The recent report in this paper of the wheat crop of Mr. N. Glenn Williams, of Yadkin, shows that North Carolina is not such a poor wheat State after all. His crop was 5,659 bushels, and the average 28½ bushels to the acre. That was a fine outcome and Yadkin is not accounted a particularly fertile county. The result proves what may be had from the soil of this State under good cultivation.—Charlotte Observer.

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., August 4. We are very glad to state that Mrs. Alfred McGlohon is able to be out again. She left yesterday to visit her people living over the river.

Our side rolled up a big majority on election. Our salesman also rolled up a lot of orders yesterday.

WINTERVILLE CIG. CO.

It was remarked several times election day that the day seemed more like Sunday than anything else.

Our business is strictly a white man's business. We doubt if there is an establishment in North Carolina depending on the public for its support that would claim anything else now. If so they will certainly get left. We treat all right and the white ones white. Come to see us or send your orders.

A. G. COX MFG. CO.

Mrs. Lafayette Moore from beyond Tar river came by rail last evening to visit at her old home, J. H. Smith's near here.

Hunsucker buggies must go, they are going as fast, and faster than can ship them.

We heard of one man saying that he had rather be caught with a sheep on his back than wear a white supremacy button. Wonder if he will not emigrate to Africa now.

Prof. G. E. Lineberry, of Ashpole, N. C. has been elected Principal of Winterville High School. Mr. Lineberry is an A. B. graduate of Wake Forest College, with several years experience in teaching, and is well known by several boys in this community. Have not fully decided who the assistants will be, but will be supplied in time. School will open Sept. 3, and it will be the place to send your boy or girl next year if you anticipate sending them to school.

Grieving Parents.

Some are grieving over sons ruined by tobacco. Others are grieving over sons that are being ruined. Others are grieving over preachers and teachers who set an example that will ruin many sons.

The co-operation of many of the best promoters of athletic games has been secured. Visitors to the Exposition may therefore expect to witness the meeting of the most famous athletes of the world in competition for prizes worthy of their best feats. It is said that the great Colosseum at Rome could accommodate 87,000 spectators. The Pan-American Stadium will be 129 feet longer and but 10 feet narrower than the historic amphitheater of Rome. The Stadium, however, will have a larger arena, and the seating capacity is estimated for 25,000 people.

A SONG OF LIFE

What shall I make of my life, love? What shall I bring to you,
Flower of fair color, song of tremulous sweep?
Bird that o'er waters of tears on a faithful wing to you
Finds her way with a leaf for you to keep?
Shell in whose chamber remembered waves shall ring to you
Chimes of sleep?

Bird that homes to you? Song that will sigh and sing to you?
Flower that knoweth not passion or faith or doubt?
Shell that whispers a musical memory out?
Nay, I will make of my life two hands to cling to you—
Passionate hands, my heart, that shall clasp you and cling to you,
Living and dying, daylight and dreaming throughout.

STOOD FOR STONEWALL.

When Jackson Gave an Order, It Was Obeyed to the Letter.

The following dialogue, current at the time, between one of Stonewall Jackson's soldiers and the provost guard illustrates Jackson's tact at eluding his enemy and also the obedience rendered and the confidence reposed in him by his troops.

The orders read on dress parade the evening before Jackson left the valley to take part in the seven days' fight around Richmond were that in case the army moved before further orders the answer from every soldier to any and all questions except those connected with the army shall be, "I don't know." On the march the provost guard found a soldier in a cherry tree helping himself, when the following took place:

"Who are you?" demanded the guard.

"I don't know," replied the soldier.

"Where is your command?"

"I don't know."

"To what command do you belong?"

"I don't know."

"What are you doing in that cherry tree?"

"I don't know."

"Are those good cherries you are eating?"

"I don't know."

"Is there anything you do know?"

"Yes."

"What is it?"

"Well, the last order I had from old Stonewall was that I was not to know anything until further orders, and, gentlemen, I will see you all hanged before I will know anything until old Stonewall takes that order off."—Waco Times-Herald.

The Bell Mare.

All tempered old horses delight to attack very young foals and will kill them if permitted. Mules have the same cheerful habit, unless they are under the influence of "the bell mare." She is the queen of the herd—a kindly creature who has grazed and fed with them, wearing a tinkling bell about her neck. If she snorts defiance of anything, all her followers rush to the attack. If she sniffs tolerance, they pass it by. In all things they obey her abjectly.

