WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., June 16.

Marshall Cox was here yesterday, and reports our picnic committee in his neighborhood as doing good work.

Moye & Kittrell load a car with sawed timber nearly every day.

Some new and attractive styles of coffins are being made by A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. They expect to extend their trade, and do a much larger business in that line.

F. C. Harding, of Greenville, dropped in a short while Thursday.

Buggies are buggies
The world around;
Some made in small,
Others in large towns.
We make no pretense,
But guarantee to use
The best of material,
That can't be refused.
Honest workmanship
Is always sure to win,
And fast as can be filled
Orders keep coming in.

HUNSUCKER CO. CO.

Herbert Hardy, of Ayden was here yesterday listing taxes.

Rev. C. W. Blanchard, of Kingston, will address the people of Winterville and surrounding community June 20th., 1900, showing that this is a golden opportunity to open a high school at this place. We know of no better man to work it up than Bro. Blanchard, and let us all rally to his assistance. Men, women and children are invited to hear the address. Lemonade a plenty.

The old Hurst store has been torn down by G. R. Dixon and put up on his home lot for another purpose.

Three Hunsucker buggies are being shipped to another state this morning. They are pretty, too, and that's no joke.

We are headquarters for grinding and solicit your patronage. Our miller can give you fine results in grinding wheat, as well as corn and other grain. If sent by rail will endeavor to grind and return by next train.

GRIFTON ITEMS

GRIFTON, N. C. June 16, 1900.

J. Q. Buinerly spent the day in Greenville Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Cobb are at Seven Springs for a while.

Mrs. Alice Spier is visiting at J. R. Spier's near Ridge Spring.

De Witt McCotter, the clever shoe drummer of a Richmond shoe house is here.

The top of the Nottingham and Wrenn Co.'s mill caught fire just over the boiler room Wednesday, but with barrels of water on top of building the fire was soon extinguished.

Friday while the Chief of Police was out of town there were some arrests to be made so the Mayor protom ordered some men to arrest Charlie Dixon, colored. He was disorderly in Bryant Gardner's bar room and Bryant had to shoot his pistol so he could get rid of him. After being arrested Dixon gave a good deal of trouble in being locked up as he was a powerful darkey.

SATURDAY JUNE 16, 1900.

The eleventh hour repentance of the Republicans on the trust question is very touching. But what have they been doing for the past three years while the trusts were multiplying so fast. An official statement shows that there are now over 500 of these and that their combined capital is some $6,000,000,000.

Of all the silly arguments, the one that asserts that the Republican administration has anything to do with the high price of farm products is the silliest. The price of all such is fixed in Liverpool, where the world's crops meet in competition, and neither McKinley nor any other man can effect it except by cornering the crop, and that can only be done temporarily, if at all.

An Outrage, Pure and Simple.

The Greensboro Record has a very timely article on the way costs are piled up unnecessarily against the county by so many minor cases going on the Superior Court dockets instead of being disposed of by Magistrates and Mayors. The same condition exists all over the State and reform in this particular is much needed. The Record says:

For a number of years The Record has talked about the importance of extending the jurisdiction of Magistrates, Mayors, &c., until it has grown hoarse. Nevertheless, it is a matter of the most vital importance.

Not one man in a thousand can guess what the present term of court cost the county for just one week in the way of witnesses and jurors. It was footed up yesterday and the figures are $3,100.

This is not so bad if it was a matter that could not be avoided, but it can. Extend the jurisdiction of magistrates to cover a lot of minor offences and the saving would be enormous. Up to ten or fifteen years ago these judicial officers had jurisdiction in retailing and in a number of such like cases, but now it is a rare thing when they can make final disposition of anything, no matter how trivial. The consequence is that the docket of the Superior Court is loaded down.

Let's make a comparison; Monday a case of simple assault was heard. Witnesses and others had been in attendance from day to day and when the matter was finally disposed of the costs in the case amounted to over $50.00! And the county had it to pay. It was sent up from Mayor Taylor's court simply because he had to send it up, the great legislature of North Carolina not deeming him an officer of sufficient calibre to adjudicate the case. Everybody knows this is pure tommyrot. He is not given jurisdiction simply because the legal fraternity of the country wants everything thrown into the higher courts. Why? They get two whacks, generally, at every case—a $5.00 fee before the magistrate or mayor, and $10.00 in the Superior Court, and the county nine times out of ten, if not more, pays the cost.

