WEDNESDAY, JUNE 20, 1900.

If Senator Marion Butler wants another negro-blooded waif to lament over he might go to Elm City and procure the one found near there to take around with him in his anti-amendment campaign.

The Norfolk Virginian Pilot has published a splendid illustrated "twentieth century" edition of 64 pages showing what Norfolk possesses, what advances have been made in the last decade, and the advantage it offers investors. It is a splendid paper and shows up its city well.

The enemies of the Constitutional Amendment are leaving no stone unturned to bring about the defeat of that measure if possible. They are going among the ignorant and uninformed telling them the amendment will disfranchise white men and in other ways misrepresenting the facts in order to prejudice them against it. They are also circulating malicious literature to help them in this purpose. Verily, the advocates of White Supremacy have no time to be idle between now and election.

While Senator Marion Butler was making an anti-amendment speech at Morganton, on Saturday he reached down and placed a ten-year-old boy on the table beside him to illustrate how the Democrats would disfranchise the kid. After lamenting and harranguing over the boy for some minutes a white man in the audience informed the Senator "You have caught a mulatto." And the argument of the wily Senator failed in its effect, but it took the mask off him and showed that he thinks a negro as good as white folks.

The dispatches indicate that there will be war in China sure enough. Sunday morning the forts about Taku opened fire on foreign warships about the harbor and the latter returned the compliment, with the result that two of the forts were blown up and others forced to surrender. Russian, German, French, British and American ships all took a hand in the bombardment. There are so many reports of massacres at interior points that much anxiety is felt for missionaries and other Americans in China, as well as the subjects of other countries there.

THE AMENDMENT.

Full Text of the Measure as Amended.

An Act Supplemental to an Act Entitled "An Act to Amend the Constitution of North Carolina," ratified February 21st, 1899, the same being Chapter Two Hundred and Eighteen of the Public Law of 1899.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. That Chapter 218, Public Laws of 1899, entitled "An Act to amend the Constitution of North Carolina," be amended so as to make said act read as follows: "That article 6 of the Constitution of North Carolina be, and the same is hereby abrogated, and in lieu thereof shall be substituted the following article of said Constitution as an entire and indivisible plan of suffrage:"

ARTICLE VI.

SUFFRAGE AND ELIGIBILITY TO OFFICE.

Section 1. Every male person born in the United States, and every male person who has been naturalized, twenty-one years of age, and possessing the qualifications set out in this article, shall be entitled to vote at any election by the people in the State, except as herein otherwise provided.

Sec. 2. He shall have resided in the State of North Carolina for two years, in the county six months, and in the precinct, ward or other election district in which he offers to vote, four months next preceding the election; Provided, That removal from one precinct, ward or other election district to another in the same county, shall not operate to deprive any person of the right to vote in the precinct, ward or other election district from which he has removed, until four months after such removal. No person who has been convicted, or who has confessed his guilt in open court upon indictment of any crime the punishment of which is, or may hereafter be, imprisonment in the State prison, shall be permitted to vote, unless the said person shall be first restored to citizenship in the manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 3. Every person offering to vote shall be at the time a legally registered voter as herein prescribed and in the manner hereinafter provided by law, and the General Assembly of North Carolina shall enact general registration laws to carry into effect the provisions of this article.

Sec. 4. Every person presenting himself for registration shall be able to read and write any section of the constitution in the English language; and, before he shall be entitled to vote, he shall have paid on or before the first day of May, of the year in which he proposes to vote, his poll tax for the previous year as prescribed by Article 5, Section 1, of the Constitution. But no male person, who was, on January 1st 1867 or at any time prior thereto, entitled to vote under the laws of any State in the United States wherein he then resided, and no lineal descendant of any such person shall be denied the right to register and vote at any election in this State by reason of his failure to possess the educational qualification herein described: Provided, he shall have registered in accordance with the terms of this section prior to December 1, 1908.