Back in the old days, when horses and mules throughout the southwest went to market in droves, the rough riding highwayman of that epoch always tried to capture "the bell" and make off with it, knowing that nothing could keep the drove from following. Similarly, drovers tried always to save "the bell." She was led, never ridden, so that in event of attack she might be fresh for a game run. A light lad led her—the owner or chief drover brought up the rear. The lad had strict orders at the first sign of trouble to go his very best, caring for nothing but "the bell."

She Did Die Quick.

Miss Jennie Lee, the famous English actress, was once playing "Jo" in Scotland. She was in the midst of the long and harrowing death scene of poor Jo. The stage was darkened, and the limelight illuminated the pale features of the death stricken boy. People were sobbing all over the house.

Suddenly, to her consternation, Miss Lee heard the limelight man addressing her in a brawny Scotch whisper, audible to half the house.

"Dee quick, Miss Lee; dee quick!" he roared softly. "The limelight's gin out!"

She did die quick, but it was for the purpose of making a speech to that limelight man which he said he would never forget.

The Butler Bible.

One of the interesting articles that each governor of Massachusetts transmits to his successor is the Butler Bible, the history of which General Butler wrote on the fly leaf as follows:

Jan. 1, 1864.

When I came into the executive chamber a year ago, I could not find a copy of the Holy Scriptures. I suppose each governor took his away with him. A friend gave me this. I leave it as a needed transmission to my successor in office, to be read by him and his successor, each in turn.

BENJAMIN F. BUTLER, GOVERNOR.

Pessimism Checked.

"No," he complained, "I have never succeeded in getting anything for nothing. I have always had to strive hard for everything that has come to me."

"What about the mumps you had last winter?" his wife interrupted.—Chicago Times-Herald.

Son's has been in use for 3,000 years and is twice mentioned in the Bible. A few years ago a soap boiler's shop was discovered in Pompeii. The soap found in the shop had not lost all its efficacy, although it had been buried 1,800 years.

SATURDAY AUGUST 4, 1900.

WASHINGTON LETTER

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 3, 1900.

Mr. McKinley has come to Washington again, not to do anything in connection with the desperate situation of Americans in China—our minister was alive at last accounts, but he and other Americans were in the greatest danger, and a number of Americans were known to have been butchered—but rather to see that nothing is done that might bring the situation to a climax before the election. While making all sorts of professions about what it is doing and what it is going to do, the real policy of the administration is to keep this whole Chinese business hanging until the campaign is over. That is why Secretary Hay and other members of the Cabinet have been on the most chummy terms with the Chinese minister at Washington, while the Chinese ministers to every European government have been treated by those governments as in disgrace and as representing a government which is responsible for the butchery of foreigners in China. If Mr. McKinley and his advisers can think up something to do that will serve as republican campaign thunder it will be done; otherwise not.

Chairman Jones of the Democratic National Committee, stopped in Washington on his way from New York to Chicago to hold a conference with Chairman Richardson, of the Democratic Congressional campaign committee. He is very confident and believes that the tendency of public opinion is strongly turned towards democracy. Among other reasons for his belief he gave these: "I believe that the imperial policy of the present administration is more heartily condemned by the great mass of the people than any other important position assumed by any party for many years past and the evident intention of the administration to organize a great standing army is also popularly disapproved of."

The Anti-Imperial League, of Washington, sent a rather warm open letter to Senator Hoar, from which the following is taken: "In your public utterances you have most solemnly declared that this policy of the President, if pursued 'will be the abandonment of principles upon which our government is founded; that it will change our republic into an empire; that our methods of legislation, of diplomacy, of administration must hereafter be those which belong to empires and not those which belong to republics.' Nevertheless, with a full knowledge of these consequences, you now have faced about and declare your intention to support the man who gives us notice that if elected he will continue his atrocious policy. Today, in your apostasy, you announce yourself upon the side of those who would betray our country from within."

Representative McCulloch, of Arkansas, gives the following substantial reasons for his belief that Bryan and Stevenson will be elected: "Bryan will carry all the States he carried in 1896, and at least half a dozen that were carried by McKinley. The democrats have a good fighting chance of carrying New York, but Bryan can be elected without the electoral votes of the Empire state. The total number of votes in the electoral college is 447. Four years ago Mr. McKinley had 271 and Bryan 176, a majority for McKinley of 95. It will be seen that a change of 48 electoral votes is all that is necessary to elect Bryan. I figure that the 13 votes of Kentucky, 12 of which in 1896 were for McKinley, will this year be for Bryan. Of the other States carried by McKinley four years ago, Bryan will this year carry Maryland with its 8 votes, West Virginia with 6, Indiana with 15, Michigan with 14, and Minnesota with 9. This will give a total of 64 votes, which will change from the McKinley to the Bryan column, or 16 more than Bryan needs to assure his election. He can fail to carry any one of the six states I have named and yet be elected." Mr. McCulloch is also confident that the democrats will control the next House.

