WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Mar. 31.

J. R. Vaughan, the noted temperance lecturer is in town again.

Winterville expects to be headquarters for tobacco trucks this year.

To show that our little town is a hustler the number of shipments made from this place the past month is over 200.

Mr. Latham and family with young Mr. Ricks drove double teams from Whartons, arriving here late last evening. The Lathams are relatives of Mrs. H. M. Dixon.

While there is so much talk of a cotton mill in this section of country, why isn't Winterville a good location? If needed a site of 15 or 20 acres of land will be given, also brick, lumber, &c., can be secured right here. The railroad company also guarantees to give as low a rate of freight from this point to leading points as can be had in the State. Our mineral water furnishes the best drink.

Below is the honor roll of Winterville Academy for last month, giving the names of all those who averaged over 90 on examination.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

Gathering of Pitt's Unterrified Democracy.

The Democratic county convention assembled in the Court House today to select delegates to the State Convention in Raleigh on the 11th of April.

The meeting was called to order by Alex. L. Blow, chairman of the county executive committee.

The roll of delegates from the townships was called and R. R. Cotten, of Falkland, was elected permanent chairman of the convention. W. L. Brown, D. J. Whichard and H. T. King elected secretaries.

A committee on resolutions composed of one from each township was appointed as follows: Ivy Smith, W. H. Rieves, S. M. Jones, H. W. Whichard, Alston Grimes, J. J. May, W. R. Williams, A. J. Flanagan, L. I. Moore, J. R. Barnhill, C. J. Tucker.

While the committee was out preparing its report Dr. O'Hagan was invited to address the convention. He said, the county was to be congratulated upon such an assemblage of intelligent men as he saw before him. This meant something, that the people were in earnest, that they were aroused to the importance of the issues before them, the most prominent of which can be named in one short sentence—shall the white men, such as these present, rule the county, and State, or shall it be ruled by an inferior race. Dr. O'Hagan told of outrages that had been committed in past years, and said he believed every man here was determined that the white man should rule.

The committee not having returned when Dr. O'Hagan concluded his remarks, Gov. T. J. Jarvis was invited to speak. He said his political experience for thirty years has taught him that conditions make issues. He then went back to the days of 1868 and showed how many white men were disfranchised, and a horde of colored people enfranchised and the reign of corruption that followed. This brought the white people together and a few years later the republicans were swept from power and under the Democratic rule that followed there was good government.

There arose differences of opinion among the white people which created such a division that in 1894 the Republicans again got control and gave us such an administration in State, county and town as to become intolerable, resulting in the white people again uniting in 1898 and once more swept the Republicans from power. To prevent a return of such conditions the Legislature of 1899 proposed an amendment to our constitution and that is the chief issue before us now. Gov. Jarvis then briefly and intelligently discussed the amendment.

The Committee on resolutions made the following report:

FIRST RESOLUTION.

1. We reaffirm the principles of the National Democratic party as made and declared at Chicago in 1896 and specifically declare our allegiance to the principles therein enunciated.

2. We witness with growing concern the dangerous growth of Trusts and monopolies under the protec-

Spring Announcement!

At the opening of this spring season we wish to extend an invitation to our friends, and the public in general, to call on us and see the finest display of Spring Clothing, Furnishings, Hats and Haberdashery we have ever had the pleasure of showing.

Our store is full of spring novelties and every thing is bright and new. We handle only standard made goods and these are the newest and best in their respective lines. We give our customers the honest value of their money in reliable goods and if for any reason a customer is dissatisfied with his purchase he can always get his money back.

Our growth has been a healthy and steady one and we feel that our efforts to conduct our business on strictly business principles is appreciated. We attribute our success and rightly too to our established reputation for honest and fair dealing.

