NORTH CAROLINA PRESS CONVENTION

The next annual meeting of the North Carolina Press Association will be held at Hendersonville, Wednesday and Thursday, August 22 and 23.

The meeting promises to be one of the most largely attended and interesting ever held by the Association. Those of our members who have not yet decided about are urged to come and be with us. The meetings are highly beneficial from a business point of view, and the social intercourse and exchange of experiences make the annual meetings occasions which no editor should miss.

If you are not already a member, send for blank application. Initiation fee is only $2.00, which includes first year's dues.

President Whichard has appointed the following essayists for the meeting:

"The Press—Its Obligation as a Moral Instructor," Mr. E. E. Hilliard, of the Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

"The Press and the Pulpit—Co-Laborers," Dr. T. N. Ivey, of the Raleigh Christian Advocate.

"The Press—Its Duty to Itself," Col. W. S. Pearson, of the Morganton Herald.

"The Reciprocal Obligations of Editor and Educator," Maj. E. J. Hale, of the Fayetteville Observer.

"The Ideal Newspaper—How to Conduct It," Mr. J. P. Caldwell, of the Charlotte Observer.

Rev. J. C. Troy, of Trojan's Notion, by request, will read a paper on "From What Source Comes the Editor's Power?"

I am arranging a trip to Niagara Falls for our members and their wives, or one member of the family. The only cost for railroad fare for the entire trip will be $5.00 from Washington to New York and return over the Pennsylvania R. R. This is a half rate. The New York Central will give us tickets from New York to Niagara Falls and return in exchange for advertising. I will give you detailed information in regard to this trip in my next circular.

We will use one or more special sleeping-cars from some point in this State to Jersey City on the Niagara Falls trip. The Pullman people give us a half rate.

How to Keep Cool and Well.

Don't eat much meat.

Don't fret about the weather.

Don't walk square after square looking for thermometers to see how hot is in the boiling sun.

Don't think about the heat.

Don't worry.

Don't drink impure or sour milk.

Don't experiment with mixed drinks that are calculated to upset your stomach.

Don't indulge in alcoholic drinks. Drink plenty of lemonade, iced tea and the like.

Don't wear heavy clothing, especially woollens.

Don't neglect to bathe freely. A cold bath every morning is the best thing to do.

Don't overwork yourself.

Don't walk in the sun, and don't walk too lively on an oppressive hot day.

Don't let your temper get the better of you and overturn your system.

Don't allow yourself to become excited.

Don't drink too much ice water in the heat of the day.

Don't exasperate your neighbor by asking: "Is it hot enough for you?"

Don't run for a street car as though it were the only car on the line.

Don't sit in a heavy draught to cool off while your body is full of perspiration.—Health Commissioner Bosley in New York Journal.

They Stand The Test.

That is what Every Pair of

Dutchess Pants

Is guaranteed to do. Can you imagine a severer test than to tie one leg of a pair of pants to the ceiling and swing a keg of nails weighing 110 pounds to the other leg? That is the test seen in our window and hundreds of people have looked in wonder.

Dutchess Pants

are built to stand any kind of service and a guarantee goes with every pair—10 cents if a button pulls off or $1 if they rip. Get the best when you buy and be sure you get the Dutchess. None genuine without the name on the button.

SATURDAY JULY 21, 1900.

China wasn't represented at the Hague peace conference. Next time the western powers will know better than to leave her out.

You do not have to wonder how the negroes are going to vote. They all go solidly together against the Democrats, against the Amendment, and against the best interest of everybody. Can the white people afford to divide and part of them go with the negroes.

Now that the registration is over let the remaining days before the election be spent in inducing men to go to the polls on August 2nd and vote for the whole Democratic ticket and for the Constitutional Amendment. Do not overlook that State, county and township officers are to be elected.

It is curious that Spain should have controlled the Philippines measurably peaceably with a force never greater than 20,000 men while the United States has had 65,000 there for two years or so and cannot spare ten thousand of them to go to China. General McArthur even protests against withdrawing 5,000.

The negroes in upper Nash are notifying their employers that they will not work for them after the 2nd day of August if they—the employers—vote for the amendment. Good Lord, hasn't it come to a fine pass when negroes dare attempt to dictate to white men how they must vote? This shows the need of the amendment more than anything we have yet heard of.—Rocky Mount Argonaut.

One of the most conspicuous advertisements in a negro paper published in Washington is Hartonia, a decoction that is guaranteed not only to straighten out the most stubborn kinky hair, but to bleach the dark skin white, not in spots but all over, and make the user smell like a basket of fresh cut roses in May time. It is haying a run. The scent killer is put up in powder form. Marion Butler, Jeter Pritchard, & Co., ought to buy a big box of that.—Wilmington Star.