The General Assembly shall provide for the registration of all persons entitled to vote without the educational qualifications herein prescribed, and shall, on or before November 1st, 1908, provide for the making of a permanent record of such registration, and all persons so registered, shall forever thereafter have the right to vote in all elections by the people in this State, unless disqualified under Section 2 of this article: Provided, such person shall have paid his poll tax as above required.

Sec. 5. That this Amendment to the Constitution is presented and adopted as one indivisible plan for the regulation of the suffrage, with the intent and purpose to connect the different parts, and to make them so dependent upon each other, that the whole shall stand or fall together.

Sec. 6. All elections by the people shall be by ballot, and all elections by the General Assembly shall be viva voce.

Sec. 7. Every voter in North Carolina, except as in this article disqualified, shall be eligible to office, but before entering upon the duties of the office he shall take and subscribe the following oath: "I, _____, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and maintain the constitution and laws of the United States, and the constitution and laws of North Carolina not inconsistent therewith, and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of my office as _____ So help me, God."

Sec. 8. The following classes of persons shall be disqualified for office: First, all persons who shall deny the being of Almighty God Second, all persons who shall have been convicted or confessed their guilt on indictment pending, and whether sentenced or not, under judgment suspended, of any treason or felony, or any other crime for which the punishment may be imprisonment in the penitentiary, since becoming citizens of the United States, or corruption and malpractice in office, unless such person shall be restored to the rights of citizenship in a manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 9. That this amendment to the Constitution, shall go into effect on the first day of July, 1902, if a majority of the votes cast at the next general election, shall be cast in favor of this suffrage amendment.

Sec. II. This amendment to the Constitution shall be submitted at the next general election to the qualified voters of the State, in the same manner and under the same rules and regulations as is provided in the law regulating general elections in this State, and at said elections those persons desiring to vote for such amendment shall cast a written or printed ballot with the words: "For Suffrage Amendment" thereon; and those with a contrary opinion shall cast a written or printed ballot with the words "Against Suffrage Amendment" thereon.

Sec. III. The votes cast at said election shall be counted, compared, returned and canvassed, and the result announced and declared under the same rules and regulations, and in the same manner as the vote for Governor, and if a majority of the votes cast are in favor of the said amendment, it shall be the duty of the Governor of the State, upon being notified of the result of said election, to certify said amendment, under the seal of the State, who shall enroll the said amendment so certified among the permanent records of his office.

Sec. IV. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

Of course, as flies are attracted by molasses, so sharpers are gathered together where there is opportunity for plunder. Paris is overrun by the rogues of all nations. It is said the sharpest among the sharpers are in the Yankee contingent. This is not a matter to brag of. It discredits the country's morality; the only consolation being in the reflection that superior wickedness is, like all the other superiorities, the outcome of a superior mentality.

The Republican National Convention is holding the boards in Philadelphia this week. The Record has for several days been printing lots of matter about the convention and the delegates in attendance. We found the following among some of its side notes:

"Down yander in No' Car'lina wha' I hail from this is tail cuttin' time, and I am pond'ring whether or no they'll nip my pups," said a typical Southerner, as he chewed upon an unlighted cigar in front of the Bellevue. His audience failed to grasp the significance of "tail-cutting time," and the "gemmen from the So'rh" proceeded to explain that down his way hundreds of families live all the year upon the revenues derived from picking huckleberries and their bag at the hunt. The huckleberries, he explained, grow on bushes about the height of a hunting dog's tail, and to prevent the hounds from sweeping off all the berries as they run under the bushes with their tails erect the natives amputate the tails at this season of the year, hence the anxiety of the gentleman from Hickory, N. C.

Doubtless the fellow who wrote this thought he was getting off something smart, but perhaps he did not know he was giving a fair specimen of the intelligence of the components of the Republican party in North Carolina. To get rid of that class as voters is the purpose of the Constitutional Amendment.

REGISTRATION OF VOTERS.

