Protracted Meeting.

Services will be held in the Methodist church Friday night preparatory to the protracted meeting to begin in that church Sunday. Rev. J. D. Bundy, of Weldon, will be here to conduct the meeting.

Merit and Publicity.

Merit alone cannot insure the sale of commodities. Their good qualities must be made public, and their owner must make himself known in order that he may be able to transact a desired volume of business. Advertising will do all this; for it is the function of an advertisement to proclaim merit and to command publicity.—Philadelphia Record.

Go Early.

A member of the Board of Aldermen has requested The Reflector to call particular attention to the meeting of the Board tonight, and to ask every member to be on hand early. There will be a great deal of business to transact at this meeting, and work should begin as early as possible.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Ticket Nominated—Pritchard Boomed for Vice-President—Russell Not Once Mentioned—The Negro Ignored

Raleigh, N. C., May 3rd—The Republican State convention here yesterday was a "lily white" affair. Very few negroes occupied seats as delegates. The "brother in black" was pretty generally ignored and was set down on when he demanded recognition. Federal office holders composed and controlled the convention. Everything was done by acclamation with few exceptions.

The ticket named is as follows: Governor, ex-Judge Spencer B. Adams, of Guilford; Lieutenant Governor, Claudius Dockery, of Rockingham; Auditor, Thomas S. Rollins, of Buncombe; Treasurer, L. L. Jenkins, of Gaston; Secretary of State, J. F. Parrott, of Lenoir; Superintendent of Public Instruction, N. C. English, of Randolph, (the Populist nominee for that office); Attorney General, Zeb Vance Walsler, of Davidson; Commissioner Labor and Printing, Thomas Malloy, of Randolph; Commissioner Agriculture, Abner Alexander, of Tyrrell; Corporation Commissioner, C. A. Reynolds, of Forsyth, chairman, and J. A. Franks of Swain; Electors at Large, A. H. Price, of Rowan and J. R. McReary, of Davidson; Delegates to National convention, Senator J. C. Pritchard, Col. Jas. E. Boyd, Col. Charles McNamee and Collector E. C. Duncan.

Attorney General Zeb Vance Walsler presided over the convention. Governor Russell did not attend and his name was not so much as mentioned in the proceedings.

The Vice-President boom of Senator Pritchard was launched during the day. The convention instructed the delegates to the National convention to vote for William McKinley for President and for J. C. Pritchard for Vice-President.

IS IT WISE TO CHANGE?

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

Is it well to make a change in the Legislative ticket as now constituted? If the gentlemen who now are the Representatives of Pitt county are willing and desirous to accept the renomination why should there be a change? Of course no man has a title to office for but one term. The Legislature of 1901 will be the most important in a quarter of a century; requiring wisdom and patriotism. Experience is necessary also, therefore is it wise to make a change?

This is the people's business and they should thoroughly consider the great interest that devolves upon the next Legislature and the results that are expected and will follow. There is no doubt of the Amendment being carried and much legislation will be done of a new character, and every county in the State should do its very best to send its best representative men to make the changes in the laws that are to be for the government of the two great white parties that will then exist. Let the people settle it wisely. "SENEX."

Special Services.

On next Sunday a series of services will begin at the Methodist church to continue for ten days or two weeks. Rev. J. D. Bundy, of Weldon, will arrive on Monday and do most of the preaching.

At the close of this meeting the pastor of the Baptist church will begin a series of services assisted by Rev. J. E. Hudson, of Richmond.

All are invited to co operate and make these services profitable to the Christian life of our town. Surely the need is great. Let Christian people put the same energy, eagerness and determination into this work that they put into material prosperity, for in the spiritual realm as well as in the secular, we shall reap as we sow. A preparatory service will be held at the Methodist church tomorrow (Friday) evening at 8 o'clock, conducted by brothers Booth and Watson, and all Christian people interested in the spiritual welfare of the community are invited and earnestly requested to attend this first service.

Congressman Levy, of New York, doesn't think it fair to make such discrimination between Presidents and Vice Presidents by paying one $50,000 a year and the other only $8,000. He proposes to even up more by having the Vice President's salary raised to $25,000. Better reduce the other to that and let the V. P.'s remain as it is.—Wilmington Star.

IT WILL PAY YOU TO INVESTIGATE the new policies of the Bankers. The Life, Limited Payment Life and Endowment policies contain all the up-to-date features, many of which are original.

Good Things.

Did you ever look for the "good things" in your life insurance policy? Unless it was in the Bankers Life Insurance Company of the City of New York, you probably found side issues labelled "Grace" "Incontestability," "Loans," and the like, made prominent as "good things." Of course we have these features, too, for the "Bankers" is nothing if not progressive; but—

Did you ever see a policy with which the Company keeps an Individual Account?