The Kentucky Legislature didn't propose to take any chances when it passed a law declaring it "unlawful for any person to discharge at random any deadly weapon whether said weapon be loaded or unloaded." It is frequently the case that the "unloaded" weapon does the harm.—Wilmington Star

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 20 1900.

Mr. McKinley is again performing his specialty—the wobbling act. He heard the criticism of the country of his absence from his post and rushed back to Washington, everybody supposed to do something. There has been Cabinet meetings and Cabinet dinners but that is all. Nothing has been done that had not been decided upon before Mr. McKinley pulled himself away from the enticing rockers on that Canton porch. Although it is the general opinion in Washington that Congress should be called in extra session to handle this Chinese business, Mr. McKinley and his advisers decided that no extra session should be called until the urgency became more pressing. Because the allied forces in China have won a temporary success, at an awful cost of life, including many Americans, and the Chinese have sent a message saying that the foreign ministers in Peking are alive, which, by the way, isn't believed by anybody outside of members of the administration, Mr. McKinley will wobble awhile longer.

The plain truth is that Mr. McKinley is afraid to do anything until he gets a plainer tip on what public sentiment wants this government to do. Men interested in syndicates which have big concessions in China are urging him to send a big army to China so that he can be in a position to prevent the breaking up of the Chinese empire, which would mean the end of their concessions, while republican politicians are cautioning him to feel his way carefully because a mistake will make his defeat for re-election more certain than it now apparently is. He can't get more men in the army without authority from Congress, and he is afraid to take any more men from Gen. McArthur, who has already been made to send men from the Philippines against his vigorous protest. Consequently, unless there is an extra session of Congress the total American force in China will not exceed 12,000, and several thousand of them cannot be got there before the first of September, no matter how badly they may be needed. Meanwhile, Mr. McKinley has gone back to Canton to wobble at leisure until public opinion shows him what to do.

The Chinese Minister in Washington is about as slick as the slickest of his race and he seems able to make Secretary Hay accept any old story that he chooses to tell him. His latest, which Mr. Hay thought important enough to repeat at a Cabinet meeting, is that the reason the foreign ministers in Peking have not communicated with their governments is that they are hid in the houses of Chinese friends and are afraid that any attempt to send messages would put the mob on to their hiding places. The Chinese Minister's success in stuffing the members of the administration may encourage him to remain in this country and go in the gold trick business if his government gets knocked out at home.

The wires have been kept hot getting word to such republicans as Representative Hull, of Iowa, Chairman of the House Military Committee, who has been publicly advocating the calling of an extra session of Congress, to take the other tack and fall in behind Mr. McKinley, in opposition to an extra session.

Communications received by the Chinese Minister indicate considerable alarm among the Chinese residents of our large cities. They fear that Americans will try to avenge the murder of Americans in China by massacring them. It is, of course, a groundless fear.

The Concord Tribune says that after the amendment is adopted "an educational campaign will be begun, and there will be no compromise until the man who makes illiteracy figures will be out of a job, at least as far as North Carolina is concerned." We have taken occasion to say, several times, that the best result of the adoption of the amendment will be that it will stimulate the cause of education. There is no purpose anywhere in the Democratic party to conceal or minimize the fact that the amendment provides that no person now thirteen years old shall vote, upon attaining his majority, unless he is able to read and write. The amendment does not disqualify any white man who is now a voter or whose father or grand father was a voter, whether he can read and write or not; but it does call for the educational qualification upon those who become of age after 1908. It is a sorry white man who, however ignorant he may be himself, will confess that in nine years he cannot prepare his boy to read and write, for the public schools will be open and the child can acquire this knowledge without money and without price. There are few white men as sorry as this, and there will be few white boys, now thirteen years old, who cannot stand the slight educational test when they are 21.

The amendment is the greatest educational stimulus ever proposed in North Carolina. The Democrats will provide the free schools and the children will do the rest.—Charlotte Observer.

Some Pew "Don't's.

Don't forget to pray often for your pastor.

Don't think that a word of commendation and a hearty "God bless you" will make your pastor vain.

Don't scatter all your roses during the first month of his pastorate, and don't keep them all until the pastor dies or resigns.

Don't forget that your pastor has been chosen by you, under divine guidance, to be your church leader; and that as pastor he should know the conditions of each department of the work.

Don't carry to your pastor personal difficulties which you ought to settle yourselves; and don't burden him with questions which God only can answer.

Don't forget that your pastor is a man—a real flesh and blood man—with feelings as tender and rights as sacred as the rest of humanity.

Don't tire your pastor by telling him of the faults of his predecessors, and in the words of a good Scotch divine, "Don't sweeten your pastor's tea with praises of his predecessors."

Don't reply to every suggestion your pastor may make: "It has been our custom to do differently."

Don't say too frequently: "When I was at Perfection street church, we used to do it in that way."

