RURAL FREE DELIVERY.

Will Be Petitioned for in This County.

A representative number of our people assembled in the Court House, Monday evening, to confer with Congressman John H. Small relative to the establishment of rural free delivery mail service in this county. Mr. Small explained what the system is and how it is carried on, and pointed out some of the benefits it would bring to the people served by a rural free delivery route, as well as to the town
from which the route is distributed.

He said that according to his knowledge, Pitt county presented
the best situation, topographically, for such a service of any county, in this Congressional district, and that it had better average roads
the year through than any other of the counties. At the same time, he said, Pitt had about the poorest
mail facilities, according to size
and population, of any other county. It is to improve these conditions that prompted him to look into the matter of giving us better
mail facilities.

After discussing the matter and answering numerous questions, he asked for a sense of the meeting
upon the establishment of the rural free delivery. All were of the opinion that we should petition for it. A committee was appointed to decide upon the number of routes and location, to prepare and circulate the necessary petition and forward the same to Congressman Small to be submitted by him to the postal officials. The committee consists of Messrs, A. L.
Blow, E. A. Moye, R. W. King,
J. J. Perkins, G. M. Mooring and G. T. Tyson. These gentlemen will begin their work at once and they should have the co operation of all people in the county.

Our people appreciate the efforts of Congressman Small in this direction.

Fight near Rountree Church.

We learn this morning of a fight which occurred Monday on Mr. Henry Tripp's place near Rountree's church, between Mr. Henry Tripp, and Mr. Frank Tuton. It seems that Mr. Tuton in company with another man was working in Mr.
Tripp's field, when Mr. Tripp came up and began using unsulting languages toward Mr. Tuton, and started back toward his house when Mr. Tuton cut him twice with a knife. Mr. Tripp then went to the house and got his gun and came back and shot Mr. Tuton, who in the meantime had gotten
over the fence into the road, twice, one load taking effect in the leg and the other in the hip. Mr. Tuton was taken home and attended to by a doctor. Mr. Tripp's cut did not prove so serious.

WASHINGTON LETTER

From Our Regular Correspondent.
 WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 27 1900.

If Mr. McKinley has no understanding with the powers operating in China, his actions are difficult to explain. Although advised by some of the longest headed men in his party, including the U. S. minister to China, to take advantage of the opportunity to withdraw our troops from China, now that the American citizens who were in peril are safe, and leave those nations which are hungry for Chinese territory to settle the squabble among themselves, he has declined to do so. Several days ago, when it was announced that all the troops now on the way to China would be sent to Manila it was thought that he intended to follow that advice; but within forty-eight hours it has been officially announced that the troops in China would be kept there, and since then, the significant announcement was made that the troops which would go to Manila would not go to take the place of volunteers to be sent home, but to reinforce them, and that no troops are to be sent home, until further notice. If that doesn't indicate an intention on the part of Mr. McKinley to play a further hand in the Chinese game, what does it indicate?

Now that it has been authentically announced that ex-Senator Gorman, now at Saratoga, will return to Maryland about the middle of September and take an active part in the campaign until election day, those republicans who have been actively circulating stories of his lukewarmness towards Bryan and Stevenson, must feel that they are very clumsy liars. It has never been doubted in Washington that Mr. Gorman would do his full duty towards the party that has honored him in the past and that is likely to honor him in the future.

Evidence continues to multiply showing that Illinois will be found in the democratic column this year. After expressing his opinion to that effect, Mr. W. H. Broad, of Chicago, said: "There are a number of reasons for believing this, but I am convinced that opposition to imperialism will have a greater influence in the undoing of the republicans than any of the other issues. There is a big German vote in Illinois, especially in Chicago, and the Germans, almost to a man, are opposed to the imperialistic policy of the present administration. There is also a very bitter factional fight among Illinois republicans, and although it doesn't come much to the surface the feeling is so strong that it will be impossible for them to make a progressive and harmonious campaign in the State. Opposition to the trusts will also lose the republican ticket a good many votes, and with the labor troubles in Chicago and all the suffering that has resulted from them, the republican orators will find it difficult to convince the workingmen there that the country is blessed with an over-abundance of prosperity."

That the democratic leaders are thoroughly posted on what the republicans are doing and are meeting every republican move, is made apparent by the following remarks of one of them: "Against the prosperity statistics which are being manufactured by the Census Bureau, we will place some hard facts which indicate that many classes of men who have to depend on their labor for a living are not prosperous. Take for instance the anthracite coal miners. The coal trust has cut down the number of work days so that miners are expected to live on three days work a week. This means that they can barely exist. In New England, some of the cotton mills are shut down and others are running on half time. The silk mills of New Jersey are running on short time, and one of the big silk manufacturing companies has, within the last week, gone into bankruptcy. We are looking for the 'scare' which the republicans have intimated they will give the country, that attention may be called to the money question. It may come at any time, and the small volume of trading in Wall street indicates a fear there that a money squeeze may be impending. When the West begins the moving of its crops and calls upon the East for money to do it with, and if coincidentally, a Russian or any other European loan should be placed, making drafts upon our gold supply, a very little artificial encouragement would produce the 'scare' which I think the republicans contemplate."

Utilizes Corn Stalks.

Mr. T. J. Davis, of Charlotte, traveling inspector of machinery for the cotton oil along the Atlantic coast, left to-day, after a few days spent in this city. Mr. Davis conducts a model farm near Charlotte, and has excelled the average planter in devising a plan by which corn stalks can be utilized as feed. He cuts down the stalks whole and throws them into a machine, which tears them into bits. The resulting product makes excellent feed, but when steamed and mixed with a little corn or cotton seed oil meal it makes an unexcelled food for horses, mules and cattle. We were shown a manure bale of the food. It smells sweet and fragrant, and certainly ought to prove inviting to equine and bovine appetites.—Wilmington Dispatch.

