Died.

Saturday night little Frankie Bishop Harris, daughter of Mrs. Mellie M. Harris, died after an illness of two or three months.

She had been confined to her bed for some time and two or three times was at the point of death but got better and her friends were in hopes she would again recover her health, but she grew worse Saturday night and died at 9 o'clock.

The remains were buried Sunday afternoon in Cherry Hill Cemetery. The services were conducted at the grave by Rev. N. M. Watson.

The pall bearers were: Messrs. A. C. Holloman, A. A. Forbes, J. H. Starkey, C. M. Jones, C. L. Wilkerson and J. B. Harding.

The REFLECTOR extends to the bereaved family its sympathy in this hour of their sorrow.

They Stand The Test.

That is what Every Pair of

Dutchess Pants

Is guaranteed to do. Can you imagine a severer test than to tie one leg of a pair of pants to the ceiling and swing a keg of nails weighing 110 pounds to the other leg? That is the test seen in our window and hundreds of people have looked in wonder.

Dutchess Pants

are built to stand any kind of service and a guarantee goes with every pair—10 cents if a button pulls off or $1 if they rip. Get the best when you buy and be sure you get the Dutchess! None genuine without the name on the button.

MONDAY, JULY 2, 1900.

White men of Pitt county, do you know that the registration books of your precinct are now open, and that you cannot vote unless you register? Have you registered? If not, what are you waiting for? Did you see how negroes crowded around the places of registration last Saturday and how eager every negro is to register? Every negro who can is going to register, and you cannot afford to do less. Go, at once and have your name enrolled, then see that there is not a white man in your neighborhood who fails to register. This is not a time when white men can afford to be indifferent.

On Which Side Are You?

The great battle for White Supremacy in North Carolina is becoming hotter every day. The very best men in the State have volunteered their services for the preservation and permanency of Anglo-Saxon domination. They are stumping the State from the seashore to the mountains in the interest of the white men, the white women and the white children of our beloved State.

Who are those people that are working night and day for the Constitutional Amendment which will insure the permanent rule of the white man in North Carolina? Every Democratic editor in the State is working for it; every Democratic lawyer is working for it; almost every preacher in the State is working for it; every teacher is working for it; every banker and business man is working for it. Yea, all these are working for the adoption of the amendment. But they are not all: The fair and noble women—and there are none fairer or nobler in the world—are working and praying that the great measure may be ratified and thus place the government of North Carolina in the hands of their husbands and their fathers, their brothers and their sons, their sweethearts and their kinsmen.

Are there any who are seeking to defeat the amendment, and still continue the ignorant and vicious negro as a factor in North Carolina politics? Yes. And who are they? They are the office-holders, the Radical post-masters, the revenue doodlers, the store-keepers and gaugers, the census enumerators and all these Radical office-seekers who are dependent upon the negro for a little piece of "pie."

Who will win in this great fight? Will it be the Radicals and their negro-loving allies? Or will it be the editors and the lawyers, the preachers and the teachers, and the good women of the State? We leave the answer to you, reader. Which side are you on? Whom will you work with in this great contest? A great responsibility is on your shoulders. Let your conscience and your God guide you and no mistake will be made.—Smithfield Herald.

Do not Forget.

Don't forget the back days of reconstruction and all of the wrongs, abuses and oppressions they brought forth. The white republicans caused them all by aid of the negro vote.

Do not forget that 30,000 of the best class of white citizens were disfranchised. This was done to make certain the triumph of carpet-bagger and scallawaggery. It was awful times for North Carolina.

Do not forget that in a few months the black and tan radical legislatures piled up fully $35,000,000 of debts upon poor bankrupt North Carolina, but recently robbed of all of its bases of credit by the fanatical and false black radical party in the north.

Do not forget the reign of terror under radical Governor Bill Holden when the best citizens were arrested without any warrant of law and were imprisoned under the guard of 300 Tennessee cut throats, some of Jeter Pritchard's folks, under a scamp named Kirk.

Do not forget that a white radical was killed in the court house at Yanceyville, while a democratic convention was being held in the court room above. It was done to fasten suspicion upon the democrats, and it was charged that it was a democratic assassination. Some few years later Holden confessed to three well known prominent Baptist ministers, that it was done by radicals and to make capital for the campaign.

Do not forget the rascally conduct of the fusion gang within the last four years—their corruption, abuses abominable legislation, most vicious election law and general diabolism.

Do not forget the revelations of wrong doing, of waste, extravagance, etc., in the agricultural and penitentiary departments under fusion rule and robberies.

