HEARD AND SEEN IN WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, N. C., July 11, 1900
J. A. Wilkinson, founder of the Belhaven Lumber Co. and who built the planing mill at Belhaven, has resigned as Superintendent and accepted a position with a lumber concern in Philadelphia. Jordan Wilkinson, who succeeds him in part of his duties passed through here on his way up the road.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Freeman lost their baby girl on Saturday morning; cholera infantum.

Mrs. Sallie Hancock, (nee Wilkinson) of James City, is visiting relatives in this county.

The Alleghany Co. have a new general manager at Belhaven.

"'Twas too hot to go to church" Sunday. Look out, there is a hotter place than Washington in July.

Do town ordinances in Greenville mean anything? We saw two small carts or wagons on second street on Sunday, pulled by negro women, taking ice home, just as services were out, and they were going side by side too, practically monopolizing the sidewalk. Darkies and horses are no rarity on the streets.

The Lillie took down quite a number to Ocracoke Saturday night. She has been hauled out and her bottom cleaned, and her speed is much increased.

Lumber business looks blue.

Kugler Lumber Co. are putting new heads and tubes in one of their boilers.

A good deal of complaint is made about mail matter, letters go astray and are late in coming to hand or do not come at all.

JIM NASTIC.

BLACK JACK ITEMS.

BLACK JACK, N. C., July 9.
Rev. Mr. Hart filled his appointments at this place Saturday night and Sunday.

Jesse Smith and Amos Clark spent Sunday morning at Providence and Sunday afternoon at Washington.

We learn that Julius Whichard, one of the salesmen at H. H. Proctor & Bro's. died of typhoid fever Saturday evening and was buried at White Chapel Cemetery Sunday.

W. L. Clark and Calvin Mills are curing tobacco this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Dixon, from here spent Saturday night and Sunday on Clay Root.

Abram Dixon had the pleasure of being with his best girl Saturday night.

Mrs. L. H. White and little son, Jerry, went to Grimesland today.

Black Jack boys are preparing red shirts for July 19th. They extend an invitation to the Greene county riders.

We are glad to have T. D. Gouch, of Granville, in our midst again. Mr. Gouch will cure tobacco for William Gaskins.

Abram Dixon, Claud Adams, Amos Clark, Jesse Smith and others from here attended the picnic at Providence Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Marshall are the happy parents of a charming little boy.

Amos Clark had the opportunity of being with his best girl Saturday evening.

Scott, the little infant son of J. C. Dixon is quite sick with typhoid fever.

They Stand The Test.

That is what Every Pair of

Dutchess Pants

Is guaranteed to do. Can you imagine a severer test than to tie one leg of a pair of pants to the ceiling and swing a keg of nails weighing 110 pounds to the other leg? That is the test seen in our window and hundreds of people have looked in wonder.

Dutchess Pants

are built to stand any kind of service and a guarantee goes with every pair—10 cents if a button pulls off or $1 if they rip. Get the best when you buy and be sure you get the Dutchess. None genuine without the name on the button.

THURSDAY, JULY 12, 1900.

Here is the truth as to the amendment expressed in a very few words. The Biblical Recorder of Raleigh, says:

We stake our reputation for understanding plain English on it, that the Amendment is designed to disfranchise illiterate colored voters, and that it will not affect the suffrage of any white man. We do not see why there should be any great strife or division about this.

Here is the Negro's Chance.

Honolulu, July, 1, via San Francisco, July, 10.—It is to the colored people of the Southern States that the plantation owners of the Hawaiian islands will turn for relief in the matter of the vexed labor question. John Hind and J. B. Collins, of Kohala plantation, leave today for the Southern States in quest of negro laborers. They have assurance that three or four hundred can be recruited at New Orleans. The plantation will pay their expenses to the country and give them $30 a month. If enough negro labor can be secured, the service of the Japanese will be dispensed with altogether.

To Assassinate McKinley.

New York, July 11.—The World says:

"A plot to assassinate President McKinley has been frustrated. It was concocted by a group of Spanish and Cuban conspirators, with headquarters in New York.