If you are already a patron of ours we feel confident of retaining you, but if you are not one of our customers let us here extend to you an earnest invitation to come in and get acquainted with us, see our goods, learn our principles and way of doing business. We are confident of the result. We feel sure that you will become convinced that it will pay you to do your trading at our store. Very truly yours,

FRANK WILSON,

THE KING CLOTHIER.

SATURDAY MARCH 31, 1900.

There is one point on which McKinley has never changed his mind and that is as to the advisability of his own re-election.

A company of Chinese actors, rehearsing for a new play, has been arrested by an intelligent Chicago policeman and hauled off to the police station on a charge of conspiring to commit murder. They were released when the "corpse" revived and explained matters through an interpreter. Who says Chicago isn't cultured?

Attorney-General Griggs has awarded the contract for building a penitentiary without permitting the public to know the amounts of the bids tendered, and without permitting any firms except those with strong Republican pulls to bid. Griggs can always be depended upon when there is a job to be carried through.

Who is going to supply the Republican campaign fund this year? The bankers won't do it because the gold bill has been adopted; the tariff men won't because the Senate is safe to prevent changes in that for four years to come; the sugar trust and ship owners won't unless they get some return in fact not in promises, which seem doubtful at present. Where is the g. o. p. going to get its money?

Extracts From Major Williams A. Guthrie's Article on the Amendment.

The only question is, does this section "deny or abridge" the right to vote "on account of race or color"? Are negroes debarred by it? Then white men who come within these provisions would also be debarred. Where is the discrimination? Take the case of an illiterate son or grandson of an unnaturalized alien, he cannot vote under section 5, for his ancestors didn't vote prior to January 1st, 1867. Take the case of even a naturalized foreigner who cannot read or write the English language and never voted prior to January 1st, 1867, it matters not as to his race or color, he could not vote under section 5, nor can his illiterate lineal descendants vote under section 5, to whatever race they belong. The question of race or color does not enter into this enabling qualification. The question under section 5 is, whether the voter himself or his ancestor, voted prior to January 1st, 1867.

WASHINGTON LETTER

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 30, 1900.

What democrats think of the republican attempts to make it appear that Col. Bryan is not as strong a candidate as he was in 1896 may be judged from the opinions here-with given, which voiced the general democratic sentiment in Congress and in Washington. Senator Morgan—"Mr. Bryan will be nominated again because he is the strongest man in the party." Senator Money—"Mr. Bryan will be nominated and he will be elected he is the strongest man in the party."

Senator Turley—"I do not know of any one in the democratic party who as a Presidential candidate, would receive the support which will be given to Mr. Bryan. His chances of election are much better than in 1896." Senator Tillman—"There is no comparison, so far as the chances of Bryan's election this fall are concerned, with the situation that prevailed in 1896. His chances are very much greater." Senator Bate—"Bryan is today the strongest man, and he will pull a million more votes than any other man that could be named. I believe he will be elected." Senator Kenny—"Under all circumstances, Bryan is the strongest man we could nominate. I don't think any democrat will contend otherwise. He is strong because he is near to the people, and he represents democratic principles better than any other man." Senator-elect Blackburn—"Our republican friends are all busily engaged in trying to convince us that our chances of winning are good with anybody except Mr. Bryan. I think I know the motive that prompts this disinterested advice and I am equally positive that Bryan at the head of our ticket will poll a million more votes than any other man unburied. His nomination is accepted by every one, and is as much an accomplished fact now as it will be after the 4th of next July."

There is a screw loose in the machinery of Civil Service when a man like Hon. A. P. Greeley, who is the ablest and best equipped man that ever acted as Commissioner of Patents has to resign to enter the practice of patent law because of insufficient compensation. During his sixteen years connection with the U. S. Patent Office Mr. Greeley made an enviable record for himself, and by his unrelenting and successful war upon swindling patent attorneys, such as the notorious John Wedderburn, did much to purify the practice before that office.

