ROBBERY AT MILDRED.

Store of Mr. Marion Cobb Broken Into.

Another robbery occurred Saturday night at Mildred, between Bethel and Tarboro. The store of Mr. Marion Cobb was broken into and what cash was left in the money drawer, and a quantity of goods stolen.

Our informant says that Mr. Cobb left a lamp burning when he closed his store Saturday night and when he went down Sunday morning he found the lamp out, and the back door of the store prized open, the money drawer looted, and a lot of goods gone. Mr. Cobb suspected a negro living near and swore out a search warrant against him, and we hear, found several pairs of shoes buried in a hole just back of the negro's house. Immediately after the robbery was discovered Mr. Cobb tried to get the blood hounds here, and failing tried to get those at the State farm. We did not hear whether he succeeded in getting them or not. This is not the first time that Mr. Cobb's store has been robbed, and he says he was determined to catch the thief this time if possible. At last report the negro was in custody.

Look After Your Buttons.

That gifted and versatile lecturer-editor, Henry Blount, of Wilson, is going to open a bottle of "Chow Chow" in the opera house in Greenville, on Thursday evening, 28th. Mr. Blount has visited our town on two former occasions—one to deliver a literary address and the other to lecture—and each time he completely charmed the people. His coming this time is under the auspices of the King's Daughters for the benefit of St. Luke's Home, at Raleigh. With such a cause and such a lecturer need more be said to induce our people to be present?

Oxford Seminary.

We invite attention to the advertisement of Oxford Seminary for girls, to be found in another column. No other school in North Carolina has grown more rapidly in popular favor. Within the last five years it has more than doubled its boarding patronage, the increase each year over the last being more than 20 per cent. It is offering the very best facilities in literary course, music, art, business.

Its location is unsurpassed for healthfulness, the school physician having been called but twice during the school year to see sick girls, though there were eighty five boarding students in attendance.

Club Meeting.

A meeting of the White Supremacy Club for Greenville township was held in the court house Saturday afternoon at three o'clock. The club was addressed by Mr. W. F. Harding. About thirty-five new members were added to the list and a committee on registration was appointed by the President, consisting of twenty members from different sections of the township, whose duty it is to see that every white man registers before the election. The appointing of other committees was postponed until next Saturday, when the club meets at 2:30 o'clock in order to get through before the speaking of Hon. R. B. Glenn at three o'clock.

They Stand The Test.

That is what Every Pair of

Dutchess Pants

Is guaranteed to do. Can you imagine a severer test than to tie one leg of a pair of pants to the ceiling and swing a keg of nails weighing 110 pounds to the other leg? That is the test seen in our window and hundreds of people have looked in wonder.

