WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., May.. 26th.

B. F. Manning had on his overcoat this morning.

A. G. Cox is able to be out again we are glad to say.

We see Moye & Kittrell loading lumber on cars every few days.

Dr. B. T. Cox returned from Tarboro Wednesday, where he has been attending the State Medical convention.

A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. will be headquarters for tobacco flues as usual.

The new firm of Winterville is Manning & Kittrell, dealers in iron, composed of eight-year-old Lewis Manning and Ola Kittrell, who buy all the iron they can get from a penny's worth up.

Elbert Smith and family have been quite sick.

B. F. Manning & Co. have just received a large shipment of nails.

Saturday, June 2nd, at Winterville, a white man's club will be organized, the Constitutional Amendment discussed, &c. A large attendance is expected.

KEEP YOUR EYES OPEN! You might see a Hunsucker Buggy. When you do, examine it good. If you will come to Winterville some day, the proprietors will take great pleasure in showing you through their factory.

Farmers will begin shipping potatoes next week. If it is as near bring them to Winterville and let F. O. Cox ship them for you.

Deputy Collector Corson and little son, of Washington, called at the cigar factory yesterday.

Miss Sarah Simmons, of near Johnson's Mills, is visiting Mrs. Dr. Cox this week.

The difference between our wagons and others is, that ours are just naturally made better and of better material than others.

A. G. COX MFG. CO.

Several parties here who are now squarely for the amendment, have heretofore opposed it. They themselves say it was because they did not understand it. This should encourage all to come to the meeting Saturday week, and hear it explained.

Tucker-Galloway.

Miss Sallie Elizabeth Galloway and Mr. John Tucker were married at the home of the brides parents Wednesday evening at half past six o'clock. The attendants were:

Miss Laura Edwards and B. E. Patrick.

Miss Mamie Galloway and Leon Tucker.

Miss Ebbie Langely and Billie Tucker.

Miss Alice Galloway and Alf Tucker.

Miss Pattie Tucker and Jessie Wilson.

Miss Lula Tucker and John Galloway.

The wedding march was rendered very beautifully by miss Helen Galloway.

After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of the groom where a very delightful repast was served.

The happy couple were the recipient of many beautiful presents.

SATURDAY MAY 26, 1900.

Price McCormick & Co., the big commission merchants who during the past season sent out so many telegrams about the cotton situation, failed Friday for $13,000,000. Verily, they must have got a pile of somebody's "swag."

The administration is trying to break the force of the Cuban revelations by having resolutions introduced in Congress to pay back to Cuba the amount stolen from that Island. but this alone will not do. The money is nothing compared to the fact that men who have done dirty work for Hanna in political campaigns have been knowingly appointed to office and then left free to loot the island revenues.

Something that escaped us and should have been mentioned sooner was the fact that on Saturday, 19th, after the adjournment of the Democratic county convention, the executive committee of the county held a meeting and unanimously re-elected Mr. A. L. Blow chairman of the committee. This was a fitting recognition of the service he has rendered the party in the capacity of chairman of the executive committee for twenty years.

Next Saturday speakers will be sent out from Greenville to every township of the county to organize White Supremacy Clubs. It is important that every democrat in the county should attend the meeting in his township and enroll his name on the club. Not one should stay away. You can do more good at these meetings than you can by going to a speaking. The strength of the party and the strength of the Amendment are going to be judged largely by the showing at these meetings and the roll of the clubs. Your going and enrolling your name might influence somebody else to do the same. If you know any one who can be informed and thereby induced to vote for the Amendment take him along with you and let him become a member of the club. It is better to neglect your business for a few hours in order to attend your township meeting than it is to let the chances for carrying the Amendment weaken by your indifference. If you are a white man be a white man and show your interest in white supremacy.

Why doesn't some enthusiastic Republican make a gavel for the Philadelphia convention out of the head of one of those party men who think that the Constitution and Declaration of Independence have been outgrown and are nothing but back numbers. Such a man's head would furnish enough wood for the purpose.

