HEARD AND SEEN IN WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, N. C., June 16. On Sunday 10th inst. the crew of the steamer W. F. Taylor killed a bear. The steamer was going up Neuse river near the mouth and found the bear crossing.

Mrs. Lucie Latham, of Pantego, passed through town enroute for her old home near Grifton, where she expects to spend the summer.

On the afternoon of the 14th the old "hospital" took fire and was almost entirely burned down, the building was old and the loss was perhaps $300, if insured do not know

Miss Julia Jordan of this place, and Mr. Alman Hart, of Tarboro, were married at St. Peters on the evening of the 14th at 10 o'clock. They left on the morning train for Niagara, New York and other cities.

The Methodist Sunday school had their annual picnic on the 13th and the Baptist on the 14th. Both went down the river and spent the day along the shore.

Hot and dry, the Main and Market streets sprinkler is very much in evidence on those streets. Those living elsewhere can get the benefit if they will go on those streets.

We are glad to learn of the improvement of Dr. W. J. Bullock, of Belhaven, who has been seriously ill for some days.

I have heard that 8,000 barrels of potatoes are shipped from Belhaven per day. The story may be fishy, but I expect not.

Dr. H. Snell, our excellent dentist has returned from a re-union of the graduating class which graduated from Roanoke College about 20 years since.

A boarder in a certain hotel in Eastern North Carolina went in an unoccupied room recently to take a bath as his own room was being cleaned up, but did not bathe, the bill presented for lodging was only fifty cents for being in the room perhaps 10 minutes. The bill has not yet been paid.

Rumor has it that there will be a steamer on from here to Ocracoke this summer and that ample provision has been made for guests.

General Manager King, of the Norfolk & Southern was at Belhaven a day or two since and ordered lumber to be moved. The mill men will rejoice if this be true, for there is perhaps more than four million feet in stock there.

Mrs. Capt. D. M. Roberts is visiting her parents at Belhaven. JIM NASTIC.

Mayor's Court.

Mayor J. G. Moye disposed of two cases during the past week.

Louis Washington, jumping on and off the passenger train and loitering around the depot, guilty, fine one penny and cost, amounting to $2.96.

Henry C. Kinsaul, intoxication, guilty, fined one penny and cost amounting to $2.46.

Potatoes.

Below are quotations by wire on potatoes today.

Philadelphia: $1.50 $1.75 to $2.25.

Providence: $1.50 to $2.

Boston: $1.75 $2.00 $2.25 to $2.50.

Pittsburg $1.50, $1.75, $2, $2.25.

Baltimore: $1.50 to $2.25.

New York: $1.50 $1.75 to $2.00.

Notes on Anything Handy and Newsy.

Masons meet tonight.

Just received a keg of nice Roe Herrings at J. S. Tunstall's.

Hyman's sweet mixed pickles at 20 cents a quart at J. S. Tunstall's.

The members of the Osceola Band returned Saturday from Snow Hill.

Nobody crying for rain now, neither are their any complaints of dust.

Just received a box of fresh mush-room crackers at J. S. Tunstall's.

Try a bottle of Hyman's French Mustard, something fine, at J. S. Tunstall's.

20 Standard Sewing Machines are run every day in Pitt county Cheap at S. M. Schultz's

A lot has been purchased in Ayden on which to build an Episcopal church in that town.

A very attractive sign has been hung over the sidewalk in front of Democratic Headquarters, inviting you to come up.

The heavy rain Sunday night kept the church folks at home, there were no services at night in either of the churches.

A dry June begs no bread, is a saying of the old folks, and if true there ought to be no beggers when the next harvest comes.

I have just received a new lot of Hyman's sweet and sour pickles in all size bottles and also in kegs. Try them. J. S. TUNSTALL.

Considerable lumber is being placed on the river bridge preparatory to having it put in thorough repair. The work should be completed before the tobacco market opens.

Shooting on the Road.

A shooting affair occurred near Piney Grove church, about seven miles from Greenville, Saturday evening, between Mr. Bill Elks and a negro named Clayton Barrow. From what we can learn both parties had been to Greenville and were returning home when Mr. Elks passed Barrow and another negro, who made some insulting remarks about him. Mr. Elks got out of his buggy and went back to see what the negro meant by the insulting language. The negro jumped out of the wagon and fired his pistol twice at Mr. Elks who in turn drew his pistol and fired five times at Barrow. Neither party received a wound. One of the bullets came so close to the negro as to tear his pants leg but did not hit his leg.

The negro was arrested and taken before Justice of the Peace J. H. Manning for trial. He was bound over to court and brought to Greenville Saturday evening and placed in jail.

Suicide Attempted by Sallie Side

Yesterday evening Sallie Pruett, better known as Sallie Sides, attempted suicide by the rope route, but the attempt was unsuccessful. She then made a trial via the water route but this was also unsuccessful and she would be suicide was still in the land of the living this morning—Salisbury Sun, 15th.

Large Radish.

Mr. D. G. Moore, of Grimesland sent THE REFLECTOR a huge radish. It is of the white variety and measures 12 inches in length and 14 inches in circumference at the largest part. Down near the root the vegetable had divided into several smaller branches which were all twisted together like toes on a deformed foot.
