Tobacco Department.

BY O. L. JOYNER.

GRADE YOUR TOBACCO AND HANDLE IT CAREFULLY.

Last year it was a custom among many farmers to bring tobacco to market and offer it for sale ungraded. While I frankly admit that there are some classes of tobacco that will pay the seller about as much money in this condition as graded, there is a very small per cent of this kind. Then, too, there is great danger in encouraging this plan of marketing tobacco, for when a man gets 5 or 6 cents a pound for his trash lugs or first primings ungraded, he is very likely to conclude that his better tobacco will sell in the same proportion and he is thus tempted to market his crop in this condition. I have seen $40 wrappers sold in a lot of ungraded tobacco for 6½ and 7 cents a pound. If this tobacco had been properly graded in many instances it would average from 10 to 12 cents.

Again I want to impress upon everyone the imperative necessity of handling your tobacco as nicely as possible. There is no crop that pays for good attention like tobacco. What is worth doing at all is worth doing well, I have often heard, and the half-hearted manner of handling and selling tobacco emphasizes this truism in the prices obtained. I have seen tobacco sold on the Greenville market, by men who had entrusted it to careless and inexperienced hands, bought and rehandled and sold for nearly double the price the farmer realized. Now why not be a little more careful (it will not cost any more,) and have your tobacco handled and graded carefully. You have toiled and sweated to make this tobacco, and it is your duty to so handle it as to realize the greatest amount out of it. Your profits are near enough nothing when you market it in the best possible condition, and when it is sold half handled it frequently leaves you in debt while the purchaser spends only a few hours overhauling and straightening out what you have left undone and realizes a much greater profit than you do. There are thousands of dollars lost annually from this cause. No buyer will pay full market value for tobacco in poor condition. You can't expect them to do it.

Just a little care and pains at this stage of the crop will pay a larger profit than any investment you have made. Farmers don't bring your tobacco to market half graded or not graded at all. It means loss of money to you. When your tobacco is taken out of the curing barn see that it is bulked away in good keeping condition and when you get ready to grade see to it that it is graded well and offered on the market in good and merchantable order. Heed this and you will save many dollars that you have been giving to others.

We presume that the public has very little interest in the controversy that is going on between the two morning newspapers of Raleigh—the News & Observer and the Post. Their patrons care but little what the two papers think of each other, and they should not be devoting space that is paid, for to contain news, to such a warfare as they are carrying on.

WASHINGTON LETTER

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 13 1900

Russia dickering with China independently; England landing troops at Shanghai, where there had been no serious trouble; Germany naming the Commander-in-Chief of the foreign troops in China, and the government of China trying to trick the foreign ministers at Pekin, including the American Minister, into going out of Pekin to be killed by Chinese soldiers. These are a few of the important items of news which have come to Washington during the last few days, and have had to be handled by the subordinates in charge during the continued absence of Mr. McKinley and Secretary Haw. One message was sent to Minister Conger that was made public, and one that was not. The first left him free to act in his discretion, which leaves the administration free to make an official scapegoat of him if he should be so unfortunate as to make a mistake. That is also the sort of order that General Chaffee, who is in command of the handful of Americans who are with the so called allied army, which has fought its way about one fourth of the distance between Tien Tsina and Pekin, is acting under. They are so convenient you know. If everything goes right, they can be claimed as implying the perfect confidence felt by this government, etc.; while if anything goes wrong it can be charged to lack of judgment or brains on the part of the agent.