Hon. Ury Woodson, National Committeeman from Kentucky, was one of the breezy visitors to democratic headquarters this week. He said the Kentucky democrats would carry the State to a certainty this year and that they would do it without any outside financial help. He also said that during several days spent in New York City and nearby summer resorts he had been surprised at the extent of republican opposition to McKinley from solid business men who had enthusiastically supported him four years ago.

The Democratic Congressional Committee has filed a formal protest with the Post Office Department against the seemingly concerted action of republican postal officials to "lose" sacks of literature sent out by the committee to state and county committees. Officials of the committee say that during the past month at least one hundred sacks, each containing from a thousand to fifteen hundred documents, have been mysteriously "lost" after being mailed in Washington. An investigation has been promised by the Post Office Department and one is being conducted by the committee which may result in striped suits for those who violate the law by tampering with the mails.

Notification Program.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 31.—The local committee in charge of the arrangements for the Bryan and Stevenson notification meeting here were advised today that the two candidates will reach Chicago Tuesday next, and that Chairman Jones, members of the notification committee and two hundred Chicago Democrats, including Mayor Harrison, will reach here that evening. Mr. Bryan and Mr. Stevenson will be met here by the committee of reception and will be taken to the Grand Hotel. Where an informal reception will be held at 8:30 p. m.

The Cleveland German-American and Tammany clubs, each with a brass band, will also meet the candidates at the union station and form a part of the escort to the hotel. The two candidates and the members of the notification committee will be driven about the city in carriages Wednesday morning and at 2:30 p. m. will be taken to Military Park, where the exercises are to be held. The carriages will be followed by the local clubs, the Marching Club of Chicago and the Duckworth Club of Cincinnati. In the evening there will be a mass-meeting at Tomlinson Hall, and it is understood that Bryan and Stevenson will both address it briefly.

Mayor Taggart said today that there would be a meeting of the National Democratic Committee here Thursday to decide three contests for membership on the committee.

Superiority of Girl Babies.

An Omaha woman bought for $10 a guarantee from the spirit world that her next child would be a boy. When the child arrived it proved to be twins and girls. Instead of congratulating herself in the superior good sense and generosity of the spirits the woman had the intermediary in the transaction thrown into jail.

There are many women who have this prejudice against girl babies, and an amazing prejudice it is, whether the matter be looked at from the sentimental or the practical standpoint.

After the first few years of helpless and drooling infancy a boy is as a rule of no use to his mother, no companion for her and a source of increasing anxiety. Just as he attains to years of discretion he marries and thenceforth belongs to his wife's family. The girl, on the other hand, is a pleasure to her mother in infancy, a companion in girlhood and a comfort and support in old age.

A woman who has a boy baby makes an investment for the benefit of some other woman's old age. A woman who has a girl baby makes an investment for herself. For when the daughter marries, the mother has secured a home and a bread-winner.

The more girl babies a woman has the larger is her insurance against loneliness and poverty in the evening of her life.

Almost a Conflict of Arms.

There was considerable excitement at Armour, a precinct in Bladen county, on the night before the election. A populist who removed from one township to another and who failed to get a transfer certificate of registration proposed to vote at Armour. He was told that he could not vote.

The populists became wrathful and swore he should vote. They made threats and went so far as to buy all the cartridges they could obtain in the country stores.

The demorats got ready for trouble and concealed 50 stands of arms in the house where the polls were located. The guns were kept under a guard of ten men and yesterday there were at least 50 democrats at the polls all day, expecting to make it warm for the populists had they stirred up strife.

Luckily, a conflict was avoided, as the populist was allowed to vote.—Wilmington Messenger.

An old Saw That is Senseless.

In olden times when a person died it was customary to toll the church bell a certain number of times to indicate whether it was a man, woman or child. For a woman it was tolled three times and for a man thrice three times. The stroke of a bell was called a "teller," and hence it was nine tellers for a man: or, as folks said in those days, "Nine tellers mark a man." This saying, which was continued long after the tolling custom was abolished, finally became converted into the present saying, "Nine tailors make a man," which is devoid of both sense and reason.—Ladies' Home Journal.

