TUESDAY, JULY 3, 1900.

The wharves of the North German Lloyd Steamship company at Hoboken N. J., opposite New York, were destroyed by fire Saturday afternoon. Four ocean steamers and a number of small boats and lighters were destroyed with the wharves and buildings. Many lives were lost. The money loss by the fire is placed above $10,000,000. It was an awful fire, and people were hemmed in between the flames and the water and perished like rats, being unable to escape.

The matter of registration is too important to be treated lightly. The books will be kept open only until the 21st of July, and you cannot register after that day unless you become of age between then and election day. And if you do not register you cannot vote. If you fail to do this you allow the cloud of negro domination to stare you in the face and threaten the welfare of your home and your State. If we fail to carry the Constitutional Amendment it will give North Carolina a set back from which the State will not recover in a quarter of a century—even if within the lifetime of anyone now living. It is a great problem that confronts the people. To win means a victory of enlightenment, progress, peace and safety; while to be defeated means the domination of ignorance, strife, shame and disaster. White men, where do you stand? Go register and your duty.

OUR RALEIGH LETTER

Only Four Weeks Until the Eventful Election Day Arrives.

Special Correspondent of Reflector.

RALEIGH, N. C., July 2, 1900.

Exactly one month from this date the State election takes place—on Thursday (the "first Thursday in August") August 2—and it will be an eventful day for North Carolina, pregnant with possibilities of a bright future of peace and happiness and prosperity for her people or else the setting sun will register a black curse put upon the State for an indefinite period, and than which no demon wishing her harm could conjure up and visit upon us a worse and more damnable one—negro rule.

My friend, is your heart right on this Amendment question? Is the mind of your neighbor fully made up to vote a white ticket four weeks hence, and to thus do his part of the great duty now resting upon the shoulders of every white man who respects himself and loves his wife and children?

You were never called upon to perform an act fraught with more importance to yourself and posterity; you never registered a vow, nor executed a duty that smacked more strongly of the heroic and stamped you a patriotic citizen worthy of your race and those dependent upon you, than the one you should register to-day and execute on the 2nd day of August, by voting to secure yourself, your neighbor, and your children White Supremacy and freedom of the negro domination for all time to come in your beloved old Commonwealth, that now cries out to you to save her from becoming the only negroized State in the Union.

I have too much faith in the courage and manhood and patriotism of North Carolinians—including, with an emphasis the "great white common people," the bone and sinew of the Democratic white man's party in the past—to doubt for a moment what the result will be, if each of them is only convinced of his duty. See your neighbors, all of them, this month, and let's adopt White Supremacy by a majority so large as never to have been equalled in North Carolina's political history.

A POLITICAL PENTECOST

seems to have been started lately, and converts are coming in by the hundreds and thousands—self-respecting white men who, although affiliating heretofore with the Populists and Republican parties, because of some economic or local issue, now see that duty calls upon them to rise superior to party and partisan affiliations when the future well being of their race and the safety of their wives and children are at stake.

MUCH DEPENDS ON LOCAL LEADERS AND WORKERS.

Chairman Simmons, who has worked so assiduously and ceaselessly for his party, and than whom no party ever had a more capable and earnest and determined and successful chairman and leader, is very hopeful of a splendid victory. He has the campaign well in hand and is piloting the old Democratic craft with as steady and as capable a hand as the party could possibly have secured. Indeed, we may count ourselves fortunate that we have such a manager as F. M. Simmons in such a party crisis as this; the white men of North Carolina should be thankful that they could turn to such a magnificent leader at a time when the best brain and courage and experience is needed to cope with the lying and unscrupulous leaders of the opposition.

But Chairman Simmons and the State Committee cannot do it all. A great deal depends upon the county chairmen and county committees; aye, even down to the precinct chairman and workers, for at last their work when faithfully performed is the basis of every victory.

If there is any county or township or precinct in which your paper circulates, where the local leaders have not been as active and as zealous as they should, let me beg of them now to begin to-day to buckle on anew the armor of endeavor and not let the grass grow under their feet for the next four weeks. This is all that is needed now—earnestness, effective work by the local workers. If they do their duty, a magnificent victory awaits us all.

Remember, the Registration books are now open to you and that an entirely new registration is required of every voter, and that if your name is not "written there" when the sun sets on Saturday,

July 21 you will not be able to vote this year.

LOOK OUT FOR YOUR LEGISLATIVE TICKET.

Chairman Simmons, upon returning from a trip on political business last week, stated that he had discovered that the enemies of the Amendment have determined to direct their strongest efforts towards the defeat of the Democratic legislative nominees, and by trading, and every means possible to endeavor to elect a "fusion" majority in the next General Assembly.

Now, the one primary and sole object of this is to enable the "fusionists" to defeat the Amendment after it has been adopted by the people by throwing out large numbers of votes in every county where the legislative schemers can find the shadow of an excuse for so doing.

Guard carefully your legislative ticket, Democrats, and refuse to "trade" a single vote or otherwise imperil the election of your candidates for the Senate and House.