"One of the plotters weakened and sent a warning letter to a member of the Republican National Committee. That letter was placed in the hands of Secretary Charles F. Dick, who referred it to Chairman B. B. Odell, of New York State, for investigation. Chairman Odell engaged a detective, who speedily verified certain important allegations made in the warning letter. Thereupon Mr. Odell reported to Secretary Dick, who laid all the facts before Chairman Mark Hanna.

"Messrs. Dick and Hanna laid the whole matter before the President shortly before he departed for Canton. They instructed Mr. Odell to continue his investigation and cautioned him to work with the utmost secrecy.

"To a world reporter last evening Mr. Odell admitted that he and certain members of the national committee has discovered a plot to assassinate the President.

"Yes, it is true," he said, "but I regret exceedingly that the matter has become public."

He was extremely anxious that no reference whatever should be made to the matter. Special detectives are guarding the President in Canton.

EXPERIENCE OF A CONFEDERATE CHAPLAIN.

1861-1865.

BY REV. A. D. BETTS.

Mar. 30, 1864. Capt. Gales made a fine address in Bro. P's chapel. "Moral teachings of war." Finished Trumbull's "Christ in History." Began "Mercy Seat" by Dr. Spring.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

Casualties on the Rail.

The statistical report of the Inter-State Commerce Commission for the year ending June 30th, 1899, shows that the number of railways in the hands of the receivers on that date was 71, a net decrease of 23, as compared with June 30th, 1898. The number of roads placed in the hands of the receivers during the year was 16, and the number removed from their management was 39.

On June 30th, 1899, the total single track mileage in the United States was 179,284, an increase for the year of 2,898. This increase is greater than for any year since 1893. The aggregate mileage including tracks of all kinds, was 252,364. There were 36,703 locomotives in service at the end of the year, or 469 more than for the year ended June 30, 1898; the total number of cars of all classes in the service was 1,375,916, an increase of 49,842. The number of persons employed on railroads was 928,924, an increase for the year of 54,366. The amount of railway capital outstanding was $11,033,954,898, or a capitalization of $60,556, per mile of line.

The amount of capital stock paying no dividend was $3,285,509,181, or 59.39 per cent. of the total amount of funded debt, excluding equipment trust obligations, which paid no interest was $572,412,746. The number of passengers carried during the year was 532,126,508, an increase for the year of 22,109,826. The number of tons of freight carried was 857,763,583, an increase of 80,757,276. The gross earnings of the roads were $1,313,310,618, an increase over the previous year of $66,294,497. The operating expenses are shown to have been $856,968,999, an increase of $38,995,723. The amount of dividends declared during the year was $111,089,936.

The total number of casualties to persons on account of railway accidents was 51,743. the number of persons killed being 7,123, and the number injured 44,620. The number of passengers killed during the year was 239, an increase of 18, and the number injured 3,442, an increase of 497, or one passenger was killed for every 2,189,023 carried and one injured for every 151,993 carried. Of railway employees 2,210 were killed and 34,923 were injured during the year.—Washington Post.

William, the Restless.

The German Emperor has written a public prayer and conducted a choir. He can cook as well as he can eat. He can play chess, paint pictures or draw caricatures. He has learned engineering and studied electricity. Though he can only use one arm, he can shoot game for four hours at the rate of two a minute. In 25 years he has shot 23,000 head of game. He has over 100 titles and is an admiral in three of the biggest navies. He changes his dress a dozen times a day, has a dozen valets, and a wardrobe worth £100,000. He works every day from 5 a. m. to 7 p. m. He can write a song as well as he can sing it, can manage a yacht as well as he can ride a horse. He can conduct a religious service as well as a bishop. He can command a fleet as well as an army, a ship as well as a regiment. He is King, Emperor, author, musician, dramatist, traveller, choir conductor, sportsman, singer, and there is nothing from rocking a cradle to ruling an empire of which he is not a master. He is the royal jack-of-all-trades, with the pride of an Emperor and the power of a Caesar.—London Young Men.

At Kings Cross Roads.

Wednesday was another big day for the Democratic party of this county.