Every disinterested man who goes into any portion of the Middle West reports the existence of conditions which are calculated to increase the confidence of Democrats in the election of Bryan and Stevenson. J. H. Ralston, a well-known Washington lawyer, has just returned from a visit to Quincy, Ill., his old home. Speaking of his trip he said: "I did not go West to observe political conditions, but in the course of my journey I had numerous opportunities to learn how things were going. At Quincy I had many intimate friends, and I talked politics with a large number of them without indicating which side I was disposed to favor. The character of my information was very favorable to the Democrats. I can give you two instances which I know to be reliable. They are of men who used to practice law with me in Quincy. One of them is Capt. Michael Piggott, an Irishman of much more than local fame, who was postmaster of Quincy for eight years, and four years ago an enthusiastic supporter of Mr. McKinley and the Republican ticket. This year he is squarely for Mr. Bryan. He is a man of influence in those parts and highly respected. The other man I have in mind is W. A. Richardson, the son of a former U. S. Senator, and an ex-Member of the Legislature. In 1896 he was a gold democrat and wrote many articles supporting Mr. McKinley. Now he is advocating Mr. Bryan's election. There are many Germans in that vicinity, and the German vote this year will be with the democrats. The German farmers are against the administration of Mr. McKinley and will not support him again. I took some pains to secure accurate information on that point."

OUR RALEIGH LETTER.

Special Correspondent of Reflector.

RALEIGH N. C., August 13th.

The Presidential and Congressional campaign will not begin actively in North Carolina until September 1. There are several good reasons for this, not the least important one being that the man upon whom the success of the party will chiefly depend has just completed seven months of the hardest work he or you or I ever did, and needs and certainly deserves rest before undertaking the arduous work of another campaign. Chairman Simmons has given all of his time for the last four months, and by far the most of it for three months previously, to the work of managing the great contest which has just resulted in a signal victory for democracy—and for Simmons. I add the last three words because I know whereof I speak when I say the Democrats of North Carolina owe F. M. Simmons more than they can ever pay him in an ordinary life time. I know, absolutely of no other man in the State to whom we could have turned with such confidence as we did to him last winter, nor one who would or could have conducted such a masterly campaign and achieved such a glorious victory.

AMENDMENT INOPERATIVE FOR NEARLY TWO YEARS.

Many people have expressed surprise upon learning that the newly adopted amendment to our constitution does not go into effect until July, 1902. Most of them thought it would become operative January 1, 1901, and very few had the idea that it would begin to work later than July 1, 1901. But the fact is (as the legislative act providing for its submission to the people shows), the amendment does not go into effect until July 1, 1902, or nearly two years after its adoption. In the meantime the negroes cannot only vote in the coming Presidential and Congressional elections, but in the municipal contests of next spring and the spring of 1902, also—if they chose to do so. It is not believed however, that they will "choose" to do so, particularly in the black eastern towns, but will elect to keep hands off. Why the operation of the Amendment was delayed so long, I confess my inability to understand.

NEWSPAPER QUAREL.

After two years of "peace"—or quiescence, to be more exact—the two competing morning newspapers here have begun to plaster each other with "back-handed compliments," with an occasional dig under the fifth rib. It has always been thus in Raleigh, and the only surprising feature of the latest demonstration is, that it was delayed as long as it was.

CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATIONS.

The Democrats of the Fourth (Raleigh) District will hold their convention in this city on September 6, and it appears to be at least probable that the present incumbent, Hon. J. W. Atwater of Chatham (Pop.—Dem.), will be able to secure a renomination, though this is not settled definitely. If he does not, then Capt. W. B. Shaw of Vance, Armisted Jones of Wake or E. W. Pou of Johnston, will probably be the nominee. The district gave 6,000 majority for the Amendment.

At Durham last Thursday the fusionists failed to nominate a candidate to run against W. W. Kitchin in the Fifth District, but adjourned to meet at Greensboro September 5. Some think that Spencer B. Adams will yet be able to capture the nomination, while there are at the same time some rumors concerning the putting up of a non-partisan, "anti-Bryan business man"—a gold Democrat in other words.

MINOR MENTION.

The Democratic State Executive Committee will soon be called together, Chairman Simmons states for the purpose of arranging for the holding of a primary for U. S. Senator. They will, I learn from another source, probably be left to the various county organizations, each county holding the primary as arranged by the county committees, etc. All who voted the Democratic State ticket will be entitled to vote at these primaries.

The Newbern Fair will this year be held Nov. 12-17th, "and will be better than ever," the management state.

