Prominent Kinstonian Dead.

Information was received here today that Mr. J. Q. Jackson, of Kinston, died suddenly in Raleigh this morning. The remains were taken to Kinston this evening and the funeral will be held tomorrow. Mr. Jackson was a prominent lawyer of Kinston and a member of the Legislature from Lenoir county.

Public Speaking.

Hon. R. B. Glenn will address the people on the Constitutional Amendment and other political issues of the day in the Court House at Greenville on June 30th, 1900. Speaking will commence at 3 o'clock P. M. Everybody is invited to attend and hear the discussion.

Adjourns to July 24th.

Special to Reflector.

Raleigh, N. C., June 14.—The Legislature has voted to adjourn tonight until July 24th.

Senator Jackson, of Lenoir county, died suddenly this morning. The remains were taken to Kinston today.

Strange But True.

I have seen demonstrated, time and time again, that a dozen persons advertising similar lines of goods, in the same publication, have each developed more business than was done when only one or two were in the field.—Secrets of the Mail Order Trade.

Women's Gambling Room Raided.

Wild and shrill were the screams when the police suddenly appeared in force in 264 Eighth avenue today. Upwards of half a hundred women were gambling on the races, the place being known as a poolroom for fair patrons only. The manager gave her name as Grace B. Ryan, but the police declare that she is Gussie M. McKee, recently married to Lieut. Hugh Martin, of the United States army, now at Fort Hancock facing charges of financial irregularities.

Strong arms alone prevented some of the excited women from leaping from the windows to the street, a distance of 15 feet. Several fainted. Nearly all wept. Many got out of the back windows and escaped over the roofs. The police arrested 34 of the women.

It is possible that several homes may be broken up as a result of the raid. Many of the prisoners are married and their husbands now learn for the first time that their wives are in the habit of playing turf events. Some are stated to be daughters of respectable and perhaps wealthy men.—New York Letter to Baltimore Sun.

THURSDAY, JUNE 14, 1900.

The American squabble in the Philippines and the British rum-pus with the Boers are about to be overshadowed by the general stir the Boxers are creating in China. If there is anything in the name let's export Sullivan, Corbett, Fitzsimmons and all the balance of the profession to see if they can't out box the heathen.

The Board of Commissioners of the town of Washington have decided to refuse to recommend to the County Commissioners for license to sell liquor any person whom they have reason to believe engages in the sale of liquor on Sunday. The Messenger says that while parties engaged in the sale of liquor have been believed by the people to sell it on Sunday, as cases of intoxication on Sunday would indicate, still it has been impossible to obtain sufficient evidence to convict the parties, and this resolution of the Commissioners was passed to meet such cases.

THE DAILY REFLECTOR is getting so old that it sometimes forgets its birthdays. That was the case the first of the week when it began a new volume, the twelfth. Another thing that might be said about its age, is that it has won its way into the esteem of the people and some of them don't mind saying how much they enjoy its visits every afternoon. That these visits are looked forward to with pleasure is something to be appreciated and it is our hope to make the paper take even a warmer hold upon the esteem of its readers. And its friends, the advertisers, it need not be told how much we appreciate the fact that they are always with us. Here's wishing the best to you all.

Pitt county is handsomely represented by Senator James and Representatives Barnhill and Nichols. These three gentlemen have been recently renominated in Pitt, and will come again next January.

Senator James is an old favorite in the social realm in Raleigh, having been one of Judge Strong's most popular law students in 1878, and is now serving his third term in the Senate. He has the happy faculty of keeping his tongue, until the maturity of his thought justifies its loosening. And some Senators, there are who haven't. But they don't "get there" as often as Senator James.—Raleigh Post.

New Election Law as Amended.

H. B. No. 2083.—A Bill to be Entitled an Act to Amend Chapter 507 of the Public Laws of 1898, Entitled An Act to Regulate Elections.

Section 1, which provides for the State election on the first Thursday in August and each four years thereafter, is amended by providing for biennial elections for such other State officers as are not named in this section.

Section 3 is amended to provide for election of judicial district solicitors, same as clerks of Superior courts—each four years.

Section 6, is amended slightly ament making provision for compensation of the State board of elections.

Section 10, amended so as to allow county boards to meet at "such other times" as the chairman or any two members may direct.

REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS.

Sec. 11. That before the next general election on the first Thursday in August, 1900, provided for in this act, there shall be an entirely new registration of all persons who shall be entitled to register, in every voting precinct in the State; and only such persons as are registered shall be entitled to vote in any election held under this act.

That in all cases the applicant for registration shall be sworn by the registrar, before being registered, and shall state and answer his name, age, place of birth, place of residence (stating ward if he resides in an incorporated town or city), number of his house if numbered, and if not numbered, then a designation of its locality by streets; and if not the owner, then the name of the owner or renter.

If not a resident of an incorporated town or city, he shall then state his place of residence in the election precinct; and if he is not the owner of the house in which he lives, then he shall state the name of the person who does own the same, or upon whose land he lives, the time of his residence in said county, ward of election precinct; and if not known to the registrar, to be qualified to register, his avocation, place of business, where and by whom employed if employed; if a new-comer, from whence he comes and his postoffice address before removal; whether he has been disqualified as a voter by judgment or decree of any court, and if so by what court reinstated; and any other questions of the identity and qualification of the said applicant to be admitted to registration.

The registrar, if in doubt as to the right of the applicant to register, may require other evidence satisfactory to him as to the qualifications of the applicant.

And thereupon, if the applicant shall be found to be duly qualified and entitled to be registered as an elector shall register the applicant (giving his name opposite his name) and shall record his name, age, residence, place of birth, and the township, county or State from whence he removed, in the event of a removal, in the appropriate column of the registration books; and the registration books containing the said record shall be evidence against the applicant in any court of law in a proceeding for false or fraudulent registration; provided, that nothing herein contained shall prevent any elector or judge of election, on the day of election when the elector presents himself to vote, from challenging the right of the elector to vote.

If any elector has previously been admitted to registration in any ward, township or precinct in the county in which he resides, he shall not be entitled to register again in another ward, precinct or township in the same county until he produces a certificate of the registrar in the former township, ward of precinct that his name has been erased from the registration books of the ward, precinct or township from which he has removed; and the identity of any person claiming the right to be registered in any precinct of the same county by virtue of said certificate of the person named therein shall be proven to the registrar, if not known to him.

Every person qualified as an elector shall take the following oath:

"I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the State of North Carolina not inconsistent therewith; that I have been a resident of the State of North Carolina for twelve months and of the county of _____ for ninety days; that I am 21 years of age; that I have not registered for this election in any other ward, precinct or township; That I am the identical person that I represent myself to be and that I am a boni fide resident of _____ precinct. So help me God." And thereupon if qualified, shall be entitled to register.

Section 17. Amended so as to allow appointment of judges of election "at such other times as may be necessary."

Section 20, now provides: "No registration shall be allowed on the day of election; but if any person shall give satisfactory evidence to the registrar and judges of election that he has become qualified to register and vote after the time for registration has expired, he shall be allowed to register and vote on that day."

Section 29, amended by adding the words, "and make out and sign a return or statement of the result of the election" to the first section and the addition of the following: "Provided, that the chairman of any political party in the State may file in the office of the Secretary of State a ballot or ballots designating the officers to be voted for on any State, districts or county ticket; and no ballot shall be rejected that contains only the names of persons to fill the offices so designated on account of containing the names of more persons than the elector had a right to vote for."

Section 34, amended so as to provide for canvassing also of returns of the vote cast for and against proposed Constitutional amendment.

Section 35, amended by adding 6) Representatives in Congress, (and also (7) amendment to the Constitution.

Sections 36, 43, 45, 46, 38, similarly amended as section 35.

Section 64, defining the State Board of Canvassers, amended so as to comprise that board of the "Governor, Secretary of State and four members of the State Board of Elections."

AS TO JUDICIAL INTERFERENCE.

Section 58. That upon any application being made or any action or proceeding of any kind commenced or had before any judge of any court in this State, for a mandamus or order in the nature of a mandamus, injunction, restraining order or order in the nature thereof, to compel, prevent, prohibit or restrain the performance of any act in respect to his duties against any officer or officers provided for in this act, the matters stated in the affidavit, petition or complaint upon which such application is based or action or proceeding had, shall be taken and deemed to be denied, and no such judge shall issue any such order, temporary or otherwise, until the facts have been submitted to and found by a jury at a regular term of the Superior court of the county in which such officer resides.

