ORIGINAL OBSERVATIONS

Made by the Orange Va. Observer.

The Republican keynote in this campaign is the treasury note.

The religion that makes a man pray briefly and give bountifully is all right.

The devil is kinder than some people—he always gives his friends a warm reception.

With love at the helm what is to prevent a courtship from swiftly sailing on the matrimonial sea?

It seems that all the nations of the earth are going to do their washing in China. But will the Chinese submit to being smothered with the dirty linen of the world?

In the sanctorum of every man's heart there is an ideal image—the fair face of a winsome woman who at sometime has thrilled his soul with the sweetness of her smile and made his life luminous with the seraphic light of her eyes.

We approve most heartily of the movement to make the "shirt waist" as fashionable for men as it is for women. Man has had the shirt waist for years, but convention has declared that he must cover it with a coat. Why? Without suspenders, and with a neat belt, he is quite as presentable as when he swelters beneath a coat. Why should he not be as comfortable as he can? By all means let us have the coatless negligee attire for men in hot weather. Who will set the fashion for those who are so bound to custom as to need a model to induce men to secure comfort? The coatless negligee shirt is an important issue of the summer campaign.—Orange, Va. Observer.

Ashamed To Tell Mother.

Such was a boy's reply to his playmates who were trying to tempt him to do something wrong.

"But you needn't tell her; no one will know anything about it."

"I would know all about it myself, and I'd feel very mean if I couldn't tell my mother."

"It's a pity you wasn't a girl. The idea of a boy running and telling his mother every little thing!"

"You may laugh if you want to," said the noble boy, "but I've made up my mind never, so long as I live, to do anything I would be ashamed to tell my mother."

What a Sigh Means.

Sighing is but another name for oxygen starvation. The cause of sighing is most frequently worry. An interval of several seconds often follows moments of mental quietude, during which time the chest walls remain rigid until the imperious demand is made for oxygen, thus causing the deep inhalation. It is the expiration following the inspiration that is properly termed the sigh, and this sigh is simply an effort of the organism to obtain the necessary supply of oxygen. The remedy is to cease worrying. One may be anxious, but there is no rational reason for worrying. A little philosophy will banish worry at once. Worry will do no good; it will rob one of pleasures when blessings do come, as one will not be in a condition to enjoy them.—August Ladies' Home Journal.

OTHERS AIDED.

It Was a North Side Rally.

In writing about the Democratic barbecue at Grindool last Friday we were in error in giving the entire credit to Bethel township. We have learned since that Carolina township aided very largely towards the success of the occasion both in the eatables and in crowd. Pactolus township also contributed and aided liberally. In fact it was almost a north side of the river rally and this is why it was held at a central point like Grindool.

There are no better Democrats to be found in the world than those of these townships who got up this barbecue and we are sure they must feel now that they have done their part in rolling up the 1,000 majority which Pitt will give on next Thursday for the Democratic ticket.

We cannot refrain also from saying that D. C. Moore, Clerk of Superior Court, a former citizen of this section, took great interest in the success of the day and aided largely both in time and means these staunch Democrats of his former home.

Attention Masons

A special communication of Greenville Lodge No. 284 A. F. & A. M. will be held tonight, for work in the second degree.

R. L. CARR, W. M.

Watch Your Tickets

When you go to vote Thursday be careful about your tickets. See that you have six different tickets and that all are right. One ticket must contain the State officers, one the Judges, one the county officers, one the Legislative officers, one the township officers and one the Constitutional Amendment.

Marriage License.

Register of Deeds T. R. Moore issued only two marriage licenses last week, one for whites and one for colored.

WHITE.

W. S. Galloway and Ella M. Proctor.

COLORED.

John Bradley and Almata Brown.

Mayor's Court.

Mayor pro tem, W. R. Parker disposed of three cases during last week as follows:

E. W. Pace, affray, guilty, fined $2.50 and cost, amounting to $5.05.

Nora Telfair and Charlie Bell, disorderly conduct and affray, both guilty. Bell fined one penny and cost, Telfair $1 and cost, amounting to $4.56.

