

A FUNERAL.

Requiescat in Pace.

A letter to THE REFLECTOR tells us there has been a funeral over near Grindool, in Bethel township. The unusual things connected with the obsequies are that it occurred at night, there seems to have been no previous announcement, and the friends of the deceased were not invited. The fact is, our informant says about all that can be learned of the affair is that a newly made grave was placed, on which an inscription has been found that tells its own story. A copy of the inscription was sent us and it reads as follows:

OBITUARY

Here lies the last of poor old Teel,
Who died beneath the white man's heel;
'Tis true the fellow died while young
Unwept, unhonored and unsung.

The negro men around Grindool,
And white men, too, he thought to fool;
He met them on the poplar old,
Where negro meetings he did hold.

I know he did misrepresent
The Constitutional Amendment,
The like, he said, unknown before,
It would disfranchise all the poor.

He rode out there upon his wheel,
This poor old corpse, his name is Teel;
And set the negroes all on fire
By saying poll tax would be higher.

Poor man! white people are too wise,
They know they wont be disfranchised;
Your midnight meetings will not do,
The people have gone back on you.

The white men now are far ahead,
And Pops like you forever dead;
We sing the praise of Nichols still,
And honor noble Tom Barnhill.

Now hang your head in deep disgrace
For bringing shame upon your race,
And go out in the woods and grub,
Or else go off to Beelzebub.

The advertisement of Greenville Male Academy appears in this issue. This school is now in its twelfth year under the management of Prof. W. H. Ragsdale. Its work is always thorough. There is not a better place to which you can send your boys.

DANGEROUS.

Bridge Should Be Patched.

If the town authorities are to be delayed much longer in getting a suitable mason to construct the proposed culvert across Evans street at the Academy branch, they might have a little work done to the foot dridge there so as to hold it together until the other can be done. The bridge has long been in a rickety condition, but thinking it would not be in use much longer nothing was done to it. Now, however, it is getting dangerous, and either enough should be done to it to prevent any one getting hurt or it should be placarded "dangerous" so that people might avoid it or be careful in passing over it. The street committee have had trouble about finding a suitable man to build the culvert and have been waiting for that reason, and that is why we call attention to the matter now.

GETTING INTERESTING

Join in For The Band Stand

Enough is being said about building the band stand for the Osceola Band, and sufficient contributions have been offered, to make the matter begin to take on interest sure enough. And it makes THE REFLECTOR feel so confident that the stand will be secured that we are going to give the list of names reported so far and invite any others to send in their name. It will hardly take more than $25 to build it and one-fifth of that is promised. Who will be the next? Here is the list.

C. S. Forbes,	$1.00.
T. R. Moore,	2.00.
Mrs. J. B. Cherry,	2.50.

Saw and Grist Mill

W. H. Harper, of Parmele, and W. O. Barnhill, of Greenville, have leased a piece of land at the end of Greene street and near the river from C. M. Bernard, and will erect a saw mill there. They will also run a grist mill in connection with the saw mill. The old school house, which is a part of the property leased will be used for the present, for the grist mill house. Work will commence on the saw mill at once.

They Stand The Test.

That is what Every Pair of

Dutchess Pants

Is guaranteed to do. Can you imagine a severer test than to tie one leg of a pair of pants to the ceiling and swing a keg of nails weighing 110 pounds to the other leg? That is the test seen in our window and hundreds of people have looked in wonder.

Dutchess Pants

are built to stand any kind of service and a guarantee goes with every pair—10 cents if a button pulls off or $1 if they rip. Get the best when you buy and be sure you get the Dutchess! None genuine without the name on the button.

THE ELECTRICITY BUILDING AT THE PAN-AMERICAN EXPOSITION.

Copyright, 1900, by the Pan-American Exposition Co.

Exquisite designs have recently been completed for the Electricity building for the Pan-American Exposition, to be held in Buffalo May 1 to Nov. 1, 1901. Displays of all kinds in the practical and artistic uses of electricity, together with complete exhibits of electrical machinery and appliances, are to be conspicuous features of the great Exposition. The designs contemplate a very handsome and commodious building. The structure is to be 500 feet from east to west and 150 feet wide, giving an exhibition space of 75,000 square feet. The South Facade fronts the Mall, and the north fronts the Midway. The east end is toward the massive Electric Tower, while the west faces the Grand Canal. The general ornamentation of the structure is to be frescoes in a mixture of reds, greens and yellows.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 9, 1900.