Amazing reports come from the Philippines. Secretary Root has refused to accept the resignation of seven officers and it is stated that General McArthur has 200 more in his hands, and that the enlisted men are very near mutiny over the work required of them. It is said too that the hundreds of Filipinos reported killed are merely guessed at, as their bodies are almost never found. This is a pretty state of affairs.

WASHINGTON LETTER

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 25, 1900.

There has been lying as well as stealing in connection with Cuban affairs. First Assistant Postmaster General Perry Heath has repeatedly and publicly declared that he had nothing whatever to do with the appointment of Neely, the head of the looting conspiracy, and now Mr. Rathbone, the suspended Director of Posts in Cuba, asserts that he appointed Neely on Perry Heath's recommendation. There must be documentary evidence that will show which of these men have lied, and it ought to be produced, and doubtless will be if Senator Bacon's resolution for a congressional investigation goes through.

The Boer peace envoys, who have been snubbed officially and jollied personally by the administration, are preparing to visit a number of large western cities for the purpose of trying to arouse public sentiment that will compel the administration so do something to bring the war in South Africa to a close before England succeeds in wiping the two little republics off the map. Republicans defend Mr. McKinley's treatment of envoys, when they have to, but mighty few of them commend it.

The big payers of war taxes are to be bled by Boss Hanna. That was made certain when the republican managers of the House decided that the Ways and Means committee should be given authority to sit during the recess for the purpose of fixing up a bill for the reduction of war taxes. In order to catch as many of the tax-payers as possible, the committee will not begin its sittings until a few weeks before election. Boss Hanna's programme is to allow all of the heavy war tax payers to believe that if they contribute liberally enough to the Republican campaign fund their interests will be favored in the bill, but he will take good care that not a single item in the bill shall be decided upon until after the election. It is a good scheme of its kind, but it is a very bad and disgusting kind, but no worse than others manipulated by the same man in 1896.

The senate has adopted a resolution calling upon the Secretary of War for information as to the condition in the Philippines—press news of the week showed that there was neither peace nor American control outside the places garrisoned—offered by Senator Allen: but if the information is not more definite than that furnished by the same department about Cuba, in response to Senate resolutions, it will not carry much enlightenment for anybody.

Senator Bacon has offered an amendment to his resolution for a Congressional investigation of the Cuban stealings by republican officials, which promises to re-enormous proportions, authorizing the committee to sit during the recess at such places, either in this country or in Cuba, as the committee may deem necessary or important and to send for persons and papers. The republicans are "between the devil and the deep sea" on this investigation. They are afraid to vote for it and afraid to defy public sentiment by refusing to do so.

And now a newspaper man—Mr. W. R. Hearst, proprietor of the New York Journal and the San Francisco Examiner, and the newly chosen president of the National Association of democratic clubs—is enjoying a boom for the democratic Vice Presidential nomination.

Mr. P. J. Daly, of N. Y., an official of the Knights of Labor, who is now in Washington, said: "I have always voted a republican ticket, but I think the democrats will win this year." That sort of talk is getting quite common.

The Old Story.

A passenger on the south-bound vestibule last night, which passes Salisbury at 8:25, was the victim of one of the most daring robberies ever perpetrated in Salisbury.

The victim (whoever he was) was performing what he thought to be an act of kindness when the robbery occurred. When the train stopped a fine looking old gentleman stepped from one of the cars and began walking up and down the platform. Presently he was approached by a negro who asked him to change $5. The gentleman pulled his purse from his pocket and in the twink of an eye the negro had snatched it from his hand and was on a dead run in the direction of the freight depot. Before the few people who were assembled around them could collect their senses the negro had disappeared in the darkness.

The gentlemen (who refused to give his name) who was robbed, stated that he had about $100 in his purse. Fortunately for him he had a reserve fund in his inside pocket. He continued his journey on 35 without giving any alarm to the police, as his train pulled out almost immediately after the incident.—Salisbury Truth-Index.

