WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Sept., 5th.

The A. G. Cox Mfg. Co., have commenced shipping their fall supply of Back Bands and Cart Saddles. The demand at this season for this line of goods is unusually great, especially down in the Wilmington and Morehead City sections. It is amazing how the Economic Back Band and Cart Saddle have grown in public favor. Only a few years ago they were thrown on the market and very few of them were sold, but to-day hundreds upon hundreds of them are sent out from the factory. They are cheap, simple of construction and very durable and wherever tried and known are very popular.

The Winterville High School opened its fall session under circumstances most gratifying indeed. Beside the large number present on the first day many boys and girls from a distance have engaged board for the term and these will be greatly added to by others from the surrounding country. Prof. Lineberry is "All Smiles to-day Love," "And there are no clouds in the Sky," in fact we are all smiling.

The man who smokes,
And does not smoke
A Winterville cigar?
Is like a man
Who does not know
That this is the Fall of the year,

Just simply behind the times. Messrs. Moyer and Kittrell are now prepared to do ginning for the public. They are both good men and will treat all fairly who have dealings with them.

W. B. Wingate, of the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co., is spending the week at Morehead.

Miss Lucy Jenkins, of Bethel, is visiting Mrs W. M. Dixon.

W. M. Dixon has accepted a position as section master on the railroad.

J. C. Lanier, of Greenville was here yesterday.

SEEN AND HEARD IN WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, N. C., Sept. 3rd.
A negro was killed at Pantego on the 2nd, about 3 p. m. The killing was claimed as accidental but there were three shots fired, and the man shot ran around and endeavored to shield himself behind another man. The murdered man was shot in the head and lived about forty minutes, and his statement was that the killing was intentional.

The three young men of whom we wrote, Skipper, Cozzen and Swindell, were not drowned as feared, but were taken off by another craft, and came in all right.

JIM NASTIC.

Brought Home for Burial.

The remains of Mrs Eugene Tucker, who died last Saturday in Baltimore, reached here Tuesday evening. The burial took place this afternoon near the home of Mr. W. H. Tucker, two miles south of Greenville.

Arthur Sewell, of Maine, who was the Democratic candidate for Vice President in 1896, is critically ill. He was taken with apoplexy Monday night and at last accounts had not gained consciousness.

Senator Pritchard has been elected chairman of the Republican Executive Committee of the State to succeed A. E. Holton, resigned. He will continue the headquarters at Greensboro, but it is not said whether the negro, Abe Middleton, will be in charge.

S. C. Burdett, who was first assistant United District Attorney for the district of West Virginia, has resigned his position and declared his intention of taking the stump in advocacy of Bryan for President. His action has astounded Republicans in his State.

A Great Discovery.

Some of the newspapers have discovered that the race question is forever settled in North Carolina. They have penetrating optics. So far as the amendment is concerned, it does not go into effect before twenty-two months more have passed. If the pugnacious republicans can possibly prevent it, it will never go into effect. It is a powerful and far reaching law to settle the most vexing question of this age in so far as the south is concerned—the question of illiterate Sambo and his vote—and nearly two years before it begins operating as a law. What a pity it was not tried long ago. It would "from many a blunder" have freed North Carolina. The race question is settled, quoth the Solomons for all time. So do not dare henceforth to make any reference to the history of negro rule in North Carolina for thirty years, and tread gingerly when McKinley is named and do not make any reference to his appointments of negro officials in the south and particularly in Eastern North Carolina. It is cruel to wound his very tender sensibilities and it is a great crime to say ought of 27 negro postmasters for North Carolina, seven of whom are known here to have been rogues. The "race question is settled." If true fire an hundred rounds by all the military and let the people rejoice in mighty shoutings.—Wilmington Messenger.

The Democratic campaign committee has taken up the argument advanced by the Republicans that the farmer is prospering under Republican rule and turned it about to show that in reality he pays more for everything because of the trusts. Here are the points made by the committee:

It requires 50 per cent. more wheat to buy a stove than it did in 1896.

It requires 20 bushels more corn to buy a wagon than in 1896.

It requires 100 per cent. more corn or wheat to buy a copper kettle than in 1896.

It requires twice as much corn to buy a coil of rope as in 1896.

It requires 40 per cent. more grain to buy a plow than in 1896.

It requires 75 per cent. more grain to buy a hoe, a rake or a shovel than in 1896.

