STATE NEWS

Happenings in North Carolina.

The Washington District Conference of the M. E. Church, South, will meet at Nashville July 12th.

The Tarboro Southerner says that on Wednesday the body of a Mrs. Coley was found in a creek along the railroad between Battleboro and Whitakers.

Tarboro won the last game of ball with Raleigh in a score of 8 to 5.

"Chow Chow."

Henry Blount gave his "Chow Chow" monologue in the opera house Thursday night, under the auspices of the King's Daughters for the benefit of St. Luke's Home at Raleigh. He was fittingly introduced by Solicitor L. I. Moore. Few men can entertain an audience single handed as well as Mr. Blount. He keeps his hearers intently listening else they might miss something of his bubbling humor or sparkling eloquence. One might infer from the name that his lecture is a treatise on making pickles. That is a name only to indicate its variety, for it is indeed a mixture as great as "chow chow." One minute his audience is convulsed with laughter and the next swayed by eloquence. His closing tribute to woman's devotion was a beautiful word picture that passes description.

Off for Winterville.

Several persons left on the train Thursday evening for Winterville to attend the picnic and barbecue there today, and to hear the speaking of R. B. Glenn. The Osceola Band which makes music for the occasion went through the country early this morning in a band wagon, gaily decorated with bunting and drawn by four horses. A large crowd went from here this morning.

Mr. Glenn will come from Winterville here and speak in the Court House tomorrow evening at 3 o'clock.

Soldiers Reunion.

The Annual Reunion of the old soldiers will be held near Greenville Institute, on Thursday the 26th day of July, 1900. All are earnestly requested to attend. There are but a few of us left and the number grows less every year, so let us all make an effort to meet together while yet we can. All are expected to bring baskets.

JOAB TYSON, Sec.

Reflections of a Bachelor.

Men love women; women only love to love men.

A woman is a very unsatisfactory thing to make love to when she has an idea a fly has gone down her back.

When a man is in love he can't imagine that he could ever love a woman that weighed as much as her mother.

When a woman buys a hat for twenty-five dollar it means that she has paid two dollars for the hat and used up twenty dollars' worth of three or four women's time picking it out.—New York Press.

No, Maude, dear, the policeman's wife is seldom a club woman.

They Stand The Test.

That is what Every Pair of

Dutchess Pants

Is guaranteed to do. Can you imagine a severer test than to tie one leg of a pair of pants to the ceiling and swing a keg of nails weighing 110 pounds to the other leg?—That is the test seen in our window and hundreds of people have looked in wonder.

Dutchess Pants

are built to stand any kind of service and a guarantee goes with every pair—10 cents if a button pulls off or $1 if they rip. Get the best when you buy and be sure you get the Dutchess! None genuine without the name on the button.

FRIDAY, JUNE, 29 1900.

Ex-Governor Jarvis.

The distinguished name which heads this article is a familiar one to every citizen of North Carolina, except perhaps to the younger generation.

His record should be an inspiration to every boy in the State. He began life a plough boy in Tyrell county. He got an education, like a great many brave boys of his age rubbing up with intelligent men in the Confederate army. A crippled arm that he carries shows that he went where the bullets flew. From a cross roads country store he went to the Legislature. From a member he soon rose to be the Speaker of the House. Next we hear him in the Constitutional convention, among the ablest leaders of that body. Next our people knew him as a chosen candidate for Lieutenant Governor on the ticket with Vance in 1876. Then he acted as Governor of this great State for six years and left behind him a record that for economy and wisdom of administration has not been surpassed in the history of the State.

From Governor he was chosen to represent the United States as Minister to Brazil. After four years service he came home, and as he succeeded Vance as Governor, so when the greatest of statesmen died, the Governor appointed him to fill the unexpired term in the United States Senate.

This great man will soon be in Forsyth county to talk to the people on the question of all questions before them today; the question of white supremacy.

Hon. C. B. Aycock when in Winston last week said that he considered Gov. Jarvis the most effective stump speaker in North Carolina.

The farmer boy, the merchant, the laboring man, the lawyer, the soldier, all can have a fellow feeling for this man, and every citizen realizes that he has served his State and Country well.—Winston Sentinel.

Other Peoples Mail.

A new postoffice rule, has just gone into effect imposing a fine of $500 or one year's imprisonment on anyone who, through carelessness or otherwise, takes mail not belonging to them from the office and fails to return it at once. This applies to newspapers as well as letters and other valuable mail. People when taking their mail from the office should examine it before going out of the building; it will take but a moment, and will save a deal of trouble. To say it was the postmaster's fault will cut no figure under this ruling.—Kinston Free Press.

Fortune-Telling.

