Meeting in Beaver Dam.

On next Saturday, June 9th, at 3 o'clock the county candidates will address the people of Beaver Dam township. Before the speaking there will be a meeting of the White Supremacy Club. All the ladies are most cordially invited.

Let everybody turn out and make the meeting the best ever held in Beaver Dam. It will be a jolly good time.

Your Duty to Vote.

It is the duty of every Democrat to go to polls Monday and vote. Don't think that the town election is such a small matter as to need no interest after the nominations are made. You do not know what emergency may arise, so go and vote just like the whole election depended on your ballot.

IN THE WARDS.

Good Tickets for Aldermen.

All of the ward meetings to nominate candidates for Aldermen were held Friday night, except the Fifth Ward which met in the afternoon.

FIRST WARD.

In the First ward are so few white voters that they did not hold a meeting. The colored people held a meeting and endorsed the present Alderman, E. M. McGowan and gave him the nomination.

SECOND WARD.

Meeting was called to order by A. L. Blow. R. J. Cobb was elected chairman and C. B. Whichard secretary. J. B. White and Ollen E. Warren were nominated as candidates for Aldermen on first ballot. L. I. Moore was elected executive committeeman for the ward.

THIRD WARD.

Meeting was called to order by J. G. Moye who was made permanent chairman, J. B. Harding secretary. B. F. Patrick and J. C. Albritton were nominated as candidates for Aldermen on first ballot. J. G. Moye was elected executive committeeman for the ward.

FOURTH WARD.

Meeting was called to order by W. H. Ragsdale who was made permanent chairman, D. J. Whichard secretary. W. R. Parker and J. N. Hart were nominated as candidates for Aldermen on first ballot. W. H. Ragsdale was elected executive committeeman for the ward.

FIFTH WARD.

Meeting was called to order by C. D. Rountree who was made permanent chairman, F. C. Harding secretary. J. S. Tunstall was nominated as candidate for Alderman by acclamation. C. D. Rountree was elected executive committeeman for the ward.

WHITE SUPREMACY CLUBS.

The County Being Thoroughly Organized.

The work of organizing White Supremacy Clubs all over the county is now on. One was organized in Beaver Dam township Thursday night and one in Belvoir township Friday night. Today speakers have gone out to organize all the other townships.

BEAVER DAM.

A White Supremacy Club was organized in Beaver Dam township Thursday night with a membership of thirty. A. L. Blow and D. C. Moore, of Greenville, went out and addressed the club. The officers elected were: J. L. Smith, President; Watt Parker, Vice President; and C. D. Smith, Secretary. There will be another meeting of this club on Saturday afternoon, June 9th, at 2 o'clock. The indications are that old Beaver Dam will give as usual, a large majority for the amendment and the Democratic ticket at the August election.

BELVOIR.

Friday night D. C. Moore and F. C. Harding went out to Parker's school house in Belvoir township to make speeches and organized a White Supremacy Club with twenty-eight members. T. H. Bullock was elected president, D. C. Barrow vice-president and Elger Hathaway secretary. Next Saturday, 9th, there will be a big meeting of the entire township when everybody is invited.

SATURDAY JUNE 2, 1900.

The republicans are having an undue amount of trouble over the selection of the candidate for the Vice Presidency. Why? Any old sort of man will do when the best can only be defeated.

Booker Washington, the negro educator, says his race has far better chances, for everything except society and politics, in the south than it has in the north. Booker knows a truth when he sees one.

The Republican Ways and Means Committee of the House of Representatives has secured permission to sit during recess to consider the repeal of the war taxes. This is an easy way of getting a visit to the seashore with all expenses paid by the government.

Now the American officers of the Paris Fair are charged circumstantially with having sold to exhibitors the space granted freely by the French management, and put the proceeds in their pockets. Why not? In these days of Hannaim, such conduct is the most natural thing in the world.

Evidences of the Anglo-American alliance continue to multiply. President McKinley, it is said, bought off the Boer envoys by promising them to use his secret personal influence in their behalf if they would only go home, and Senator Wellington, a Republican Senator, has charged that the reason why no open action can be taken is that the administration is under bonds to Great Britain.

Women to be Aldermen.

A bill has just been passed by the British House of Commons making women eligible for election as Aldermen and Councilors in the London boroughs. Being taxpayers they ought, it is held, to have a voice in the expenditure of taxes. At present men alone elect officials who vote away women's property as well as men's, and that sort of thing is regarded as unjust. The Conservative party, now in power, is somewhat radical on the question of the political rights of woman, regarding her as naturally conservative and likely to act with them. Women do not as a rule take kindly to new political theories such as those of Radicals and Socialists.

WASHINGTON LETTER

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 1, 1900.

