"THE WHITE DOE."

Rendered by Mrs. Cotten Tuesday Night.

An excellent representative audience gathered at the opera house Tuesday night to hear Mrs. Cotten read her poem, as had been announced, and the entertainment from opening to finish was enjoyed by every one present.

Miss Woolford, of Maryland, opened with a vocal selection of unusual sweetness, and was encored with enthusiasm, as was Mrs. Travis Hooker who is always heard with pleasure.

Mrs. Cotten was briefly introduced by Mrs. Jarvis and after reading an historical synopsis of the real and mystic traditions of her subject, began the recitation of her carefully and tastefully executed poem. As a lecturer Mrs. Cotten is a decided success, her manner easy and unaffected, and her voice scarcely raised from its natural tone could be distinctly heard throughout the hall. The poem, as we have before stated, is one of marked excellence and places Mrs. Cotten squarely along side our oldest literary workers. We shall be glad to see the poem published and finding its place in every reading household in North Carolina.

When Mrs. Cotten had taken her seat Mr. Hugh Holcomb, who was at his best, sang to the great delight of his many admirers.

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Sept., 26th.

The A. G. Cox Mfg. Co., are offering inducements to all who are in need of wagons, carts, back bands cart-saddles, any and everything manufactured by them. It will be very much to the interest of any one in need of this class of goods to consult with them.

Winterville way down in her heart feels sorry for her neighboring sister towns, Greenville and Ayden, who are complaining so bitterly of their hard lot in being unable to get enough to eat. We are all right down here, plenty to eat, plenty money and all the pretty girls you want to look at. We are all contented and jolly people. The good Lord always provides for his own. By the sweat of his brow shall man live and prosper.

On last Saturday and Sunday our town was just overflowing with most beautiful, fascinating and charming young ladies. Seemingly they came from every quarter and such a sight delighted for the eye to behold.

The young men of this place have purchased a foot ball. The result of the first day's frolic is a broken window for B. F. and a young man's pocket minus $2.25.

Those young ladies have forbidden us upon pain of forfeiting their eternal friendship, reporting any further conversations. So the general public need expect no news of that character in these columns again. We can't afford it.

A. G. Cox is still offering the highest cash prices for cotton seed. Miss Bessie Garris, who has been on a visit to the Miss Wesson returned home yesterday.

Mrs. Dr. Cox is visiting relatives near Littlefield.

G. W. Parker, who mentioned the fact through these columns that he had a cow and a heifer for sale, found a purchaser within less than a week. So much for advertising.

The Trend Toward Bryan.

The swing of popular sentiment is strongly toward Bryan. No man observant of what he sees about him can fail to recognize this fact. No amount of shouting for McKinley can obscure it. It is in the air. And seven weeks from today the vote will be cast that will determine the issue. Is it possible for the second term syndicate to halt the sweep of the pendulum in that time? Can all the forces which the Republican combination has at its call avail to check and turn the tide that is making for a change in dynasty?—Boston Post.

Strapped to The Pole.

Charlotte, N. C., Sept. 24.—Ike Jones, a negro lineman, met a horrible death here today by the snapping of a pole to which he was strapped. Jones was at the top of a 50-foot pole stringing new wires, when the pole snapped just at the ground, falling across the street with the helpless man strapped to it. The pole fell across the body of the negro whose back and shoulder were broken. Jones lived only an hour after the accident happened.

The postmaster at Palmyra has been removed for getting short in his accounts.

Dismal Swamp's Big Fire.

Fifteen thousand acres of timber land were destroyed by the fire which has been raging in Dismal Swamp for the past month. An investigation by agents of the company which recently bought the timber lands in the swamp, the Camp Manufacturing Company, of Franklin Va., and Albin, Fla., revealed the extent of the destruction. The fire is not yet out, but it is confined principally to small areas. Valuable pine and juniper trees are burned and shriveled and scorched as high as 80 feet from the marsh. The soil, which is something similar to peat, has been burned in places to a depth of several feet. Everything in the path of the fire is fringed with black. An estimate of the loss suffered by the Camp Company is out of the question. Bears, deer, wildcats and wolves have either sought safety by fleeing to the highlands or going further into the swamp. Within the past two weeks Southampton county, Va., and Hertford county, N. C. have been overrun with a peculiar kind of wolves, resembling coyotes, which have carried off several hundred head of sheep and hogs. It is believed now that these animals were driven from the swamp. Some of them have been captured and sent to zoological parks. Lake Drummond, a beautiful spot of the forest and on the route of the canal leading to North Carolina, has shrunk to much smaller proportions. Jericho Canal, leading to the lake, has gone dry and the lake can only be approached by foot on that side.

