REV. M. MOYE DEAD.

At his home in Wilson, N. C., on Monday evening, Oct. 1st, at 8:15 o'clock Rev. M. T. Moye passed away after an illness of about a month. He was a brother of our townsman, Mr. E. A. Moye, who was with him at the time of his death.

From the Wilson News we take the following sketch of the deceased:

Mr. Moye was born in October, 1827, in Pitt county, making him 73 years old. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Moye, his mother having been Mrs. Orpah Tyson. About 1859 Moye was married to Miss Penelope Whitehead, of Pitt, a daughter of Mr. Howell Whitehead.

Mr. Moye was a gallant soldier and saw service in the Civil war going into it from Pitt county as Lieutenant in the 7th Confederate Cavalry, and afterwards being promoted to captain. At the time of his death he was the chaplain of the Jesse S. Barnes Camp of Confederate Veterans of Wilson.

The deceased was one of the charter members of the Christian church in Wilson and for a number of years was its pastor. He graduated at Bethany College, in West Virginia and knew Alexander Campbell personally. He was the oldest preacher in the Christian church in the State, both in years and in service, having been a minister of that denomination for over forty years.

He was in business in Wilson at various times, having conducted a drug store and a cigar manufactory. At the time of his death he was pastor of the Christian church at Whitakers.

In August of last year his wife died and of his immediate family Mr. Moye leaves four daughters and one son, Mrs. U. H. Cozart, Misses Nellie, Susie and Fannie Moye and Mr. Alfred Moye. He has a number of relatives in this county and Pitt.

Mr. Moye was a most respected and esteemed citizen of Wilson, and at the funeral services conducted this afternoon at his late residence on Nash street there was a large attendance of the family who gathered to pay their last respects to the dead.

Glad they Like It.

The business men are telling us that they like THE REFLECTOR market reports. We hope they will show this by such a liberal patronage as will enable us to make still further additions to the usefulness of the paper.

Too Many Borrowers.

If every person in town who borrows THE DAILY REFLECTOR was a paying subscriber we could afford to print the afternoon press dispatches. Don't you borrowers see how you keep your town paper from being as useful as it otherwise might be?

Collision on The Avenue.

A young man in a cart driving carelessly along Dickinson Ave., Wednesday evening, collided with Mr. E. H. Shelburn's omnibus. One of the bus horses was knocked down and pulled the other horse over on him. The only damage was to the harness, which had to be cut to get the horses up.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina.

The State Museum lost $2,000 worth of articles in the burning of the North Carolina exhibit car.

The Government is now surveying the ship canal from Beaufort to Norfolk, so as to enable vessels to avoid the dangers of Cape Hatteras.

Auditor Ayer has finished revising the pension list and they are now being sent out. The list shows an increase of 224 over last year.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Rev. and Mrs. G. F. Smith pastor of Edenton Street Methodist Episcopal church, have the deepest sympathy of the members of his congregation and the community in the loss of their infant son, Wilson, which occurred about 11:30 o'clock last night, after a protracted illness.—Raleigh Post 3rd.

Tit For Tat.

A red-haired boy and a companion his own age sat in a secluded corner of a ferry boat and prepared to shorten their lives by indulgence in the cigarette habit.

"Please gimme a light, mister?" said the red-haired boy to a facetious man who sat near by.

"You don't need any light," was the reply, with a significant glance at the boy's top dressing.

With a scornful toss of the head the boy with the scenic hair promptly retorted: "Yes, an' dis boat don't need no bellows nor no hot air long's you're aboard."

The facetious man sought a seat elsewhere.—San Francisco Wave.

The Philadelphia Times is out in a strong editorial endorsing Bryan and Stevenson for President and Vice President. The Times has always been an independent Democratic paper, and four years ago it supported McKinley. It says while the policy of four years ago was dictated by good faith, it now sees the error of such policy and endorses the principles it believes to be right.

Price of Cotton.

If a hundred thousand dollar cotton mill can afford to shut down in order to get cheap cotton, a one horse cotton farmer can afford to shut down in order to prevent selling his cotton at a sacrifice.

The fight for low cotton by the spinners is on. They will win the fight if cotton farmers rush their cotton to market. If the farmers hold most of their cotton and keep down receipts, they will win their fight for high cotton. The price of cotton is largely based on comparative receipts; with small receipts the price will go up. If they let the cotton buying world see big receipts, the price will go down.

If the farmer sells his cotton for less than it is worth, his loss is complete and he is a permanent loser. If the cotton mill man has to pay what cotton is worth, he may be troubled for a few weeks, but he and his associates can put up the price of the product of the mill and suffer no permanent loss.

It is to the interest of the south to have this small crop of cotton bring its full value to the men whose soil has made it. Comfort at home and the education of the children are absolutely dependent on this. It is to the interest of the south for the mills to do well, to pay good prices for cotton and get good prices for their product. The motto is "Live and let live." Farmers: Hold part of your cotton if you wish to get its value.—Raleigh News and Observer.