A set of common wheels that cost $7 in 1896 now cost $12.

The price of cultivators and other farm implements has gone up proportionately.

Galvanized barbed wire costs from $4 to $4.50 per hundred more than in 1896.

It requires 40 per cent. more corn or cotton to buy a pound of sugar than in 1896.

You have to pay 40 per cent. more for glass than in 1896.

Freight rates have climbed back to the exorbitant figures of a few years ago.

The price of oil, coal, lumber, tools and hardware has gone up from 40 to 100 per cent.

And all these things have been done by trusts.

A trust robs you walking or sleeping, eating or drinking, working or resting, living or dying and the coffin trust gets you in the end.

Central Carolina Fair

An occasion to which a great many people in North Carolina are looking forward with interest is the Central Carolina Fair, to be held in Greensboro on October 9th-12th. It will be one of the biggest fairs ever held in the South, and will be attended by many thousand people.

The officers and directors of the Central Carolina Fair Association are among the leading men of North Carolina. They are receiving the enthusiastic support of the business men of the State, and neither money nor pains will be spared to make the fair a complete success.

It is impossible to enumerate the attractions of the week. Suffice it to say that there will be interesting and entertaining features on each of the four days. The exhibits will be full and complete, embracing everything seen at an up-to-date fair or exposition, while the very latest attractions will be secured for the "Midway."

For those who are fond of such sport there will be horse racing on each of the four days of the fair. The purses are the largest ever offered in North Carolina, and a number of the fastest and most noted horses in the country will be there.

All the railroads will offer greatly reduced rates, which will enable every one to attend. The rates will be as low as were ever offered.

The people of progressive Greensboro will do everything in their power to make the occasion a memorable one in the history of the State. Every visitor will be cordially welcomed and assured of a pleasant time.

Broke up the Courtship.

Columbia, Sept. 3.—W. Taber Earle, a restaurant keeper at Seneca, has been paying attention to Emma Gaines, a young woman living several miles from the town. The girl's family objected and the couple met clandestinely, Earle riding into the country on his bicycle, and Emma meeting him in a picturesque spot on the Seneca river, near her home. Earle disappeared Saturday, all traces of him being lost. Some one saw him and the girl together that day and the girl was arrested. She at first denied knowing about Earle's whereabouts, but finally confessed that her two brothers and her brother-in-law, Robt. H. Sims, had secretly followed her Saturday and come upon Earle and herself by the river. Despite the entreaties of her lover, the men proceeded to shoot him to death. This done, they tied his body to his bicycle, added a stone for weight and threw it into the river.

The woman took the officers to the spot and the body and bicycle were fished up. Her brothers threatened to kill her if she gave information. The young men have been arrested.

Diamond Shoals Lightship on Duty Again.

Diamond Shoals Lightship No. 69 steamed past Cape Henry at nightfall to resume her station off Cape Hatteras. She guards the most dangerous spot on the Atlantic coast. She has undergone extensive repairs since she was in the frightful storm a year ago. She parted her great chains and despite her steam power was blown high and dry upon the beach. She has been here a week taking on the large supply of stores and fuel she must carry, because in time of storm weeks may elapse during which no vessel may safely approach her side.—Norfolk, Va., Dispatch, 1st.

A "Bread Factory."

A bread factory, being erected in Milwaukee, is to have some novel, but very desirable, sanitary features. All the ingredients are to be tested in a laboratory before being used. The baker will work in full view of the public, at long tables stationed in front of wide plate glass windows. Each man will be required to wear a special suit of clothes provided by the management, and to take at least one bath a day in the bath room that is connected with the lockers on the upper floor. Moreover, he may not smoke, chew or drink and be a worker in the bread factory. This sanitation is to extend even beyond the limits of the factory, for every loaf of bread on being taken from the oven will be wrapped in a sheet of waxed paper and so sent out to the market.

The platform on which Mr. Bryan was speaking at Electric Park, Chicago, gave way, causing a panic and stampede among the crowd of people on it. "This can't be a Democratic platform. There are no bad planks in that," jokingly said Mr. Bryan. His coolness arrested the panic.

While no official announcement has yet been made it is said the census figures corrected indicate that the United States has a population of nearly 80,000,000.

WINE OF CARDUI

WOMEN WHO WORK.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 12.
 Though only 19 years old, I suffered from pains and female troubles two years. Last spring I got so bad I had to quit work. I had to support myself, and could not afford a high-priced doctor. I got one bottle of Wine of Cardui and that made me feel better. Have now used several bottles and am well. My mother used the Wine for Change of Life and was greatly relieved.
MISS MARGARET WALSH.

