Sociable.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Timberlake gave to a number of young people a very delightful sociable on Monday evening at their home in South Greenville. The occasion was one of much pleasure and long to be remembered by those present.

The couples attending were:

Will Hooker and Miss Nina James.

Marion Tucker and Miss Emmie Smith.

Jim Averett and Miss Minnie Tunstall.

L. B. Bass and Miss Lucy Forbes.

Robert Tunstall and Miss Doris Flanagan.

James M. Moore and Miss Florence Starkey.

J. B. Harding and Miss Carrie Andrews.

His First Court.

Hon. A. M. Moore, of this town, who was recently appointed by Governor Russell as Judge of the Criminal Court to succeed the late Judge Dorsey Battle, held his first court in Charlotte last week. Sunday's Charlotte Observer has the following to say about him:

In the week that he has presided over the court here, Judge Moore has disposed 179 cases—as heavy a week's work as has ever been done in any court in this county. As a fair, pains-taking and careful presiding officer, he has made himself popular with the members of the bar here and generally. Judge Moore will spend today in Charlotte and will leave tomorrow morning for Robeson county, where he holds his next term of court.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

At a meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee held in Greenville on the 14th day of April, 1900, a convention for the nomination of Democratic candidates for the Legislature and the various county offices and for the appointment of delegates to the First Congressional District Democratic convention, was called to meet in the Court House, in Greenville, at 12 o'clock M., on Saturday, May 19th, 1900.

Township primaries, for the purpose of appointing delegates to said county convention, were called to meet at the usual places in each township on Saturday, May 12th, 1900, at 3 o'clock P. M. The said primaries will also elect an Executive Committee for each precinct, composed of five members, and also nominate candidates for Justices of the Peace and Constable. The number of delegates and alternates each township will be entitled to is as follows:

Beaver Dam	5
Belvoir	5
Bethel	9
Carolina	8
Chicod	20
Contentnea	21
Falkland	8
Farmville	7
Greenville	29
Pactois	4
Swift Creek	11

All white men in the county of Pitt who favor the white people controlling the affairs of State and county, and who intend to vote to that end, are cordially invited to attend and participate in these meetings.

Off to Edgcombe.

U. E. House, of Edgcombe county, came Monday and left this morning with two prisoners, Alex. Bailey and John Corbitt, to work on the Edgcombe county roads. Both of these prisoners were tried at the April term of court and sentenced to 4 months work on the roads. Bailey charged with affray and Corbitt with larceny.

How to Obtain Publicity.

The number of people who "never read ads" is very small, —so small, indeed, that it is seldom taken into serious account. Practically everybody reads advertisements. Those which are most attractive in form and matter are naturally most widely read. The advertiser who can make his advertisements the most interesting is bound to obtain the widest publicity and to make the largest sales.—Philadelphia Record.

The Raleigh Observer says that the first check sent to the State Chairman for the fund, after the State convention, was sent by Col. John S. Cunningham. It was just like him, for he is a Democrat who is always ready to serve his party in any way in his power. It is to the young men of that stamp that the party looks for service in future victories.

Now Comes

Negligee Elegance.

We've done our best and the Collections cannot be better. The color artists have put together every conceivable color combination. The golf idea is prominent and popular, also the checked and striped patterns. Summer stuffs, a sight of which will delight you. Colors that are proof against fading. Making and fit that you'd expect only from the made-to-order kind. But of course you know by this time, if you know this store at all, that there's nothing worth having but what you'll find here. So it is of course with the Negligees. We want particularly to have you drop in to see the Negligee Shirts we are selling for $1. None get ahead of us.

OUR RALEIGH LETTER.

The Greatest State Convention Ever Held in North Carolina.

Special Correspondent of Reflector.

RALEIGH, N. C., April 16, 1900.

A broad smile of satisfaction overspread the optimistic countenance of every true Democrat in North Carolina. Pleased is hardly the term to use in describing the feelings of every one of the thousand and more delegates and alternates who participated in the work of the largest, most representative and altogether finest convention ever held in the State of North Carolina, whose session in this city last Wednesday and Thursday lasted (with a brief intermission of one hour) for nearly twenty hours, finally adjourning at "late breakfast time" Thursday morning.

The work of that convention was magnificently done. The Platform of the party adopted reads like an inspired one. The candidates named for the several offices to be filled represent the best brain and blood and brawn in our dear and grand old Commonwealth. While there were two or three grand surprises in the selection of candidates, the party and its prospects of success have not been injured the least—for the ticket is composed of a set of Hercules before whom the pigmies to be named by our opponents in a few days will go down in such ignominious and utter defeat as to leave hardly a memory of their temerity and weakness.

SOME CLOSE CONTESTS.

