Will Adjourn by June 12

Washington, May 3—Senator Aldrich says that Congress will adjourn not later than June 12th, and possibly earlier. There will be a little legislation outside of the appropriation bills. As soon as they are disposed of, he says, Congress will adjourn.

Robberies.

We hear that the store of Mr. S. C. Whitehurst, at Grindool, was broken into a few nights ago and a small amount of money stolen. It is reported that some stores at Bethel were also recently broken into. Robbing stores and post-offices are becoming of too frequent occurrence. There seems to be organized gangs going about the county committing such crimes.

Large Estate.

Mr. J. R. Congleton, of Carolina township, was over today to qualify as administrator of the estate of the late Mr. T. J. Sheppard. The amount of the Administrator's bond is $28,000. Mr. Congleton brought over $11,063 in cash belonging to the estate and left it with the bank. There is also considerable property in real estate. Mr. Sheppard left no will. The children of Mr. W. W. Shaw, of Washington, and of the late J. E. Moore, of Williamston, are among the heirs.

SATURDAY MAY 5, 1900.

The Fayetteville Bar held a memorial session in honor of the late Judge Dossey Battle. Judge A. M. Moore, his successor, was one of the speakers.

Several of our exchanges have congratulated THE REFLECTOR upon Greenville's prospects of soon having a good hotel and a cotton mill, and we have also received a number of letters along the same line and rejoicing with us. This shows the interest in Greenville that is felt elsewhere.

Next Saturday is the day for holding the township primaries. Every Democrat should be present and express his choice in the selection of delegates to the County convention.

The success of the party in Pitt county is going to depend largely on the work of the county convention and it is important that there be wise delegates and that they make wise nominations.

Cursed By a Negro Vote.

The political conditions of the South, especially in States like North Carolina where there is such a large illiterate negro vote, grow worse with each year. It does not take an expert to observe this state of affairs, but the most casual observer easily sees that the negro vote is a curse to our fair Southland and that the only remedy for this evil is the disfranchisement of this ignorant vote.

The Baltimore Sun has a member of the staff of that paper making a tour of the South, and in viewing the situation a few days ago had the following to say, which shows that many Republicans will join the Democrats in blotting out this curse forever:

"In Virginia, as in every other Southern State, the Republicans are cursed by the negro vote. In every campaign the race question arises and instead of a campaign fought out on State issues or national issues the one question up permost is that of white supremacy against negro domination. Of course in States with a large negro vote this solidifies white men in one party. The best thing that could happen to the Republican party in the South would be the disfranchisement of the negro. Until that is done there is no hope in Virginia for instance, of building up a strong minority party, the need of which is as greatly felt here as elsewhere."—Durham Herald.

WASHINGTON LETTER

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 4, 1900.

Does the administration really favor the Nicaragua Canal? In view of the known condition of public sentiment, that question may sound odd, but there were things said in the debate which preceded the passing of the Nicaragua Canal bill by the House which made it pertinent. Representative Hepburn, of Iowa, who was in charge of the bill, had a sensational row with Representative Cannon, of Ill., a man close to the administration, whom he charged with working in the interest of the Panama Canal ring, in trying to defer action on the bill. Representative Burton, of Ohio, also a man close to the administration, made a speech against naming the route of the canal in the bill. These things were enough to arouse the suspicion that the administration was not acting in good faith, and there were others. It is said the failure of the Canal Commission to make a preliminary report was owing to a hint from the administration. Perhaps Boss Hanna thinks of working the Panama Canal Company for a big campaign contribution. At any rate, it is well known that the bill just passed by the House will not be acted upon by the Senate at this session.

The republican majority in the Senate stood by the trusts and voted down Senator Berry's anti-trust amendment to the army bill, which merely instructed purchasers of army supplies to give preference to bidders not connected with a trust. Not a single democrat voted against the amendment but Jones and Stewart, of Nevada, who once claimed to be populists but who both seem to have returned to their republican affiliation did. Teller, Pettigrew and Wilmington voted with the democrats, for the amendment. Senator Berry said: "The trust question is the greatest problem of the day, and we may yet fight it out in this chamber."

