Three Days Court

Court convenes Thursday morning and will continue through this week. There will be no court next week for want of a judge, as Judge Timberlake, who comes to fill the place of Judge Bowman, who is sick, will have to go to another district and can only be here the remainder of this week.

Store Broken Open.

Sometime Tuesday night some one broke in the store of D. W. Hardy by prizing open the rear window. The thief did not succeed in getting any money but took several boxes of cigars. He evidently intends to have a good smoke from the number taken.

Mr. Hardy has no suspicions who the guilty party was.

Democratic Hens.

A few days ago the papers were telling of a Beaufort county hen laying an egg with the initials W. J. B. on it. This egg was forwarded to Washington to Congressman Small to be sent to Hon. W. J. Bryan. Now the same hen has laid another egg, this one having the initials C. B. A. on it. This latter egg was sent here to Mr. J. L. Fleming and he showed it to THE REFLECTOR this morning. The letters are large and clear. Mr. Fleming will take the egg to the State convention next week and it will be presented to Hon. C. B. Aycock as soon as he is nominated for Governor. With the hens for Bryan and Aycock who will dare say we are not going to win this year!

It seems odd that love is blind, and yet can find a way.

Swift Creek and Contentnea Stock Law $97 39.

J. B. Cherry, treasurer and C. O'H. Laughinghouse, coroner, presented their reports which were accepted.

Mrs. Mary Tucker was refunded the county part of taxes on $500 erroneously charged for 1898.

Mrs. Julia M. Barrett's personal property listed in Falkland township for 1899 was reduced from $3,750 to $2,000.

Cynthia Patrick was released from payment of taxes on one town lot valued at $100, erroneously charged.

B. W. Briley, Contentnea township was released from poll tax for the year 1899.

J. D. Pope and wife, paupers, amount increased $4 00 per month.

Edwin Smith (dead) was stricken from the pauper list.

Phillis Clark was added to the pauper list at $1 00 per month.

Ordered that F. A. Woodard, of Wilson, be notified to appear at next meeting and show cause why he has failed to list for taxation for several years, the lands belonging to H. G. Whitehead, in Pactolus township.

Sheriff was instructed to advertise the delinquent tax list in King's Weekly.

The following were appointed list takers for the year 1900:

Greenville—H A Blow.
Chicod—W M Moore.
Swift Creek—I K Witherington.
Contentnea—H S Hardy.
Beaver Dam—Joab Tyson.
Farmville—C L Barrett.
Falkland—R Williams.
Belvoir—T A Thigpen.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 4, 1900

So far a large majority of the counties in their conventions have endorsed the movement for a primary election to determine who shall be elected United States Senator by the next Legislature. Sentiment in favor of such primary election grows stronger every day. until now there is hardly a doubt that the State Convention next week will adopt it. The election should be held in November when we vote for Congressmen and Presidential Electors.

OUR RALEIGH LETTER.

State Convention Next Wednesday and the Probable Results.

Special Correspondent of Reflector.

RALEIGH, N. C., April 3, 1900.
Well, gentlemen, you can begin to pack your grips and purchase your tickets for Raleigh ("free passes" have played out, I believe); the State convention meets next week—and we are expecting you, all of you.

Chances are that over one thousand delegates and alternates will be here, to say nothing of the "visiting statesmen," and on Wednesday there is going to be the greatest Democratic love feast held in this State in many years. Many of these old-time "shouters" will be present to enliven the occasion, and after the ticket is formerly born the convention will form itself into a sort of White Brotherhood jollification meeting.

AYCOCK AND HIS RUNNING MATE

Of course we all know it is going to be Governor Aycock, and by acclamation, for, I take it, Mr. Davidson will yet retire from the contest before the ballot for Governor is taken in the convention.

It is the duty of every true party man to listen to the demands of the majority of his party, and it is his bounden duty to accept any trust his party sees fit to impose upon him and to make the fight for his people.