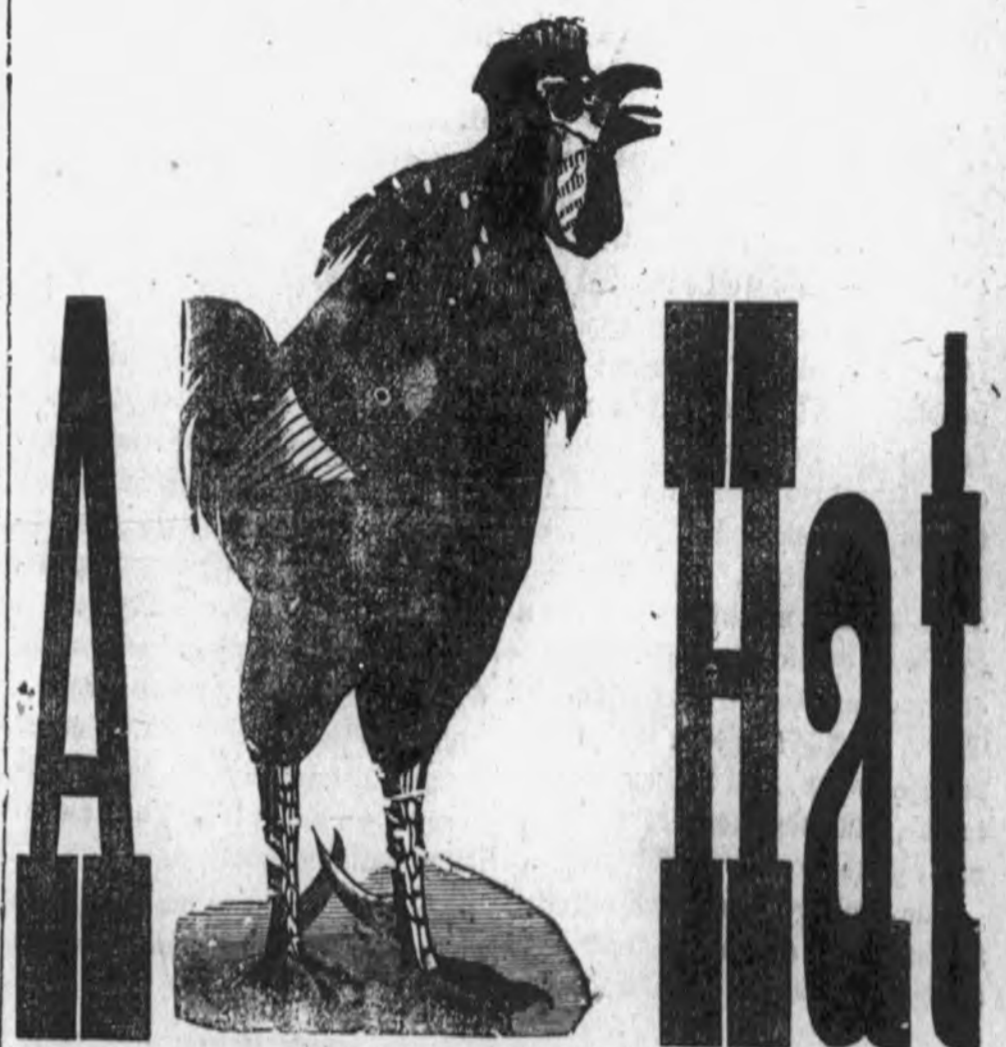

Dutchess Pants

are built to stand any kind of service and a guarantee goes with every pair—10 cents if a button pulls off or $1 if they rip. Get the best when you buy and be sure you get the Dutchess. None genuine without the name on the button.

MONDAY, JUNE 25, 1900.

Justice has again miscarried. Last August near Wilson Capt. Calvin Barnes was atrociously murdered by a tennant on his farm named Jefferson. The murderer was tried and convicted. On some technicality the Supreme court gave him a new trial, and at the re-hearing of the case in Wilson, last week the jury returned a verdict of not guilty and gave the man his liberty. With the perpetrators of such crimes as this being turned loose on the public no man can feel safe.

We regret to make the statement, but it is a fact patent to all observers, that unless considerable earnest work is done, the majority for the amendment in this section will not be very flattering to the advocates of that measure.—Mt. Olive Advertiser.

Possibly some other sections are in the same conditions, which leads us to say that all should be at work.

A Practical Education at the A. & M. College.

We have received a little hand book of the North Carolina College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts of Raleigh, N. C., and we are glad to see that this Institution is devoting itself zealously to technical education and manual training. Our State needs well educated men in all lines of engineering, especially mechanical and electrical engineering, and also in cotton manufacturing. For the development of our natural resources, we need also thousands of skilled workmen, expert carpenters, woodturners, black-smiths, machinists, mechanics, mill workers, boiler-tenders, electricians and dynamo-tenders. The A. and M. College trains men for such work, and if they possess talent, educates them for all technical professions.

The College last year enrolled 302 students, of whom many paid their own expenses by labor at odd times. Students who do not labor may attend the College at a total expense, including clothing and books, in fact everything, for about $140. This can be reduced one-half by securing free scholarship and obtaining work at the College.

Entrance examinations will be held in the county court-house Saturday, July 28th, at 10 o'clock A. M., in the office of the County Superintendent of Public Instruction. Any boy may obtain a copy of the little hand-book, with full information about the College and the examinations, by applying to President Geo. T. Winston, Raleigh N. C.

