WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., June 9.

Tom Dail, of Snow Hill, came over with Jim Green from Ayden last night.

TOO NICE TO SELL—An old darkey went in the buggy factory one day this week and asked if those buggies were to show, or for sale. Guess he thought they were too pretty to sell. Hunsucker buggies don't cost you any more, however, for being pretty.

Old Mr. William Haddock is spending a few days here with his sister, Mrs. Abram Cox.

Several negroes from Greenville came down here Thursday night, and held some kind of lodge meeting. There was a large crowd, and they continued in session all night.

A PROBLEM—How many loads will a wagon haul at ten loads per day? You say "It depends on what wagon you use." Our Tar Heels outlast others.

A. G. COX MFG. CO.

Several parties went to Ayden last night from this place.

Cart wheels are selling here now at $12.50 per pair, complete with axle and beds. This is cheap for wheels that will outlast two pair of the ordinary make.

B. C. Pearce, traveling shoe salesman, was here yesterday. He is so clever his customers are all ways glad to see him come.

Winterville picnic is now a certainty. It will be on Friday, June 29th. Hon. R. B. Glenn will address the people. There will be plenty to eat, cold drinks a plenty, and plenty of music by Osceola Band. We can't doubt the speech with such a speaker, nor the music with such a band, and you need not doubt the dinner, but everybody come.

Mrs. J. D. Cox is spending this week in Ayden in order to attend commencement exercises at F. W. Baptist Seminary.

A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. are laying in a nice stock of coffins, which they will be pleased to quote dealers. Can save you some money.

Greenville Club.

A White Supremacy Club was organized for Greenville township in the Court House Friday night with a good membership. The election of officers was postponed until the meeting at 3 o'clock this afternoon, in order that the people from the country might be represented. A committee on permanent organization and also a committee to solicit the names of those wishing to join were appointed by the chairman.

After the meeting this afternoon a flag was raised over Democratic headquarters, the Osceola Band furnishing music.

U. S. and D. of S.

The Grand Lodge of G. S. and D. of S. meets in Greenville next Tuesday, 12th. We have been requested to give space for a brief synopsis of the meeting in THE REFLECTOR and H. J. Ellis has been selected to report the proceedings. He will also sell copies of the paper among the delegates.

SATURDAY JUNE 9, 1900.

The Republicans are again trying to get rid of the Pension Commissioner Evans, who has been guilty of the unspeakable crime of refusing to violate law in behalf of bogus pension hunters and pension attorney sharks.

Harmony in New York mean victory for the party this fall. When Hill goes to Kansas City instructed for Bryan, it is evident that a very marked change has come over the country in regard to that gentleman.

Congress has adjourned, and the Republicans are overjoyed. Lately, scarcely a day has passed without some new scandal being brought out on the floor of the Capitol, and the Republican Congressmen have become demoralized. The peace that will follow for a time will be very grateful to their tired nerves.

The Republicans refuse to repeal the stamp taxes on the ground that they must retain money enough in the Treasury to meet extraordinary expenses like that for the Nicaraguan canal, for public buildings, and rivers and harbors, and the like. Yet they have authorized none of these things. But the money will come in handy all the same. It can and will be loaned out to the banks—possibly in return for campaign contributions.

Corn Culture in North Carolina

A very readable popular bulletin has been prepared by Benjamin Irby, professor of Agriculture in the North Carolina College of Agriculture & Mechanic Arts and Agriculturist of the North Carolina Experiment Station. Professor Irby treats of corn culture under the following heads: Kinds of lands suited for corn culture; preparation of the soil; when and how to plant; best fertilizers; best methods of cultivation; a good rotation for corn; best varieties of corn for the south; harvesting the crop; selection and improvement of seeds; protection against weevils and moths; the comparative food value of corn and other crops.

This bulletin is now in the hands of the printer. Any one may secure a copy of it by addressing Geo. T. Winston, Director, Raleigh N. C.

A man may hold the key to a situation only to discover that some one else has picked the lock.

WASHINGTON LETTER

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 8, 1900.