Few people are aware of the hold which soothsaying, or fortune-telling, has upon our people. We do not allude to the poor ignorant and superstitious devotees of this oldest of all cults, but to the well-to-do and even the so called cultured, the rich and the religious. In every American city there are hundreds of people feeding their dupes with sorry tales, and to our knowledge many stockbrokers, business men and so-called educated men and women habitually consult them about investments and personal affairs. Perhaps, in reference to health of self or others, to length of life, etc., the fortune-tellers make the most of their money.

The phenomenon has been explained as due to the decline of a genuine religious faith, to the growth of materialism in its social and philosophic aspects, but such explanations do not entirely satisfy. So far as it pertains to pathology and physiology it seems to be a part of the great wave of barbaric atavism, due to a large extent to the immense gulf dividing medical science in its most progressive phases from popular comprehension.

The more we advance scientifically the father behind we leave the people, so that we find college graduates and cultivated people addicted to the social vices of such medical superstitions as faith cure and nostrum-mongering. To popularize the truths of physiology and medicine is an important duty of the medical profession.—Philadelphia Medical Journal.

Why There Was No Fight.

Saturday afternoon two citizens who had been partaking too freely of North Carolina corn, got into a dispute in one of the back lots. One of them was sitting in his buggy while the other was near by in the mud. As the argument waxed warm the citizen on the ground used words "calculated and intended to bring on a fight," stepped back and squared himself. This was too much for the man in the buggy and he started for his enemy, but alas! his foot caught and he fell sprawling in the slimy mud—face downward. This was too much for the other belligerent. His sense of humor was touched and breaking into a loud laugh he helped the other man up and both started, locked arms, for the nearest barroom to drink each other's health.—Statesville Landmark.

Love Laughs at Barriers.

Some weeks ago the Lewises and the Jameses, of Pitt, not far from Conetoe, were engaged in a deadly feud, because Jesse James wanted to marry Mr. Lewis' daughter. A brother of the lover was killed and Mr. Lewis, the father, badly wounded.

Death worked no severance. Monday evening the girl, Miss Lewis, was stolen, so the story goes, and was married to Jesse James. Miss Lewis, or rather Mrs. James was not so unwilling after all, and it would now appear that the fatal trouble between the two families was due to parental insistency to veto the longing of a heart.—Tarboro Southern.

The Power of the Press.

There is no better judge of the value of publicity than the advertiser. He pays for it. The successful merchant recognizes the power of the press, and takes advantage of it to influence the public. This great power lies within the reach of all. No man has a monopoly of opportunity.—Philadelphia Record.

Prominent Republican's Position.

The following letter has been received by the chairman of the Democratic State executive committee:

Cummock, Chatham Co., N. C.
 F. M. Simmons, Fsq., Chairman
 Executive Committee:

My Dear Sir:—I beg to say to you that I have carefully considered all that I have heard or read on both sides, and that I am convinced that it will be best for all, both white and colored, rich and poor, to adopt the proposed amendment to the Constitution of North Carolina.

It will bring peace and harmony and good will to all classes of the people.

It will maintain and perpetuate good government.

It will promote good morals.

It will disfranchise no white man unless he wants to be disfranchised.

It will disfranchise no colored man any longer than he can learn to read and write and establish for himself a good character.

It is a lawful and proper construction of the XV Amendment, Laws of the United States, I shall therefore vote for it and for Aycock for Governor.

Yours, truly,
 ALEXANDER McIVER.

June 18, 1900.

Prof. McIver is one of the most intelligent and best known Republicans in the State. He is one of the leading educators of that party and has been given the highest educational honor the party can bestow, the nomination for State Superintendent of Public Instruction so we are informed. The words of such a man ought to have weight with the white men of his party. The number of white Republicans who will vote for the amendment increases day by day.

The Call of the Age.

It is the impracticables, more than the idlers and the dissipated, who are the failures. In Chicago there are 4000, lawyers, and 500 do all the business. In the South especially we need to get away from the idea that a profession is the only respectable occupation for a gentleman. We have too much practical work to be done here for many years to come for the profession to monopolize the brains and energies of Southern youth. We only have begun our industrial advancement. Here is indeed a garden spot, and the future for the youth of this section of country is bright with promise of prosperity if he is only trained to take hold of the task set for him. After all, it is the man of affairs who wields the influence. The age calls for manual training. Let it be taken up.—Nashville American.

One Infant Kills Another.

A very unfortunate occurrence, resulting in the death of a boy, took place near Maple Cypress, Sunday.

Mrs. William Gaskins went to visit Mrs. Thomas White, taking with her her son, about 7 years of age. Mrs. Gaskins has a boy of about the same age. While their mothers were talking the boys went into another room and soon afterwards the report of a pistol was heard. The Gaskins boy was found lying across a bed with a bullet in his head and death resulted from the wound. The boys had gotten hold of the weapon in some way while playing, with the fatal result to one. The pistol was lying on the floor where it had dropped.—New Bern Journal.