FALL ANNOUNCEMENT.

The fall season is again upon us. How fast the seasons come and go. It seems but a few days since we were advertising our spring and summer goods and now it is time to talk our winter wear and heavy clothing.

Before the hurry and rush of Fall business commences we want to say a word or two to our friends and we take this method of doing so. First, for favors of the past we wish to thank our patrons one and all. Never has a store tried harder to please its customers, and we realize that our efforts have been appreciated. No pains have been spared and nothing has been left undone to give our patrons the best clothing obtainable, for the lowest prices possible. That we always have what we advertise, and that we always do as we advertise, every customer of this store knows full well. We believe we earned your confidence by deserving it and we trust that our store shall ever have an abiding place in your mind when thinking of clothing.

Now at the opening of the Fall season we extend to every citizen of Pitt County an invitation to call and if pleased with our goods, our price and our business methods to favor us with his patronage. Our guarantee is nothing less than

Perfect Satisfaction

Or Your Money Refunded.

Let us occupy the first place in your thoughts when thinking of buying your fall and winter clothing.

Very truly yours,

ANOTHER ELECTION GUESS.

Estimates upon a result of an election, from anything like intelligent sources, are always entertaining, whatever one may think of their reliability, and one of the most interesting that has been given out in this campaign was published in The New York Herald of Sunday. The Herald says it got it from "a Republican leader, who is in close touch with the work and expectations of the Republican national committee," and that it "represents the latest estimate of the Republican campaign managers." It follows:

Electoral votes necessary to a choice 234.

Several things might be said of this table by a careful reader of newspapers of every shade of politics, and of no politics at all, and who, in addition of reading newspapers, keeps his ears open for everything that is to be heard. One of these is that all the states listed as Democratic will undoubtedly vote so. Another is that from present indications New York belongs more properly in the doubtful than in the surely Republican column; Platt claims it by 100,000 majority; Croker by 125,000, and Hanna says it is "dangerous." Illinois and West Virginia are fairly doubtful, though the chances favor the Republicans in both. Missouri is not a doubtful but a Democratic State, and one of The New York Herald's most careful and trusted men, who last week made a tour and observation of Maryland, says the Democrats have the better of it in that State. If we allow this calculation correct it would give McKinley 185 votes certain, Bryan 137 and raise the number of doubtful vote from 84 to 125.

It looks now as if the fight were in New York, Illinois and Indiana. All of which is respectfully submitted merely as a matter of human interest and for what it is worth.—Charlotte Observer.

Freak of a Cyclone.

Faribault, Minn., Sept., 24.—Meagre details have reached here of a terrible catastrophe which visited the village of Morristown, ten miles of here, shortly before 6 o'clock this evening. The village was struck by a cyclone and a barn was raised in the air and dropped directly on top of Paul Gatzke's saloon where 16 persons had taken refuge from the storm. The saloon collapsed and all the occupants were buried in the debris. Eight dead bodies and three injured persons were taken from the ruins.

A Few Maxims Applicable in the Present Day and Generation.

If you can't fool 'em one way try another. There's nothing like pluck even in a fool.

Some people are fools sometimes and sometimes they get fooled, but you can't fool all the people all the time—Lincoln never said a truer thing.

Looking wise, acting with secrecy and a wonderful display of wisdom sometimes fools school children, but men of mature wisdom and experience are never frightened thereby.

Stampeading a set of honest men may be attempted, but it never works and no good ever comes of the effort.

You can pull the wool over the public's eye, but won't stay there. The second attempt to do it is disastrous.

If you have an ax to grind don't exhibit it until you get the job done; you might get caught.

Sometimes a man gets caught when he don't even show his ax; his actions are too simple and like those of a child.