James Evans, colored, intoxicated, guilty, fined one dollar and cost, amounting to $2.26.

Ex-Pen Bird.

James Bell, an escaped penitentiary convict, was up before W. R. Parker, Mayor pro tem, this morning. Bell was found asleep on the street Sunday morning and when the police attempted to arrest him, resisted the officer, who was forced to knock him down with his fist. He was put in the guard house and when searched by the assistant police, had on his person a pistol and two knives. He was fined one dollar and cost.

MONDAY, JULY 30, 1900.

The anxiety will all be over soon and white supremacy will be forever secured for North Carolina. Every white man do his duty.

Don't any white man think that the majority for the Democratic ticket and the Amendment is going to be so large that there is no need of his going to vote. Let every man be on hand to vote just like everything depended upon his individual ballot. Overconfidence is sometimes costly.

A Great Wrong to the Negro Race.

One of the greatest wrongs that has ever been done the colored man was giving him the ballot before he knew what to do with it. This fact is now generally acknowledged by thinking people both North and South. It has alienated the races as nothing else would. It has perverted the aspirations of the negro and made him a tool, a foot ball, for politicians to ride into office, and engendered the peace and prosperity of the whole South. Many of the most successful colored men, those who have accumulated property, and most highly respected by the white people are free to admit that the ballot in the hands of the ignorant negro man has worked great injury to the whole race; and they express the hope that the right of suffrage may be abridged. After the adoption of the amendment to be voted upon in August the colored man will endeavor to educate his children; and the education will soon be along different lines. The youth of this misguided race will no longer be educated with the express purpose of holding office. That the amendment will be adopted there is no longer any doubt.—Roanoke-Chowan Times.

In the last years of his life Senator Vance, unable to enter the campaign, counseled his people to some extent through the press, and on one occasion told them that being away from the smoke of the conflict, he was in a position to see the whole situation clearly. This appears to be the condition of the Virginia newspapers, they are just far enough to get an unobstructed view of the white man's burden in North Carolina and have written some exceedingly clear and perfectly fair editorials on our fight. The white people of the State owe them gratitude for the help they have extended. When a big majority for the amendment is announced next Thursday night there will be those who will applaud louder than these good friends across the line.—Charlotte Observer.

"Mean Things People Do."

For a country man to mix nest eggs in with fresh ones and sell them for fresh eggs is mean.

For a country man to buy stale mellons and peddle them out to the city people for Mecklenburg county mellons is mean.

For a country man to place nice fruit on top while underneath is worm eaten and rotten fruit is mean.

But for business houses or residences to make a daily practice of using their next door neighbor's phone rather than take a phone and then complain of the service is mean.

But for a man to use a toll line who has no phone himself and try to get it charged to the firm whose phone he used is meaner than the politician who changes every season for revenue.

But the fellow that is too stingy to feed his children—hires them to go to bed without supper and steals the amount before breakfast is as mean as the man who will borrow an evening paper before he will subscribe for one.—Charlotte News.

What the Amendment is.

The Wilmington Star in a few sentences tells what the amendment is:

A peace preserver
 A ballot box protector
 A purifier of elections
 A promoter of quiet elections
 A fairer test of the sense of the people

A remover of the venal element from politics

A remover of the trifling and worthless element

A remover of the friction between the races

A remover of the incompetent element

A preventer of fraudulent registration

A preventer of perjury

A preventer of the importation of voters

A preventer of mob gatherings in campaigns

A preventer of strife and disturbances on election days

An eliminator not only of the mob element from politics, but also of the unscrupulous, mercenary and incendiary leaders of the mob, who being without material to work upon will be without a vocation.

It will prevent corrupt bargaining by self-seeking leaders, who will be deprived of the ignorant material to trade upon.