Hon. Martin Maginnis, one of the claimants to a seat in the Senate, has been granted the privilege of the floor of the Senate. Mr. Clark, the other claimant is entitled to that privilege as an ex-Senator.

In slapping public sentiment in the face by reporting against the election of U. S. Senators by direct vote, which was recently endorsed by more than two thirds of the House, the Senate Committee on Privileges and Election sought to let the Senate down easy by accompanying that report with another in favor of the Hoar bill for amending the present law so that after a failure to elect a Senator in six ballots, a plurality vote of a legislature shall elect a Senator. The Hoar bill is merely a compromise. Public sentiment demands the election of Senators by direct vote and the demand will sooner or later, have to be met.

The Washington Post flatly charges Postmaster General Smith with hindering investigation into scandalous charges concerning the administration of the Washington City postoffices. Verily, things are getting warm in administration circles, and more than ice and electric fans are needed to lower the official temperature.

Word has been passed among republican Senators to let everything else go and get the last appropriation bills out of the way in order that adjournment may take place on the 6th inst., as provided by the resolution adopted by the House. The Philippine bill is dead for all time and the Nicaragua Canal bill is dead for this session, and there is to be no reduction of war taxes.

Orders of court are issued to be obeyed, not ignored. Justice Barnard, of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, has impressed that fact upon the mind of Mr. E. G. Siggers by fining him $100 and costs, for contempt of court, in failing to obey an order of the court prohibiting his representing himself in any way as successor to or being connected in any manner with the patient law firm of C. A. Snow & Co., of Washington, D. C.

The republican bluff at anti-trust legislation is being carried to the extent of devoting three days of the time of the House to speaking and voting on the alleged anti-trust resolution reported by the votes of the republican members of the House Judiciary Committee, and the bill amending the Sherman anti-trust law. The democratic caucus decided to oppose the resolution, unless it was amended so as to strike out the encroachment upon States' rights, and to offer as a substitute the Littlefield bill. If republicans had been sincere in the desire to enact legislation, they would not have waited until the closing days of the session, when it is impossible for the legislation to get acted upon by the Senate. It was held back purposely to prevent action by the Senate. The object being to supply stump speakers with arguments to use with anti-trust voters, while the big leaders will pat the trust magnates on the back and assure them that the action of the House was for campaign use only and has no chance of going through the Senate. These points have been brought out by the democrats of the House and they will be kept before the people by democratic editors and speakers.

Representative Richardson, of Tenn., offered the following resolution in the House democratic caucus and it was adopted: "Whereas, there is known to be a large and growing surplus in the Treasury, over and above the necessities of the government arising from the taxes levied and collected under the war tax act of 1898; therefore, Resolved, That, we favor the reduction of the taxes provided for in said act, and we do not think the present session of Congress should adjourn until said taxes shall have been repealed as to certain articles and reduced as to others, until there is a total reduction in the aggregate of at least 50 per centum. We pledge ourselves at all times to support any measure or measures providing for such reduction." Before the campaign is over the republican managers will be sorry that they allowed congress to adjourn without rendering war taxation.

Had to Come Back.

The love of home, the desire to behold again the old scenes is strong in us all without regard to race or previous condition of servitude. A colored man with his wife and four little children tramping from Mississippi to Plymouth, shows how true it is. The name the reporter could not find but the history of the journey is as follows: After arriving in the Mississippi bottoms ten years ago from his home in Plymouth, he and his wife began to long for his old home. The only child that they had died, then others came and strive as they would they could not lay by enough money to bring them home. Last June disparting of ever saving enough with four children, one only a few months old and the others ranging from five to nine, they set out pushing the baby in a carriage. When they started they had $15. When they reached the railroad they rode as far as this would take them, and than began the tramp. When their provisions gave out the man and wife would work for a few days to buy more and give the children a rest.

In this manner they made their way to this county, arriving at Thos. H. Ruffin's, near Lancaster, Wednesday. The next day they set out for Plymouth with expectation of arriving at the Mecca of their longings on Saturday.—Tarboro Southern.

The New York Sun has made a study of a response by the Treasury Department to a Senate resolution of inquiry, giving a cost list of the public buildings under the control of that Department, including those authorized and in process of construction. This is only a partial inventory of the nation's improved real estate, for while many great buildings are technically under the control of the Treasury, that control does not extend to the capitol at Washington, the White House, or the great Department buildings, except those directly belonging to the Treasury. The total value of the public buildings and their sites, according to this Treasury statement, is $154,775,384. North Carolina has $1,247,623 worth of the above. New York leads with $29,000,000 and Pennsylvania comes next with $13,000,000. Adding to the above grand total the value of the unimproved territory in the national domain, it will be seen that Uncle Sam is quite a wealthy real estate owner.—Charlotte Observer.