The Record Against Cade.

The spectacle of Baylus Cade, otherwise and more familiarly known as Ex-Rev. Decayed Baylus going about the State slandering the church to which he belongs illustrates the trend of Fusionism. No man can become a Fusion politician and hold his job without lending himself to defamation of the State and retailing misrepresentation. But Decayed Baylus always was as Artemus Ward would say "an amosiu' cuss," not to say an original one. He is not content to misrepresent the Amendment and traduce the white people—that's what all Fusion orators do—and Decayed Baylus could not stand to be merely conventional. And so he pitches in and creates a diversion by slandering the Baptist Church. That's his way of getting himself talked about and going to the front as a Fusion leader.

The Baptist Church, led in its educational policy by Dr. Chas. E. Taylor, the learned president of Wake Forest College, has been earnestly and consistently in favor of better public schools. This fact is so well known that no proof is necessary. We could fill this paper with extracts from the speeches and printed articles of its leaders, urging better public schools, but one resolution adopted by the Baptist State convention is enough to thoroughly refute Cade's slander. At the Baptist State convention, which met in Greenville, December 8th-12th, inclusive, 1898, this resolution was adopted:

"Exercising our right of petition, we, the Baptist State convention, respectfully memorialize the Legislature soon to assemble to appropriate every available dollar of public money, however small the amount may be, to the improvement of our public schools, and that the policy of progress in this direction be set up and maintained until the reproach of illiteracy be removed from our State, and until the 600,000 boys and girls whose hope for enlightenment is in the public schools are afforded an opportunity to receive the primary instruction necessary to fit them for the duties of citizenship."

And in the Legislature that followed, it was a Baptist farmer, Moderator of his Association, John B. Holman, who introduced in the House the bill to appropriate $100,000 to the public schools, it was a Baptist lawyer, Senator Stephen McIntyre, who introduced a similar bill in the Senate. This bill passed both Houses without a dissenting vote proving that not only the Baptists but all the legislators of all churches and outside of any church are earnestly in favor of better schools. The next Legislature, led by Governor Aycock, a distinguished Baptist, will take even further steps to improve the public school system until every country neighborhood, as well as every town and village, has an efficient public school.

Mr. Cade ought to make haste to apologize!—Raleigh News and Observer.

An investment of one dollar ten years ago has just netted Speaker Clark of the Nebraska House of Representatives $16,000. Clark bought for the sum the fee simple title to a local hotel, but was at once forcibly ejected by the mortgagee, the Kansas and Texas Trust Company, which four years afterwards foreclosed its lien. Clark sued for rents and profits for the period between ejection and foreclosure. A year ago he got judgment in the Supreme Court for $9,000, but that tribunal on a new trial awards him $16,000.

Would Let Hill Nominate Bryan.

Nebraska Democrats will not concede to California the honor of nominating Mr. Bryan at Kansas City. Mr. Oldham, of Nebraska, who was selected by Mr. Bryan and the State delegation, said tonight that he would give way to but one Democrat in the United States and that Democrat is David B. Hill, of New York, if he would ask for the privilege. Mr. Oldham thought the nomination of Bryan by Hill would emphasize forcibly the perfect nature of the reunion of the Democratic party of the United States, and he would be content with seconding the nomination.

The arrangement now is that when the name of Alabama, the first on the roll of States, is called, that delegation will concede to Nebraska its right to the floor and Oldham will step forward. If New York, however, wants the honor, it can have it for the mere asking.—Lincoln, Neb., Dispatch, 20th.

Quarter of Million.

These are the News and Observer's figures for the appropriation he General Assembly of 1901 ought to make for the Public Schools—not a cent less.

If some other things have to be cut down to accomplish it, we are for cheese-paring.

If new subjects must be found for taxation, let us take a lantern if need be and find them.

If there is property not now paying its fair amount of tax, let the Legislature provide for such increase as is fair and just.

