An Irresistible Persuader.

Advertising "dodges" have had their day; their usefulness has almost departed, and they can now be employed successfully only when they possess extraordinary merit. The public prefers a straightforward appeal to its intelligence and its reasoning capacity. The sensibly written and well constructed advertisement is an irresistible persuader.—Philadelphia Record.

FULFORD-BLOW.

A Pretty Morning Marriage.

The ante-nuptial reception given Tuesday night at the residence of Mr. A. L. Blow to his daughter, Miss Maud Lillington and Mr. N. S. Fulford, and the attendants at their marriage this morning, was participated in by the immediate friends and relatives of the family. Bridal presents were numerous and unusually handsome. The parties dispersed at the hour of midnight for all must be astir at an early hour to catch the morning train.

Never did golden wedding bells ring on a lovelier dawn or present a more beautiful picture than greeted the eyes of the audience assembled at St. Paul's Episcopal church this morning when the doors were thrown open. Camerero's Band, employed for the occasion, played in soft strains Schubert's Wedding March as only Italians can play.

Promptly at 9:30 o'clock the bridal party entered the vestibule. The ushers, C. M. Jones, John Lamb, of Williamston, G. V. Denney, of Washington, and Skinner Pendleton, of Washington first entered and took their places.

C. T. Lipscombe and Miss Margaret Hoyt, of Washington, leading up the centre aisle, were followed by the bridesmaids and groomsmen in the following order:

Misses Bessie Jarvis and Ophelia Howell; John Fulford and L. C. Gary.

Misses Ada Wooten and Bessie Sutton, of Kinston; W. H. Dail and Thomas Haughton, of Washington.

Misses Pattie Skinner and Louise Latham; Sam Blount, of Washington, and John Garden.

Misses Winnie Skinner and Lottie Blow; Fred Hoyt, of Washington and Charlie John O'Hagan.

The bridesmaids were beautifully attired in the new shade of green organdy with leghorn hats and pink roses, each bearing a bouquet of roses.

Miss Mary Blow, sister of the bride, followed alone clad in a beautiful gown of pale green silk. Mrs. T. J. Jarvis, Matron of Honor, next entered wearing a gown of violet colored silk covered with lace. Finally came the bride in a tailor made go-a-way gown of castor brown leaning on the arm of her father. The groom Mr. Nathaniel S. Fulford entering from the vestry met the bride at the steps of the altar. The ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. N. Harding, of Washington.

A merry party of friends accompanied the happy couple to the station laughingly pelting them with rice as they boarded the train.

Mr. and Mrs. Fulford will visit Washington City, New York, and Niagara Falls, returning in a few weeks to make Washington N. C. their home.

Quay Lost His Seat.

Washington, D. C., April 24—Quay lost his seat in the Senate by one vote. The Senate precedent was upheld by the close vote of 33 to 32.

Mrs. Mary E. Fonville, who died Wednesday, left her home to be sold at public sale, half the proceeds to go to St. Mary's Episcopal church in Kinston and half to the Episcopal orphanage of North Carolina, at Charlotte.—Kinston Free Press.

JUST LISTEN AT HIM!

When Senator Marion Butler got back to Washington City after being down to run the Populist Stateconvention last week, he went to doing a lot of talking about the charge ex-Congressman Harry Skinner made against him that he (Butler) was not sincerely in favor of Bryan but was manoeuvring in the interest of McKinley, and from the way Butler talked you would think he regards Skinner as the smallest of the small fry, and saying he made charges which "he knew to be untrue" sounds like a delicate way of accusing him of lying. Here is the way butler expressed himself:

"I will not condescend to dignify Mr. Skinner by making a reply to his charge. He made similar charges in the People's Party State Convention, which not only he, but every delegate in the convention knew were untrue and the result was that he was hissed off the rostrum. He was so completely repudiated in the convention (his only purpose in being there seeming to be to make an attack upon me) that every motion he made was unanimously voted down. I did not dignify him at the convention by rising to reply to or by noticing a single thing that he said. The convention itself took care of him."

WASHINGTON LETTER

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 23, 1900.

Experience doesn't always teach. Notwithstanding, the awful experience of our soldiers in the war with Spain, thousands of whom were made sick and unfit for duty by eating the so-called canned roast beef, the War Department has ordered a big lot of the stuff sent to the Philippines for the use of our soldiers over there. Gen. Miles is as much opposed to this meat as he was during the war with Spain, and the War Department acted without consulting him.

It was an Ohio man—John Sherman—who originated the phrase which has since become so widely used: "I'm going home to look after my fences." Mr. McKinley, who is in Ohio, this week, said before leaving Washington, that he was going to "look after repairs to my house," which is a slight deviation from Sherman's words, but means the same thing to the initiated. It was not a mere coincidence that the repairs upon Mr. McKinley's house, at Canton, should require his personal attention during the same week in which the Republican State Convention will be held at Columbus.