Social Philosophy

Some people have a way of doing nothing that makes you mad.

It takes longer to recover from a good time than it does to have it.

An Atchison woman who has one guest refers to her company as a house party.

Fat people no doubt suffer as keenly as lean ones, but somehow it looks funny to see fat people weep.

We imagine that it would be easier to be old-fashioned and have babies, than to belong to women's literary clubs.

The average woman imagines she looks pretty in her night gown with her hair down her back, but she doesn't.

A "particularly fine program" at a meeting of a woman's literary society always reminds us somehow of a girl's "great secret."

An Atchison girl, who imagines she has a proud, imperious manner, would be surprised to know that her friends speak of her as "spitfire."—Atchison Globe.

Congressman John H. Small, of the First district, strongly advocates local taxation for public schools. He is an earnest advocate of educational progress, and agrees with most of the other North Carolina educators in believing this the best means to improve the school and give us longer terms.—Charlotte News.

The cotton growers of Texas have a powerful ally this season in protecting their crops from the ravages of the destructive army worm. Wherever the army worm appears he is being killed by a new variety of worm which varies in length from an inch to an inch and a half, and which is black in color without markings of any kind. The new worm looks like a small caterpillar, and it drives away the army worm without damaging the cotton plant in the least.

A Smile in Each.
A fellow can't even learn to play the drum unless he sticks at it. Just about now the principal of a school becomes a promoter. No man is quite satisfied with an increase in salary unless it means less work. The young man who is learning to waltz must expect to meet with reverses. Many a chap who is regarded as a good story teller at his club fails utterly when he gets home to his wife. Many a chap who is regarded as a good story teller at his club fails utterly when he gets home to his wife. Many a girl who tells a man before they are married that she couldn't live without him, finds that it's practically easy after they have been wedded a few years.

 toga, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. W.
 R. Parker.

Miss Mable Moseley, of Naruna,
 Va., came Thursday to visit at W.
 T. Lipscombe's.

Mrs. J. L. Sugg and children and Mrs. Joe Dixon returned Thursday afternoon from Snow Hill.

Robert Tunstall left Thursday afternoon for Kinston and from there will go to Morehead City.

Hugh Sheppard went to Kinston Thursday evening. He will go to Morehead City before returning home.

Mrs. J. D. Murphy and little daughter Lizzie came Thursday

Notice.

To the citizens of Greenville:
 You are hereby notified that the law in regard to stock running at large in the corporate limits of the town of Greenville will be rigidly enforced without regard to any excuses or circumstances.

Respectfully,
 J. G. MOYE, Mayor.

One More in Jail.

Guilbert Outterbridge was put in jail this morning for knocking another negro in the head with a brick at Winterville Thursday.
 He was given a trial before a Magistrate and bound over to September court. Failing to give a one hundred dollar bond he was put in jail for safe keeping.

Woman Jumps Overboard.

T. H. Tyson who returned Thursday night from Baltimore says that while coming from Baltimore to Norfolk Wednesday night a lady passenger on the boat committed suicide by jumping overboard.
 The boat was running about seventeen miles an hour at the time and they went two miles before it could stop and go back. They flashed the search lights for two hours trying to find the body but never saw anything more of her.

Poor Passenger Train.

For some days past the passenger train on this road has been drawn by an antiquated and dilapidated looking engine. The result is that it is the exception and not the rule when the train makes a trip near the schedule time. Really with the business done on this branch of the Coast Line it certainly should have better equipment in the passenger service. It looks like the company never thinks the cars too old or inferior to run over this way.

We would call your attention to the fact that it is against the ordinances of the town of Greenville for any person to in any way interfere with the fireman or the fire apparatus when they are at a fire, unless you are directed to do so by the Chief of the Fire Department or the Foreman of one of the companies. After fires there are often complaints about persons having been in the way or interfered with the firemen in their duties, and this notice is to guard you against the repetition of such cause of complaint. The fireman have duties that they are under obligations to perform, and any interference with them or their apparatus hinders the performance of such duties.

J. G. MOYE, Mayor.
 A. J. GRIFFIN,
 Chief Fire Department.

Unprecedented Offer.

Everybody knows that the subscription price of The Ladies Home Journal is $1 a year, and the price of the Saturday Evening Post is $2.50 a year, making $3.50 for both. For a limited time you can get them both a year for just $2, a little more than half price. If you are already a subscriber for the Journal you can have the Post for $1. Hand your order to D. J.
 Whichard or J. B. Harding and it will have prompt attention. Take advantage of this offer before it is withdrawn.

Long Cucumber.

Today Mr. A. H. Critcher brought THE REFLECTOR a vegetable that he said was a cucumber.
 If so, it was the longest one we have seen, being over two feet long. It was rough on the surface instead of being smooth like the ordinary cucumber.