The Association of Photographers of North Carolina and Virginia, which met last week at Richmond, decided to hold their next meeting in Raleigh, date yet to be fixed.

Play on Words.

The play on Biblical names as applied to baseball phraseology, began with the ancient game of townball and is annually rejuvenated—like the strawberry joke. Inspired by the recent production of Capt. Vebor Asbury, a young lawyer of this city, has written the following:

Jacob, after getting his first on an error, tried for his second and got it but died before reaching home.

Joseph lost the cup by Benjamin's home run.

Benjamin held his bag until he was brought in by Joseph.

Haman was put out by a high upshoot delivered by Ahasuerus.

There was a find breeze Monday night that brought the temperature down to the sleeping point.

Munford's big new store will be the centre of attraction this season. New goods coming in now ready for you to look at.

The dust went like thick clouds Monday night. It was fortunate for the business houses that they were closed.

C. T. Munford is back from the Northern markets with an unexcelled stock of bargains. Drop in to see his new goods.

Work has commenced on the culvert across Evans street on the Academy branch. Burwell Riddick, of Suffolk, Va., has charge of the work.

C. T. Munford's new stock just coming in is a bonanza of bargains. Keep an eye for special announcements he will make and you will save money.

Not an additional subscription has been made for the band stand since Friday. If the people want to build it and enjoy the music of Osceola Band they should speak out.

I have bought out the agency for the Wilmington Steam Laundry from Hugh Sheppard. I shall continue to send it off every Wednesday morning. You are requested to leave your bundle at W. T. Lee & Co's store. FRANK SKINNER.

Store Broken Into.

Mr. W. J. Manning's store over at Parker's Cross Roads, about a mile and a half from Greenville was broken into last night and a quantity of whiskey drawn from barrels as well as other goods stolen.

Mr. Manning went to the store this morning and found the lock to the side door broken and the door prized open. This is the second or third time his store has been robbed in the past three months.

Crazed by Her Love.

A young lady from Greensboro was sent to the hospital at Morganton last night. Her story is a sad one. She had a lover and it is said that he had apparently been a devoted one for more than a year. They were to have been married two weeks ago last Tuesday, but as the hour arrived a note was handed her which ran thus: "I am gone. I love another. Good-bye."

All efforts of her father and mother and of loving friends to draw her mind from the faithless lover were in vain and from hours and days of brooding, reason was overthrown.—Winston Sentinel.

One Boy Killed Another.

Monday afternoon near Whichard, in Carolina township, a 7-year-old colored boy murdered his 5-year-old playmate. The particulars as telephoned to THE REFLECTOR are that several children had gathered at the house of a colored man named William Chauncy, the grown people all being off at work. Gus Chauncy, aged 7 years, and Elijah Wilson, aged 5 years, fell out about something when Gus went in the house and got his father's gun and shot Elijah. The load tore the top of Elijah's head off, killing him instantly.

Some investigation was made of the matter, but the boy was deemed too young to put in jail. He said he did not know the gun was loaded. His father was not in the habit of keeping it loaded but lent it out a few days ago and it was carried back loaded.

LAND SALE.

By virtue of a decree of the Superior Court of Pitt county in the case of W. M. Lang and others against Jason Joyner and wife Annie Joyner, petition to sell land for division, the undersigned Commissioner will sell for cash before the Court House door in Greenville on Monday the 17th day of Sept. 1900, the following described piece, parcel or lot of land situated in the town of Farmville N. C. Beginning at W. G. Lang's store lot at a post on Wilson St. and running South 40 1/2 west 5 poles and 6 links to a post on W. C. Lang's line, thence S. 46 1/2 East 4 poles and 10 links to a post in Eli Williams' line, then North 40 1/2 East 5 poles and 10 links to a post on Wilson St. thence with said street North 47 1/2 West 4 poles and 12 links to the beginning, known as the livery stable lot.

F. G. JAMES, Commissioner.
 This Aug. 14 1900.

Laurinburg and Maxton both report receipt of new cotton during the past week. This breaks all previous records for new cotton in this State.