Or one in which all earnings are guaranteed to the policy-holder?
 Or one which guaranteed both reserve and surplus if surrendered?
 Or one which gives all withdrawable surplus at death, in addition to face of policy?

Or one, in fact, which treats the policy-holder with absolute equity, confiscating no portion of the net premiums, and allowing a policy-holder to control his own money at all times, as far as is consistent with a conservative system which embraces the best points of banking and insurance?

If you have never seen any of these "good things," investigate the new policies of the Bankers Life Insurance Company of the City of New York.

Who are its officers and directors? Among them are many of the best known men in New York financial circles.

The Company's record has been unequalled for economical management, safe investments, equitable dealings with its policy-holders and low cost of Insurance Protection.

Candidates in Wilmington

Wilmington, N. C., May 3—The entire population was at high pitch of enthusiasm yesterday and last night upon the presence in Wilmington of the Democratic nominees for the State offices. Salutes were fired for the candidates and there was a big torch light procession in their honor. It was the greatest demonstration of the campaign. Aycock almost eclipsed all former records in his magnificent speech.

Greenville on the Move.

Our good neighbor, Greenville, is moving out on new industrial lines. Money has been subscribed for a cotton mill, and the business will be pushed along. Also the news comes that the town is to have a first-class, up-to-date hotel. The Commonwealth congratulates THE REFLECTOR on the satisfaction it must feel at the prospect of these improvements after the earnest efforts it has put forth for them.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

A Tribute.

Thomas J. Sheppard died at his home in Carolina township, Pitt county, on the morning of May 2nd, 1900, at the advanced age of 90 years lacking fourteen days. He was born and grew to manhood in Martin county, where he owned property at the time of his death. In early manhood he was married to Miss Clementina Congleton, of Pitt county. They both lived to a respectable old age and both died respectingly. He had many children. Mr. Sheppard being a man of great energy, leaves a handsome estate. He was for many years a member of the Methodist church. Peace to his ashes and rest to his soul is the sincere wish of his long friend.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

At a meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee held in Greenville on the 14th day of April, 1900, a convention for the nomination of Democratic candidates for the Legislature and the various county offices and for the appointment of delegates to the First Congressional District Democratic convention, was called to meet in the Court House, in Greenville, at 12 o'clock M., on Saturday, May 19th, 1900.

Township primaries, for the purpose of appointing delegates to said county convention, were called to meet at the usual places in each township on Saturday, May 12th, 1900, at 3 o'clock P. M. The said primaries will also elect an Executive Committee for each precinct, composed of five members, and also nominate candidates for Justices of the Peace and Constable. The number of delegates and alternates each township will be entitled to is as follows:

- Beaver Dam 5
- Belvoir 5
- Bethel 9
- Carolina 8
- Chicod 20
- Contentnea 21
- Falkland 8
- Farmville 7
- Greenville 29
- Pactolus 4
- Swift Creek 11

All white men in the county of Pitt who favor the white people controlling the affairs of State and county, and who intend to vote to that end, are cordially invited to attend and participate in these meetings.

A SPRING GREETING IN A MERRY MOOD.

Good Fortune Smiles

and you ignore rightful advantages if you do not claim the benefits offered in this Announcement.

Many are the needs that confront you with the advent of Spring. It is concerning these requirements and how they may be secured with satisfaction and economy that we wish to speak. Our new line is now ready. We present the latest and best spring goods at a scale of uniformly low figures—so low, in fact, that they may be truthfully called, "price concessions." These goods are fully as attractive in style and quality as you are in price, and we are perfectly confident that they will appeal to your best judgment as a careful buyer in every way. This is a conservative statement regarding facts which can be easily substantiated any time you visit our store. Our great desire is to have you call and see our new Spring line. It will speak for itself—the quality and style will be apparent and the price will present its own argument. In extending this invitation we are not urging you to become a buyer on the strength of our statements but to become a visitor. We do not ask you to buy; but bring your experience and best judgment with you and compare our reasonable attractions with your most cherished memories of cheap buying—we'll leave the rest to your own inclination. Our stock is of the practical, popular kind, that shows in a marked degree the evidences of a careful and judicious selection from the best markets. Variety, new novelties, and a thorough up-to-date quality in all things is everywhere apparent. Our Spring goods are marked for quick selling. It is a time for you to decide quickly as to whether you shall select from our full assortment of fresh, desirable styles, or take chances on perfect satisfaction a little later on, when stocks of necessity, must be more or less broken. We should prefer to see you today or tomorrow; later in the season we should be very likely to please you but now we are certain to do so. Remember, such opportunities do not have to wait long for new comers. A look will convince you these are no idle words—will you call and give it? Yours respectfully,