WINE OF CARDUI

WOMEN WHO WORK.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 12.
Though only 19 years old, I suffered from pains and female troubles two years. Last spring I got so bad I had to quit work. I had to support myself, and could not afford a high-priced doctor. I got one bottle of Wine of Cardui and that made me feel better. Have now used several bottles and am well. My mother used the Wine for Change of Life and was greatly relieved.
MISS MARGARET WALSH.

M'ELREE'S Wine of Cardui

Many girls and women find it necessary to earn their own living in various kinds of employment. Their work is often so hard and confining that the health breaks down. Their delicate constitutions are unfitted for tiresome tasks. Weakness nearly always makes its appearance in the peculiarly delicate womanly organs. Constant standing on the feet, and coming and going at the beck of a superintendent or foreman, induces falling of the womb, leucorrhoea, headache and backache. The pay of women workers is often so notoriously small that when sickness comes they have no money to engage skillful physicians. To them Wine of Cardui is truly a blessing. It cures them of their ills at a small cost, and they can act as their own physicians. No doctor can do as much for "female troubles" as Wine of Cardui.

Miss Mamie Tucker sends us an invitation to the first annual commencement exercises of the Baptist Female University, Raleigh, June 3rd to 6th.

The Meeting

There will be no services in the Baptist church tonight. At 10 o'clock Sunday morning Rev. J. E. Hutson will preach a sermon especially to the young at which it is hoped there will be a large attendance. There will be the usual services at 11 o'clock Sunday morning and at 8:15 at night.

A Smile in Each.

In a canning factory there's no such word as cau't.

A person may parse a sentence without being parsimonious.

A burned child dreads the fire but isn't so with man who goes out for a hot time.

"Wouldn't that jar you?" remarked the strawberry when it found out that it was to be preserved.

THE BEST PRESCRIPTION FOR CHILLS and fever is a bottle of Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. It is simply Iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure—no pay. Price 50c.

IT WILL PAY YOU TO INVESTIGATE the new policies of the Bankers. The Life, Limited Payment Life and Endowment policies contain all the up-to-date features, many of which are original.

Good Things.

Did you ever look for the "good things" in your life insurance policy? Unless it was in the Bankers Life Insurance Company of the City of New York, you probably found side issues labelled "Grace" "Incontestability," "Loans," and the like, made prominent as "good things." Of course we have these features, too, for the "Bankers" is nothing if not progressive; but—

Did you ever see a policy with which the Company keeps an Individual Account?

Or one in which all earnings are guaranteed to the policy-holder?

Or one which guaranteed both reserve and surplus if surrendered?

Or one which gives all withdrawable surplus at death, in addition to face of policy?

Or one, in fact, which treats the policy-holder with absolute equity, confiscating no portion of the net premiums, and allowing a policy-holder to control his own money at all times, as far as is consistent with a conservative system which embraces the best points of banking and insurance?

If you have never seen any of these "good things," investigate the new policies of the Bankers Life Insurance Company of the City of New York.

Who are its officers and directors? Among them are many of the best known men in New York financial circles.

The Company's record has been unequalled for economical management, safe investments, equitable dealings with its policy-holders and low cost of Insurance Protection.

An Economical Buyer of Shoes

is the woman who recognizes the fact that it is true economy to purchase nothing but the highest grade shoes for her own wear, as well as for the children. We will fit mamma and the misses, as well as the boys and girls, with elegant, durable and comfortable shoes at prices that no one can touch, when quality is considered.

There's Great Comfort

a foot where our shoes are worn. They adjust themselves to what they cover so easily, yieldingly and coolly that they meet all the conditions of ideal foot wear. You walk into pleasure when you step into a pair of these stylish twins for the house and street. Soles, heels, points and uppers, all reflect the mode admirably.