It is probable that Col. Cunningham will be nominated for Lieutenant-Governor by acclamation also, at least after one vote has been taken, if not before. It is very evident that he is the choice of the majority and will be nominated on the first ballot by a large majority. Under the circumstances it will be his duty to accept.

Most Democrats whom I have heard talk on the subject, especially Mr. Aycock's original supporters, very freely state they think the honor of a nomination by acclamation is due Col. Cunningham, and that it should be tendered him, under all the circumstances.

THE STATE PRIMARY FOR SENATOR.

It seems altogether probable that the State Primary (to settle the question of who shall be the Democratic successor to Marion Butler) will be ordered by the State convention, according to the recommendation of the Democratic State Committee at its last meeting. It will be set for November of course, on the day Congressman and Presidential Electors are to be voted for. This is believed, by most of the party leaders and the masses alike, to be by far the best and most satisfactory method of settling the question, because it will be in the interest of neither candidate, and will effectually eliminate the Senatorial controversy from the State campaign, and therefore not be allowed to interfere with the success of the Amendment as it otherwise would.

The people are now demanding to have a direct voice in the election of their U. S. Senators, and last week the Democrats of Georgia ordered a State Primary to select the successor to Senator Bacon, the latter approving of the plan. In South Carolina and a dozen or score of other States the primary plan has been in vogue for years, and it is significant of its success that the people will not tolerate or listen to a change of the system. The time has evidently come when North Carolina demands it also, although there has been a studied avoidance of the question in some counties by some of the local leaders.

CLOSE CONTESTS FOR OTHER OFFICES.

And right here the certainty ends. I could not tell you who the Treasurer or Secretary of State or Auditor or Attorney General will be, much less which of the "smaller fry" are likely to escape the net of defeat.

Ben. Lacy and Henry A. London appear to lead, and in the order mentioned, for Treasurer; but the friends of Boushall, Everett and Burgwyn are still sanguine.

For Secretary of State Col. J. Bryan Grimes and Hon. Dan Hugh McLean appear to be the favorites, although the friends of Hon. W. P. Wood are still active and hopeful.

The Auditorship and the Attorney Generalship are likely to "go west," if McLean or Grimes is successful. But whether Pearson or Dixon or Holman for auditor, and Gilmer or Jerome for Attorney General, it is impossible to say. If the east gets a chance at the Attorney General's place, Frank Winston and Charles F. Warren are to be counted as possible winners also.

The Labor Commissionership is unsettled. If Lucy is defeated for Treasurer it will be hard for either of the aspirants for his old shoes to prevent the convention from renominating him. If Lacy is named for Treasurer then Varner, James or some western man will be nominated for Labor Commissioner.

The west also gets the Commissioner of Agriculture (Mr. Patterson will be renominated) and one of the Corporation Commissioners (Mr. Rogers; probably, the present incumbent.) The west already has the State Librarian and other minor places. So that section will be pretty well provided for.

Col. Cunningham is the only man from the 5th Congressional district likely to be placed on the ticket. The 3rd district has only one candidate, McLean. All the other districts have more than one aspirant for honors. Somebody is going to be temporarily disappointed of course, but nobody is going to "kick" or get sour or cross or sulky, even a little bit. Everybody is going to be happy next week!

GOV. AYCOCK TO ADDRESS ODD FELLOWS.

On April 26th the Odd Fellows all over the country will celebrate the eighty-first anniversary of American Odd Fellowship. In Raleigh there are three prosperous Lodges of this order with an active membership of about 500, and these are now taking steps to properly celebrate this anniversary event publicly. Hon. Charles B. Aycock, who is a member of the order, will deliver an address on that occasion. Other speeches will be made and an interesting musical program is being arranged. Visiting Odd Fellows in Raleigh on this occasion will find a cordial reception and experience a most enjoyable time.

MAJOR HALE FOR DELEGATE AT LARGE.

