Fought the Policeman

Aaron Cox, a colored man, was placed in jail Monday evening charged with resisting an officer. It seems that the negro had been drunk in Ayden and when the police undertook to arrest him, he and the police had a lively scrap. Other parties were called to assist the policeman but the negro managed to get away. Later he was captured and brought here and placed in jail.

CAROLINA FOR MOORE.

OAKLEY, N. C., Apr 23, 1900.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

I see some one writing and signing his name "Democracy" urging the name of John D. Cox, of Contentnea, for Register of Deeds. I just want to say one word in regard to that matter. The principles and purposes of the Democratic party is not run for the purpose of putting every man in office that wants one. Now it has been a custom of long standing with the party that where they selected an officer and that officer gave general satisfaction, to give him the preference of another term. T. R. Moore has given general satisfaction so far as I know, and Carolina has no candidate for any office. Therefore she stands for T. R. Moore against the field.

Now in regard to Sheriff, I know that Sheriff Mooring declines to enter the race for the office. But we all know he is the very man at this time for the nomination and I think if the party will nominate him by acclamation he would serve. No man in the county is any stronger than he, and in our opinion we need the strongest man at this particular time.

CAROLINA.

[Since the communication signed "Democracy" appeared Mr. Cox has written a letter himself, letting it be known that he did not seek the office and that he wanted Tom Moore again nominated. We feel it due to say this, as "Carolina" had not seen Mr. Cox's letter when he wrote.—Ed.]

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

I see in your issue of the 20th that you have the score of the game played between W. F. C. and A. & M. teams, quoted 10 to 0 in favor of A. & M. I beg leave to state that the score was 1 to 0 in favor of A. & M. and not 10 to 0. It was the best game of the season and came near being a complete shut out on both sides. Wake Forest has pure athletics, no professionals allowed. Our team is among the best of the South. We hope to see the mistake corrected in your next issue.

BUTLER'S TRICK DECLINED.

After the Populist Convention in Raleigh last week Marion Butler, Chairman of the Populist State Executive Committee, wrote a letter to F. M. Simmons, Chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee, trying to get a joint debate between the Democratic and Populist nominees. Mr. Simmons did not bite at such Republican side-show bait. Here is the correspondence in full:

Raleigh, N. C., April 20, 1900.
Hon. F. M. Simmons, Chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee, Raleigh, N. C.:

Sir: The candidates of the People's Party for Governor, and the candidates for other State offices, and the candidate of the People's Party for United States Senator, desire a joint discussion with the candidates of the Democratic party for said position respectively, in order that the voters of the State who must, in next August, cast their ballots in approval or disapproval of the proposed Constitutional Amendment, the Election Law and other issues in the State, may hear the facts and arguments that can be presented by both sides, and render their verdict accordingly. If your committee and the candidates of your party will agree to such joint discussion. I will be glad to confer with you at once, with a view to arranging a series of appointments to begin immediately after the close of the list of appointments for your candidates already announced, extending to and including May 8th, 1900.

Very respectfully,
(Signed) MARION BUTLER,
Chairman People's Party State Executive Committee.

Raleigh, N. C., April 21, 1900.
Hon. Marion Butler, Chairman People's Party State Executive Committee, Raleigh, N. C.:

Sir: I received this morning letter of the 20th inst., in which you suggest a joint debate between the candidates of the Democratic party for State offices, and the candidates of the People's party for like positions.

The question to be presented to the people for their approval in August, and around which all other questions center, is the adoption of the Constitutional Amendment. The People's party in its late State Convention, while urging objections to the amendment, declared concerning it "we do not make it a party question" and expressly said that it "must be determined by the judgment and conscience of each individual voter." In your letter you ask for a joint debate upon the amendment, thereby disclosing a purpose on the part of the organization of your party to commit your party which it has expressly refused to take in its State Convention. This attempt to raise an issue not made by your convention is manifestly the result of a secret understanding with the Republican party and in line with the action of your party organization since 1894, which has been employed to foster schemes of co-operation with the Republican party and to prevent the individual voter of the People's Party from participating in the naming of candidates or dictating its policy. It is a matter of common knowledge in North Carolina that there is a perfect understanding between the leaders of the Federal office-holding element of the People's Party and the Republican Party, and in pursuance of this understanding they have secured the nomination of a State ticket and asked for a joint debate in order to divide and divert the attention of the white people while their Republican allies are engaged in their scheme of attempting to again fasten negro rule on the State. Later on, by these same tactics, the People's Party will undoubtedly be led into fusion with the Republican Party upon the legislative, county and congressional tickets in all counties and districts where it is thought that fusion will do any good towards the defeat of the amendment and the perpetuation of negro suffrage in North Carolina.

