaker and sicker than before. It is never wise to take chances. You have only one life, and that is dear and precious. If you have any pain, ache, disorder or weakness in the femi-nine organs, nothing will help you like Wine of Cardui. It helps do away with morning sickness during the early stages of pregnancy, and modifies the pains of childbirth; recovery is rapid and future health is assured. The Wine is purely veg-etable, being made Of herbs whose medicinal properties act directly upon the organs of womanhood. It is a long-tried remedy, and has many years of success behind it. It

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cherry's Silver Wedding.

Friday night from 9 to 12 o'clock the palatial home of Mr. and Mrs. James Burton Cherry, which has been recently enlarged and newly furnished, was a scene of briliancy and beauty. It was the occasion of the celebration of their silver wedding. Twenty-five years ago-March 16th, 1875they joined hearts and hands, and their wedded life has passed the quarter century mile post in peace and happiness. Their host of friends wish for them many more happy anniversaries.

The interior of the home was splendidly decorated—palms, evergreens, flowers and delicate ribbons being arranged in most harmonious effect.

The guests were received in the hall by Miss Nina James and Master Burton James, children of Senator F. G. James and grand children of Mr. Cherry. In the west parlor Mr. and Mrs. Cherry were assisted in receiving by Senator and Mrs. F. G. James, ex-Gov. and Mrs. T. J. Jarvis, Dr. Chas. J. O'Hagan and Dr. Zeno-Brown. At their marriage ex-Gov. Jarvis was the bridegroom's best man and Dr. O'Hagan accompanied the bride to the altar. It is also remarkable that all of the bride's maids, with one exception, are now living, though circumstances were such that nore of them could be present at this silver anniversary.

In the east parlor was a beautiful display of silver presents, some of them exceedingly handsome.

The dining room was a dream of beauty, the centre table being a pyramid of flowers and brilliant candelabras with overhanging festoons of ribbon and smilax. At smaller tables around the room the guests were served with an elegant supper by Misses Bessie Jarvis, Winnie Skinner, Ada Wooten, Louise Latham and Messrs. W. H. Dail, C. T. Lipscomb, I. C. Gary and J. A. Ricks.

Before the guests departed they were charmingly entertained with two vocal selections by-Mrs. Walter H. Grimes.