Senator Morgan trapped Senator Foraker very cleverly on the question of whether the Constitution extends to Porto Rico. It was during a discussion of the new Porto Rico bill, which is the result of the last republican caucus—a little change in phraseology, but none in principle. Mr. Morgan remarked that he found no provision in bill for the establishment of national banks on the Island, when Mr Foraker interrupted to say that the bill extends all laws of the U. S. to Porto Rico which are not locally inapplicable. "Does the Senator think national banks may be established there?" asked Mr. Morgan. "Within the limitations named in the bill, I should say yes," replied Mr. Foraker. "Then triumphantly retorted Mr. Morgan "Porto Rico is not a foreign country. There is no question about the logic of that proposition."

The Coming Eclipse of the Sun.

On the 28th of May next the solar eclipse will come. It will be closely studied by the astronomers around the world. An American expedition has gone to Tripoli, North Africa, Oxford University, England, will have its astronomer at Algiers, Africa. Sir Norman Lockyer, the astronomer, will go to Alicante, on the east coast of Spain. Others will watch at Paris in the observatory of Meudon. The astronomer royal of Great Britain, Mr. Christie, will have his party at Greenwich observatory. The eclipse will be total all through the south from Norfolk to New Orleans. The average length of the total phase in these localities is not far from 1m. 20s., and if the skies are kindly the numerous expeditions can fail to secure result of high importance, as was the case in the American eclipse of 1869, 1878, and 1889. The Lick, Yerkes, Lowell, Flower, and Chabot observatories, together with those at Cambridge, Washington, Princeton, Northfield, and the Massachusetts institute of Technology, are among the institutions already preparing for the work of observation. Get your glasses ready. Read up and enjoy the study of the eclipse in North Carolina in this year of grace 1900.

Mrs. Eliza F. McKinley, 81 years old and a cousin of the President, will vote in the school elections at Cleveland, O., today.

"Yes madam," sighed the ash man "I have seen better days. I was once an iceman, but I was fired." "Ah, I see," said the lady; "you were reduced to ashes."

Since the beginning of the year more than two hundred applications have been filed for new national banks, most of which are in the Western States. Nearly all are for $25,000 capital, a small number for $50,000, and a still smaller for larger amounts. North Carolina has made application for four of $25,000 each. Iowa leads with thirty-eight, all of $25,000 capital, except three of $50,000.—Wilmington Star.

The scarcity of American merchant vessels was only too palpable during our war with Spain. But the Boer trouble has intensified it by absorbing British transatlantic liners, delaying our commerce and hindering the quick transportation of our foreign mail. We should be as independent on sea as on land. We can beat the world in manufacturing and land transportation, but we lack the facilities for transporting our goods by sea to foreign buyers.—Bluefield Telegraph.

WINE OF CARDUI

WOMEN WHO WORK.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 12.

Though only 19 years old, I suffered from pains and female troubles two years. Last spring I got so bad I had to quit work. I had to support myself, and could not afford a high-priced doctor. I got one bottle of Wine of Cardui and that made me feel better. Have now used several bottles and am well. My mother used the Wine for Change of Life and was greatly relieved.

MISS MARGARET WALSH.

Many girls and women find it necessary to earn their own living in various kinds of employment. Their work is often so hard and confining that the health breaks down. Their delicate constitutions are unfitted for tiresome tasks. Weakness nearly always makes its appearance in the peculiarly delicate womanly organs. Constant standing on the feet, and coming and going at the beck of a superintendent or foreman, induces falling of the womb, leucorrhoea, headache and backache. The pay of women workers is often so notoriously small that when sickness comes they have no money to engage skillful physicians. To them Wine of Cardui is truly a blessing. It cures them of their ills at a small cost, and they can act as their own physicians. No doctor can do as much for "female troubles" as Wine of Cardui.

Must Stay a Little Longer.