Under these circumstances it is impossible to consider the organization of the People's Party, as now constituted and controlled in North Carolina, as having any existence separate and independent from that of the Republican Party. Until the organization of the People's Party in this State proves its right to be treated as a political entity, separate and distinct from the Republican Party, by refusing to fuse with that party upon State, county, legislative and congressional candidates, the Democratic Party cannot consider your proposition.

Concerning the suggestion contained in your letter as to a joint debate between you and the Democratic candidates for the Senate, you are informed that the Democratic Party has no candidate for the Senate and that it does not propose to discuss or consider the Senatorial question until after the question of whether North Carolina is to be governed by the white man or by the negro has been settled in the August election. From that paramount and all absorbing question the Democratic Party does not propose to be diverted, either by Senatorial contest, sham tickets, or cunningly devised schemes to "play politics."

Yours truly,
F. M. SIMMONS,
Chairman Democratic State Executive Committee.

Thought It No Crime.

New York, April 20.—Marie Dinse, a German girl, having lost all her money in a boarding house enterprise, jumped from the Brooklyn bridge today and was not hurt enough to keep her in bed more than three or four days. She became conscious three hours after she was taken from the river, and told the hospital surgeons who were working over her that she did not remember jumping from the bridge, and that in Germany it was no crime for a poor girl who had lost all her money and her friends to jump from a bridge if she wanted to.

OUR RALEIGH LETTER.

Political and General news.

Special Correspondent of Reflector.

RALEIGH, N. C., April 23, 1900.

The State Convention of the Populist party, which assembled in this city last Wednesday, was in marked contrast to that which packed to overflowing the same hall a week previously.

Not only was the contrast remarkable in point of numbers, but the utter absence of enthusiasm and the forlorn and hopeless expression of countenance worn by the delegates furnished material for even more conspicuous comparison.

Again the dearth of prominent or brainy men—amounting to almost a "tamine" in that respect—was painfully noticeable. Marion Butler, Cy. Thompson, Harry Skinner and very few others of some note and ability made up the "aggregation of talent," home talent, which was supplemented by the presence of a Nebraska Congressman, who came down from Washington to help Butler out. Neither Senator Allen nor Senator Pettigrew was present, however, after all the ante convention heralding they had received through the Pop. papers and politicians. Both had "excuses," which were more or less plausible.

CHARACTERISTIC "ORATIONS" BY BUTLER AND OTHERS.

Speeches were made by the Nebraska importation alluded to (Congressman Southerland, who looks like a "pocket edition" of W. J. Bryan), Cy. Thompson, Butler, Seawell, Schulken, Ayer and a few lesser lights.

It is very evident that the Populists, as a party, are but a shadow of what it once was, but it was clearly demonstrated that fully 90 per cent of them left in the organization are Butlerites. The delegation on this occasion fell down and worshipped him on every available occasion. His speeches (he made three or four) were the old familiar Butler harrangues.

Cy. Thompson (who is a sharp and shrewd politician and much better speaker than Butler, and probably an abler man—that's easily said) seemed to hold next place in the "hearts of his countrymen, as represented on this occasion. But this was largely due to the patent fact that he was "for" every thing Butler desired, and was actively at work carrying out the Senator's orders.

When Col. Harry Skinner made a proposition to endorse the Democratic electors—at-large, a large proportion of the delegates, possibly half of them, at once fell in with the idea—to the consternation of Butler—and they were demanding a roll-call when Butler and Cy. Thompson made it known that this was "against the Senator's wishes" (and "plans," it should have been added), and at once the entire body of delegates with less than a half dozen exceptions, howled the Skinner idea down, and, "by a rising vote"—killed it unanimously.

"How was that?" I said to Butler's ex-lieutenant Otho Wilson.

"Skinner was right," he replied. "But if his proposition had gone through, it would not have afforded Butler the opportunity to 'trade' that he desires. That is why he had it defeated."

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION NEXT WEEK.

Senator Pritchard, "Jedge," Linney (now classically termed the "Bull of the brushies"), will come down from Washington next week and "hold a convention" of some sort, commencing on Wednesday, May 2.

The revenue doodles and postoffice brigade will also be on hand, officers by little Claudie Bernard (the hero of the recent Greenville "revolution" whose expertness as a sprinter and dodger of pistol balls is said to have made him a great reputation at his old home and thereabouts), and Mr. Cheerman Holton, of Steptoe Halifax fame and general dispenser of "uniforms" to the pops now lingering in the ranks of the erstwhile "fusion" army.

"They say" they will "nominate" (we call it that, for form's sake) Linney for Governor, and then fix up a sort of straw ticket to trade off to Butler later on in the campaign.