Do not forget the challenge of the scamp Manly that the negro was as good as a white man.

Do not forget the article of this vile wretch slandering the pure, good white women of North Carolina, and then fled northward to save his carcass.

Do not forget the rascally lies of the white fusionists that this work of Manly and his villainous slanders of the white women, was inspired by the white democrats for campaign thunder.

Do not forget that the fellow Holton, radical state chairman, Spencer Blackburn, and incendiary white radical in Western Carolina and Marion Butler all threatened the democrats with personal violence. Blackburn talked of assassination and Marion Butler called loudly and boastfully for blood.

Do not forget 1898, and all the disgraceful events that marked that year in Wilmington, culminating after the election in a collision between the races. The long suffering of the whites for a year or more was sublime, and it is amazing even now that when the collision came that with 2,500 repeating rifles in white men's hands so few negroes "bit the dust." Remember that peace, order, law, safety, prosperity, life itself are involved in the results of the election on the 2nd day of August. A defeated amendment would bring great and evil consequences in its train.—Wilmington Messenger.

Following is a circular letter which has fallen into The Observer's hands. It came from Caldwell county and it is believed that a number of them are being circulated in that county:

Raleigh, N. C., —, 1900.

My Dear Sir: I am billed to speak in your county on Tuesday, July 3rd, at Lenoir. Please advertise this speaking and get every man possible in your neighborhood to go out.

Have you held your county convention yet? If so, have you arranged a co-operative ticket with the Republicans? If not, I suggest that you hold a county convention in Lenoir on Tuesday, July 3rd, the day that I speak there. At this convention I think you should nominate a Populist candidate for the Legislature, and endorse the remainder of the Republican ticket. Then appoint a committee of conference and ask the Republicans in the interest of co-operation to take down their candidate for the Legislature. We are certainly entitled to one man on the ticket and we certainly can put up a man that can poll more votes than Crisp can after having made such a fool of himself.

I will mail you some posters today advertising the speaking. Get all of our people to go to each one of their voting precincts next Saturday and register without fail. I sent you a few days ago a blank form of petition asking you to get it signed by every voter if possible in your township calling upon the Democratic board of elections to give us one judge of election of our own selection and to present this to the board on Monday, July 2nd, when they meet to appoint the judges. Don't fail to attend to this.

Trusting to have the pleasure of seeing you in Lenoir on Tuesday week,

Yours truly,

[Signed] MARION BUTLER.

—Charlotte Observer.

Its Object.

The object of the proposed suffrage amendment is to eliminate the negro from politics in North Carolina, and to prevent a small minority of the whites from joining with the solid mass of negroes in outvoting and controlling the great bulk of white people.

And how can any respectable white man be opposed to this? How can anybody think that North Carolina can be governed better by and with the votes of ignorant negroes than without them? How can a few white men joining with all the negroes give a better government than that given by the great bulk of the best white people? Which is better qualified by birth and training to govern?

If you think North Carolina can be better governed by a few white men joining with all the negroes, then vote against the amendment. But if you think that our old State can be better governed by the great bulk of her true white men, then vote for the amendment!—Chatham Record.

A Negro's View of it.

A negro in conversation with the editor one day this week said: "I tell you, I don't care anything about this amendment, as I think it will be a great deal better for the negro race. So far as I am concerned I am perfectly willing to trust the white people. The negro as a race has never been benefited by voting, and there are a great many of them who don't know what they are voting for, when they do vote." And he told the truth.—Louisburg Times.

South Carolina Negroes Listing Taxes.

It was learned from the tax lists at the court house yesterday that during the day 39 negroes from South Carolina had listed their polls here, claiming Charlotte as their place of residence, and that during the listing period 400 South Carolina negroes had returned their polls, as having moved to Charlotte since the first of the year. All this is, of course, for voting purposes, and all of these "tax-payers" will, of course, be at the polls on election day.—Charlotte Observer.

Hard on Charlotte.

A little girl's testimony was needed in a case at the city hall the other day. The little girl was only 4 years old and it was a question whether or not her testimony could be received. Judge Lewis in a fatherly manner took the little girl in his lap. He inquired who made her and received a correct reply. Then he asked, "Where do good people go when they die?" "To the King" the little one replied. "Where do bad people go," the judge queried. "To Charlotte," was the immediate answer.—Gastonia Gazette.

Cane for Aycock.

