Public Speaking

Next Wednesday Gen. T. F. Toon, candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction, and Hon. R. D. Gilmer, candidate for Attorney General, will speak at Ayden. Wednesday night they will speak at Greenville, and on Thursday at Bethel. Let all the people turn out to hear them.

Two Lives For Six Cents.

A gentleman of observation said in Halifax a few days ago that during the past eight months two persons had been killed within ten miles of the county seat, and both for six cents. Two boys were playing "crap" at Weldon for 5 cents when one killed the other; two convicts were gambling over one cent when one killed the other.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

A Superfluity of Legs.

This morning at the Southern Railway station was a man with more legs than the law allowed him. He had four, but seemed to be able to get along very nicely. There was an extra limb on each leg, but they were not of the requisite length, each growing partially on the inside of the usual limb. Most of us have too much tongue but it is seldom a man is seen with too many legs.—Greensboro Record.

Fred Cox returned from Parmele Thursday evening.

J. S. Smith returned Thursday from Richmond.

No, Maude, dear, a lighting calculator is not a man who predicts thunder-storms.

DAUGHTERS OF THE CONFEDERACY

The Daughters of the Confederacy held their May meeting Thursday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Harry Skinner as the guests of Mrs. Monteiro and Miss Louise Lathan. Three members were noted absent. After the roll call the President read a sketch of Gen. Albert Sydney Johnston, one of the most conspicuous martyrs of the Lost Cause, whose distinguished son, Col. A. S. Johnston had been President of Tulane University until removed by death a few months since.

In the contest for the Confederate badge, contested with spirited interest but with marked good humor on all sides, Miss Winnie Skinner came off victor and wears the pretty gold pin, a miniature Confederate flag.

The tempting collation of ices, limited by rule, was served from the spacious dining room, which with its cut glass and silver, decorated with roses formed a beautiful background to the body of fair women congregated in the parlors.

In connection with Memorial day a resolution of thanks was voted to our energetic young town Alderman, H. A. White for having located the graves of our unknown dead, and carefully prepared them for decoration.

The Chapter adjourned to hold its final meeting for the summer with Mrs. Jno. L. Wooten on Tuesday, June 12th.

Will be on the Market

DANVILLE, Va., May 16th 1900.
EDITOR REFLECTOR:

I learn that there is being circulated in Greenville and surrounding county a rumor to the effect that I will not be on the Greenville market during the next season. I wish to say there is not a word of truth in the report, for not only will my house (M. P. Jordan & Co.) be represented on the Greenville market during the entire season, but it will be represented by me personally. I presume this report was started by some one who expected to be in need of hands.

JULIAN C. JORDAN.

Meeting Closed

The series of services which has been in progress at the Methodist church for ten days closed Thursday night and Rev. J. D. Bundy who has been conducting the services left this morning for his home in Weldon. While there were only a few conversos the meeting was by no means a failure. The influence of such sermons as Mr. Bundy preached will be followed by much good.

Good Men

As the town election draws near people talk about candidates for Alderman. There are some excellent men on the present Board who have done good service to the town during the past year, and who have begun improvements that should be carried out. If they will accept again it might be the wisest thing to re-elect them.

There are some men so mean that they never want their wives to have any fun. A Kansas City man is applying for a divorce just because his wife amused herself breaking plates over his head.

FRIDAY, MAY, 18 1900.

The Congressional convention of the second district will be held in Goldsboro on the 24th. An effort was made to have the convention postponed until after the August election, but the district executive committee would not postpone. We believe this is a mistake. Congressmen are not to be voted for until November. And all things pertaining to their nomination and election should be kept out of the way until the election on the amendment and the State and county tickets is over.

Profitable words for young men are these, no matter by whom written: "Never indulge in the notion that you have an absolute right to chose the sphere or the circumstances in which you are to put forth your powers; but let your daily wisdom of life be in making a good use of the opportunities given you. The nobility of life is work. We live in a working world. The lazy and idle man does not count in the plan of campaign. "My father worked hitherto, and I work." Let that be text enough. Do one thing well. Be a whole thing at a time. Make clean work and leave no tags. Allow no delays when you are at a thing. Do it and be done with it."

