Can't See How We Do It.

A Raleigh gentleman who is a regular reader of THE EASTERN REFLECTOR (twice-a-week) and compares it with several other papers that he gets, tells us that he thinks it is the best one he sees and he is surprised that we can furnish so good a paper for the price.

No Paper Thursday.

THE REFLECTOR was asked to join the other business houses in closing on election day and cheerfully consented and therefore no issue of THE DAILY REFLECTOR will be published that day. But our force will be on Thursday night and bring out Friday's paper early in the morning with all the election news in it. The semi-weekly will be mailed Wednesday evening, a day earlier than usual.

Of course the telegraph office will have to be kept open Thursday.

BLACK JACK ITEMS.

BLACK JACK, N. C., July 28.

L. H. White is quite sick today. W. J. Clark and H. J. Smith attended the picnic at Grindool yesterday.

Scott Dixon is improving rapidly. We learn that George Venters, of Calico, lost a barn of tobacco last week by fire.

We are glad to have Henry Wynne, of Grindool, in our midst. He began school Tuesday.

Miss Maggie Smith spent Friday afternoon with Misses Annie and Wessie White.

F. S. Dan spent yesterday here. B. F. Ormond, of Ayden, was here yesterday.

Disappeared

A little thing that has disappeared from view, but which was common enough a few years ago, was the little tin sign the insurance company stuck over your door when you had your home insured. By this means every house that was insured was made the standing advertisement of an insurance company. No one sees those little tin signs any more. The insurance companies long since discovered that the money they cost brought better returns when judiciously invested in newspaper and magazine advertising. And there never was any good reason why a man's house should be made the advertisement of an insurance company.—Unidentified Exchange.

Two Classes.

There are people who believe that advertising is a speculation, and there are others who insist that it is an investment. They are both right from their different standpoints. The discrepancy is accounted for by the different ways they advertise. Some merchants go into advertising as they buy a ticket in a lottery—with the idea that if they are lucky they may win a prize. Others put their money in advertising as they invest in real estate, mining stocks or government securities—with the firm faith that they can make a good percentage on their investment if they do it judiciously and with proper preparation and forethought. The latter class seldom fail.—Wichita (Kan.) Eagle.

Suspicion is the assassin of love.

ALL WILL CLOSE.

No Business on Election Day.

There will be no business done in Greenville on election day, except voting early and late, but everybody will close up and give the day to working for the success of White Supremacy and the Democratic ticket.

Mayor J. G. Moye made a canvass of the business houses and offices for the signature of all who were willing to close, and not a single one whom he called on refused to sign. As the law compels the bar rooms to close he did not call on any of them. Below is the list which the Mayor handed us to publish.

We the undersigned merchants and business men of Greenville, N. C., will close our places of business on August 2nd, 1900, election day:

Making More Trade.

Almost every business can be stimulated by persistent advertising. A large proportion of mankind is disposed to do without many things until attention has been called to their needs. The advertiser not only gets a larger share of the business that is being done but he also increases a volume of trade.—Philadelphia Record.

Growing

The subscription list of THE REFLECTOR both daily and semi-weekly, grows steadily. The white people who have regard for news and honesty are learning that they can find it in no other secular paper published in the county. Our readers can read and they appreciate something to read.

Masonic Hall School.

The Board of Trustees for the school to be opened at Masonic Hall will meet sometime this week and elect teachers, and prepare some definite statements concerning the school for the public. There is no scarcity of good material from which to select the teachers; the corresponding secretary already has in hand a number of applications. The public may rest assured that it is the determined purpose of the trustees to secure the very best talent for the school, both in discipline and teaching.

The Masonic Lodge is to be congratulated on having begun a work so universally approved by the general public. It seems to be the happy and fortunate solution of a chaotic problem whereby Greenville may have some better school facilities; and to besure this is a consummation most earnestly to be desired. Let the ball roll on until every child in town from the richest to the poorest shall have abundant opportunity for mental discipline and culture.

A good school for small boys; a high grade school for girls—including music, art, elocution and aesthetic sciences; an academy for boys equal to the very best; and eventually all these emerged into a graded school.

All hands to the wheel till these things are accomplished.

Money talks when you drop a nickel into a phonograph.

Married in the M. E. Church at Grimesland N. C. July 24th, Mr. W. Scott Galloway to Miss Ella Proctor, Rev. R. A. Bruton officiating.

This was a beautiful wedding and taken together with the popularity of the contracting parties made it a great day in the social circle of our village. The church was beautifully decorated with evergreens, ferns and cut flowers.

The following couples were in attendance and entered the church in reversed order: A. G. Dudley with Miss Sophia O'Brien, J. P. Pollard with Miss Lizzina Moore, M. H. Tucker with Miss Mamie Galloway, J. R. Proctor with Miss Helen Galloway, D. G. Moore with Miss Daisy Carman, M. M. Galloway with Miss May Galloway. Following these came the bride accompanied by Miss Mamie Tucker. The groom entered the rear door in company with John W. Mayo, best man, and met the bride at the altar, under a nuptial arch and a large marriage bell where a beautiful ceremony made them one.

After many warm congratulations by many friends repARATION was made to the residence of Mr. W. E. Tucker where a private reception was held, complimentary to the bride and groom and their attendants and many friends. Mrs. Tucker had prepared a sumptuous feast of sweets, fancy ices, and fruits and the wee hours of morning had already come ere the last guest said good night.

The presents were many and handsome and space forbids an enumeration of them here.

This happy pair enters their new life with the sincerest and best wishes of their many friends and of this occasion an evening pleasantly spent let us lay away in the treasury of our remembrance.