There were several close contests chief among them being those for the nomination of Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Treasurer and Attorney General.

Mr. Turner received 555 votes and Col. Cunningham 417 for Lieutenant Governor; a change of 70 votes would have changed the result. Mr. Turner's nomination was largely due to an eleventh-hour agreement among the majority of delegates that the West should have the Lieutenant Governor.

The first ballot for Secretary of State gave McLean 380, Grimes 339, Llewellyn 100, Wood 100, the second ballot was, McLean 372, Grimes 415, Llewellyn 133, Wood 51; on the third ballot McLean received 323, Grimes 456, Llewellyn 116, Wood 76. While the roll of counties was being called on the fourth ballot McLean came forward and withdrew his name and Grimes was then nominated by acclamation. It was a great speech, worthy of the old Confederate soldier and Democratic veteran, just such a speech as all who knew Dan Hugh McLean expected from him.

Lacy led for Treasurer from the start. On first ballot the vote stood, Lacy 361, London 254, Everett 127, Burgwyn 132, Boushall 107. On the second ballot Lacy received 503 votes.

On the first ballot for Attorney General Gilmer and Winston each received 317 votes, Justice getting 140 and Jerome 200. On the second ballot Gilmer received 366, Winston 258, Justice 192, Jerome 145. Gilmer was nominated on the third ballot, and made a beautiful and eloquent speech of acceptance.

HOT TIME WHEN MEBANE'S NAME WAS MENTIONED.

Some of the "leaders" thought it would be good policy to nominate the present Superintendent of Public Instruction for re-election, Mr. Mebane; that this office should be divorced from partisan politics, &c. But the convention was overwhelmingly the other way. Mebane never received as many as 100 votes. On the first ballot the vote stood: J. Allen Holt, of Gailford, 307; Gen. W. S. Toon, of Robeson, 267; Mebane 93; Turlington, 73, J. S. Hill, of Lincoln, 95; R. B. Hunter, of Mecklenburg, 74; W. S. Long, 72; W. E. Abernathy, 12; E. M. Konce, of Onslow, 18; B. F. Grady of Duplin, 50; Caddell, of Wake, 18; and a few scattering. On the second ballot Holt led, receiving 429 to Toon 345, Long 95, etc. On the third ballot Toon led Holt by two votes—476 to 474, not quite enough to nominate. On the fourth ballot Gen. Toon received 510 to Holt 461, and was declared the nominee. He made a most sensible speech of acceptance, stating among other things, that although an "old Confederate soldier," he did not live in the past; is heartily in favor of progress and would do all he could to advance the school interests and education generally in North Carolina.

SOME NOTEWORTHY INCIDENTS.

Most of the ablest and best known party leaders and workers were present at this convention—indeed, few were not present, and it must have been very gratifying to receive the hearty welcome which was manifested by the delegates when several of them addressed the convention, particularly State Chairman Simmons, General Julian Carr, Ex-Governor Jarvis, Ex-Speaker Lee S. Overman (permanent chairman) and that young oratorical gladiator who now bears aloft the party standard, Charles B. Aycock, and several others who still remain prime party favorites.

The new State Committee met Thursday and, of course, re-elected Mr. Simmons chairman. He is the most capable and most successful Chairman the party has had in a number of years.

The day following his defeat for Lieutenant Governor Col. Cunningham, of Person sent Chairman Simmons a nice check as a contribution to the campaign fund, to help elect his successful rival, and the balance of course. This act shows the material out of which the man is made. He is not yet forty years old, and many delegates predicted that the party would yet "call him up higher."

STATE PRIMARY FOR U. S. SENATOR ORDERED.

The action of the convention in ordering a State Primary for the selection of the candidate to succeed Butler in the United States Senate, was endorsed by nearly 90 of the 97 counties. A few small counties objected to the plan, but ninety percent of the delegates were pronounced in its favor because it offers the best means of registering the will of the rank and file of the Democrats of the State (as well as that of the "leaders") and thereby the most popular aspirant is sure to be selected. The Primary will be held in November, on the same day Congressman and Presidential electors are voted for, and all who voted the Democratic ticket in August, as well as in November, will be entitled to cast one vote for one man for U. S. Senator. There seems to be little doubt that either General J. S. Carr or Hon. F. M. Simmons will be the fortunate man. Ex-Gov. Jarvis, Maj. A. M. Waddell and possibly others may enter the contest however.

The new judge of the Criminal Court sentenced a negro, Mack Fesperman, to death at Charlotte last Friday, that being his first court. The condemned will be hanged May 31st for the murder of a negro.