A Few Points for the Guidance of Hosts and Guests.

The house itself may be helpful in making visitors feel at home. We should have nothing too fine for comfort, and welcome our friends in rooms made homelike by our daily use.

It is well to have easy rules about breakfast. It is customary to give one's guest the option of having tea or coffee, rolls and fruit sent to their rooms, or of joining the family.

No hostess apologizes for any guest. All are on the same social plane while under her roof, and should receive equal consideration.

It is a disputed point whether host or guest should suggest retiring for the night. It relieves visitors of embarrassment to know the ways of household, and a readiness to comply with them is a mark of politeness.

It shows no lack of cordiality to refrain from urging friends to extend their visit. They probably have other pleasant plans, and a hostess may be asking a great favor when she fancies she is conferring one.

Experienced entertainers recommend that the men should generally spend their mornings together and women enjoy each others society. All meet at luncheon.

Hosts and guests meet in the drawing or living room before the meals. Not less than five, nor more than fifteen, minutes should be allowed for all to assemble.

Every guest should be made to feel that his or her presence has added to the pleasure of the entertainment, and conferred a personal gratification upon the hosts.

A prompt expression of gratification in remembering the visit, at once, upon returning home, is an evidence of good breeding.

A guest should hold sacred anything that may be learned of the family life or the peculiarities of any member of the household where hospitality has been accepted.

Visitors should fall in readily with any plan proposed for their pleasure, showing a disposition to be easily amused and interested, but must not seem dependent for amusement.—Mrs. Burton Kingsland, in the September Ladies' Home Journal.

Pulling Down People.

People in too many communities waste their time in making faces. They will wreck their own interests in injuring some one else. They permit envy and jealousy to blind their judgement and dominate their actions. To build up a town people must pull together, not pull down. In private business they must complete. In public business they must co-operate. Any other policy is silly and suicidal, and is the evidence of a small mind. New communities stand together better than old ones, in which are animosities of long standing, social and professional rivalries and deep-seated grudges. Hence, the older residents very frequently become bigoted and stubborn and mean, and first-class funerals become public blessings.—Orange Va., Observer.

As an experiment the University of Missouri this year organized a summer course in agriculture mainly for the benefit of persons who were ambitious so become instructors at agricultural experiment stations or to take charge of large ranches in the West. The attendance has exceeded expectations, showing the desire of the young men of that section of the country to master the science of farming. As agriculture has been added to the course of study in many of the public schools in the West, there is a demand for competent teachers who are practical farmers with a scientific training.

Miss Hettie Bryant, of Grindool, who has been visiting Miss Queenie McGowan returned home this morning.

Mrs. Dicey Jones and granddaughters, Misses Mamie and Lena King, have moved from Farmville to Greenville.

W. H. Cox, of Kinston, took the train here this morning for New York, to purchase fall goods for his store in Kinston.

Simple Questions.

The beginning of the new primer have been made by one of our exchanges. The questions may be indefinitely continued by teacher and pupil.

"See the corn in the field. Can the corn walk?"

"No; the corn stalks."

"See the pretty cake. Does the cake stalk?"

"Never. But you should see a cake walk."

"I have a rope. Can the rope walk?"

"Yes, if it is taught."

"The hen is in the garden. Does the hen rise?"

"No; the hen sets."

"The mercury is in the tube. Will the mercury set?"

"No, my child. Wait until July and see."

Ads Are Necessary.

Nearly every person in business should advertise in the newspapers. City populations rapidly, and old residents frequently change their locations. Moreover, business has become specialized. There are dentists who do not draw teeth, lawyers who do not go into Court, etc. To learn where to make purchases or where to engage professional or other services one must either consult the advertising columns of the newspapers or make inquiries at random at the risk of receiving doubtful information. Newspaper announcements save both the people and the advertisers loss of time.—Philadelphia Record.

Goods Selling Like Wild Fire!

The great markets like New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore have been searched for Bargains and we have them. We are going to sell for less money than anybody else. Why? Because we buy more goods than any other store in town and get larger discounts; and we sell for the smallest possible margin of profit, depending on a large volume of business and no rents to pay.

OUR MOTTO: Underbuy and Undersell. CASH Over the Counter and No Rents to Pay.

FARMVILLE NOTES.

What That Thriving Town is Doing.

EDITOR REFLECTOR: I will endeavor to give to the readers of THE REFLECTOR some of the history and doings of our little town.

Just a few years ago there were only two stores in the place in which there was much business done. Now there are five in which general merchandise is being sold, and there is a good business done in all of them. Two more dry goods stores will be opened here this fall. There are three grocery stores, one coach shop, two soda fountains, one hotel, one high or preparatory school, three churches, one barber shop, a nice sample room and several other places of interest.

R. L. Davis & Bros. have just moved into their large new brick store. These gentlemen have done a fine business for several years, and sell more goods now than ever before.

T. L. Turnage, of Dongola, is hauling material to be used in building a large brick store here, and he aims to use the trowel on the building in a few days. Mr. Turnage has been in the merchandise business for many years, and he bids fair to be one of the first merchants in our town.

W. G. Lang, one of the most energetic and best business men of Pitt county, did business here many years, and after having been faithful to his fellowmen so long, retired from the merchandise business and gave his place to his worthy son, W. M. Lang, who is a man of energy and fine business qualities. Mr. Lang does a very good business which is steadily increasing.

M. T. Horton sells right many goods and is also owner and manager of the hotel here

W. C. Askew commenced selling groceries here about five years ago on a very small scale. Since then he has grown to be one of our best merchants.

A stock company has, this summer, built a very pretty and mod-