Fully two thousand people attended the Democratic speaking and picnic at King's Cross Roads. There was plenty of something to eat and everybody had a good time. Hon. Lee S. Overman, Democratic nominee for Elector at Large, who was advertised to speak was unable to get there. Hon. F. A. Woodward, of Wilson, filled his appointment and spoke for nearly two hours on the political issues. He was followed by Mr. G. B. King and short speeches by Messrs. F. G. James and L. I. Moore. A long procession met the Osceola Band, of Greenville, which furnished music for the occasion, and escorted them back to the picnic grounds.

MELTING MASSES.

People Old Sol Takes a Whack At.

Mrs. D. E. House is on the sick list.

W. T. Hunter came Wednesday night from Elm City.

Mrs. W. A. Fleming, of Hassells, is visiting in Greenville.

D. E. Whichard, of Rocky Mount, spent today here.

Mrs. N. S. Fulford left this afternoon for Morehead City.

Mrs. J. C. Lanier and children left this morning for Conetoe.

Fred Woodard of Wilson spent Wednesday night here and left this morning.

W. S. Greer of Baltimore after spending a couple of days here left this morning.

Richard White went to Kinston Wednesday afternoon and returned this morning.

Miss Bruce Sutton of Kinston came this morning to visit at Prof. W. H. Ragsdale's.

Miss Bessie K. Vail, of Baltimore, is visiting Mrs. M. A. Leggett and daughters.

Miss Fannie Moye, of Wilson, came Wednesday night to visit Miss Mary Alice Moye.

Little Miss Susie Perry, of Kinston, came this morning to visit little Miss Willie Ragsdale.

Harding Hughes of Chocowinty came up this morning from Kinston to visit Maj. H. Harding.

G. T. Tyson left this morning for Richmond to take a car load of cattle to sell on the Richmond market.

C. D. Rountree and wife and little Lucile and Ruth Cobb left this afternoon to spend some time at Seven Springs.

E. Victor Cox passed through Greenville this morning on another speaking tour, for the Amendment in Chatham county.

Deputy Sheriff J. S. Mooring left this morning for Goldsboro to take Marrie Burney a colored woman, to the Insane Asylum.

Henry Gilliam of the law firm of Gilliam & Gilliam, of Tarboro, spent Wednesday night in Greenville and left this morning.

Mrs. G. E. Harris and little daughter Nina and Mrs. Henrieta Williams left on the freight train this afternoon for Seven Springs.

Ease Ball.

Wednesday's game of ball between Tarboro and Durham, at the latter place, was quite an interesting as well as exciting one. There was not a score made in the game until the latter part of the 9th inning when Tarboro run in a man, making the score 1 to 0 in their favor.

Stole a Wheel.

Mr. Alfred Forbes' children have been in the habit of leaving their bicycles on the sidewalk in front of the residence during the day so as to have the wheels convenient for use. A few days ago a wheel belonging to one of his daughters was taken away, and the person who took it has not been thoughtful enough to return it to the owner.

Fire in Carolina.

Mr. J. H. Woolard, of Carolina township lost his barn by fire Wednesday morning about 9 o'clock. There was no one at the house at the time, all were down in the field working in the tobacco. Mr. Woolard saved his plows, carts and other utensils but lost about twenty five barrels of corn and some fodder. It has only been a very short time since he lost his residence by fire. Mr. Woolard does not know how the fire originated which burned the barn.

It's often the ante that necessitates a visit to the uncle.

Bryan Will Be Stronger in the East This Year.

The American people like to have their own way, but they like still better to see a man who is not afraid of them. They can follow a leader, however much they may disagree from him, who, when he sees "a plain duty," or lays down a "code of morality," will hold to either even against a world in arms. It is certain, therefore, that at least some of the influences which have swayed the caucuses and conventions of the Democratic party will be felt in the campaign and at the polls.

No one can doubt that Mr. Bryan has an opportunity to make a more formidable campaign, here in these Eastern States at any rate, than in 1896, when his personality was unknown and grossly misconceived, and when even his patriotism was challenged. Moreover, the people of this section understand now that he embodies more than one issue, and is the foremost champion of certain principles which lie at the foundation of our republican democracy, and which appeal to all Americans alike, regardless of geographical lines.—Boston Globe.