A Smile in Each.

A man of many callings—the huckster. Some girls seem willing to marry a man for fear that some other girl will. It is true that money talks. Even hush money is apt to give a man away. Blabbs—"I've just lost a hundred in a bucket shop." Slobbs—"I thought you looked a little pale." WINE OF CARDUI

A SURE MEDICINE.

HANDBOM, VA., Dec. 21.

I have been suffering from female weakness for four years, and have taken many medicines, but Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught have done more for me than anything else.

MRS. CAROLINE EVANS.

Wine of Cardui

It is a mistake to take any and every kind of medicine when you are sick. There is danger in it. Most of the so-called cures for "female weakness" do nothing more than deaden the pain temporarily, and when the effect wears away the patient is weaker and sicker than before. It is never wise to take chances. You have only one life, and that is dear and precious. If you have any pain, ache, disorder or weakness in the feminine organs, nothing will help you like Wine of Cardui. It helps do away with morning sickness during the early stages of pregnancy, and modifies the pains of childbirth; recovery is rapid and future health is assured. The Wine is purely vegetable, being made of herbs whose medicinal properties act directly upon the organs of womanhood. It is a long-tried remedy, and has many years of success behind it. It is sure. Why take a chance medicine when you can get a sure medicine?

HEARD AND SEEN IN WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, N. C., June 1. We were pleased to meet our old friend, Rev. Luther Eborn, at the Council. He, like ourselves, is nearing the unseen shore, "where the weary are at rest and sorrow is no more."

B. H. Thompson, of Idalia, may not have been classical in his address in the convention, but he was forcible. He said "no stealing had been done at elections at Idalia except once, by three men; one of them was in hell, and the others were in—the Populist party.

All is quiet at Belhaven now. Two young girls went out with pistols after a young man in whom one was interested. His Honor, the Mayor, simply mediated and calmed things. $100 bond to keep peace and $11 cost. Mirabile dictu.

I want the cotton mill on my land, John wants it on his land and Tom wants it on his; and our sister towns are simply building. See Esops' fables.

We are well pleased with THE REFLECTOR, and until a change is made somewhere it will not by its familiarity breed contempt. We saw a copy on Friday 25th inst. and the next one on the 29th. I have served in a newspaper office and have had this same experience, of papers failing to reach destination. [They are mailed to you regularly—Ed.]

The mills here are abundantly stocked with logs—more than we have ever seen here before. Should suppose there are twenty thousand here.

A 36 inch circular saw broke at the mill of E. M. Short Lumber Co. and a piece of it cut a 2x6 timber in half and the piece fell out on the yard.

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., June 2.
 J. D. Cox returned home Thursday evening.
 Capt. Tew is here with his railroad force filling in around depot.

The ground will be raised about two feet at platform, making it perfectly easy to load and unload carts.

With our new building in which to keep ready made wagons, carts &c., also new paint and coffin rooms, our facilities for keeping a stock on hand sufficient to meet the wants of our customers at all times is greatly increased. This we shall strive to do.

A. G. COX MFG. CO.

Old Mr. J. W. Britton, of Whichard, is down here visiting the family of Rowan Cooper, relatives of his.

Winterville Cigar Co. is scarcely able to fill orders as fast as they come.

D. W. Patrick and Haywood Dail, of Snow Hill, were in town Wednesday.

THE BEST BUGGY—The Hunsucker buggy seems to be very popular, if words of praise mean anything. They will be sold by dealers. Be sure and see the Hunsucker buggy before you purchase.

Miss Addie Johnson, of Grifton, is visiting her brother, J. R. Johnson, at this place.

Simon Moye with his excellent ice house, is enabled to keep a large supply of ice on hand all the time.

Several shipments of potatoes, have been made from this place. That's right, bring them to Winterville, and let F. O. Cox, representing best houses in New York, Philadelphia, Buffalo, Boston, Baltimore, Newark, Columbus and Cleveland, ship them for you. Wire quotations when desired.

W. L. Hurt is the barbecue man. A BIG SELLER—The A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. are making a big run on their new Tar Heel Wagon. This name guarantees best wheels, made of lightwood, hub and rim. No loose tires in dry weather.

An Economical Buyer of Shoes is the woman who recognizes the fact that it is true economy to purchase nothing but the highest grade shoes for her own wear, as well as for the children. We will fit mamma and the misses, as well as the boys and girls, with elegant, durable and comfortable shoes at prices that no one can touch, when quality is considered.

There's Great Comfort

a foot where our shoes are worn. They adjust themselves to what they cover so easily, yieldingly and coolly that they meet all the conditions of ideal foot wear. You walk into pleasure when you step into a pair of these stylish twins for the house and street. Soles, heels, points and uppers, all reflect the mode admirably.