Senator Wellington has formally left the Hanna-McKinley party, and made this announcement: "I was opposed to the permanent acquisition of the Philippines, and to the 15 per cent. duty on Porto Rican imports to the United States. This being my position, I do not intend to support a platform that is against my convictions in such important particulars. I do not intend to remain a member of the republican National Committee, nor to attend the National Convention." There are numerous prominent republicans in both branches of Congress who believe just as Senator Wellington does, but whether any of them will show that they have the courage of their convictions by following his example, remains to be seen.

OUR RALEIGH LETTER.

Special Correspondent of Reflector.
RALEIGH, N. C., April 24, 1900.
NUMEROUS NEWS NOTES.

The Ecumenical Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church is in session at New York this week. Standing Master J. E. Shepherd of the United States Court goes to Wilmington, where he will resume the hearing in the railroad tax assessment case. He expects to receive there the decision of Judge Simonton anent the examination of corporations other than those of railroads.

It is reported here that Solicitor Ed. W. Pou, of Johnston county will be a candidate for Democratic nomination for congress in this (Raleigh) district to succeed Atwater, Pop-Dem. Mr Pou made the hopeless canvass for this office four years ago.

Visitors from eastern counties say tobacco acreage is being considerably curtailed, but that the acreage of cotton is being largely increased.

The friends of Maj. D. J. Hale are congratulating him on the magnificent vote (764) he received in the Democratic State Convention for delegate-at-large to the National Convention, his name leading all the rest. And it was a deserved compliment; which also gives him primacy with the delegation.

Claude Kitchen (brother of Congressman W. W. Kitchen) of Halifax, Donnell Gilliam, of Edgecombe, Thomas W. Mason, of Northampton, and probably two or three other able and worthy gentlemen, are being pressed by their friends for the congressional nomination in the second district—to succeed the negro White.

The tour of the Democratic State candidates has been a triumphal one during the past week, and will continue for nearly two weeks yet.

Reports received here from all sections of the State are very encouraging and gratifying to Chairman Simmons and all Democrats. The West especially seems to be waking up in great shape.

Three new Carolina cotton mill companies have been chartered within the last week—the "Dunlap" of Causey, Chatham County, N. C.; the "Buffalo" of Union, S. C., and the "Middleburg" of Batesburg, S. C.

I was told today that the new President of the Baptist Female University, to succeed Professor Blashingame, late of Alabama, will be a North Carolinian. Good!

The cotton manufacturers have arranged to give a grand banquet he night following the meeting of the Southern Cotton Spinner's Association at Charlotte, May 10.

The Teachers Assembly begins its meetings this year at Morehead June 12th, and an interesting programme has been arranged.

The State Grand Lodge of Knights of Pythias is in session at Durham this week.

At the Department of Agriculture here it is stated that nearly 200,000 tons of fertilizer have been sold in North Carolina this year so far, and 250,000, tons will be sold altogether. This is 100,000 tons more than were sold in 1893, and is said to indicate that more cotton and less tobacco will be grown this year.

LLEWXAM.

From all over the State comes the news that the Republican leaders are persuading the negroes to take a back seat and let white men be nominated. Nothing shows so completely the unfitness of the negro as a voter. One hundred and twenty-five thousand of them sit quietly by and let Butler and Pritchard name a ticket, and they vote for it without question. They stand as an impersonal mass, without motion and without sense. A hundred thousand mules would vote as intelligently. Suppose it was suggested to the two hundred thousand and odd white voters of the State that they should sit quietly by and let half a dozen negroes nominate a ticket of negroes for them to vote for. The unfitness of the negro to vote is apparent, no matter whether he is wildly demanding place he is unfit to fill, or whether he is quietly electing incompetent and vicious white men at the dictation of some party leaders.—Windsor Ledger.

N. C. Sunday Law.

Few persons are doubtless familiar with the North Carolina Sunday law. Following is the law laid down in sections 3,782 and 2,783 of The Code.

"Section 3,782. On the Lord's day, commonly called Sunday, no tradesman, artificer, planter, laborer, or other person, shall, upon land or water, do or exercise any labor, business or work of his ordinary calling, works of necessity and charity alone excepted, nor employ himself in hunting, fishing or fowling, nor use any game, sport or play, upon pain that every person so offending, being of the age of fourteen years and upwards, shall forfeit and pay one dollar.

"Section 3,783. If any person shall be known to hunt on Sunday with a dog, or shall be found off his premises on Sunday, having with him a shotgun, rifle or pistol, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and pay a fine not exceeding fifteen dollars, two-thirds of such fine to insure to the benefit of the public schools in the county of which such convict is a resident, the remainder to the informant; and upon failure of such convict to pay the required fine, he shall be imprisoned at hard labor for not more than three months, as the court shall direct. Provided, that this section shall not apply to any person who may violate its provisions in defence of his own property."

WINE OF CARDUI

Drugists sell Large Bottles for $1.00.