How to Save School Children.

In the October Ladies Home Journal Edward Bok takes up the cudgel against the cramming methods inflicted on school-children, and urges as a step toward a reform of the abuse "that every parent who has a child at school will send a note to the teacher that, under no circumstances whatever, will the father and mother permit any home study by the child.

"This may seem to be a very simple thing to do," he contends, "but often the simplest things are the most effective. If the teachers of this country should, within the next month, receive thousands of notes from parents to the effect pointed out, which they could—and I can speak for hundreds of teachers when I say that they would gladly do so—hand to the heads of their schools, it would practically mean a readjustment of the entire system of study. This may be better understood when it is realized that the entire system of study during school hours in many of the schools is so arranged as to allow for some of the work to be done by the pupils at home. Let this taken for granted home study be stopped, and a change would at once have to be made. The studies at school cannot be increased in number, for already there are too many. The school hours cannot be lengthened because the tide has set in to shorten them. Hence some studies would have to be thrown out, if home study were eliminated. And this is the result desired."

The cotton growers of South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama has effected an organization, and it is said North Carolina and all the other cotton-growing States will be taken into the association the coming fall and winter, and that a strong compact organization will be perfected by the time cotton planting time comes again. This is just what our farmers have long needed, and all of them should heartily enter into the new association, which has no politics connected anywhere about it, so its promoters declare.

A highway robber met death quickly Saturday in Wayne county. He was a young white man named Herring, who with two negroes, waylaid a farmer, James Taylor, who was on his way home with several hundred dollars. Herring and the negroes sprang at Taylor, the negroes taking hold of the horse and buggy, while Herring attacked Taylor with a bludgeon. Taylor drew a knife and cut Herring's throat. The robber fell and his accomplices fled.

The State Board of education have just sold 1,000 acres of school land in Onslow and Jones counties for $26,500 to Charles Vedder of Philadelphia. The land has been in dispute between Vedder and other alleged heirs and the State, and the sale is virtually a compromise of the suit. It is swamp land and contains little timber. What use the purchaser will put it to is not known.

The War Department issued an order to General Chaffee designed to prevent looting, abuse of the Chinese, and to enforce the same discipline in China as is maintained in the United States.

Oscar F. Williams, who was Consul General of the United States at Manila when the Filipino insurrection broke out, says that in the maps of Europe which were used in the Filipino schools under the Spanish regime a large place in the centre of that Continent, usually occupying more than one half the page, was marked Spain; all the rest of the countries were scattered about the edge. Thus the young Filipino came to have a very distorted idea of the magnitude of the country of his oppressors. Even Aguinaldo was surprised to learn that America covers a greater area than Spain

His Ads Paid.

The success of the late C. T. Babbitt was due to two things above all others—he made an article that people wanted, and he advertised it in the newspapers until he convinced people that they wanted it. Every year for twenty years he put up an entire block of factory buildings to meet the demand created by his newspaper advertising. The experience of Mr. Babbitt is virtually the same as that of every other successful business man.—Philadelphia Record.

British May Seize Oom Paul.

London, Sept. 30th.—President Kruger is packing his possessions at Lourenzo Marques, preparatory to going to Europe, whither he will sail next week on the Dutch cruiser Gelderland.

Mrs. Kruger is very feeble, and probably will not accompany him. Admiral Harris, with a British fleet of swift cruisers, is waiting in the harbor, and there is much speculation as to what he will do when Kruger sails.

A Wake grand jury has indicted State Senator Franks for perjury, in that he went on the bond of one Justice, an Asheville lawyer who was arrested for stealing law books here, and who jumped his bail. Franks swore he was worth $50 above homestead, etc., but the return of the execution sent to his county (Swain) states that he is not and the bond money cannot be collected. Franks has been a prominent "fusionist" for several years.

In 1790 North Carolina had ten representatives in Congress. In 1800, it had twelve; in 1810-20 and 30, it had thirteen; in 1840 it was reduced to nine; in 1850 to 8; in 1860 to seven; in 1870 it had eight, and in 1880 and 1890 it had nine. If it had the number to which it is really entitled it would have had ten during all the past ten years.—Raleigh News and Observer.

This country was settled a good deal earlier than is generally supposed. They are discovering in Long island and thereabouts implements used by human beings, who, they say must have lived 40,000 years ago or thereabouts. These were the original Tammany fellows.—Wilmington Star.

It is said that Li Hung Chang is aging very rapidly. For an old chap past 80 he has managed the aging business pretty well, but a fellow whose wife totes around 4,000 dresses with her couldn't be expected to preserve perpetual youth.

Six New Cotton Mills.

New York, Oct. 2.—The Journal of Commerce's monthly review says that during September six cotton mills were about completed and expect to begin operations within sixty days. Five are to be started in Georgia and one in North Carolina. Eleven new mills were announced during the month, with an aggregate of 53,050 spindles and 500 looms. Their total capitalization is one million and forty five thousand dollars. This is a less number of spindles than any month since February of last year.