Capt. Chadwick has found out that the protection extended to Rear Admiral Sampson's friends. Secretary Long's letter reprimanding Chadwick—the second within a year for the same offence—published this week, for slurring at Rear Admiral Schley, was about as stinging a document as was ever sent by Secretary of the Navy to an officer; but the universal verdict is that Chadwick got no more than he deserved.

Senator Sewell, of New Jersey has more nerve than most of the republican Senators on the trust question. His republican colleagues works for the trusts on the quiet, but he had the audacity to say in a speech on the floor of the Senate that the Standard Oil trust and the Sugar trust were public benefactors. A few more benefactors like them and there will be no more trusts. Benefactions of the sort they bestow contain the germs of revolution. Senator Pettigrew presented figures showing that neither of the trusts named by Mr. Sewell had done any thing which was not directed toward the crushing out of competition and the increase of their own profits.

The U. S. Supreme Court, after spending two days hearing arguments in the Kentucky case, took a recess until May 14, when the decision will probably be made public.

It looks as though the republican leaders in Congress had become afraid to carry out an imperialistic programme mapped out by Mr. McKinley, until after the Presidential election. The Spooner Philippines bill, which gives Mr. McKinley autocratic control of the Philippines under civil government, which he now exercises under military government, is slated for postponement until the next session of Congress. Public sentiment has frightened the Republican steering committee of the Senate and its members ignored the Spooner bill in preparing a legislative programme for the remainder of the present session. This does not mean the abandonment of that imperialistic measure, but that the republicans are afraid to pass it now for fear of its effect upon the voters.

Mother of Twenty-two Children

Catherine Sharp, a bright and lively colored woman of Davie county, was in Salisbury Saturday. It being known that she was the mother of quite a large number of children and that she was comparatively a young woman, inquiries brought forth the startling information: Catherine stated that she was married at the age of 12 and that her husband was 35 years of age. She became a mother when 14, and now at the age of 40, has 22 children with only one pair of twins. She is one of a family of 25 herself, and she seems to have ambition of outdoing her parents. This is probably Davie's record-breaker.

The Standard Oil Company, heeding the mutterings of a labor storm, has raised the salary of its 25,000 employees 10 per cent.

Small Defends North Carolina.

Washington, May 3.—Representative Small addressed the House briefly today upon conditions in North Carolina. His time was limited because of the action of the majority in limiting general debate. Mr. Small referred to the fact that North Carolina has recently been discussed in both branches of Congress in a manner unwarranted and unjust; that the Republican Senator from that State had introduced a resolution in the Senate calling attention to the proposed constitutional amendment and asking the Senate to find that North Carolina was arrayed against the Federal constitution and did not possess a republican form of government. In the advocacy of this resolution he was zealously sustained by his political ally, Senator Butler, and their congenial pair of colleagues in the House, Linney and White, who had played the act of "me too," and joined in the chorus of defamation against the fair name of the State they so conspicuously misrepresented; that all these libelers of the State could not sustain their contention of law or fact and perhaps it was due to the people in other States that they should be refuted.

Is Aguinaldo Dead?

Manila, May 3.—The belief is growing that Aguinaldo was killed by the Igorottis. There is no proof that he has been alive since Maj. Peyton C. Marsh, of the Thirty-third regiment, abandoned the chase after the Filipino leader in the Benquet mountains, although an insurgent officer who recently surrendered to General Young says that the insurgent general, Tinio, believes him dead.

Friends of Aguinaldo's wife assert that she has heard nothing from him since they parted. She is in a delicate condition and nearly prostrated with worry.

At Louisburg court a woman was granted a divorce from her husband. In an hour after the close of the trial she married one of the jurors who decided to give her the divorce.—Greenville REFLECTOR.

WINE OF CARDUI

WOMEN WHO WORK.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 12.

Though only 19 years old, I suffered from pains and female troubles two years. Last spring I got so bad I had to quit work. I had to support myself, and could not afford a high-priced doctor. I got one bottle of Wine of Cardui and that made me feel better. Have now used several bottles and am well. My mother used the Wine for Change of Life and was greatly relieved.

MISS MARGARET WALSH.