The school board was in session last evening for the purpose of electing the additional teacher whom they decided at a previous meeting to engage. They heard the results of the examination held by the superintendent, and selected the applicant who made the highest average. She is Miss Ophelia D. Howell, of Goldsboro. Miss Howell was prepared for the work at the State Normal College and has had three years experience in teaching, being especially well qualified in languages, science and music. The principal will be elected at an early meeting.—Washington Messenger, 26th.

The campaign in North Carolina is not one of party against party, but the fight is white man versus black man. The white man who believes he is superior to the negro will stand by his race. White men of all parties in every section of the State are standing by their race and will support the amendment, regardless of party affiliations. This is the wise thing to do. The elimination of the negro from politics means the betterment of the State morally, financially, politically and educationally.—Kinston Free Press.

THE AMENDMENT.

Full Text of the Measure as Amended.

An Act Supplemental to an Act Entitled "An Act to Amend the Constitution of North Carolina," ratified February 21st, 1899, the same being Chapter Two Hundred and Eighteen of the Public Law of 1899.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. That Chapter 218, Public Laws of 1899, entitled "An Act to amend the Constitution of North Carolina," be amended so as to make said act read as follows: "That article 6 of the Constitution of North Carolina be, and the same is hereby abrogated, and in lieu thereof shall be substituted the following article of said Constitution as an entire and indivisible plan of suffrage:"

ARTICLE VI.

SUFFRAGE AND ELIGIBILITY TO OFFICE.

Section 1. Every male person born in the United States, and every male person who has been naturalized, twenty-one years of age, and possessing the qualifications set out in this article, shall be entitled to vote at any election by the people in the State, except as herein otherwise provided.

Sec. 2. He shall have resided in the State of North Carolina for two years, in the county six months, and in the precinct, ward or other election district in which he offers to vote, four months next preceding the election; Provided, That removal from one precinct, ward or other election district to another in the same county, shall not operate to deprive any person of the right to vote in the precinct, ward or other election district from which he has removed, until four months after such removal. No person who has been convicted, or who has confessed his guilt in open court upon indictment of any crime the punishment of which is, or may hereafter be, imprisonment in the State prison, shall be permitted to vote, unless the said person shall be first restored to citizenship in the manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 3. Every person offering to vote shall be at the time a legally registered voter as herein prescribed and in the manner hereinafter provided by law, and the General Assembly of North Carolina shall enact general registration laws to carry into effect the provisions of this article.

Sec. 4. Every person presenting himself for registration shall be able to read and write any section of the constitution in the English language; and, before he shall be entitled to vote, he shall have paid on or before the first day of May, of the year in which he proposes to vote, his poll tax for the previous year as prescribed by Article 5, Section 1, of the Constitution. But no male person, who was, on January 1st 1867 or at any time prior thereto, entitled to vote under the laws of any State in the United States wherein he then resided, and no lineal descendant of any such person shall be denied the right to register and vote at any election in this State by reason of his failure to possess the educational qualification herein described: Provided, he shall have registered in accordance with the terms of this section prior to December 1, 1908.

The General Assembly shall provide for the registration of all persons entitled to vote without the educational qualifications herein prescribed, and shall, on or before November 1st, 1908, provide for the making of a permanent record of such registration, and all persons so registered, shall forever thereafter have the right to vote in all elections by the people in this State, unless disqualified under Section 2 of this article: Provided, such person shall have paid his poll tax as above required.

Sec. 5. That this Amendment to the Constitution is presented and adopted as one indivisible plan for the regulation of the suffrage, with the intent and purpose to so connect the different parts, and to make them so dependent upon each other, that the whole shall stand or fall together.

Sec. 6. All elections by the people shall be by ballot, and all elections by the General Assembly shall be viva voce.

Sec. 7. Every voter in North Carolina, except as in this article disqualified, shall be eligible to office, but before entering upon the duties of the office he shall take and subscribe the following oath: "I, _____, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and maintain the constitution and laws of the United States, and the constitution and laws of North Carolina not inconsistent therewith, and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of my office as _____ So help me, God."