Talk about changing the system and a cry is heard that a grave injustice will sometimes be done because some magistrates are not up on the law. This may be true in a few instances, but nine-tenths of the cases in the Superior Courts of this county are sent up from High Point at Greensboro, at both of which places it is easy matter to get the very best men to fill the positions.

A gentleman made an estimate last night and showed that had magistrates jurisdiction on trival matters, at least $2,000 of this $3,100 would have been saved to the county.

The present system is an outrage on tax payers in the counties of North Carolina and should be changed.

The Durham Recorder says "When the sun was obscured by the eclipse at Norfolk, a negro man prayed that the light of the god of day might never show his face again, giving as a reason for his prayer that the sun shone more for the white man than for the negro. No sooner had this been uttered than tongue of the negro was the paralyzed and remains so at last accounts." This should serve as a solemn warning to the opponents of the amendment.—Charlotte News.

Perhaps it is better indication that all the Annamases have not been struck dead.

They are at Odds.

This is the time of the year when the man who is attempting to raise a garden is not on very good terms with his neighbor who fancies chickens.—Durham Herald.

There is a shoe trust. And yet some people say that corporations have no souls.

Lots of women marry a mushroom lover and then find they have got a toadstool husband.

WASHINGTON LETTER

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 15 1900.

The republican pretense that there is uncertainty about who will fill the second place on the McKinley ticket is amusing. Boss Hanna and Mr. McKinley have long ago selected the man, but the secret has been well kept, as they wish the delegates to the convention to be deluded into the belief that the nomination is theirs. The platform that will be adopted by the Philadelphia convention has also been written, although the convention will go through the farce of appointing a platform committee to prepare it. The platform was written by Postmaster General Smith, who was chosen for the task because he was a newspaper man, but its authors are Boss Hanna and Mr. McKinley. They dictated it in the rough to Mr. Smith, who polished it up. In fact, the work of the Philadelphia convention could easily be done well inside of three hours, but Hanna promised in return for that $100,000 contribution that the convention should sit three days, and the programme has been arranged on a three-day basis, not only to give the Philadelphians a chance to even up but to try to work up a little enthusiasm among the delegates.

Seuator Chandler, who has a way of nagging his party and its leaders, when the spirit moves him, has been throwing cold water on the Hanna McKinley crowd by pointing out in a published interview the danger of republican defeat this year. Following are some of Mr. Chandler's reasons: "We will be hurt the most by the charges of extravagance and corruption. The next danger point is the charge that the party is bound in chains by the money power and that its reins are held by millionaires, and the third thing to fear is great losses in the Philippines." He pointed out exactly where defeat might meet the republicans when he said: "Suppose the war news next fall is not good, or that there are labor troubles, or that prosperity is threatened. What then? Illinois, Indiana, and even New York would slip away from us. It is barely possible that we may lose those states even without any succession of untoward events. In that event we would lose the election." Mr. Chandler is being roundly abused by the party bosses for publicly saying what they have been saying among themselves for weeks. The Court of Claims has taken the Sampson side of the battle of Santiago with a vengeance. It deecided that Sampson commanded the fleet during the battle and that the New York was engaged therein. Under that decision Sampson, who had no more to do with destroying the Spanish fleet than the reader of this, will get $8,335 as his share of prize money, while Schley, the man who commanded the fleet which destroyed the Spanish ships, gets only about $3,000.

GRAND LODGE G. S. AND D. S.

(Reported by H. J. Ellis.)

THIRD DAY—AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Grand Lodge was called to order at 1:30 P. M., and the G. C. ordered password in 4th degree taken up. Prayer by G. P., L. Williams.

The election of officers being in order all the present incumbents were re-elected, with one exception Sister Helen B Wooten being elected associate to G M.