Above all, if you have fooled a few men, don't take it for granted that you can fool a whole town full of people; you'll slip up, though you may succeed in misleading a few good men at first.

Decayed Cities.

According to the census figures so far announced, the cities of Omaha and Lincolnton, Neb.; Sioux City, Ia. and Albany, N. Y., show a falling off in population since 1890 of 26.98, 21.17, 12.42, and 81 percent, respectively. The marked decline in the case of these western towns is surprising, as the greatest growth of the country is still supposed to be in the West, and we have seen no explanation of it except that the census was probably improperly taken or the returns were padded in 1890. Neither of these suggestions is wholly satisfactory, however. There is no apparent reason why there should have been greater fault of fraud in the case of the western towns than in that of others. We await further explanation with interest. The small decrease in the case of Albany was not unexpected.—Richmond Dispatch.

Galveston's census gain in ten years was wiped out in a single night.

WINE OF CARDUI

WOMEN WHO WORK.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 12.

Though only 19 years old, I suffered from pains and female troubles two years. Last spring I got so bad I had to quit work. I had to support myself, and could not afford a high-priced doctor. I got one bottle of Wine of Cardui and that made me feel better. Have now used several bottles and am well. My mother used the Wine for Change of Life and was greatly relieved.

MISS MARGARET WALSH.

Wine of Cardui

Many girls and women find it necessary to earn their own living in various kinds of employment. Their work is often so hard and confining that the health breaks down. Their delicate constitutions are unfitted for tiresome tasks. Weakness nearly always makes its appearance in the peculiarly delicate womanly organs. Constant standing on the feet, and coming and going at the beck of a superintendent or foreman, induces falling of the womb, leucorrhoea, headache and backache. The pay of women workers is often so notoriously small that when sickness comes they have no money to engage skillful physicians. To them Wine of Cardui is truly a blessing. It cures them of their ills at a small cost, and they can act as their own physicians. No doctor can do as much for "female troubles" as Wine of Cardui.

State Literary and Historical Society.

At a recent conference of gentlemen and ladies held in Raleigh it was determined to take steps for organization of a State Literary and Historical Association. The undersigned were appointed a Committee to prepare an address to the people of the State, setting forth briefly the purpose of such association and extending to all persons and organizations that may be interested an invitation to meet in the city of Raleigh on Tuesday night of Fair week, October 23rd prox., at 8 o'clock, in the auditorium of the Agricultural Building.

The chief purpose of this Association will be:

First, to promote the reading habit among the people of North Carolina.

Third, to collect and preserve historical material.

In carrying out these purposes the Association will hope to aid in the improvement of our public schools, in the establishment of public libraries, in the formation of literary clubs, in the collection and republication of North Carolina literature worthy to be preserved and now rapidly passing away, in the publication of an annual record or bibliography of North Carolina literary productions, in the collection of historical material and the foundation and of historical museum, and in the correction of slanders, misrepresentations and other injustice done our State.

Horse shoeing by a first-class white workman, at W. O. Barnhill's shop on Dickinson avenue. The trial of the colored woman for poisoning her husband, which commenced Tuesday morning, had not ended when we went to press this afternoon.

Tucker's Store Robbed

Sometime during Tuesday night the store of Mr. G. M. Tucker, five miles below Greenville, was robbed. One window of the store was broken open, through which the thieves made an entrance. The three money drawers in the store were ransacked and about $15 in cash secured. A large quantity of goods were also taken from the store. Blood hounds were taken down to put on the track, but we had not learned the result of the hunt at the time of going to press.

Fire Near Falkland.

Tuesday night the gin house of Mr. F. G. Dupree, near Falkland, together with a lot of cotton and tobacco in the building, was destroyed by fire. We could not learn how the fire originated nor the extent of the loss. Besides Mr. Dupree's personal loss one of his tenants lost all of his crop.

Cattle Ticks Again.

This morning a cattle dealer from Pitt county brought three cows that had been sold to A. Turner for beef. Two of them were accepted, but the third was literally covered with the poisonous ticks, which have recently annoyed the Edgecombe cattle-raisers so much. The animal could be seen this morning at Spragin's stables.—Tarboro Southern.