Notice is hereby given that the books of registration for precinct No. 2 of Greenville Township will be open from 9 o'clock A. M., to sun-set of each day from Thursday June 28th.. to Saturday, July 21st., 1900 inclusive (Sunday excepted) for the registration of the legally qualified voters of the precinct. And on each Saturday during the said period and between the said hours the books will be open at the polling place at Five Points in the town of Greenville. June 15th 1900.

Fair New Libel Law in Ohio.

Hereafter, in the state of Ohio, when a plaintiff in a suit for alleged libel charges malice on the part of the publisher, the burden of proof is upon him, and not upon the newspaper man, as in the past. Hardy justice has at last been done editors and publishers in the Buckeye state, through the passage of what is known as the Harding amendment to the statute, the new section reading as follows:

"In the actions mentioned in the preceding section the defendant may allege and prove the truth of the matter charged as defamatory, and proof of the truth of the same shall be complete defense to any claim for damages, and in every case the defendant may prove any mitigating circumstances to reduce the amount of damages. If it shall appear at the trial that the publication complained of was made in good faith, through mistake of fact, but with reasonable ground for believing that the statements contained therein were true, and that the publisher, upon demand and within a reasonable time thereafter, published a full and complete retraction in as public a manner as that in which said original publication was made, the presumption of malice attaching to or growing out of the publication of said libellous matter shall be thereby rebutted, provided that nothing contained in this act shall prevent the person libelled from alleging and proving actual malice on the part of the publisher and any special damage resulting to him therefrom."

Publishers of Ohio newspapers says the Youngstown Vindicator, "are now placed on a footing of respectability with other citizens. Publishers should be held to accountability as other men, for the commission of wrongs; but as it is the duty of newspapers to expose violations of law and crimes against society, the protection afforded all men—that of being presumed innocent until proven guilty—in the equality of justice should be accorded them."

Walf Found.

Mr. S. W. Andrews, now of Elm City, was in Greenville today and told us that a negro infant that had been abandoned by its mother was found near Elm City Tuesday. Some parties who were plowing heard peculiar noises when they came up to the end of the row near the railroad track, and going to investigate found a new born child in a tow sack thrown in some bushes. The child was taken charge of and a search was started for the inhuman mother.

Cotton Mill.

There was a meeting this afternoon of the subscribers to stock in the Greenville Cotton Mills. Under the letters of incorporation a meeting was to be held when $40,000 was subscribed to elect a majority of the Board of Directors, these to open books of subscription to increase the amount of stock to $75,000 when work will begin.

The meeting this afternoon was to elect the directors, E. L. Davis, O. Hooker, J. G. Moye, S. T. Hooker, J. A. Andrews and W. A. Darden being elected.

DASTARDLY ASSAULT.

Negro Tries to Kill List Taker.

Mr. R. E. Carr, while listing taxes at his home in Greene county, Tuesday, was assaulted and beaten over the head with a stick and chair by Albert Barrett, a negro, who succeeded in making his escape.

Mr. Carr was listing taxes for the township in which he lives when Albert Barrett came up to list his taxes. Mr. Carr had known the negro for a long time and knew he was not twenty-one years of age, so refused to allow him to list, as the negro would not swear he was twenty-one. After the negro found he could not list his taxes he went off and got his brother, Tom Barrett, who came back with him and insisted that Mr. Carr should allow Albert to list. Mr. Carr refused and the negro began using abusive language when Mr. Carr kicked him out the door. Then Albert Barrett struck Mr. Carr over the head with a stick and snatching a chair away from Mr. Carr struck him several times with it.

Mrs. Carr seeing the negro fighting her husband ran out with a Winchester rifle when the negro Albert ran off. Mr. Carr shot at him several times before the negro was out of sight, but does not think he hit him. Mr. Carr offered a reward of two hundred dollars for his arrest and Mr. W. C. Hines, of Greenville, went over with his blood hound puppies but failed to catch him. Mr. Hines returned home last night. This morning he received a note from Mr. Carr saying that he thought that the negro was in this county and he and the Deputy Sheriff left this morning for the place where he is supposed to be to try and catch him.