The hour for parade having arrived the members regaled themselves and marched according to the program.

At Sycamore Hill Baptist church the following program was given:

Music by choir.
 Invocation by G P.

Address of welcome by C C Forbes.

Address by Master of Ceremonies, W P Norcott, Jr.

Essay, "Duty," Mrs A E Jones.

Essay, "Who is my Neighbor?" Mrs Mimie Cherry.

Essay, "Principles of the Order," Mrs Etta Foreman.

Essay by Mary E Moore.

Annual oration by Grand Lecturer, J W C Smith, of Kinston.

NIGHT SESSION.

After opening and taking up passwrd in 4th degree, Dr Moore invited the Grand Lodge to attend a festival in Planters Warehouse. The lodge attended the festival and reassembled in hall at 10:30 o'clock.

The G S read an interesting letter from the National Grand Sire.

Rev W H Evans, being lame, petitioned for aid and a collection was taken for him.

After full discussion the G L decided to purchase a press.

The officers were then installed by Rev J W Moore, D D, assisted by Sister M M Walker.

All business being completed the Lodge formed a circle and sang the parting ode, when the Grand Lodge adjourned to meet in Raleigh on the second Tuesday in June, 1901.

Despite the decline of interest in cycling, the weather is scorching.

WINE OF CARDUI

WOMEN WHO WORK.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 15.

Though only 19 years old, I suffered from pain and female troubles two years. Last spring I got so bad I had to quit work. I had to support myself, and could not afford a high-priced doctor. I got one bottle of Wine of Cardui and that made me feel better. I have now used several bottles and am well. My mother used the Wine for Change of Life and was greatly relieved.

MISS MARGARET WALSH.

McLREE'S Wine of Cardui

Many girls and women find it necessary to earn their own living in various kinds of employment. Their work is often so hard and confining that the health breaks down. Their delicate constitutions are unfitted for tiresome tasks. Weakness nearly always makes its appearance in the peculiarly delicate womanly organs. Constant standing on the feet, and coming and going at the beck of a superintendent or foreman, induces falling of the womb, leucorrhoea, headache and backache. The pay of women workers is often so notoriously small that when sickness comes they have no money to engage skillful physicians. To them Wine of Cardui is truly a blessing. It cures them of their ills at a small cost, and they can act as their own physicians. No doctor can do as much for "female troubles" as Wine of Cardui.

Rape in Greene.

News comes from the county of Greene that a negro attempted to outrage Mrs. Robt. Sugg, the eldest daughter of Ex-Sheriff James Grant, of this county. Particulars are meagre. Yesterday a letter came through the postoffice here addressed to Mr. Grant the face of the envelope bearing a note to the postmaster saving deliver at any cost, Mr. Grant would pay the charges. Last night Mess. Lynch and Smith of the clerical force at the office, hired a conveyance and drove out to the country home of Mr. Grant. Mr. Grant was not at home, but Mrs. Grant was. The letter requested Mr. Grant to come at once to the home of Mrs. Suggs, near Jason, in Greene county; that an attempt had been made to outrage his daughter Emma; that the negro had been arrested and would be put in jail. This affair took place on the afternoon of the 12th. —Goldsboro Cor. Raleigh Post, 14th.

Meekins For Congress.

Elizabeth City, N. C., June 14. —The Republican executive committee of the First Congressional district met in Edenton yesterday. A resolution was adopted authorizing the delegates to the Congressional convention which met on the 16th of May, to complete all unfinished business. Pursuant to this order the convention assembled and nominated I. M. Meekins, of Pasquotank, for Congress and D. O. Newberry, of Tyrrell, for elector. The executive committee was reorganized and D. O. Newberry was made chairman. Resolutions were passed endorsing President McKinley, the official course of Senator Pritchard and the State ticket. Ducan got a scorching.

Meekins received twenty votes, eighteen being necessary for a choice. The nomination was afterwards made unanimous. This is a significant action; it means that the Republicans of this district do not intend to be dominated by revenue bosses and their pliant henchmen. The hand of the Republican wizard of the district, G. W. Cobb, is plainly seen in this.