Wine of Cardui not only cures but it acts AT ONCE. Here is a case of ten years' standing, and yet one single dose made the sufferer feel better, and stopped the pain. The Wine goes straight to the seat of the trouble, and acts directly upon the menstrual and genital organs. Its action is not violent, and it does not force a result. A single disorder in the feminine organs spreads many disorders all over the body, and when the woman can be her own physician and cure herself at home. Local examinations are largely things of the past—the obnoxious custom is no longer necessary. Wine of Cardui is the only perfectly safe and sure cure of "female troubles".

The Kentucky Stir.

Louisville, Ky., April 24—Jim and Berry Howard, charged with the murder of Goebel, are entrenched in the mountains surrounded by one hundred feudists, and swear they shall never be arrested. Notwithstanding an attempt to arrest them was made last night by deputies, the latter were forced to beat a hasty retreat. Capt. John Powers, a brother of Secretary of State Powers, who is also under indictment, was discovered in the mountains of Bell county yesterday guarded by ten mountaineers. He cannot be easily arrested on account of his position and strength. Governor Taylor is in Washington but will return to Kentucky and demand an immediate trial of the indictment found against him by the Franklin county grand jury charging him with complicity in the Goebel murder. The story that Taylor would seek a haven of refuge in New York is denied.

DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Apr. 25th.

We are glad to learn Mrs. Alfred McGlohon seems to be better.

The little infant of Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Dixon died last Sunday afternoon. The funeral service was held Monday by Rev. W. L. Bilbro. Their many friends here sympathize with the bereaved parents.

F. O. Cox is confined to his room with mumps.

A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. has had large sales of planters this season but we learn orders are not so strong now.

It is just the season you need guano sowers. We are selling lots of them and can fill orders prompt. Remember the name. Boss Guano Sower. A. G. COX MFG CO.

We are prepared to repair or repaint your old buggy and will save you money if you bring it at once. Can also supply you with high grade new buggies.

HUNSUCKER CARRIAGE CO.

Mrs. J. D. Cox has a splendid line of hats and trimmings and we are continually seeing ladies leaving their store with large bills.

The A. G. Cox Mfg Co. are speaking of enlarging their factory at once.

We learn that the farmers are going to make preparations to house their tobacco with trucks this year. Labor will doubtless be hard to get and this is a wise start for them.

Moye & Kittrell are getting ready to start brick making.

A. G. Cox Mfg Co. has just been showing us letters of inquiry from Kentucky about tobacco trucks. Kentucky is well up on tobacco raising and knows how to handle tobacco to best advantage.

A. G. Cox Mfg Co. will be headquarters for tobacco trucks.

We have just been shown a new cultivator made by A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. and predict it is going to be very popular. You may look out for them in a few days if it proves all right.

The man who is driven to drink usually starts with "ponies." Counterfeiting may be a dangerous game, but forging is all write.

When the worst comes to the worst the only thing to be done is to make the best of it.

Township primaries, for the purpose of appointing delegates to said county convention, were called to meet at the usual places in each township on Saturday, May 12th, 1900, at 3 o'clock P. M. The said primaries will also elect an Executive Committee for each precinct, composed of five members, and also nominate candidates for Justices of the Peace and Constable. A SPRING GREETING IN A MERRY MOOD.

Good Fortune Smiles

and you ignore rightful advantages if you do not claim the benefits offered in this Announcement.

Many are the needs that confront you with the advent of Spring. It is concerning these requirements and how they may be secured with satisfaction and economy that we wish to speak. Our new line is now ready. We present the latest and best Spring goods at a scale of uniformly low figures—so low, in fact, that they may be truthfully called, "price concessions." These goods are fully as attractive in style and quality as they are in price, and we are perfectly confident that they will appeal to your best judgment as a careful buyer in every way. This is a conservative statement regarding facts which can be easily substantiated any time you visit our store. Our great desire is to have you call and see our new Spring line. It will speak for itself—the quality and style will be apparent and the price will present its own argument. In extending this invitation we are not urging you to become a buyer on the strength of our statements but to become a visitor. We do not ask you to buy; but bring your experience and best judgment with you and compare our reasonable attractions with your most cherished memories of cheap buying—we'll leave the rest to your own inclination. Our stock is of the practical, popular kind, that shows in a marked degree the evidences of a careful and judicious selection from the best markets. Variety, new novelties, and a thorough up-to-date quality in all things is everywhere apparent. Our Spring goods are marked for quick selling. It is a time for you to decide quickly as to whether you shall select from our full assortment of fresh, desirable styles, or take chances on perfect satisfaction a little later on, when stocks of necessity, must be more or less broken. We should prefer to see you today or tomorrow; later in the season we should be very likely to please you but now we are certain to do so. Remember, such opportunities do not have to wait long for new comers. A look will convince you these are no idle words—will you call and give it? Yours respectfully,

J. B. CHERRY & CO.