Don't make other engagements thoughtlessly for prayer-meeting evenings.

Don't forsake your church prayer meetings; and don't sit in the back seat and look solemn, and then go out and say, "What a dull meeting we had!"

Don't leave your own service Sunday morning to attend some other church, and in the evening tell about what a "beautiful service you had."

The many friends of Mr. Mebane, Superintendent of Education, will be pleased to learn that he has been elected to the presidency of Catawba College. It is better for him, if not for the state, than if he had been nominated for his present position by the Democrats.—Durham Herald.

SIMMERINGS.

Items Melted Down Too Small for a Head.

Indellible Ink at Reflector Book Store.

Try Peach Blow at Wooten's Drug Store.

Melons were plentiful today, and some of them were fine.

What is Peach Blow? ask at Wooten's Drug Store.

Weekly and monthly time books at Reflector Book Store.

WHAT TO EAT.—On Ice Best Butter and Cheese at S. M. Schultz.

There are now 21 prisoners confined in the county jail, of which two are white men.

Blue paper and white ink, the latest thing in stylish correspondence, at Reflector Book Store.

Crops are suffering terribly for rain, and folks are suffering almost as bad from the heat and dust.

If you want nice work leave your next bundle of laundry with Hugh Sheppard. Terms strictly cash.

A special lot of 5 and 10 cent tablets at Reflector Book Store that can't be equalled for the price.

Hon: D. H. McLean, one of the Democratic Electors at Large, will speak at Farmville on next Friday, 28th.

The members of the military company met in the Court House Friday evening to take lessons in squad drilling.

Mr. H. A. Wolfsohn, of Atlanta, will sing in the Baptist church tomorrow. Our people always appreciate an opportunity to hear him.

The railroad will sell round trip tickets from Greenville to Grindool next Friday, on account of the Democratic barbecue and picnic, at 45 cents.

We did not get the local rains today that the weather bureau promised. Probably he saw the black cloud the black and tan assemblage would make here today and thought it meant rain.

Cy. Thompson was here today to try and infuse a little enthusiasm in the already defeated black and tan crowd. They made up a ticket for the Democrats to beat, but we cannot give particulars in this issue.

Public Speaking.

Hon. W. A. Guthrie will speak at Johnson's Mills on Tuesday, July 24th.

Dr. B. F. Dixon, Democratic candidate for State Auditor will speak at Bethel on Monday night, July 23rd, and at Mays Chapel Tuesday afternoon, 24th.

Died.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Bailey died early this morning. The funeral will take place from the house this evening at a quarter past seven. As the pastor of the Presbyterian church is sick the services will be conducted by Rev. N. M. Watson. Friends of the family invited.

Lost One of His Crowd.

Henry Williams, a negro man, came to Greenville this morning to hear Cy Thompson speak this afternoon. But the negro had not been in town an hour before the Deputy Sheriff had him looking through the bars. The negro was tried and taxed with the cost in a case at the January term of court and the Judge let him off provided he would pay the cost by April court. The negro failed to show up at the appointed time, and this morning is the first time he has made his appearance, and failing to pay the cost this morning he was lodged in jail. He very likely will hear Mr. Thompson's speech but it will be from behind the bars.

It doesn't take an athlete this kind of weather to realize the significance of a dead heat.

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., July 21.

Efforts are being made to get a good supply of water before starting the new school building, as good water is the most important item.

Our Dixie Havana Cheroots are hustlers and are being established as one of the leading brands on the market.

WINTERVILLE CIG. CO.

Don't forget if you want a home, that A. G. Cox has lots in, and small farms near, Winterville for sale on very reasonable terms.

Every train brings us grain of some kind to grind. We are in position to give you the best of flour from your wheat and this fall bids fair to be a very busy season for us in this line.

A. G. Cox, MFG Co.

Miss Beulah Brady, of Baltimore, arrived Wednesday evening, and will spend remainder of the summer at this place with her sister, Mrs. C. A. Fair.

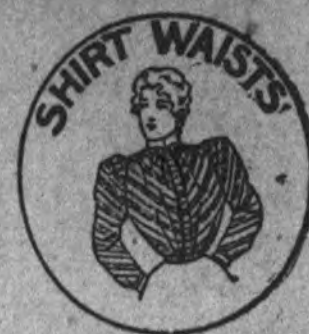

Correspondence is being carried on with several teachers in order to secure the best principal and assistants for our high school to open this fall.

Mrs. Laura Haddock is visiting the Misses Wesson for several days.

A lot of very pretty furniture has just been received by B. F. Manning & Co.

A number of our people attended the picnic at Black Jack, and reported a big time.

QUALITY VS. QUANTITY.—Some people want as much in quantity for a dollar as they can possibly get, and for that reason think that a buggy should be all flowered up. Our motto is plain, neat work, with all the extra work for quality.