A WORD TO REGISTRARS.

The Democratic managers at headquarters here express the hope that no registrar of election will allow himself to be frightened or intimidated by the silly threats of Lieut.-Gov. Reynolds (whose stock of brains was never any too heavy) and other anti-Amendment schemers, ament the sending of U. S. marshalls to arrest Democratic registrars who refuse to register young negroes under age and others not entitled to vote under the new election law. Chairman Simmons (who is one of the best lawyers) states there is absolutely no law of Congress now on the statute books to permit any such interference by the United States officers, but there is a State law providing for the arrest and punishment of any such officer, or any other person, who interferes with a registrar or poli-holder. Put the first one that troubles you in your county jail!

LLEWXAM.

It is Bound to Come in Every Southern State.

North Carolina is now trying to do what South Carolina did in 1890; that is, to get a clause into the State constitution as will disfranchise the great mass of negro voters while saving the franchise to all whites.

It was an easy task in South Carolina, because the whites in this State are practically all in the Democratic party, and they were confident, therefore, that their political rights would be preserved. But in North Carolina a very large proportion of the whites are in the Republican party or are Populists, who are assistant Republicans there, and these whites, straight Republicans and Populists will vote solidly against the constitution. There is a good deal of doubt, therefore, whether the scheme will succeed now. It is bound to come to this sometime in every Southern State where it has not come already. The whole country tacitly recognizes the necessity of some means of securing white supremacy. Even those Northern sections that not many years ago regarded the negro as peculiarly the ward of the nation and his right to vote one of the most sacred rights guaranteed by the Federal constitution now look upon his disfranchisement with indifference, if not with approval.—Greenville, S. C., News.

Few people have such sensitive olfactory organs that they turn up the noses at filthy lucre.

Tobaccoists interested.

Many tobaccoists are watching the war in China with the deepest interest. If China is thrown open to the world, it will mean a mammoth market for all the tobacco exporting places of the world. Every grade and class of tobacco men will be benefitted to a great measure.

Years ago, though not so very many, Japan was closed to the trading people of the world. Today thousands and thousands of dollars' worth of American tobacco is sold in Japan. A great industry has sprung up. The Japanese have great tobacco factories of their own, and they send their agents here to buy the weed for them. There are something like 400,000,000 people in China. If they had a chance, 100,000,000 of this number would chew tobacco, say tobacco men, and it would be lots better for them than opium, which they do use. Scarcely more than 10,000,000 people in America use tobacco in any form. At this estimate China would be a market for tobacco ten times as large as the whole of America.

Little wonder, then, that tobacco dealers and manufacturers are much concerned about the destiny of the Celestial kingdom. They want every port and every market in China open to all products of the world.—Winston Sentinel.

ORIGINAL OBSERVATIONS.

Made by the Orange Va. Observer.

The world loves the man who laughs. It has no use for the philosopher of pessimism whose face is a funeral.

The world is undoubtedly growing better—in its methods of grasping and holding on to the all powerful dollar.

The fisherman no longer has to prevaricate about his catch—he has found a new subject in the height of the mercury.

A few years ago the Israelites were well contented with a golden calf. Nothing less than an elephant of gold now satisfies the American plutocrat.

THE OLD AND NEW.

Town Administration Changed Monday.

Though the administration of the affairs of the town changed Monday, it being the beginning of a new fiscal year, there was only slight change in the personnel of either the Board of Aldermen or the officers elected by them. The old Board met at 9 o'clock and received financial reports of all the officers except the Treasurer, his report being deferred to Thursday.

The Mayor's report shows the following interesting figures: Number of warrants issued 259, number of cases tried 235, number of warrants not returned 23, number of judgments rendered 235, number of cases dismissed 19, number of cases bound over to Superior court 25, number of cases returned to Magistrate 1, number of whippings administered by parents by order of Mayor 1, amount of fines and costs collected in cash as per police reports $933.40, amount worked out on streets $60.42.

The statement of the Clerk showed that the total amount of claims audited by the Board was $6,885.69.

The Board ordered the complete financial statement of the town for the year published in THE REFLECTOR, which will appear later.

After completing the work in hand Alderman J. L. Wooten stepped forward and in behalf of the Board presented to Mayor J. G. Moye a beautiful bouquet, in appreciation of the efficiency with which he had discharged his duties, and the exceedingly pleasant relations that had existed between the Mayor and the Board. Mayor Moye responded very neatly.

THE REFLECTOR takes pleasure in adding a tribute to the excellency of the administration of Mayor Moye. In all our knowledge of the town Greenville has had no better Mayor than he has made. While he has upheld the law and demanded its respect by all who were brought before him, he has never been harsh on any. Every decision rendered by him has been exactly what he conceived to be right and for the best interest of the community. As presiding officer of the Board of Aldermen he has held the highest esteem of every member of the Board.

The splendid work done by the Board of Aldermen the past year will be shown in the statement when published. We have had a good, careful and conscientious Board.