Mr. Woodward, aged 84 years, of Waverly, N. Y., was given up as dead from an attack of pneumonia, but when the embalmer was about to proceed with business, the old gentleman opened his eyes informed the embalmer that he was too previous and protested against further proceedings on that line. The aged citizen got up and about for about two weeks, when he took a relapse and died sure enough.—Wilmington Star.

When a business man gets an idea there is nothing more to conquer, or that advertising of any sort won't help him, he simply grants territory and rights to his advertising competitors and gives them an unhampered opportunity, not only to cultivate the trade already in their possession, but to secure all the new trade the field offers.—Barnhart & Swasey.

The Republicans are making fine headway at wiping out the surplus piled up by the war tax. With a few more appropriations of the size that they have been making recently, there will be no surplus left, and the war tax will have to be retained for years to come to meet the running expenses of the government.—Savannah News.

Republicans Adjourn Without Making a Nomination for Congress.

Edenton, N. C., May 16.—The Republican congressional convention for the First district met here today and elected delegates to the National convention. The convention was called to order at 2 p. m. D. H. Abbott of Pamlico was made temporary chairman, and J. D. Biggs of Martin, secretary. All the counties were represented. In the recess the negro, Dick Lee, spoke, warning the negroes against the amendment. Dr. John called him down. D. O. Newberry of Tyrell and J. W. Perkins of Pitt each received seventeen votes for permanent chairman, and Dr. Abbott gave it to Perkins. J. D. Biggs and D. O. Newberry next tied for secretary—seventeen to seventeen. Perkins gave it to Biggs.

Sitterson of Martin, heading the Duncan faction, nominated D. H. Abbott of Pamlico and Wheeler Martin of Martin for National delegates. Ike Meekins of Tyrell, voicing the John and Cobb faction, nominated George W. Cobb of Pasquotank and A. Berry of Hyde. The vote was—Wheeler Martin 27, Abbott 22, Cobb 18. Sitterson nominated J. L. Phelps and W. R. White for alternates. Meekins nominated L. L. Brinkley and T. P. Wilcox for alternates. The vote was—Phelps 18, White 22, Wilcox 17, Brinkley 9. Wheeler Martin and Abbott, Phelps and White were declared elected to vote for McKinley and Pritchard.

E. C. Duncan moved to adjourn. Meekins moved to amend the motion by adding, "to the second Thursday in August." Meekins was downed by a vote of 17 to 17. Perkins declared the convention adjourned. Consequently there was no nomination for Congress. Meekins wanted it, but Duncan had the machinery of the convention. Few Populists were present.

The South's Cotton

Today the South produces on an average 10,000,000 to 11,000,000 bales of cotton, representing, including the cottonseed, a valuation of from $350,000,000 to $400,000,000. This enormous crop is produced on 5 per cent. of the total area of the cotton region. Of the entire cotton-growing territory of the South, only 20 per cent. is now improved land. It is possible, with new land added to the cotton growing area and with more scientific cultivation, to increase our cotton production to 100,000,000 bales. It will be many years before we can conceive of the production of such a crop, but there is every probability that within the next 20 years the world will be demanding of the South at least 20,000,000 to 25,000,000 bales, and that the South will produce it with as much ease as it is today producing its 10,000,000 bales.—Baltimore News.

To Assist Shoppers in Warm Weather.

As the weather grows warmer the chasing public become more averse to visiting store after store in search of desirable commodities. They demand concise information as to where and at what prices they can obtain what they want. The alert merchant yields to the demand, and by judiciously using the advertising columns of his favorite newspaper sends the desired information to the homes of prospective purchasers, where it may be read at leisure and selections of commodities made in comfort.—Philadelphia Record.

He Undressed in Church.

Harry Tidd, a young druggist, attended the service in the Bethany Presbyterian church last night and went to sleep. While he was asleep he stood up and removed his coat and waistcoat. Two women who sat in the same pew with him moved to the far corner. Then he unbuttoned his collar and took off his cravat, and next his shirt came over his head. He was about to slide out of his trousers, when several women shrieked and he awoke with a start. His trousers were dangling about his feet as he ran down the aisle to the vestry. An usher handed him his clothing, and he put it on and went home.—Trenton, N. J., Dispatch, 14th.

From the Stump.

