WINTERVILLE RALLY

Tremendous Crowd—Fine Speech
—Big Dinner—Elegant Music.

This head is just a brief touch of the "bill of fare" at Winterville Friday. The writer of the Winterville department has something to say of the occasion, but leaves room for us to say something too.

It seems impossible to even imagine that an occasion of the kind could be conceived and carried out any better than was done by the people of Winterville and community, and it was a great day from beginning to end. The people began arriving early, and they never quit coming until the crowd was swelled to between three and four thousand.

The Osceola Band reached there before 9 o'clock and headed a long cavalcade of red shirts to go out and meet the speaker, Hon. R. B. Glenn. The speaking started at 10 o'clock, the speaker being neatly introduced by John Stokes, and when Bob Glenn faced that great crowd of people, men and women, it was enough to inspire him to his greatest effort. For two hours he spoke and held the crowd like magic. Men applauded and women smiled and waved their handkerchiefs. And well they might, for a finer speech never fell from the lips of a North Carolinian than Bob Glenn uttered at Winterville. His closing appeal to the men to be true to the cause of White Supremacy, and to the women to aid with their interest and with their prayers, and to all to pray that Bob Glenn might be spared and given strength to continue the fight he is making until they and their homes are safe from negro domination, was the grandest to which we ever listened.

At the conclusion J. M. Blow stepped forward and in behalf of the ladies presented a magnificent bouquet to Mr. Glenn. Any who have ever heard Joe Blow know that this was something pretty, in fact it was a gem. Mr. Glenn responded very touchingly.

After this speech dinner was served, and this was excellent and abundant. Some idea of its bounty can be had by the quantity of meats prepared for the occasion. There were 51 barbecued pigs, 1,500 pounds of hams, 5 lambs, 2 kids, 7 turkeys and chickens without number.

During the afternoon the crowd assembled around the stand and listened to the music of the band and to short speeches from L. I. Moore, F. G. James and A. A. Forbes.

The crowd was just delighted with the fine music of the Osceola Band.

Soldiers Reunion.

The Annual Reunion of the old soldiers will be held near Greenville Institute, on Thursday the 26th day of July, 1900. All are earnestly requested to attend. There are but a few of us left and the number grows less every year, so let us all make an effort to meet together while yet we can. All are expected to bring baskets.

SATURDAY JUNE 30, 1900.

A western college has made Mr. Hanna a doctor of laws. Mark has been doctoring laws for a good many years already. Are we to suppose that heretofore he has been only a quack.

Ex-Governor Hill says that he is not a candidate for Vice President. So did Roosevelt. If Hill is the choice of the convention, and there seems good reason to think that he may be, he will do as Roosevelt did and accept.

The British government has spent $200,000,000 in the South African war, has allowed Russia to get the control in Persia for which the two countries have long been contending, and has risked almost incalculable losses in China all to make the fortunes of a few gold speculators and satisfy the national thirst for land. Truly, this is the price that staggers British humanity!

No, of course, there is no alliance nor even understanding between Great Britain and the United States, but American troops are marching and fighting under orders of British officers in China all the same. And the British wonder why Russians do not do the same without complaint. Surely, in view of the brilliancy shown in South Africa by British generals, no one could wish more able leadership than theirs.

Seawell Sues the Seaboard.

H. F. Seawell who was egged by some boys here several weeks ago as he was boarding the Seaboard passenger train has brought suit against the railroad company for damages. The summons was received Monday by Sheriff Suttle and immediately served on Agent Walter Ramseur, of the Seaboard. The summons is returnable to the August term of Moore county Superior Court, the home of Seawell. We understand that the amount required to soothe the lacerated feelings of Mr. Seawell is $50,000. From what can be learned he bases his suit for damages on the ground that being a passenger of the defendant company, and the law recognizing its agent as police officers, he was entitled to protection at their hands. We learn also that Seawell and his friends are trying to connect the local agent, Mr. Ramseur, with the episode as aiding and abetting the boys who threw the eggs. To this Ramseur enters an indignant denial. -Shelby Aurora.

WASHINGTON LETTER

From Our Regular Correspondent. WASHINGTON, D. C., June 29 1900.