[Can't be Accounted for by Intimidation.]

North Carolina's Democratic victory grows and grows. So great and general a majority cannot be accounted for by intimidation, for in the mountain counties, normally Republican, there are comparatively few negroes; and as both sides were represented on the boards of election there is no cry of fraud. The Democrats seem to have captured Populists and white Republicans in large numbers on the race issue and the negroes generally stayed away from the polls.—Columbia State.

North Carolina at Buffalo

The Hon. W. F. Porter of Hay Meadow and the Hon. Lawrence Holt, of Burlington are the two vice presidents appointed by Governor Russell to look after the interests of North Carolina at the Pan-American exposition. Mr. Holt has been absent in Europe for some time and therefore unable to take up the work. Mr. Porter, however, has taken matters in hand and has been spending some time in Buffalo getting in touch with the great enterprise which shall next year astonish the world in its giant proportions and surpassing magnificence. It is Mr. Porter's intention to return soon to the State, and, with his closer knowledge of the splendid enterprise, urge upon our people the importance of an adequate representation by North Carolina at Buffalo next year. He thinks that this is an opportunity of such value to all the State interests that it would be exceedingly short sighted not to have a creditable exhibit. He will undertake to find out what the people of the State think about it when they better understand the greatness of the Exposition. He will address a letter soon to the people of the State setting forth his reasons for urging a first class representation by North Carolina. With her vast untouched stores of mineral and forest wealth and her unclaimed opportunities for business investments of all kinds, North Carolina has much to offer to the home seeker and investor. The Pan American Exposition will cost many millions of dollars before the gates are opened, the National Government alone expending half a million on its buildings and exhibits. Within a night's ride of Buffalo more than forty millions of people reside. Chicago had only half as many within the same distance in 1893. As an extra attraction Buffalo offers the greatest natural wonder of the world, Niagra Falls, within half an hour's ride of the Exposition, where also is established the largest power plant in the world. Vice-President Porter hopes for the hearty co-operation of press and public in his work.

The Next Governor

The Goldsboro Argus, in a handsome tribute to its fellow-townsmen, Chas. B. Aycock, Esq., who has just been elected Governor, says that "his canvass has been conducted on the plane worthy of the man and the great cause he represents, and by his dignity and eloquence and honesty he has won the respect and confidence of the entire people of the State." It is true. As able as his canvass was, it was marked by nothing so much as its dignity—the high plane on which it was pitched. He said nothing that any woman might not have heard; he said nothing to arouse the anger or wound the heart of any man of any party. He was dignified, argumentative, considerate, kindly always. That these qualities in hustings speakings are effective, that they appeal to the people, is attested by the immense majority given him—a majority far greater than that any candidate for office ever received in North Carolina before; and to-day, after having traversed the State from end to end and spoke in nearly every county in it, he is by far the most popular citizen of the Commonwealth. The democratic party made no mistake in nominating this man for Governor and the people of all parties made no mistake in electing him. He will justify all their confidence and regard and will do what few men do—go out of office as popular as he was when he went in.

A Sensible Woman

The wife of Booker Washington recently addressed a large audience of the women of her race in Memphis and, to judge from the published reports, her utterances were very sensible and calculated to do good. In part she said: "We eat too little or too poor food. We are ready to buy showy clothing, and we stint our stomachs to do this. Let us eat more and better food. Keep regular hours. Do not stay in church till 12 and 1 o'clock at night. Go to bed at 10 o'clock especially if you labor through the day. Teach the boys as well as bright girls respect for the marrying tie and home. Be companions for your sons and daughters if you would stop the tide of immorality. Teach the boys to come home at night. Teach them the sin of ruining some man's daughter. These lessons can be taught around the fire side at night." The two most conspicuous necessities of negro women, according to this sensible representative of the race, are "a sounder, healthier body and a cleaner and higher-toned morality." The intimate connection between the two was pointed out, the fact being impressed on the assembled women that to be a strong race physically they must live moral lives. They were reminded that in every city of the country the race is losing more by death than it is gaining by birth and that immorality as well as poverty and ignorance is responsible for the low state of vitality which exposes young and old to all forms of disease and death. If such warnings are repeated often enough by the more enlightened and seriously taken to heart by even a small minority good results cannot fail.—Macon, Ga., Telegraph.