The first candidate rose and said: "I fought for you, my friends, and today the bones of my right arm are bleaching among the hills of Tennessee!"

The second candidate followed with—"My left leg, friends, lies listless in the shadows of the Virginia vales!"

"Both of my legs" said the third candidate, "are in Mississippi!"

Then the fourth man rose and said: "I went through the war without a scratch. Here are two strong arms to uphold your rights and two live legs to kick till you git 'em!"

A Bad Accident.

While plowing in a field last Saturday evening, Mr. T. S. Cross, of Cotton Grove township, drove his horse over his little four year old daughter, Sallie, and she received injuries which may cause her death. The little girl had come out to watch her father at work, and had seated herself in some bushes. The father, not knowing she was near, plowed into the bushes and the horse stepped on the little one's head, fracturing her skull. She is still alive but in a precarious condition. No blame is attached to her father, who is a brother of our townsman, Mr. Eli Cross.—Lexington Dispatch.

White Men Must Work

The Greensboro Record quotes Hon. Chas. B. Aycock as being "full of confidence, based on one thing—that if the party will work we can carry everything. He is a great believer in organization and says that if over confidence does not get us we are all right." That's it! The white folks will win if they work. If they sit down on a feeling of security they will wake up on the morning after the election to find that the negroes and their allies are in possession of the State. "To your tents, O, Israel!"—Raleigh News and Observer.

A correspondent of the News & Observer says:

"Judge Adams said in a speech in 1890 when he was candidate for clerk, that white men of Caswell were so mean, unscrupulous and dirty that vultures had gotten the scent and ceased to soar, and the man in the moon puked on every gleaming star that shone upon the befouled beds of rotten degrading white men of Caswell. Again in 1894 when he and his nigger luck were in all their glory, he went to the polls and exclaimed as follows: 'All you white people come and see me vote for negroes.' And this he did, and at that election a negro was elected to the Legislature to represent this good old county."

There is no doubt that the Republican and Populist bosses are getting ready for fusion, in spite of the two dummy State tickets. At the Senatorial convention of the Iredell-Yadkin-Davie district the Republicans nominated J. C. Pinnix and left the other place "open." For what? For the Populists to fill it. There is perfect accord and understanding between the two parties and after they have kept all the Populists they can from joining the White Supremacy party the deals will be consummated.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Surely, the world moves, when the New York times says of Col. Bryan: "it is simply justice to say that the leader of democracy now presents a more respectable figure than in any previous year since he entered national politics. The Bryan of 1900 stands before the people as a man with the boldness of honest convictions. The sincerity and courage of such an attitude are admirable."

The United States Supreme Court decides that government bonds are not exempt from taxation, neither under the State or national enactment. There will now be a mighty hustling around among the holders of government bonds to see what their tax will be.

There is work and hard work ahead of the Democratic party in Pitt county if we are to carry the August election and win out on the amendment. Begin right tomorrow by nominating a good ticket, and then all go to work to elect it.

IT WILL PAY YOU TO INVESTIGATE the new policies of the Bankers. The Life, Limited Payment Life and Endowment policies contain all the up-to-date features, many of which are original.

Good Things.

Did you ever look for the "good things" in your life insurance policy? Unless it was in the Bankers Life Insurance Company of the City of New York, you probably found side issues labelled "Grace" "Incontestability," "Loans," and the like, made prominent as "good things." Of course we have these features, too, for the "Bankers" is nothing if not progressive; but—

Did you ever see a policy with which the Company keeps an Individual Account?

Or one in which all earnings are guaranteed to the policy-holder?

Or one which guaranteed both reserve and surplus if surrendered?

Or one which gives all withdrawable surplus at death, in addition to face of policy?

Or one, in fact, which treats the policy-holder with absolute equity, confiscating no portion of the net premiums, and allowing a policy-holder to control his own money at all times, as far as is consistent with a conservative system which embraces the best points of banking and insurance?

If you have never seen any of these "good things," investigate the new policies of the Bankers Life Insurance Company of the City of New York.

Who are its officers and directors? Among them are many of the best known men in New York financial circles.

The Company's record has been unequalled for economical management, safe investments, equitable dealings with its policy-holders and low cost of Insurance Protection.