Naturally, Mr. McKinley is being harshly criticised for going away from Washington for an indefinite stay just after he has issued orders which commit this government to a participation in the war which the combined European powers are preparing to wage on China. He must have felt that he was doing wrong in going to Canton, where he and Boss Hanna are to fix up his letter of acceptance and other campaign matters, as before leaving he tried to give out the impression that he regarded the trouble in China as about all over, after the Chinese Minister announced the safety of diplomats and other foreigners who were all reported killed in Peking by the European manufacturers of news. But the Chinese minister made another announcement, which made it plain that the trouble is just beginning, and that was that the fight at Taku was started by the demand by the European fleet for the surrender of the Chinese forts, and not by the firing of the forts on the fleet. Europe is going to break China up, and Mr. McKinley is going to help. That is the way things now look.

All the monkey business in the postal service is not monopolized by the Cuban brach, not by a whole lot. There is much gossip in Washington concerning the purchase of time clocks for all free delivery postoffices and expensive typewriters for offices having receipts of $30,000 and over by the Post Office Department, and much of it implies that private individuals have had big "rake offs" out of the purchase money. The odd thing about the time clocks is that they are of the same make as those introduced in the Treasury Department several years ago and which stirred up the indignation of Congressmen to such an extent that they were by vote of Congress ordered taken out. Then it was that the man with the big "pull" got the Post Office authorities to see what a good thing those same time clocks were and to agree to pay the regular retail price, $125 each for them, although about 800 of them were purchased. Letter carriers and other post-office employes have to have their time records made by these clocks, which Congress declared degrading and disgraceful when used in the Treasury Department. They can ask their Congressman to explain the administration code of ethics which makes it right and proper to deal with postal employes of free delivery offices in a manner which Congress declared to be degrading and disgraceful when applied to employes of the Treasury Department.

China isn't the only country in which foreigners are sometimes wrongfully treated, as may be seen by the following experience in Washington, told by himself, of Mr. F. V. Postels, an architect from St. Petersburg, Russia: "I have been traveling in this country quite extensively, studying the architecture of American cities and observing American methods of constructing big buildings. I noticed a building in course of construction, in Washington, where a steam elevator was being used to hoist the brick. I was much interested, as in Russia the builders have the bricks carried aloft by manual labor entirely, and having a camera with me, I accosted a workman and explained that I would like to take some pictures of the building, especially the elevator. Hardly had I adjusted my camera when a big chunk of dirt was thrown at me by one of the laborers. I was somewhat surprised, but brushed my clothes an again adjusted my camera. Then there flew at me a great bunch of moriar, which ruined my hat and came near spoiling my clothes." It is fortunate for the good name of our country that such ill-mannerly treatment of strangers is exceptional with us.

The deeper the public gets into expenditures in Cuba since the occupation of the island by our troops the plainer it becomes that there has been the wildest extravagance in every direction. The latest exposure concerns the military hospital near Havana. $200,000 have been expended on this hospital, all the plans being on the basis of furnishing accommodations for 2,500 patients, while at no one time has it had more than 80. In order to shift some of the responsibility for maintaining this extravagant establishment the military authorities, by a little juggling among themselves, have leased it to the City of Havana, to be used as a general hospital, although everybody familiar with conditions over there knows that the city was already amply supplied with hospitals.

The Republicans are making a foolish fight against the amendment. Their speeches, editorials and circulars are of a sort to infuriate the Democrats. Many of these have been passively for the amendment, if for it at all, but Republican utterances have set the hair on them and made of them workers. By a policy of conservatism, united with close organization of the forces of opposition, the Republicans might have defeated the amendment. But their foolish exhibitions of partisan hate have aroused the ire of the Democrats and turned lukewarmness into zeal. When they wake up to find themselves defeated in August they may know they have done most to defeat themselves - Charlotte Observer.

TOWN MATTERS.

Closing the Year's Business.

The Board of Aldermen for the fiscal year ending June 30th, met Friday afternoon to transact their final business and be ready to turn the administration of the town over to their successors on Monday.

The final account of C. D. Rountree was presented and the Finance Committee reported that they had examined the same and found it correct. This report showed that he had collected from all sources during the year the sum of $7,472.84. The insolvent list returned showed only $93.89, which was very close collecting.

The different committees made reports in their respective departments showing all in good condition.

The special committee appointed at last meeting reported that they had made settlement with the former Chief and Assistant Police.

The Treasurer was instructed not to pay an old order, No. 355 dated March 30th, 1898 in favor of J. W. Perkins for $10, signed by J. W. Perkins, Mayor, and A. L. Jones, Clerk, no record of the issuing of such order or meeting on that date appearing on the record books of the town. This order was recently presented to the Treasurer for payment.

Accounts to the amount of $207.55 were allowed and orders issued therefor.

The Board then adjourned to 9 o'clock Monday morning when they will receive the report of the Treasurer and then turn over to the new Board.