Many girls and women find it necessary to earn their own living in various kinds of employment. Their work is often so hard and confining that the health breaks down. Their delicate constitutions are unfitted for tiresome tasks. Weakness nearly always makes its appearance in the peculiarly delicate womanly organs. Constant standing on the feet, and coming and going at the beck of a superintendent or foreman, induces falling of the womb, leucorrhoea, headache and backache. The pay of women workers is often so notoriously small that when sickness comes they have no money to engage skillful physicians. To them Wine of Cardui is truly a blessing. It cures them of their ills at a small cost, and they can act as their own physicians. No doctor can do as much for "female troubles" as Wine of Cardui.

Norris White, of Greensboro, arrived Tuesday evening to visit his brother H. A. White.

Mrs. M. E. Norman, of Plymouth, arrived Tuesday evening to visit her son, J. S. Norman.

Mrs. Brown, representing the Orphan's Friend, of Oxford, spent today here canvassing for the paper.

D. A. Bodenhamer, the double battery auctioneer from Danville, spent today on the Greenville tobacco market.

Miss Bessye Patrick left this morning for Durham to resume her studies of music at the Durham Conservatory.

Mrs. W. F. Burch and two children left this morning for Baltimore to visit her mother, Mrs. E. M. Williams.

Mrs. J. W. Quinerly and daughter, Miss Helen, of Ayden, came up this morning to spend the day with Mrs. F. C. Harding.

Mrs. S. B. Wilson and daughter, Miss Nanne, and two of the little sons of W. B. Wilson, left this morning to visit relatives at Conetoe.

J. R. Moyer and C. M. Jones returned Tuesday evening from the northern markets where they had been buying goods for J. B. Cherry & Co.

It Was a Treat

The Osceola Band was out Tuesday night giving a serenade with their new instruments. Those with an ear for music could readily distinguish the difference in tone of the new instruments. The boys also have several new selections of music which they played on the serenade. Now the folks see what the band can do, and the boys.

"Stop This Horse"

A colored boy was riding a horse bareback in from tobacco town this morning. The boy could not hold the horse and the animal came running through Dickison avenue and Evans street, the boy hollering for every jump "stop this horse." The boy meant his cry, too, and he was lucky enough to stick on the back of the horse, so escaped unhurt.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina.

Jim Moore, a colored youth aged 18 or 19 years, was accidentally shot back of the left ear and killed last night about 10 o'clock on Wrightsville Sound by Morgan Spencer, a negro about the same age, who returning with a party of colored boys from a camp meeting at the school house near Marshburn's store was carelessly handling a pistol which he carried in his pocket.—Wilmington Star.

The political complexion of the next Legislature, which assembles in January, 1901, is as follows: Senate, thirty-nine Democrats, eight Republicans and three Populists. House of Representatives, one hundred Democrats, eighteen Republicans and two Populists.—Wilmington Star.

At Greene county court, Judge Fred Moore, presiding, Isaac Harris, a negro, was tried, convicted and sentenced to 15 years in prison for an attempt to assault Mrs. Suggs. Lynching of the rascal at the time was only averted by the coolness of some of the leading citizens.

Goods Selling Like Wild Fire!

The great markets like New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore have been searched for Bargains and we have them. We are going to sell for less money than anybody else. Why? Because we buy more goods than any other store in town and get larger discounts; and we sell for the smallest possible margin of profit, depending on a large volume of business and no rents to pay.

Messrs. Higgs & Taft,
Greenville, N. C.

Gentlemen.
We wish to thank you for your order of a complete carload of our Stoves and Ranges. The "Great White Enamel Line" is evidently in favor with the Greenville people and if the demand increases, as it has in the past, we may expect to send you a train load in the near future.

A good cook is the best judge of a stove or range and we must believe that from the intelligence shown in selecting their cooking and heating apparatus, the housewives of Pitt County know that Buck's Stoves and Ranges are best for every purpose, and we believe that they cannot be fooled into buying "Cheap John" goods that have only the recommendation of cheap first cost.

Don't forget to impress upon your customers that our 5 year and 15 year guarantee is made in good faith and you may back it with your own reputation. Wishing you an abundant fall and winter trade, we remain, Yours truly,