Many girls and women find it necessary to earn their own living in various kinds of employment. Their work is often so hard and confining that the health breaks down. Their delicate constitutions are unfitted for tiresome tasks. Weakness nearly always makes its appearance in the peculiarly delicate womanly organs. Constant standing on the feet, and coming and going at the beck of a superintendent or foreman, induces falling of the womb, leucorrhoea, headache and backache. The pay of women workers is often so notoriously small that when sickness comes they have no money to engage skillful physicians. To them Wine of Cardui is truly a blessing. It cures them of their ills at a small cost, and they can act as their own physicians. No doctor can do as much for "female troubles" as Wine of Cardui.

IT WILL PAY YOU TO INVESTIGATE the new policies of the Bankers. The Life, Limited Payment Life and Endowment policies contain all the up-to-date features, many of which are original.

Good Things.

Did you ever look for the "good things" in your life insurance policy? Unless it was in the Bankers Life Insurance Company of the City of New York, you probably found side issues labelled "Grace" "Incontestability," "Loans," and the like, made prominent as "good things." Of course we have these features, too, for the "Bankers" is nothing if not progressive; but—

Did you ever see a policy with which the Company keeps an Individual Account?

Or one in which all earnings are guaranteed to the policy-holder?

Or one which guaranteed both reserve and surplus if surrendered?

Or one which gives all withdrawable surplus at death, in addition to face of policy?

Or one, in fact, which treats the policy-holder with absolute equity, confiscating no portion of the net premiums, and allowing a policy-holder to control his own money at all times, as far as is consistent with a conservative system which embraces the best points of banking and insurance?

If you have never seen any of these "good things," investigate the new policies of the Bankers Life Insurance Company of the City of New York.

Who are its officers and directors? Among them are many of the best known men in New York financial circles.

The Company's record has been unequalled for economical management, safe investments, equitable dealings with its policy-holders and low cost of Insurance Protection.

Two interesting cases were called for trial in the Justice's court before H. Harding, J.P. this morning. Sarah Turnage and Zeb Turnage were charged with assault with deadly weapon, and Wright Colville and others with forcible trespass. Skinner and Whedbee and Harding and Harding appeared for the State in the first case and for the defense in the second. F. G. James appeared for the defense in the first case and for the State in the second. Examinations were waived in both cases and the defendants bound over to Superior court.

Did Not Join the Procession.

Judge A. M. Moore, who is just home from court at Fayetteville, tells us this joke on himself: The day that the Democratic State candidates were in Fayetteville he adjourned court just before noon, so that all who wished might attend the speaking, and returned to his hotel. The candidates were at the same hotel, and the Judge having several friends among them they were enjoying a chat together when the carriages lined up to take the candidates out in the parade that preceded the speaking. Judge Moore was invited to a seat in one of the carriages to accompany them, but as he thought a Republican Judge would look out of place in a Democratic procession, he began forthwith to make excuse.

SPRING MEETING IN A MERRY MOOD.

Good Fortune Smiles

and you ignore rightful advantages if you do not claim the benefits offered in this Announcement.

Many are the needs that confront you with the advent of Spring. It is concerning these requirements and how they may be secured with satisfaction and economy that we wish to speak. Our new line is now ready. We present the latest and best Spring goods at a scale of uniformly low figures—so low, in fact, that they may be truthfully called "price concessions." These goods are fully as attractive in style and quality as those in price, and we are perfectly confident that they will appeal to your best judgment as a careful buyer in every way. This is a conservative statement regarding facts which can be easily substantiated any time you visit our store. Our great desire is to have you call and see our new Spring line. It will speak for itself—the quality and style will be apparent and the price will present its own argument. In extending this invitation we are not urging you to become a buyer on the strength of our statements but to become a visitor. We do not ask you to buy; but bring your experience and best judgment with you and compare our reasonable attractions with your most cherished memories of cheap buying—we'll leave the rest to your own inclination. Our stock is of the practical, popular kind, that shows in a marked degree the evidences of a careful and judicious selection from the best markets. Variety, new novelties, and a thorough up-to-date quality in all things is everywhere apparent. Our Spring goods are marked for quick selling. It is a time for you to decide quickly as to whether you shall select from our full assortment of fresh, desirable styles, or take chances on perfect satisfaction a little later on, when stocks of necessity, must be more or less broken. We should prefer to see you today or tomorrow; later in the season we should be very likely to please you but now we are certain to do so. Remember, such opportunities do not have to wait long for new comers. A look will convince you these are no idle words—will you call and give it? Yours respectfully,

J. B. CHERRY & CO.