The children in the country, in the villages and in the towns must be given better facilities.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Among the States that will surely cast their electoral vote for the Democratic ticket this year is Indiana. At least that is the opinion of Mayor Taggart, of Indianapolis, who declares that the Hoosiers will roll up a majority of 20,600 for Mr. Bryan. Here are Mayor Taggart's reasons for the faith that is in him. He says: "I'll tell you why Bryan will win. In no other State in the Union was there such universal opposition to the Porto Rico tariff bill, which is one of the mistakes of the McKinley administration. This fact alone will change the complexion of the State, but aside from that the traveling men are for Bryan this year. Four years ago the commercial travelers worked and voted for McKinley. The growth of the trusts and the union of the big interests has reduced the number and the opportunities of the traveling men, and they are 'agin' trusts and the administration which has fostered them. The gas trust has hurt Indiana. Since it was formed many of the gas wells of the State have been shut down and many men thrown out of work. This fact will make thousands of votes for the anti-trust ticket.

"What shall we do with the trusts?" is a question that is bothering the whole country. Here is a solution offered by an exchange: The peanut trust should be roasted; the flour trust sifted to the bottom; the cigar trust smoked out; the plug trust chewed up; the iron trust hammered out thin; the twine trust twisted; the furniture trust carved in twain; the metal trust heated hot; the solder trust melted; the berry trust picked clean; the paper trust ground into pulp; the lamp trust snuffed out; the lumber trust nailed; the bicycle trust pounded; the mule trust buried; the type trust pied; and the pie trust eaten.

The Democratic Plan.

The Democratic plan is.
1. Elect Bryan—He will clean out the negro office-holder from Dan to Beersheba.
2. Shear the negro politicians of their power; leave them nothing to trade on. Take away their trading material; the 9,000 ignorant negroes who they control, and Pritchard will, as a matter of cold-blooded policy, stop swapping post-offices for their favor.—Webster Weekly.

Horses and mules are shod and sometimes oxen, but in Poland they shoe geese. They raise a great many for market, and sometimes drive them long distances. To prevent their feet from getting sore by travelling over the hard roads, they first shoe them by spreading tar upon the ground, driving them through that and then over sand, repeating this until a good thick sole of concrete is formed, which hardens and protects the feet.—Wilmington Star.

Some of the census takers appear to have done their work in a very slovenly way. It is said at Charlotte one of them has stated that he estimated the people in 427 houses by visiting only seventeen of them and that he induced the people in these seventeen houses to tell him about their neighbors.

The only thoroughly satisfied persons in this world are those who expect nothing.

The summer girl's campaign is full of engagements.

It's natural for a man to kick when he has to foot the bill.

The man who keeps a record of all his wife's shopping tours must be a sort of bargain counter.

THE BEST PRESCRIPTION FOR CHILLS and fever is a bottle of Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. It is simply Iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure—no pay. Price 50c.

Best Ever Known.

In a letter which Mrs. T. J. Jarvis writes us from Morehead City, ordering her REFLECTOR sent there, she says that the hotel is infinitely better kept than she has ever known it. In her twenty years experience as a visitor each summer to the Atlantic Hotel, she has never seen it conducted so well as under the management this season. The Scovilles are superb hotel managers.

An Excellent Swing.

By far the handsomest and best lawn swing we have seen is manufactured by the Southern Furniture and Desk Factory, at Bethel, of which Mr. C. H. James is proprietor. This factory makes a specialty of school desks and lawn swings, and as said of the latter they surpass all others. The little folks of THE REFLECTOR household have become the happy possessors of one of the swings and are loud in their praise of it.

Keep Improving.

The John Flanagan Buggy Co. are having water works put in for their shops. The machinery for their grist mill and gin house has been ordered and is expected in a few days.

The gin house will be fitted up with an elevated suction to carry the cotton to the gin. A pair of platform scales will be put in for the use of their patrons. There will be no danger from fire as their entire plant is run by a gasoline engine. Watch the columns of THE REFLECTOR for their advertisement in a day or two.