While at Winterville Friday Mr. John Dail showed us a walking cane that he is making for Hon. C. B. Aycock, our next Governor, to be presented to him after the election. Besides being a handsome cane, it is very unique and shows skill in its make. The wood is hickory and along at regular intervals are inserted small walnut plugs to represent knots. By every knot is carved a heart indicating that the hearts of the people are with Aycock. The head of the cane is buck horn. Both Mr. Aycock's and Mr. Dail's names are carved on the cane, as well as the date on which the former will be elected Governor.

Diana must have been the original summer girl. She is always pictured with a bow.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Complimentary to Little Miss Ella Wells.

Friday afternoon brought joyful moments to many children of Greenville, as from the hour of four to five o'clock they could be seen in throngs going to the elegant and hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Moye. The occasion was a birthday party given by Mr. and Mrs. Moye in honor of Miss Ella Wells, of Wilson, the attractive little niece of Mrs. Moye. The assembling of so many children together, numbering near seventy-five, mingling their happy voices and glad smiles, presented a scene upon which the eyes of older people might feast and linger in ecstatic delight, recalling bright and precious memories when they too were fondly nurtured in "the simple creed of childhood." It was also impressive when Rev. N. M. Watson stood before them and they became attentive listeners to his appropriate scriptural talk. His remarks were beautiful, and helpful and uplifting to all who heard him. It was interesting to follow the children in their games and plays out upon the lawns, where mirth and joy and frolic were supreme. It was enchanting to view them in separate groups here and there with laughter upon their lips and the merry twinkle or some little mischief in their eyes. It was interesting to behold these gallant lads and graceful lassies—these buds of hope and happiness in so many homes—as they were seated in rows of chairs to partake of the splendid refreshments so nicely prepared for them, and which they enjoyed as children only know how to enjoy. It was not until the declining sun began to touch the western hills and send back his parting glances, did their merry-go-rounds of pleasure cease and reluctant separations lead their footsteps homeward.

This ninth birthday of Miss Wells was a bright one to her sunny soul. With gentle and becoming modesty she acknowledged the homage and admiration paid her. Her bright words and smiles, her sweet, refined manners, and kind greetings to one and all, made the sacred ties of youthful friendship more precious and tender still, which will grow and expand as a fragrant flower in the hearts of her numerous little friends that gathered with her on this delightful occasion. Surely such happy gatherings of children have a stimulating influence upon their innocent hearts and susceptible minds. These budding flowers are strengthened and refreshed by the frequent dews of social intercourse, and the little showers of sunbeams that sprinkle their pathway create in them happier natures, full of genial heartiness, faith and enthusiasm.

The superb manner in which Mrs. Moye prepared and arranged for the reception of such a host of children was specially praised, for it was due to her intelligent management that so much pleasure was crowded into those few hours. That cultured and christian home was a beautiful picture of innocence and sweetness, tenderness and loveliness, as the gay morn of youth and the charming simplicity of childhood made festive the pleasant moments as they swiftly glided by. A bright array of happy beings they were. May they always live under the sweet benedictions of Him, who, we are told, once took such as these in His arms and blessed with His holy love.

June Weather.

Mr. Allen Warren gives THE REFLECTOR the following report of the weather for the month of June:
 Highest temperature (29th) 95.
 Lowest temperature (20th) 53.
 Number rains 7.
 Rainfall (inches) 4.17.
 Number thunder storms 5.
 Crops are fine and in good condition.

Fine Speech.

Hon. R. B. Glenn spoke here Saturday to a large and enthusiastic crowd. Many say that they never heard a better speech in their lives. He spoke for two hours fully discussing the political issues of the day and we feel assured that his speech here won many votes for the Democratic ticket. We only wish every white man in North Carolina could hear Bob Glenn.

Reckless Rider.

Bose Evans, a negro boy, while recklessly riding a bicycle down Dickinson avenue Saturday afternoon, ran over one of Mr. E. C. Williams' little boys and bruised him up some. Mr. E. B. Ficklen saw the negro when he ran over the child and undertook to catch him but the negro was too swift. Leaving his wheel and hat where he ran over the boy, the negro literally "burnt the wind" up the street, Mr. Ficklen and one or two others in pursuit. Finally the boy was stopped near Five Points and put under arrest. He was afterwards turned loose and ordered to appear before the Mayor this afternoon for trial.

The smallpox has been in this State nearly two and a half years. It is much worse now than it was a year ago. For the year ending 1st May, 1900, there were 2,608 cases. It looks as if it would never be stamped out.