Washington, March 29.—Secretary Root said to-day that he had not changed his mind as to the possibility of safely reducing the number of American soldiers in Cuba. But the postponement of the Cuban elections for at least a month beyond the date originally fixed, had made it advisable to delay correspondingly the diminution of the garrisons, so that it might be well into the summer before the contemplated reductions could be made.

The existence of a quarantine in Florida at that time would not prevent the movement of troops northward, as they could be landed without much delay at almost any point north of the Carolinas.

Try It.

Tomorrow will be known as 'all fools' day, that is most any prank, deception or surprise practiced is called an April fool. The day falling on Sunday, there are some people who could give their acquaintance a great surprise by attending church.

Judge Bowman Sick.

There is some doubt of the April term of court beginning next Monday. Judge Bowman is sick and will be unable to attend. The Governor has been telegraphed, asking him to send another Judge, but it is not yet known whether he will be able to do so, or not.

Later it is learned that court will begin Thursday.

C. S. Forbes and C. T. Lipsecomb, went to Kinston Friday night and returned this morning.

It is now probable that Judge E. W. Timberlake, of Louisburg, will come to hold court next week, beginning Thursday.

Fatal Mistake of a Merchant at Lyon, Ga.

Lyon, Ga. May 29.—Daniel Broughton, a merchant of this place is dead and John McEachern, his friend, is at the point of death, from drinking wood alcohol, by mistake. They are prominent men the community. Mr. Broughton was having his store painted, and at the request of the painter, ordered some wood alcohol for mixing. Some of it was put in bottles labelled "Root Beer," and one of these bottles the painter left on a shelf.

Supposing the bottle to contain root beer, Mr. Broughton asked McEachern to have a drink and both drank. Twelve hours afterward Mr. Broughton was dead and Mr. McEachern was at the point of death notwithstanding the best efforts of physicians.

Easter 1900.

To those of our patrons who have not inspected our Spring and Summer stock we extend a cordial invitation to look over our very superior line of the cream of the market in Casimers, Worsteds, Flannels, Chivots, Vicunas, Thibet Cloths and every novelty and staple suitable to the use of careful and fashionable dressers. As is well known, we GUARANTEE PERFECT FIT and SATISFACTION. To give this we should have ample time for careful work, and therefore ask your order as early as possible to forestall the usual Easter Rush.

Yours respectfully,

Greenville Tailoring Co.,

COUNTY CONVENTION.

tion of the Republican party and are convinced that the control of those evils and their accompanying demoralization can be met most successfully by stringent anti-trust laws made by the Legislatures of the sovereign State and pledge our efforts to accomplish this end.

3. We denounce as undemocratic and contrary to the aims and purposes of our government, the recent action of a Republican Congress in attempting to enact a tariff law which shall apply as between this county and Porto Rico, we believe the flag of our country and the constitution are one and inseparable.

4. We reaffirm the principles and policies of the Democratic party in this State as declared in 1898 at their State Convention and pledge ourselves to bring about the reforms therein suggested.

Resolved 1. We, the Democrats of Pitt county, in convention assembled, do heartily endorse the proposition to select the Democratic candidate for the United States Senator by the Democratic voters, at a primary election, held for that purpose, because,

1st. Such method of choosing our Senatorial candidates will be carrying out the spirit of the pledges of the Democratic platform of 1898.

2nd. It will be keeping in practice the good old Democratic doctrine, that the people are the sovereigns and the rulers.

3rd. It will put an end to the efforts of delegates and partizans, to secure the nomination of a particular man for the legislature, because he favors a certain person for the Senate and will leave the nominating convention free to select their candidates for the Legislature, with reference alone to their fitness and the Legislature free to address itself at once to its important work.

4th. It brings the party machinery down to the people, and gives them control of its nominations for this high office. It will thereby make the party stronger, because its methods are fair, honest and open.

Resolved 2. That for these reasons, the delegates from this County to the State Convention be, and they hereby instructed to work and vote for some effective plan for securing and conducting such primary elections for the selection of a Democratic candidate for United States Senator.