The democrats could not make the republican majority in Congress remain in session and transact the business which they were elected to transact, but they could, and did, thoroughly expose the hypocrisy of the republican treatment of such important matters as the Nicaragua Canal bill, the trust question and the reduction of war taxes before adjournment, and they did more. In the debate on the armor plate clause of the Naval appropriation bill, the democratic Senators made their fight on the armor trust so hot that Senators Hanna and Elkins actually championed that trust on the floor of the Senate, thus furnishing conclusive proof that the administration and the republicans in Congress were favorable to trusts in general, and to that trust especially. Instead of openly voting to pay the armor trust the price it demands for armor plate, the republican majority "whipped the devil around the stump" by authorizing the Secretary of the Navy to purchase the armor that will be needed during the coming fiscal year, if he can do so at what he considers a "reasonable" price; otherwise to establish a government armor plant. It is dollars to broomstraws that the Secretary of the Navy will consider the trust price for armor "reasonable" and that he will not use the authority conferred upon him, to establish a government plant and break the grasping monopoly. If Boss Hanna had not been certain of that he would not have allowed the authority to be given him. Anyway, it was cowardly for the majority in Congress to shift the responsibility for favoring this trust from themselves to Secretary Long.

Senator Pettigrew stirred up the republicans by delving into political history. He charged, on the authority of Mr. Cramp himself, that Mr. Cramp contributed $400,000 to the republican campaign fund of 1892, with the express understanding that he was to be repaid with profitable contracts to build ships. When Senator Carter, who was chairman of the Republican National Committee which handled the campaign funds of that year, denied that any such agreement had been made with Mr. Cramp—mind you, not that Mr. Cramp had contributed the money—Mr. Pettigrew stated that he had a conversation with Senator Carter, repeating to him what Mr. Cramp had said, and that Carter had replied laughingly, "I guess, we did hit the old man pretty hard." Mr. Pettigrew also gave Boss Hanna a few swipes that even his thick hide could not keep from hurting, reading extracts from the memorial presented to the Senate charging Hanna with having bribed his way into the Senate, dwelling with emphasis upon the charge that Representative Dick, now Secretary of the Republican National Committee, and Maj. Rathbone, recently suspended as director of posts in Cuba, were Hanna's agents in carrying out the bribery. Mr. Pettigrew added as his own comment: "We see now in what school this man Rathbone was educated." Mr. Hanna's reply consisted largely of calling Mr. Pettigrew a traitor to the republican party, which was not very convincing.

The Senate by a vote of 33 to 33 rejected the nomination of ex-Congressman Bynum, of Indiana, to be General Appraiser at the port of New York, an $8,000 position, which the law says shall be filled by a democrat, and which was given to Mr. Bynum as a reward for work done for Mr. McKinley in '96. Mr. Bynum called himself a gold democrat, but the democratic Senators contended that he was not a democrat and there were enough republicans who agreed with them to defeat the nomination.

The Senate Committee on the Pacific Islands and Porto Rico, of which Senator Foraker is Chairman, was provided with a free trip to Porto Rico, at public expense, by a resolution adopted by the Senate. The alleged purpose of the junket is to investigate existing conditions.

The Republicans are said to be working now through the census takers. This was today said to be quite widespread. They are sending out newspapers in great numbers. It is said that all previous circulation of The Caucasian has been doubled. The Asheville Gazette has a really immense circulation, paid for out of the campaign fund, of course. There are some Democrats who actually fear for the success of the amendment, so active and so inscrupulous are its enemies.—Raleigh Cor. Charlotte Observer.

Robert Avery, of Winsted, Conn. who had his clothes stolen while in bathing wandered in the woods adjacent to the stream for two days and nights. He was shot at and chased by dogs as a "wild man" whenever he appeared until finally one courageous man got close enough to hear his story and bring him clothing.

Town Infested With Snails.

A plague of snails, as the afflicted people call them, has struck the city of Jeffersonville, Ind., in full force, and instances are cited where persons have been compelled to move. Their first appearance was after the flood of February, 1884, but they have never been so bad as at present. The pests are not exactly like a snail, but resemble it in some respects. They have no shells and are night raiders. In size they range from one to six inches in length, being from a quarter to an inch in diameter. The larger ones are exceedingly repulsive looking. It is not until 10 o'clock at night that the snails come out of their hiding places under houses, and slug-hunting parties have become fashionable.

Armed with a lamp and a cup of salt the people hunt for the pests, and when a slug is found its days are numbered, for the smallest particle of salt means death. The more salt the quicker the work. They leave behind a slimy track of silver that furnishes a clue to their movements. In some places fine carpets have been ruined, the slimy trail eating like acid. A slop bucket is a favorite resort for the snails, and as many as 100 have been salted down at one time in a bucket.—Baltimore Sun.

Sickness Among Marines.