Sec. 8. The following classes of persons shall be disqualified for office: First, all persons who shall deny the being of Almighty God; Second, all persons who shall have been convicted or confessed their guilt on indictment pending, and whether sentenced or not, under judgment suspended, of any treason or felony, or any other crime for which the punishment may be imprisonment in the penitentiary, since becoming citizens of the United States, or corruption and malpractice in office, unless such person shall be restored to the rights of citizenship in a manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 9. That this amendment to the Constitution, shall go into effect on the first day of July, 1902, if a majority of the votes cast at the next general election shall be cast in favor of this suffrage amendment.

Sec. II. This amendment to the Constitution shall be submitted at the next general election to the qualified voters of the State, in the same manner and under the same rules and regulations as is provided in the law regulating general elections in this State, and at said elections those persons desiring to vote for such amendment shall cast a written or printed ballot with the words: "For Suffrage Amendment" thereon; and those with a contrary opinion shall cast a written or printed ballot with the words "Against Suffrage Amendment" thereon.

Sec. III. The votes cast at said election shall be counted, compared, returned and canvassed, and the result announced and declared under the same rules and regulations, and in the same manner as the vote for Governor, and if a majority of the votes cast are in favor of the said amendment, it shall be the duty of the Governor of the State, upon being notified of the result of said election, to certify said amendment, under the seal of the State, who shall enroll the said amendment so certified among the permanent records of his office.

Sec. IV. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

Terrapin Potato.

This morning Sam Flake showed us a peculiar potato. It looked like several potatoes grown together in the shape of a terrapin with one of the paddles on the back. Mr. Flake says the potato was given to him by Miss Cora Clark.

Four Tobacco Barns Burned.

Mr. Alfred Forbes lost four barns of tobacco by fire Saturday and Sunday nights on his farm near Farmville. The barns were "killed out" Saturday and all the fire taken out of the furnaces. Some time Saturday night one of the barns full of tobacco was burned and three more, which were all he had on that farm burned Sunday night. Mr. Forbes thinks that it was the work of an incendiary. There was no insurance.

Woman Used a Knife

A fight occurred this morning on Mr. Charles McArthur's place, a few miles from town, between Noah Teel, Caroline Barrett and Daphney Thorp, all colored. It seems that the children of Noah Teel and Caroline Barrett got in a dispute while they all were at work in the tobacco field which resulted in the fight between the old folks. Noah struck Caroline over the head several times with a rail while Daphney gave Noah several slashes on the arm with a tobacco knife. Both parties were here this morning having their wounds dressed by the doctor.

Three Children in One.

Louis Bohman, an iron moulder, of 550 East One Hundred and Fifty-sixth street, was married three years and eleven months ago. He has a son 3 years old and twins 2 years old, all healthy, normal children. Last Saturday Mrs. Bohman gave birth to a fourth child. It was taken yesterday to Randall's Island, without Mrs. Bohman's knowledge, as she is very ill. The child is what the books call a "monster," and in the old days its birth would have been regarded, even by a man like Luther, as ominous. The head, arms and legs of the child are normal, but its body seems to be that of three, two boys and a girl. In the abdomen are eyes, and when the child cries the eyes in the abdomen weep as do the eyes in the head.

Bohman took the child to the Charities Department and it was sent yesterday to Randall's Island. Bohman said last night that he was going to see the child on Saturday next and that if it was still alive, he would nevertheless tell his wife that it was dead.

According to the Encyclopaedia Britannica triple monsters are too rare to discuss. The Siamese twins and Millie-Christine are familiar examples of the double monster grown to maturity—New York Sun.

The remains of Annie Belle, the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Brown were interred in Cherry Hill Cemetery Sunday morning. Services were conducted at the grave by Rev. N. M. Watson. The pall bearers were C. M. Jones, R. L. Hamber, H. C. Hooker and H. C. Ormond.

The express office being down town you do not have to go or send to the depot to get packages off. Take them to the express office in THE REFLECTOR building.