They'll "nominate" also two electors—at-large—certain to do that—for whom the supporters of Mr. McKinley will be asked to vote, in order to give the President a second term.

Pritchard declared in Washington last week that the Republicans would carry North Carolina for the national ticket this year. Part of the scheme was unfolded last Wednesday when Butler made his Convention nominate separate Bryan electors, instead of endorsing McLean and Overman.

CAN THEY KEEP THE "NIGGER" IN THE BACKGROUND?

It is no secret that Pritchard, Holton and other republican leaders are very anxious to keep the negro in the background—out of sight as much as possible at the Convention next week.

But can they? Will such "obstreperous" negroes as George White, Jim Young and others forego the customary delights of a Rep. State Convention? It's doubtful, to say the least. I hear it intimated that some of them are loaded for several of their white allies who take this position and will shoot off their liberally proportioned mouths with great show of volume and sulphurous "langwidge" in the pow-wow next week—the element that raised Grant's boot-straps over his shoulders at Goldsboro recently.

It Carries the News.

From the way subscribers are coming in for THE EASTERN REFLECTOR we take it that people over the county are enjoying the news our semi-weekly edition is giving them. We are not much given to boasting, but all the same we are proud of our semi-weekly paper. It gives the news, and that is what the people want. It ought to go to every reading home in the county.

A Mother's Insane Act.

Goldsboro, N. C., April 23.—A Mrs. Roberts gave laudanum to her two children, age 4 and 7 years, a girl and boy respectively, and then shot herself through the breast with a pistol. The woman is dead, but the lives of the children were saved by the prompt attention of physicians. This note penciled on a card was found on a table: "Please put all three in one coffin. (Signed) Viola."

Strange Suicide.

Charlotte, N. C., April 23.—News has reached here of a very strange suicide that occurred near Lincoln Sunday. Tobe Kizer, a mill operator, got on the railroad track in front of a swiftly moving train. The engineer blew his whistle, supposing the man would get off. Kizer continued going forward until the train struck him, when he was killed instantly. He remarked to a friend just a short while before: "I'll be dead in twenty minutes."

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

At a meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee held in Greenville on the 14th day of April, 1900, a convention for the nomination of Democratic candidates for the Legislature and the various county offices and for the appointment of delegates to the First Congressional District Democratic convention, was called to meet in the Court House, in Greenville, at 12 o'clock M., on Saturday, May 19th, 1900.

Township primaries, for the purpose of appointing delegates to said county convention, were called to meet at the usual places in each township on Saturday, May 12th, 1900, at 3 o'clock P. M. The said primaries will also elect an Executive Committee for each precinct, composed of five members, and also nominate candidates for Justices of the Peace and Constable. The number of delegates and alternates each township will be entitled to is as follows:

Beaver Dam	5
Belvoir	5
Bethel	9
Carolina	8
Chicod	20
Contentnea	21
Falkland	8
Farmville	7
Greenville	29
Pactolus	4
Swift Creek	11

All white men in the county of Pitt who favor the white people controlling the affairs of State and county, and who intend to vote to that end, are cordially invited to attend and participate in these meetings.

A SPRING GREETING IN A MERRY MOOD.

Good Fortune Smiles

and you ignore rightful advantages if you do not claim the benefits offered in this Announcement.

Many are the needs that confront you with the advent of Spring. It is concerning these requirements and how they may be secured with satisfaction and economy that we wish to speak. Our new line is now ready. We present the latest and best Spring goods at a scale of uniformly low figures—so low, in fact, that they may be truthfully called, "price concessions." These goods are fully as attractive in style and quality as they are in price, and we are perfectly confident that they will appeal to your best judgment as a careful buyer in every way. This is a conservative statement regarding facts which can be easily substantiated any time you visit our store. Our greatest desire is to have you call and see our new Spring line. It will speak for itself—the quality and style will be apparent and the price will present its own argument. In extending this invitation we are not urging you to become a buyer on the strength of our statements but to become a visitor. We do not ask you to buy; but bring your experience and best judgment with you and compare our reasonable attractions with your most cherished memories of cheap buying—we'll leave the rest to your own inclination. Our stock is of the practical, popular kind, that shows in a marked degree the evidences of a careful and judicious selection from the best markets. Variety, new novelties, and a thorough up-to-date quality in all things is everywhere apparent. Our Spring goods are marked for quick selling. It is a time for you to decide quickly as to whether you shall select from our full assortment of fresh, desirable styles, or take chances on perfect satisfaction a little later on, when stocks of necessity, must be more or less broken. We should prefer to see you today or tomorrow; later in the season we should be very likely to please you but now we are certain to do so. Remember, such opportunities do not have to wait long for new comers. A look will convince you these are no idle words—will you call and give it? Yours respectfully,

J. B. CHERRY & CO.