Miss Lalla Ruth Carr, youngest and only unmarried daughter of Gen. Julian S. Carr, will be wedded to Wm. F. Pattou, Esq., a learned and prominent young lawyer of Pennsylvania, and a son of Gen. W. F. Patton, of that State, on April 25th. The ceremony will take place at Durham after which the wedding tour will extend to Europe, the happy couple being "at home" to their friends on June 1, at "the Maples," Carmensville, Pa. Miss Carr is one of the most accomplished and popular young women of the State and her friends are limited only by the number of her acquaintances. She inherits largely that charm of personality and beautiful and lively disposition which has so endeared her distinguished father to all North Carolinians, and she will carry with her in her new life the heartfelt best wishes of thousands of friends.

Up to last Saturday the total number of new cotton mill companies chartered in North Carolina since January 1st was 22; the total number of new cotton mill companies chartered in North Carolina since January 1st was 22; the initial capital of $1,000,000 and nine others a capital of $100,000 or more. These figures indicate that the mills now being built will be larger than the average heretofore.

LLEWEXAM.

WASHINGTON LETTER

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 16, 1900.

Administration Senators and Representatives are wrangling fearfully over the plums made available by the Porto Rico Act, which goes into effect May 1. Nearly everyone of them is grabbing after at least one of the biggest and juiciest of these plums for a constituent and they are making Mr. McKinley very weary by their persistency. The selection of Mr. C. H. Allen to be governor was entirely personal on the part of Mr. McKinley, just as the same gentleman was personally chosen by Secretary Long to be Assistant Secretary of the Navy when "Teddy" Roosevelt resigned that office to become a rough rider. If some of the men who are after the other places over there succeed in getting them, Mr. Allen will have to keep his eyes wide open to prevent his administration of the affairs of the island getting into the breakers of scandal.

It is a little puzzling to understand why the administration is preventing action on the Nicaragua Canal bill at this session of Congress, but perfectly plain that it is doing so, through its agents in both House and Senate. There is something behind the desire to postpone this legislation, which has been endorsed by all the political parties and by the public sentiment of the country as well. Of course, Mr. McKinley isn't openly antagonizing the Canal bill, but it was administration Senators who voted down Senator Morgan's motion to take up the Canal bill, and it has been administration Representatives who have headed off Representative Hepburn's several attempts to get a date set for its consideration by the House.

Nothing could more surely show the steady increase of public sentiment in favor of the election of Senators by direct vote of the people, than the adoption by the House of a resolution proposing a constitutional amendment for so electing Senators, by a vote of 240 to 15. A similar resolution has been adopted by the House in a previous Congress but not by such a large vote. Whether the Senate will respond to public sentiment by adopting this resolution is yet to be seen, but it is doubtful.

It is bad enough for paid lobbyists to engage in manufacturing public sentiment in favor of or against pending legislation in Congress, but it is infinitely worse for a bureau of the government to engage in such business. The Interstate Commerce Commission has been sending out thousands of circular letters, printed and mailed at public expense, asking that letters be written to Senators and Representatives to make them support the Cullum bill, for the enlargement of the power of that Commission. The exposure of this official lobbying has caused a sensation in Congress, and it ought to cause the summary dismissal of every official who either participated therein or countenanced it; but Mr. McKinley's backbone is hardly equal to such heroic treatment of the case.

A bill to make more republican patronage, which can be utilized in the coming campaign, has been reported from the House Census Committee. It provides for the creation of a Census printing office, with a superintendent at $2,500 a year, and a large force of printers and book-binders. In previous censuses, this work has been done at the government printing office, and there is no other reason than greed for more patronage on the part of republicans why it should not be done there for this census.

A bored meeting is usually a long-winded affair.

SPRING BLOSSOMS.

Pretty Weather Brings Them Out.

Miss Pearl Campbell is sick.

James Long is on the sick list this week.

Dr. C. J. O'Hagan went to the New Bern fair.

Mrs. M. T. Cowell went to Winterville Monday evening.

Paul Metrick left Monday evening for New Bern to take in the fair.

Miss Mattie Leggett left for Washington Monday to visit relatives.

Mrs. A. M. Moore went over to Parmele this morning to meet her sister.

Orren Neal, after spending a few days here, left this morning for Danville, Va.

Mrs. V. O. Wynn of near Greenville, left this morning for Richmond to visit relatives.

Mrs. M. O. Winstead, of Rocky Mount, came Monday evening to visit the family of W. M. King.

Miss Ruth Harris, who has been visiting Mrs. H. A. White, left this morning for her home in Wilmington.

Harry Skinner left this morning for Raleigh to attend the Populist State convention which meets there tomorrow.

J. D. Gwynn, auctioneer for the Greenville Tobacco Warehouse, left this morning for his home in Reidsville.

J. S. Campbell, of Washington arrived on the steamer Myers today. He has a nice line of jewelry at Hotel Macon.

Rev. Francis Joyner and two children came Monday night and left this morning for his home in Bunyan, N. C.