I have heard a great many party men allude to the candidacy of Maj. E. J. Hale, the able editor of the Fayetteville Observer, for delegate at large to the national convention and without exception he has been endorsed. Four years ago he was conspicuous at Chicago in bringing about the nomination of Mr. Bryan, and without going into details here, it may be correctly stated that he is the "logical candidate" this year again. There is hardly a doubt of his selection by the State convention next week.

LEWISAM.

Any man will agree that there's no place like home, providing the title "inmate" can't be applied to him.

"Before I give my answer," said the careful parent, "I would like to ask a question. "Can you support a family?" "I can, sir," replied the trembling suitor. "That settles it. Take her at once, my boy. Her mother and myself will move in as soon as you set up housekeeping."

WINE OF CARDUI

Woman Knows Woman.

ZURICH, KAN., Jan. 31.

I used Wine of Cardui for nervousness and weakness in the womb. After taking one bottle I was well again. I am a midwife and always recommend Wine of Cardui to my lady friends during pregnancy and after birth as a tonic. Every lady who takes it finds that it does even more than is claimed for it.

MRS. V. M. BOISVERT.

Wine of Cardui

Nobody knows woman like woman. Men go to medical colleges, study books and listen to lectures. They learn indirectly of the diseases of women, but they are men and can never fully understand the ailments, the sufferings, the agonies of mothers, wives and sisters. A woman knows. Mrs. Boisvert knows. She has passed through the trials and tribulations of her sex. She has been near by when her sisters suffered. She has seen them relieved and cured with Wine of Cardui. Is it any wonder she recommends it? Is it any wonder that thousands of other women recommend it? They know. They have actual experience to prompt them. They spread the tidings from mouth to mouth, telling how Wine of Cardui helps young girls, helps Easter 1900.

To those of our patrons who have not inspected our Spring and Summer stock we extend a cordial invitation to look over our very superior line of the cream of the market in Casimers, Worsteds, Flannels, Chivots, Vicunas, Thibet Cloths and every novelty and staple suitable to the use of careful and fashionable dressers. As is well known, we GUARANTEE PERFECT FIT and SATISFACTION. To give this we should have ample time for careful work, and therefore ask your order as early as possible to forestall the usual Easter Rush.

Imported And Domestic Cloths,

Yours respectfully,

Miss Sarah Hooker Dead

It was a sad shock to Greenville when it was learned this morning that Miss Sarah Hooker was dead. She passed away at 4 o'clock at the home of her mother, Mrs. Bettie Hooker, in South Greenville. The cause of her death was hepatic colic. She had been sick only two days, being taken while at the dinner table Monday, and many of her friends did not know that she was sick, therefore her sudden death caused all the more surprise and pain.

Miss Hooker was 20 years old in February. She was a young lady of splendid traits of character. Generous, kind hearted, ever loyal to her friends and always ready to do an act of kindness, she was esteemed and loved by all. In early childhood she became a member of the Methodist church, and took great interest in both church and Sunday school work. Every duty she undertook was cheerfully and faithfully done.

The very thought of her death is so sad. Only last Sunday we noticed her returning home from church. Then she was in apparent good health, light hearted and happy, with every prospect of a long and useful life; now in the cold embrace of death. Just as the flower reaches its full beauty and fragrance, it fades and dies.

A mother and several brothers and sisters deeply mourn her death, and these have the sympathy of the entire community.

The funeral will take place Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock, services at Methodist church and interment at Cherry Hill cemetery. Friends of the family invited to attend.

Attention Pythians.

Grand Lecturer J. Robert Jordan will visit Tar River Lodge, K. of P. Thursday evening and deliver a lecture. Every member of the lodge is requested to be present promptly at 8 o'clock.

Death Follows Crime.

Columbia, S. C. April 2.—Pinckney Sizemore, whose burial was stopped by the police of Greenville because there were signs of life, was interred this morning. The death of the man was sensational. He had been arrested for highway robbery in stealing a watch. When taken into the magistrate's office he denied his guilt, but when searched the watch was found on his person. He was asked to explain his conduct. He turned white and fell to the floor, dead.