When a man gets tired of his own companionship it's time for him to think of getting married.

Fusion Scheme to Throw Out Amendment.

Chairman Simmons, after a short absence, returned to the city yesterday evening.

Talking to a reporter about the political situation, he said it was evident that the Republicans and their allies, the Pritchard Populists, were making their fight chiefly to capture the Legislature. The most of their work is being done in close counties and Senatorial districts of the west and the white counties of the east. They are paying very little attention to the strong Democratic counties or the black counties. They don't hope to defeat the amendment at the polls, but they are using the amendment to stir up as much prejudice as they can and to mislead the uneducated white voter hoping thereby to strengthen their legislative ticket.

Continuing, Mr. Simmons said he had discovered a well laid plan on the part of the Fusionists to defeat the amendment, even though the people may give it an overwhelmingly majority at the polls. To carry out their plan, however, they will have to secure control of the Legislature. The plan, said Mr. Simmons, is this:

"If they can capture the Legislature, when that body comes to canvass the vote for the amendment, they will have to throw out the entire vote of county after county upon some 'trumped up' charge of fraud or intimidation, until it has thrown out enough votes to overcome the majority for the amendment and then it will be declared that it has been defeated. They will throw out the vote for nearly every county in the Second and Sixth districts that may give a majority for the amendment; and if that is not enough they will throw out until they get enough.

"Of course," said Mr. Simmons, "the plan will not work, because they will never get the Legislature; but that such a plan should have been discussed and agreed upon, as I am reliably informed this one has been by the Fusionists, shows how bitterly reckless and defiant of the will of the people this corrupt combination is." -Raleigh Post.

WINTERVILLE

DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES

WINTERVILLE, N. C., June 30.

Winterville was indeed on a boom yesterday with a picnic and a fair both in one day. The Fair came to C. A. Fair's house after the picnic, about 5 o'clock and is a fair boy.

For several days and even weeks our people have been most deeply interested in our grand rally that took place yesterday. We realized that a crowd would attend, and to arrange dinner and water and have everything for the pleasure and comfort of so many people was no little task and demanded the assistance of all the people of Winterville and as much help from the country as was available.

Yesterday revealed the fact that faithful service and liberal contributing had been going on, and we now look for words to express our gratitude for the untiring efforts of our women and men who toiled in the heat all for the comfort and pleasure of others, but words fail to express our feelings.

Would like to say something about the speech, the band &c. but the editor of THE REFLECTOR and others were present who will no doubt dwell upon this, the most important feature of all.

Perhaps the names of Messrs. Dock Clark and Marion Crawford deserve especial mention as making an extra effort and losing several days soliciting, &c. The cooking force under the management of H. M. Dixon did as faithful work as was ever done and the cooking was pretty near perfect. Mrs. J. D. Cox presiding at the carving tables, conducted that part fluently, and everything was nicely served. W. B. Wingate and Rowan Cooper of the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. were to considerable trouble in arranging for a handy supply of the mineral water, putting up signs, &c. J. Dail, who lettered the signs, B. F. Manning, who has received and distributed funds, and many others should be mentioned, but space forbids.

Although there are several to be especially congratulated on the active part they have taken in working up the picnic and helping to conduct it, perhaps to no one do we owe more than to Dock Clark, who is only a neighborhood man. We love to see a wholehearted man like Mr. Clark go at anything. And by the way he is not to be beaten as a watermelon grower either, as a couple of his friends here will testify.

The only thing to mar the occasion was the rather rough behavior of some of the people at the table, and lots of food was wasted, but as a whole we feel very much gratified that everything went on so smoothly.

GRIFTON ITEMS

GRIFTON, N. C. June 30, 1900.

L. A. Cobb is at Seven Springs on a visit to his wife who is at the Springs for her health.

A large crowd went to Winterville yesterday and they all agree that they heard one of the best political speeches they ever heard.

W. S. Blount and Heber Gaskins went to New Bern Thursday.

Several went to Morehead Friday from here on a Sunday school excursion from Kinston.

The workmen have come back and are progressing very fast on the warehouses.

M. L. Pugh and James Brooks have contracted to build a house on Main street for N. F. Lewis.

Henry T. Knott, of Kinston, passed through enroute to Winterville to hear Glenn Friday.

We had the pleasure of hearing the Osceola Band Friday at Winterville which added much to the pleasure of the day.

A man named Leopard spent an hour trying to change a ten-spot before he happened to think that the leopard cannot change its spots.