Later Returns.

The following are the returns from the four townships which did not get here in time for the early edition of THE REFLECTOR Thursday morning:

BEAVER DAM

This precinct gave a Democratic majority of 58 for the amendment, 56 Democratic majority for the State ticket and 56 for the county ticket.

BETHEL.

Majority for the Democratic ticket 24 to 76.

SWIFT CREEK.

Precinct No 1 gave a republican majority of 40 against the amendment, county ticket 37 and State ticket 38 Republican majority.

Precinct No 2 gave a majority of 23 for the amendment, 12 for the county ticket and 15 for the State ticket.

CHICOD.

As usual this precinct rolled up a big majority for the Democratic ticket. The majority for the amendment was 302, for the county ticket 254, for the State ticket 260.

Three Days In a "Dry" Town.

Trenton, the county town of Jones, is on Trent river, a few miles from Cree Creek depot. I spent three years there in 1884-5-6.

In the last 14 years they have built 2 nice churches, a good academy and several dwellings.

A District Conference was well attended there last week. The town was full of people, white and black; but quiet, so quiet!

The policeman had nothing to do, but to arrest a pig now and then.

At the close of the Conference a collection of $16.25 was raised for the wife and six little children of a poor man of the town who died suddenly during the week.

May God help the "wet" towns and make them all "dry."

GRIFTON ITEMS

GRIFTON, N. C. August 4, 1900.

Rev. C. W. Howard, of Kinston, came down to conduct the burial services of Mr. Allen Johnson, who died Thursday morning and was buried Friday evening in the family grave yard.

Rev. J. J. Harper left Wednesday for his home at Smithfield.

Rev. Jacob Johnson came Tuesday and left immediately for his old home where his father was expected to die at any time.

Miss Anna Pittman, little Ruby and Earl Bruton, of Thomasville, are visiting friends and relatives here.

The fusion candidate for Sheriff, played or tried to play a right sharp trick on his opponent and the Democrats. At Ayden he had a man to distribute tickets that were full Democratic except his name W. H. was pinned under the other tickets, so unless one was very careful he would not detect the difference but Criss Kirkman soon found out there that the white people knew there was a difference in O. W. and W. H. Harrington.

Hurrah for Democracy.

The tobacco market opened up here on Wednesday with a large break for the two houses, with some over 19,000 pounds.

Masonic Hall School.

The Board of Trustees of Masonic Hall School were in session several hours Friday. There were fifteen applications before them; and from so many with the very highest testimonials it was not an easy matter to select only two. But after a careful study of all the facts before them the Board unanimously elected Miss Lizzie D. Parker, of Bladen county and Miss Leila Thornton, of Duplin county.

Miss Parker is a graduate of Greensboro Female College and has had twelve or fifteen years experience in the school room. She comes very highly recommended not only as a teacher, but as a disciplinarian of tact and firmness.

Miss Thornton has had seven years of practical experience in the school room, and is a graduate of the Peabody Normal College of Nashville Tenn. If testimonials are to be at all relied upon her equipment is of the very highest order.

The Board of Trustees backed by the Masonic Lodge is determined to make this a first class school in every particular, and other teachers will be provided if found to be necessary.

Special attention is called to the advertisements appearing in another column.

Attention Masons

At the regular communication of Greenville Lodge No 284 A. F. & A. M. to be held Monday night, August 6th, business of special importance will be considered. Every member should be present.

TWO IN ONE

In UNION there is STRENGTH

PLANTERS and

Under one Management.

FARMERS

Taking into consideration that the acreage is decreased and a corresponding falling off in the crops, we have joined hands and placed the Planters and Farmers under one management

For The Coming Season.

This curtailment of expenses in the way of drummers and warehouse force puts us in position to give you more money for your tobacco than any other warehouse in North Carolina. By running the two houses together we give you the advantage of

TWO SALES A DAY,

and in selling with us need never be on the LAST SALE. We are prepared to serve your interest in every way, and if you bring us a load we will convince you that we are not talking through our hat. When you get a load of tobacco ready for market bring it to us. We are going to serve you. Your old friends,

FORBES, JOYNER & COMPANY.

Governor Crane, of Massachu-settes think that formal reviews of the State militia are a waste of time as the reviewer cannot judge of the efficiency of any command when the men have been notified several days in advance to prepare to undergo official scrutiny. He accordingly surprised the National Guard of the Bay State the other day by appearing in their camp unannounced and ordering an inpromptu review.