Norfolk, Va., June 7.—Many of the 205 men forming the battalion of marines at the navy yard have been attacked by gastro enteritis, a form of cholera-morbus, and fifty-three of the number have been transferred to the naval hospital for treatment. The men were first attacked Sunday night and many were ill for a short while. Dr. Hope, Health officer of Portsmouth looked into the matter, but it has not yet been decided what caused the illness. Rumors of poisoning arose, but these were declared to be baseless, and the men's illness was attributed to climatic conditions. Many of the men's temperatures rose last night to 103, and this morning one of them, Jackaway, died. He was seventeen years old and enlisted at League Island a month ago. Medical Director Ferebee has tried to ascertain the cause of men's illness, but so far without avail. It is hoped, however, that other deaths may be averted.

[Wonder if this is not a form of cholera that has jumped over to this side of the continent.]

WINE OF CARDUI

THE LINK THAT BINDS.

JACKSON, TENN., Nov. 23.

I was subject to miscarriage for three years, and suffered constantly with backache. I wrote to you for advice, and after using three bottles of Wine of Cardui, according to your directions, I am strong and well, and the mother of a fine girl baby.

Mrs. E. N. JOWERS.

McLREE'S Wine of Cardui

There is no-use talking—a baby in the house is the link that binds husband and wife together. Nothing is sadder than fruitless wedlock. The prattling and cooing of the little ones offset a thousand times the occasional worries and trials of life. When a wife is barren, there is a derangement somewhere in the genital organs, caused by one or more of those common disorders known as "female troubles". Wine of Cardui is the remedy. It puts the organs of generation in a strong and healthy condition, fitting the wife for the sacred duty of reproducing her kind. During the period of gestation the entire system of the expectant mother is built up to withstand the ordeal of labor, and when the little one makes its advent it is lusty and strong, well-fitted to grow to maturity in perfect health. The mother, too, passes through the trial with little pain and no dread. Wine of Cardui is truly a wonderful medicine for women.

An Economical Buyer of Shoes is the woman who recognizes the fact that it is true economy to purchase nothing but the highest grade shoes for her own wear, as well as for the children. We will fit mamma and the misses, as well as the boys and girls, with elegant, durable and comfortable shoes at prices that no one can touch, when quality is considered.

There's Great Comfort

a foot where our shoes are worn. They adjust themselves to what they cover so easily, yieldingly and coolly that they meet all the conditions of ideal foot wear. You walk into pleasure when you step into a pair of these stylish twins for the house and street. Soles, heels, points and uppers, all reflect the mode admirably.

Will Reported Found.

A telephone message to THE REFLECTOR this afternoon says that the will of the late Mr. Thomas J. Sheppard has been found. Mr. Sheppard died about a month ago leaving a large estate and no very near heirs, and though search was made through his papers no will could be found.

The message says a will has now been found in a book. The will was written by Mr. Sheppard about two months prior to his death. We could not learn further particulars up to the time of going to press.

Speakings.

The Democratic county candidates will speak at Black Jack, Friday 22nd, at Burney's, Saturday, 23rd and at Lang's school house, Saturday, 30th.

There will be a big barbecue and picnic at Winterville on Friday 29th. Hon. R. B. Glenn will speak and the Osceola band will furnish music.

STATE NEWS

Happenings in North Carolina.

Ex-Congressman John S. Henderson, of Rowan county, has been nominated for the State Senate.

A 11-year-old negro boy, of Gastonia, shot and killed himself rather than take a whipping from his father.

It isn't the man with the loudest clothes who makes the most noise in the world.

MURDER IN CRAVEN.

Mr. John Manning Killed by His Nephew and Son.

A brutal murder occurred near Vanceboro, Thursday night when John Manning was shot and killed by his nephew Nile Manning in company with John Manning Jr., the son of the murdered man.

Mr. John Manning was visiting near Vanceboro, and John Manning Jr., and Nile Manning, who had previously had some family troubles left Hanrahan's Thursday morning and after walking four miles below Vanceboro, where they met Mr. John Manning in the road and got in a fight. Nile Manning shot Mr. John Manning three times and then both walked back to their home leaving Mr. John Manning, as they supposed dead in the road.

The defendants were arrested Friday by Mr. Jos. McLawhorn, the Constable at Ayden, and brought here this morning and put in jail for safe keeping until the sheriff of Craven county can come and take them to New Bern.

These are the facts as were learned from the prisoners themselves:

Nile Manning, who did the shooting, is a desperate character, having served one term in the New Bern jail and once or twice in the jail here. John Manning, Jr., who is a son of the murdered man, claims to have had nothing to do with the killing but walked to Vanceboro with and allowed Nile Manning to kill his father without trying to prevent it.

All of the parties live in Pitt county, but the murder was committed in Craven.