A handsome young lady of Rochester, N. Y., has won a suit for $15,000 damages against the Franklin Mills company for using her portrait without permission as an advertisement of flour. The judge sustained the contention of the fair plaintiff that her "right of privacy" had been invaded.

Duties of Election Boards

Chairman Simmons, wishes to call the attention of the Chairman of the County Board of Elections to Section 41 and 42 of the Election Law, relative to the duties of chairman of the county boards of election.

Section 42 of the Election Law requires the chairman of county boards of elections to furnish within ten days certificates of election, under his hand and seal, to member or members elected to House of Representatives from his county, and also to the Senator elected from his district, if the district is not composed of more than one county.

Section 41 requires the chairmen of county board of elections in the various senatorial districts composed of more than one county after receiving the returns from the county board of canvassers, to meet on the ninth day after the election at the place prescribed in that section in their respective districts, and examine the polls from the several counties in the district and issue a certificate of election, under their hand and seal, to the candidate for the senate who is elected.

Shirt Waist Man is Numerous.

The "shirt waist man"—that is, the man who goes about in a negligee shirt, without a coat, is becoming more numerous in public places in New York every day. Down town, in the gold financial district, you may see on any hot day scores of the best-known brokers and bankers walking about without coats. In the roof gardens is becoming the eminently proper thing to appear in shirt-sleeves. It is thought that by next summer the fashion will have established itself thoroughly. At present it takes a little nerve and the knowledge that the fit of one's shirt, haberdashery and trousers is perfect to enable a man to promenade Broadway in a costume that until now has been regarded as impossible dishabile.—New York Letter.

To Take Soundings for the Hatteras Light Ship.

Norfolk, Aug. 6.—The United States coast survey steamer Blake reached Town Point, near Norfolk, to-day, and is preparing for her dangerous work off Cape Hatteras. This is to find the best available anchorage ground for the Diamond Shoals light ship that guards the most dangerous point on the Atlantic coast. The Blake will skirt the Outer Diamond shoal and chart it. The soundings will have to be done by men in small boats and their work will be perilous, for the sea is always wild along these shoals. The Blake is a wooden vessel and she will not put to sea until the weather conditions outside are favorable.

In a private letter received last night the point was made that it is not the negroes, who have voted with automatic exactness for the Republican party all these years, who will be sufferers from the adoption of the constitutional amendment, but the white men who have voted with automatic exactness with the negroes. The point is a new and a good one. The negroes have never profited from their alliance with the white Republicans; it is the whites who have reaped all the benefits of alliance with the negroes.—Charlotte Observer.

It seemed as though the dread Yellow Jack were not to give us his usual scare this summer. Now, however, he is threatening the Gulf Coast once more. Latest advices agree that yellow fever is on the increase in Havana, and the United States Marine Hospital Service is justified in adopting rigid quarantine rules at Tampa. Our Cuban island-protégé is giving us enough political worry, without sending us over her native plague. Since the failure of the Sanarelli serum the hope of baffling the disease is as dark as ever.—Philadelphia Record.

Charles A. Towne, nominee for vice-president by the Sioux Falls Populist convention, has written a letter declining the nomination. Mr. Towne says that as political matters now stand he could have no hope of being elected; that Mr. Stevenson was selected in a fair contest at Kansas City over him, and that his duty is plain.

Butler, the loathsome, malignant and malicious demagogue, is striking out while in his death throes, like the venomous rattlesnake that he is. He sent last week long telegrams to many Northern and Western papers, in which he charged that the election in this State was carried by force and fraud, claiming that on a fair vote the fusionists would have defeated the amendment and elected their State ticked by 60,000. He has also sent out notices to his heelsers urging them to contest the result of the election wherever possible. Butler's fangs have been drawn. He is harmless now and his vicious ravings are of no effect. Hated above all men in the State—despicable, loathsome, contemptible creature that he is—the best that he can do for himself and the public is to disappear from public view.—Statesville Landmark.

The illiterate negroes can vote in the coming November election, but not after that.—Charlotte Observer.

When to Advertise.

There are business establishments which cut down their advertising in dull seasons. Others follow the course of a successful merchant, who says: "When trade falls below its normal activity I either increase my advertising or else enliven it with special offers. In dull times, as in busy, there is patronage to be gained by advertising, and I want it most when business is slack. A small gain then is as grateful as a larger one when trade is brisk."—Philadelphia Record.