No such order shall be made or issued upon any case agreed, or upon facts found by a jury at a special term.

Section 19. That when a jury has found the facts and any judge shall issue a mandamus or order in the nature of a mandamus, injunction or restraining order, or other order in the nature thereof to compel, prevent, restrain or prohibit the performance of and act in respect to his duties against any officer or officers provided for in this act, such officer or officers shall have the right to appeal from such order to the Supreme court, upon giving bond in a sum not to exceed the sum of $100, conditioned to pay to appellee all such costs and damages as may accrue by reason of such appeal. The said bond shall be received and approved by the clerk of the Superior court. A deposit of money, of the amount of the penal sum named in such bond shall be received by the clerk in lieu of such bond. And upon filing such bond or making such deposit such order shall be vacated until affirmed by the Supreme court; and until so affirmed the election officer shall proceed to perform the duties imposed by this act, notwithstanding such order.

Section 90. Repeals all previous conflicting laws.

I have moved my Barber Shop to the shop in front of Munford's new big store. I have also associated with me Julius Fleming, who has been working with me for a long time. We have fitted up for the handsomest shop in the town, and offer the public the best service ever offered here. We appreciate highly the liberal patronage we have received in the past. We cordially invite all of our past customers and all others who desire first-class service to come to see us in our new shop. We intend to please you and will do so regardless of expense or labor. We are ready at all times to accommodate you with first-class shave or hair cut.

An Economical Buyer of Shoes is the woman who recognizes the fact that it is true economy to purchase nothing but the highest grade shoes for her own wear, as well as for the children. We will fit mamma and the misses, as well as the boys and girls, with elegant, durable and comfortable shoes at prices that no one can touch, when quality is considered.

Persistency Essential.

One successful advertisement does not prove a man a good advertiser. It takes persistent, profitable pushing to establish a reputation, and to hold it after it is established.—Advertising World.

A Curious Threat From Virginia.

The News and Observer is in receipt of the following written in red ink on the back of a postal card which was mailed at Williamsburg, Va. It was evidently written by some negro or one of his fool white friends.

It is given space here as an amusing and curious piece of tomy-rot, and also those who are inclined so to do may look up its numerous biblical citations.

The address on the card is: Editor of Raleigh Observer, To Chairman Simmons, Raleigh, North Carolina." On the back of it is the following written in a bold, plain hand:

White Castle, Horn City, Va.

Oh! you will soon have white supremacy in North Carolina. Warriors, too white to be seen, led by Mr. Cum of Rev. 12:5, will come against you before next August. The blatant and dastardly malignants who now rampage your State, inciting white men against helpless negroes, will be brought to speedy justice before next August. You should not let these vile bulldozers terrorize you into wearing their badge of infamy if you don't long to be a marked man on Pay Day. Your thieves and perjurers can't again be "elected" to Congress, for we will have Pay Day long before next November. Where is Sir Walter Scout the Wizard of North Carolina! Luke 18:1-8 and Isia. 18:20 and 13:11-12-13. See Col. 3:35 and Gal. 6-7 and Prov. 1:26 and Psa. 1:2. See Psalms 1:3 and 7-8. See Psalms 75:4-5 and 101:8. Oh! There's going to be a Sea before next August. Rives of Cleaves and Leaves is going to pass His Jordan Force Bill. Amos 3:7-8. 9:1-8 and Isia, 1:8 etc., Isia, 2:9 and 3:9 and 5:15 and 10-33-134 and Matt. 24:45-61. Lord Maurice will give Virginia and North Carolina the Overwood Constitution before next August. Micah 7:14-20; Hosea 5:15 and Luke 17:25-28 Bill White.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Two of a Kind.

The ice trust, against which the New York Journal and the rest of the press of that city inveigh, is not a bit worse than the tobacco trust. The principal charge that is brought against the ice trust is that it is robbing the poor by overcharging them for the frozen stuff, but the tobacco trust is committing an outrage of equal enormity by underpaying the growers for their leaf. The ice combine stands a good chance of being done to death. The same sort of fight against the tobacco trust would kill it, too, and we hope to see it made—Southern Tobacco Journal.

If some people would try the work cure perhaps there wouldn't be so much need of the rest cure.