Miss Carrie Dail left for Washington Monday, where she will be bride's maid at the Spencer-Doughdy wedding tonight.

John Adams, who has been with M. P. Jordan & Co. during the tobacco season, left this morning for his home in Danville, Va.

Mrs. M. T. Cowell has taken a position as milliner with Mrs. M. A. Leggett, and Miss Miss Carrie Dail, of Washington, as assistant.

Miss Mollie Parham, who has been visiting the family of B. E. Parham for some time, left this morning for her home in Watkins, N. C.

Misses Florence and Fannie Hardy, who have been visiting the family of D. S. Spain, left for their home in Greene county Monday evening.

Mrs. Emily Williams and daughter, Mrs. Beulah Tolar, of Wilmington, came Monday evening to visit Mrs. J. A. Brady. Mrs. Williams returned this morning.

Col. E. A. Keith, of Ayden, dropped in to see us today. He says the steam brick machine has arrived and Ayden will soon be manufacturing brick in abundance.

Back to Asylum.

Deputy Sheriff Leon Tucker left this morning to take Matthew Murell, a crazy colored man, to the insane asylum at Goldsboro. The man was sent there some time ago but got away and was caught only a few days ago.

Ogarita and Hatfield Comedy Company

Will give a performance on Thursday night of this week in the Opera House. Traveling men say "it is the best Comedy Company that has been on the road in North Carolina for the last twelve months."

Every lady accompanied by a gentleman with a paid 35 cent ticket will be admitted free Thursday night, or 2 ladies will be admitted on one paid 35 cent ticket.

Speech may be silver, but there is a difference between free speech and free silver.

Picnic.

About thirty people from Greenville attended a picnic Monday given by Mrs. B. E. Parham, complimentary to Miss Mollie Parham, of Watkins N. C. The picnic was given at the Hardy place about six miles from Greenville, and those who attended report a very pleasant time.

There is Danger.

Squire G. T. Tyson, of good old Beaver Dam, came in to tell THE REFLECTOR that he heard all the lumber and mill men of the county had agreed not to cut down any more trees until after the county nominating convention is held. They are afraid they may kill a candidate.

Fine Jewelry.

J. S. Campbell, of the firm of J. S. Campbell & Co., Washington, is at Hotel Macon for three days with a handsome line of watches, silverware and jewelry. You are invited to call and see these goods and leave orders for any you may desire to purchase. Mr. Campbell will also make estimates on any repairing wanted.

Hughes-Bagwell.

Mrs. F. E. Poole has issued invitations to the wedding of her sister, Miss Nannie Catherine Bagwell and Mr. Charles Clifton Hughes.

The ceremony will take place Wednesday morning, April 25th, at 10 o'clock at the home of the bride-elect on Fayetteville street, this city.

After the wedding the happy couple will be at home in Charlotte street, Norfolk, Va.—Raleigh Post.

The bride-elect is a sister of Dr. W. H. Bagwell, of Greenville. She lived here with him a few years ago and has many friends in this section.

A SPRING OPERATING IN A MERRY MOOD.

Good Fortune Smiles

and you ignore rightful advantages if you do not claim the benefits offered in this Announcement.

Many are the needs that confront you with the advent of Spring. It is concerning these requirements and how they may be secured with satisfaction and economy that we wish to speak. Our new line is now ready. We present the latest and best Spring goods at a scale of uniformly low figures—so low, in fact, that they may be truthfully called "price concessions." These goods are fully as attractive in style and quality as any you are in price, and we are perfectly confident that they will appeal to your best judgment as a careful buyer in every way. It is a conservative statement regarding facts which can be easily substantiated any time you visit our store. Our great desire is to have you call and see our new Spring line. It will speak for itself—the quality and style will be apparent and the price will present its own argument. In extending this invitation we are not urging you to become a buyer on the strength of our statements but to become a visitor. We do not ask you to buy; but bring your experience and best judgment with you and compare our reasonable attractions with your most cherished memories of cheap buying—we'll leave the rest to your own inclination. Our stock is of the practical, popular kind, that shows in a marked degree the evidences of a careful and judicious selection from the best markets. Variety, new novelties, and a thorough up-to-date quality in all things is everywhere apparent. Our Spring goods are marked for quick selling. It is a time for you to decide quickly as to whether you shall select from our full assortment of fresh, desirable styles, or take chances on perfect satisfaction a little later on, when stocks of necessity, must be more or less broken. We should prefer to see you today or tomorrow; later in the season we should be very likely to please you but now we are certain to do so. Remember, such opportunities do not have to wait long for new comers. A look will convince you these are no idle words—will you call and give it? Yours respectfully,

J. B. CHERRY & CO.
